of a Tract of Land called Heathcotes Cottage which Mr. Onion gave this Deponent from a Deed he then hand in the House & this Deponent or Capt Bailey asked Mr. Onion Where the beginning of the said tract was and Mr. Onion Answered the beginning was at the Indian Graves up the Broad run back of Sods Plantation & further this Deponent saith not Ja. Everett

Sworn to before J. B. Howard & Wm Demmitt this 21st Sept. 1782

The Deposition of John Bain Aged about fifty two Years who being Sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God declares as follow that about Twelve Years ago he happened and was in Company with Mr Z. Onion Some Conversation about the Bounds of Land, this Deponant Solemnly declares and makes Oath that Zaccheus Onion said the Begining of a Certain tract of Land Called and known by the Name of Hethcote Cottage Beginning at the Indian Graves and further Saith not John Bain

Sworn to before J. Beale Howard. Wm Demmitt } Sept. 21, 1782

The Deposition of Capt. John Howard aged about Seventy one Years who being Sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God declares as follows that the Large Chestnut tree standing South East from his Dwelling house about the distance of One hundred and Eighty Yards was always deemd to be the beginning of a tract of Land Called and known by the Name of Nangemoy that he has often and Seen Surveyors repeatly began at said Chestnut tree for the beginning of Nanjemey and the Begining of Leaps Chance James Forest & Carters Rest This Deponant further saith that he has lived thirty Years and upwards near the said Chestnut tree and never heard any person Dispute or gainsay but Always Allowed the said Chesnut tree to be the Beginning of the above tracts of Land and further saith not John Howard

Sworn to before me this 28th Sept. 1782 J. B. Howard — Wm Demmitt and this Deponant further Saith he has often Seen the Line of Nangemoy and Leeps Chance run from the same Chestnut tree which came to a

Bounded White Oak and Chestnut tree Bounded which Bounderies was Established and as the Second Bounderies of Nangemey and Leeps Chance John Howard

Sworn to before us this 28th Oct. 1782 J. B. Howard, Wm Courtenay Wm Demmitt

The Deposition of Capt. Walter Tolley of Baltimore County Gentleman who being Sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God he being of full Age — Solemnly and Sincerly declares on his Oath that he well remembers he was a Commissioner Appointed by Baltimore County Court with Richard Caswell and Edward Day of the same County to Settle and perpetuate the Bounds of a Tract of Land Called Gapsaways Ridge in the Year of our Lord Christ one thousand Seven hundred and thirty Eight this Deponant saith that they did take Depositions touching and Concerning the said Bounds of Gapsaways Ridge which Depositions where returned According to Law in the records of Balt County Court reference thereunto will more fully Appear that John Hutchins John Roberts alias Cammel John Green and Wm Lane Appeared before us as Evidences Touching and Concerning their knowlege of the said Bounds of said Land Called Gapsaways Ridge which Depositions will Appear on the records of Baltimore County and further Saith not Walt Tolley

Sworn to before us the 28th Sept. 1782 J. B. Howard Wm Demmitt

The Deposition of Charles Baker aged about Eighty Years or thereabouts who being Sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty god saith that about fourteen Years Ago he was Appointed by Baltimore County Court as a Commissioner to Settle the Bounds of a tract of Land Called Hethcote Cottage that John Roberts Alias Cammel Appeared and Proved a Large Bounded Poplar tree which tree we now are the Notches Plainly Appear on the said tree it stands on a Stoney Noul and about twelve feet Distant from Several Large Capital Stones to the South of said tree and the Surveyor Began and run from the said poplar as the beginning tree of Hethcote Cottage and further Saith not Charles C his mark B Baker

Sworn to this 28th Oct. 1782 J. B. Howard & Wm Demmitt