sorry both cannot be nominated," said Senator Gorman, a few days before the primaries. Senator Lee expressed like sentiments concerning Mr. Gorman. They have been for years and still are warm per onal friends.

While the unofficial returns give Senator Arthur P. Gorman a plurality of one vote in the State convention, the same returns show that he carried the State on the popular vote by a plurality of 11,-

Each side showed a good deal of determination to win-and win fairly. Now both sides are together and the determination is doubled-and there can be but one certain result!

As we predicted, the Democrats of State and county are solidly behind the candidates they chose-and they will surely elect them.

It is now pretty well settled that the next Democratic national convention will be held in Baltimore.

To reject the right of the rule of a majority would be to reject Democracy's first principle. ____
