Thereupon the said Robert Carvile came into Court and acknowledged himselfe to owe & stand indebted to the Rt. Hon.ble the Lord Proprietary in the sum of fifty pounds sterling to be levyed of his lands tenements goods & chattels for his good abearance during the pleasure of the said Lord Proprietary — & for his appearance at the next Court

Then appeared Thomas Carvile of St. Maries County planter according to his recognizance last provinciall Court and it is ordered by the Court that he find new security to appeare at next provinciall Court now following and be of good abearance in the interim time — came the said Thomas Carvile and John Turner of St. Maries County planter his security and the said Thomas Carvile did acknowledge himselfe to owe unto the Lord Proprietary the sum of fifty pounds sterling and the said John Turner the like sum of fifty pounds sterling to be levyed on the lands tenements goods & chattels of them or either of them respectively if the said Thomas Carvile shall not make his personall appearance at the next provinciall Court and in the interim be of good abearance towards his Lordship and all his good people of this province — this is upon Saturday the first for scandalous words &c.

Benjamin Harrison being discharged by proclamation yet notwithstanding he was committed to the custody of the Sheriffe of St. Maries County untill he find security for his appearance next Prov. Court & abearance in the meane time —
