WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Truman Renews Pledge of Support Of Safe Plan' for Atomic Curbs; Attlee Charts British Saving Plan

(EDITOR'S NOTE! When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

MAKES BID FOR STEEL PEACE . . . Cyrus Ching (facing camera) director of the U.S. mediation service, is surrounded by newsmen as he arrived from Washington to make another effort for settlement of the paralyzing steel strike. These conferences were described as "exploratory," although Ching later reported that the situation was "not hopeless."

Norway Reports Progress

In Atomic-Energy Study

scientific research.

ment for atomic research.

relations and food subsidies.

DARIEN - Harassment by Chi-

Communists had forced clos-

this Russian-controlled city to Seoul. The U.S. attaches ist policies prevented their

the reported Commu-

s at five of Hawaii's ordered its ro back

would seem to make it.

More Austerity

TRUMAN:

Supports A-Curbs

"To assure that atomic energy will be devoted to man's welfare and not to his destruction is a continuing challenge to all nations and all peoples."

In those words, President Truman pledged his support to any safe and effective plans that would outlaw the atomic bomb.

THE PRESIDENT spoke at a ceremony in which the United Nalaid the cornerstone for its permanent headquarters in New York city.

Truman called the cornerstone rites "an act of faith — our ENGLAND: unshakable faith that the United Nations will succeed."

trol of weapons is essential to a Great Britain from its financial White House." U. S. policy has been a system of lars annually. He also ordered a year or so that have laid an egg." energy that would assure effective | imports. and at the same time would promote the peaceful use of atomic the British people.

HE ENDORSED anew the Bernard Baruch control plan which was rejected by Russia.

The chief point of disagreement between western powers and Rusbeen insistence by the West on an that nations would keep their ture and increase production," he ton's efficial family. pledges to outlaw the bombs. Rus-

WORLD FRONT:

Spotty Picture

The world picture was spotty as even more scarce. Gasoline and No Poll, Please! international developments became some food items would cost more. increasingly confusted. Washing- They would have to pay a 14-cent ton development intensified the fee for medicines they were getting tension between the U.S. and Rus- | free under the national health proin the cold war, British and U. gram. aders were beginning to split of recognizing the leave the British alone at Hong Red conquering govern- Kong and promise to respect their

FARM FAIR:

World's Biggest

wants to grow bigger potatoes to prize-winning Hereford, is on the agenda of the Canadian Royal Winter Fair slated for Toronto's coliseum November 15 to November 23, omitting Sunday.

IN ADDITION there will be a complete display of the latest wrinkles in farm machinery and 19-25. aids to more profitable operation.

The Royal Winter Fair has long been recognized as the world's largest agricultural exhibition staged under one roof. Sponsored by Canadian federal, grain and agricultural associations, the competitions carry with them many world championship awards.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in 20 years, competition in the seed and grain divisions will be thrown open to any grower in the world and thus will award the winner world championship honors. Some 10,000 prize ribbons together with thou-awards will be handed out. machines and a host of things interesting to women are always features of Canada's top winter fair.

GEN. VAUGHAN:

'Shock Absorber'

It was interesting to note the multiple interpretations Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, White House aide, Norway was getting along rather was applying to his position of enwell with atomic research, accord- tertainer, aide and personal confiing to a report by the council for | dant of President Harry Truman.

AT A DINNER given by fellow The report said drilling for Democrats in Washington, Gen. uranium in Setesdal valley had Vaughan, linked with the capital's been successful, and underground "5 per centers" and mysterious pared with the picture they make operations had started with a crew John Maragon, one-time White of Jesus. House hanger-on, portrayed himself in a new light. The country's first atomic pile

He is, he said, a "shock abis being built near Oslo, and three sorber," as it were, as well as a TSAIAH 53 has been in the center universities have received equip-'part of the scenery" at the White the throat," he went on, "but I | through the New Testament. It was might as well earn my pay by be- in the back of the minds of Paul The President declared that con- In a drastic effort to rescue in a shock absorber . . . at the and John and Peter alike. This since the first atomic bomb was Attlee charted an economic course tions," he said. "We've had so opaque blot-the death of Christ. developed, a major objective of designed to save 784 million dol- many investigations in the last international control of atomic cut of 400 million dollars in dollar He pointed out that when administration critics complain about prohibition of atomic weapons . . . THUS did the prime minister "trivial things," it's a healthy sign

they can complain about." The savings effected, or hoped to THE "TRIVIAL THINGS" to be effected, would result from lop- which the general referred were ping off spending for national de- | charges that certain Washington fense, capital investments, public figures with "influence" could swing government contracts and church sings, "In the cross of sia on atomic energy control has Attlee presented a quick, graphic favors where they wished for a Christ I glory." . . . "Love so interpretation of what was pro- "5 per cent" fee, gifts of deep amazing, so divine, demands my posed. "We must reduce expendi- freezers to members of Washing- soul, my life, my all."

told the house of commons. But it | The general's personal popularsia wouldn't hold still for that pro- wasn't as simple as the formula ity continued unimpaired. He and Mrs. Vaughan were elected hon-To the already austerity-weary orary vice-presidents of the Dis-Britons it meant that many of the | trict of Columbia Democratic club goods for which they now have to stand in line for hours would be LEOPOLD:

Former Belgian premier Paul Henri Spaak wanted none of a pro-

SUCH AN ACTION might "de stroy Belgium" Spaak declared in radio address in Brussels.

Premier Gaston Eyskens, a prothe on the subject of recognition was Leopold Social Christian, has proon | rious one. It was regarded here as | whether Belgians want Leopol fering national interests. While the land.

> "I approve the prime minister's condemn him for trying to solve the royal question this way."

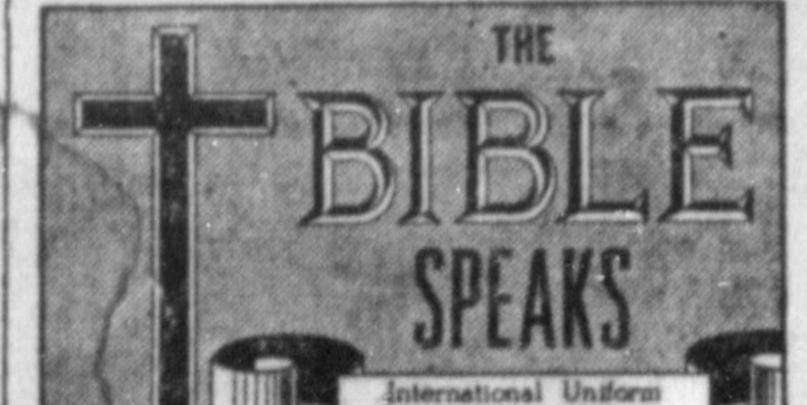

Gets Navy Post

Edward E. Wilcox, former Philadelphia newspaperman, has been named special assistant to the undersecretary of the He succeeds Cedric author of

PLATION:

ig Peril'

SCRIPTURE: | Isaiah 42:1-4; 50: 4-9; 52:13-53:12; Jeremiah 38:1-13. DEVOTIONAL READING: I Peter 2:

Love So Amazing

Lesson for November 13, 1949

sands, a puzzled reader with Isaiah 53 in his hands asked the question other readers have asked ever since: Does the prophet speak of himself or of some

The answer given by Philip (see Acts 8) has been the answer of the church vary's Cross. Philip did not say, and we need not insist, Dr. Foreman the prophet had Jesus, and Jesus only, in mind when he wrote.

What we do say is that while these words might have described some one the prophet knew, might have described the whole nation of Israel, might even have described himself, still the words make but a poor picture of any one else, com-

The Scarlet Thread

of the church's thinking about Christ from the beginning. It may "IT IS NOT pleasant furnishing be said to run like a scarlet thread great prophecy sheds a light on peaceful world and said that "Ever morass, Prime Minister Clement "I am an authority on investiga- what otherwise had been a black simply a horrible tragedy, perhaps the greatest tragedy of history, the perfect case of complete injustice, the final evidence that there is no God, in the light of Isaiah 53 becomes a center of glory.

Instead of being ashamed of the cross on which Jesus died, the

We believe that Christ suffered not for his own but for others' sake. Suffering, not forced but willingly and for love of them-this is the key to the riddle of existence, this is the key to the heart of God.

Not Christ Alone

tians had been willing to let him carry, alone, the burden of the world's sin and grief, there never would have been any Christianityand the rest of the apostles would have refused to die for Jesus' sake. The noble army of martyrs would have been an ignoble army of

No missionary ever would have left home and comforts and country; no mother would have laid down her life for her children; the cared for the sick and the orphaned would never have been done; into suffer for the benefit of others, could have even held together this

Christ died that the world might live, yes; but others also had to die to make his death avail. He died for Africa, that Africans might live; but Africans died till men like Livingstone and Schweitzer and many a less famous man and woman also went out and lived there in loneliness and died in pain.

Christ died for the little children of the poor, but until the Salvation Army and others like them went there with and for them, those poor little people died without so much as dreaming that God might love them.

Christ died for all the lepers in the world; but until a Father Damien, and others no less Christlike, went among the outcast lepers and became outcasts themselves died in the dark.

"Let Him Take His Own Cross Daily"

Trick for Sick

list of your friends who enjoy smoking. Then take the list into your neighborhood dealer. He has a well-stocked array of gay gift cartons of Camel cigarettes-yes. mild flavorful Camels that bring pleasure with every puff. And for the pipe smoker or the man who likes to roll his own, your dealer will show you pound tins of Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco-the Na-tional Joy Smoke. Both these popular gifts come all dressed up in built right into the package for easy-writing convenience You'll be good to your friends and kind to your budget if you send them Camels and Prince Albert!

Thinning Nail Polish

When aged nail polish gets too thick and gummy to use, you can thin it out to its proper consistency with polish remover.

For Your Future Buy U. S. Savings Bonds

What to give? What to give? It that question has you running around in circles this Christmas. here's a smart suggestion. Make a CLEANS AS IT DYES!

without washing - Contains magical TORINOL without fail! Dyes quickly, easily, evenly, expertly. Contains remarkable cleaning and penetratsamples. No other like it! If your dealer does not have this PRETESTED dye, write

HORTH AMERICAN All-Fabric DYE CORP. Mount Vernon, N. Y

concentrated economy size 20$

IS IT HARD FOR YOU TO CUT DOWN SMOKING?

Then change to SANO, the safer cigarette with

Not a Substitute-Not Medicated Sano's scientific process cuts nicotine content to half that of ordinary cigarettes. Yet skillful blending makes every puff a pleasure. ASK YOUR DOCTOR ABOUT SAND CIGARETTES

FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST

