The aforesaid William Richardson within thirty years and so forth and whereupon he saith that he was seized of the aforesaid several tracts or parcells of plantable Land and Premises with the appurtenances in his Demesne as of Fee and right in the time of Peace in the time of our Lord the King that now is by taking the profits thereof to the value and so forth and into which and so forth and therefore he brings his Suit and so forth and the said Edward Lloyd in his proper person cometh and defendeth his Right when and so forth and thereupon he vouchetth to warranty thereof William Davis Gent. who is present here in Court in his proper person and freely the Lands and premises aforesaid with the appurtenances to the said Edward Lloyd doth warrant and so forth and hereupon the said William Richardson demandeth against the aforesaid William Davis Tenant by his own warranty the aforesaid several tracts or parcells of plantable Land and premises with the appurtenances in manner and so forth, and whereupon he saith that he was seized of the aforesaid several tracts and parcells of plantable Land and premises with the appurtenances in his demesne as of Fee and right in the time of Peace in the time of our Lord the King that now is by taking the profits thereof to the value and so forth and into which and so forth and therefore he brings his Suit and so forth and the aforesaid William Davis tenant by his own warranty defendeth his right when and so forth and thereupon further vouchetth to warranty William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person and freely warranteth to him the aforesaid Lands and premises with the appurtenances and so forth and thereupon the said William Richardson demandeth against him the said William Rawlings tenant by his own warranty the aforesaid several tracts and parcells of plantable Land and premises with the appurtenances and so in manner and so forth and whereupon he saith that he was seized of the aforesaid several tracts and parcells of plantable land and premises with the appurtenances in his Demesne as of Fee and right in the Time of Peace in the Time of our Lord the King that now is by taking the profits thereof to the value and so forth and into which land and so forth and therefore he brings his Suit and so forth and the aforesaid William Rawlings tenant by his own warranty defendeth his right when and so forth and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseize the aforesaid William Richardson of the Lands and premises aforesaid with the appurtenances as the said William Richardson by his Writ and declaration aforesaid doth suppose and of this he puttoth himself upon the Country and so forth and thereupon the said William Richardson Craveth Leave to imparle and he hath it and so forth and afterwards the said William Richardson cometh again into Court in his same form in his proper person and the said William Rawlings at the solemnly called cometh not again but departed in Contempt of the Court and maketh default Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid William Richardson do recover his seizin against the aforesaid Edward Lloyd of the aforesaid several tracts and parcells of Land and premises with the appurtenances aforesaid and that the said Edward Lloyd have of the Lands of the aforesaid William Davis to the value and so forth and that the said William Davis have of the Lands of the said William Rawlings to

The value and so forth and the said William Rawlings in mercy &c. and so forth And thereupon the said William Richardson prayeth unto the Right Honorable the Lord Proprietary to be directed to the Sheriff of Talbot County to cause full seisin of the Lands and premises aforesaid with the appurtenances to be delivered to him and it is granted to him returnable here at the second Tuesday in September next

Test Reverdy Ghiselin Clk

Rasdon Bozman
vs.
Philip Fairbank

Command was given the Sheriff of Talbot County That he Command Philip Fairbank of Talbot County planter that justly and without delay he shew cause Rasdon Bozman of Talbot County Gentleman all that tract or parcell of plantable Land called Jones's Hole lying and being in Talbot County aforesaid containing thirty six acres with the appurtenances in the County aforesaid and also all those ×× parts of the other three tracts or parcells of plantable Land lying in the County aforesaid called Wilfort Fairbanks Chance and Family which lie and are included within the following meets and bounds Viz. Beginning at a post standing near the head of a Cove called Little point Cove and from thence running to the head of the said Cove then down and binding with the said Cove and Creek to a point called Mulberry point and from thence running ×× binding with the water to a large pine tree standing near the side of the Cove which is next to a Marsh called Hiney Marsh and from thence with a straight line to a white oak near the said Hiney Marsh and from thence running North Sixty Six degrees East to the aforesaid Beginning post at the head of Little point Cove aforesaid containing in the whole two hundred and two acres with the appurtenances in the County aforesaid which he claimed to be his right and inheritance and into which the said Philip Fairbank had not entered but after a Disseisin which Hugh Hunt therefore unjustly and without Judgment had made to the aforesaid Rasdon Bozman within thirty years and so forth And whereof the said Rasdon Bozman did complain that the said Philip Fairbank did deforce him and unless the said Philip Fairbank did the same And the said Rasdon Bozman should make him secure in prosecuting his Clamour then he should summon by good summons the said Philip Fairbank that he be and appear before his Lordships Justices of his Lordships provincial Court at Annapolis the Second Tuesday in April then next and that he should have then and there that writ Ex

At which said Second Tuesday in April to wit the 13th day of the same month Anno 1762 Comes the said Rasdon Bozman in his proper person and the Sheriff of Talbot County to whom the same writ was Directed makes return thereof to the Court Here Thus Indorsed to wit

Pledges of prosecuting John Doe & Richard Roe
Summoners John Doe & Richard Fom
Sd answer. Molman Gibson & Hodie
Bordley atty Gen.

Maryland ss. Rasdon Bozman of Talbot County Gentleman in his proper person Demandeth against Philip Fairbank of Talbot County planter all that tract