MOTHER HANGS DADDY TO THE JIMMIES BONNET WHILE SHE TELEPHONES GRANDPA THAT THEY'LL BE A LITTLE LATE

IN THE BELIEF HE'S HELPING KEEPS HOLD OF ENDS OF BONNET STRINGS, ENABLING DADDY TO GET NOWHERE

HANDS BEING REMOVED BY FORCE, BENDS HEAD TO WATCH, SO THAT DADDY CAN'T SEE WHAT HE'S DOING

GETS THE IDEA HE IS OBSTRUCTING PROGRESS AND BARKS HIS HEAD, WITH END OF STRONG SICKED FAMILY IN HIS MOUTH

IN SUDDEN BURST OF AFFECTION THROWS HIMSELF AT DADDY, CAUSING BONNET TO COME OFF ENTIRELY

HOLDS STILL UNTIL DADDY, BREATHING HARD, TIES STRINGS, AND AS HE GOES OUT, UNFES THEM

Difference in Days

How much longer and shorter, respectively, are the longest and shortest days of the year than the days next to them, is asked. According to the U. S. Naval Observatory, the difference in the length of day varies less than a minute from day to day in the weeks December 17-24, and June 17-24, in which the shortest and the longest day of the year occurs. Therefore, the difference in the length of day is less than a minute between, for example, December 21 and December 22.

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year. It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy it. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world; the feeling of being adequately prepared. When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. Thus advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.
