BALTIMORE, Feb. 24.

tress, we have been obligingly lavor. Justin Province of Upper and concident and on the behalf of his beloved concident made by America were rejected Lower Canada, are of the second de-The papers do not possess much intertain unimpaired the prosperity and hogreatest disrespect had been shewn by the judgment & skill displayed by General tain unimpaired the prosperity and homainby the British government, and that the greatest disrespect had been shewn by the judgment & skill displayed by General
nor of the nation."

Lord Viscount Wellington, in the di-Prince Regent's speech was delivered Lord Viscount Wellington, in the di- not of the nation." by commission. American affairs are rection of the campaign. In Spainthe The Commons then withdrew to bassader, Mr. Pinkney. That assertion than we do in countries more remote. but slightly glummed at, and that not in spirit of the people remains unsubdu- their own house, and immediately after, was denied, and he (Mr. W.) persuaded of Indeed the crisis appears to be approachthe most respectful manner. No hopes the most respectful manner. No hopes are entertained of the removal of the grant the system of warfare so pecutions on their respective accessions to the orders in council. The restrictions on the system of warfare so pecution of the fused, and the system of warfare so pecution of the fused, and the fused in the correspondence which passed between them; but it was refused, and the house concurred in the refusal; have been heretofore. the Prince Regent are likely to contithe Prince Regent are likely to continue. Ireland appears to be still in a vantages which result from the operanue. Ireland appears to be still in a vantages which result from the fronRepr., ntative Prelates) also took his nue. Ireland appears to be still in a vallages which result from the present time, the popular disturbed state—mention is made of a tions of the allied armies on the from the neasures pursued by lation amounts to about four hundred gentlemen on the other side their completes. conspiracy against the English govern- tier, and from the countenance and as- seat. ment to separate the Green island from sistance of His Majesty's navy on the its tyrant-mistress, which was com- coast. Although the great exertions of [A summary sketch of Parliamentary always dreaded was unhappily like to come municated to the ministers. The co- the enemy have in some quarters been lumns of one of the papers is occupied attended with success, his royal highin debating on a vote of thanks to Lord ness is persuaded, that you will admire Minto and Sir Samuel Achmuty for the perseverance and gallantry manitheir conduct in the capture of Batavia. fested by the Spanish armies. Even The ship Marianne, Erving, of and for in those provinces principally occupied The ship Marianne, Erving, Quand to the French forces, new energy has delivered to Parliament, on the 7th ult. ment leagued with France (Cries of hear! Province. It is situated in latitude 45, brandy, &c. was captured by the Bri- arisen smong the people; and the in- the Earl of Shaftsbury, in the House of hear! from the opposition benches.) Ame 55; longitude 70, 10 from London. tish armed schooner Arrow, and put crease of difficulty and danger has pro- Lords moved an address on the occasion which caused our orders in council restrict. The foundation of it was laid in the year into Plymouth on the 14th of January duced more connected efforts of gene- of the Speech. In the course of his re- which caused our orders in council restrict of Bombay. A commission has been is- The Prince Regent, in the name and "With respect to the pending dis- our answer to that was a flat denial of the of Bombay. A commission has been issued to try several persons, found in on the behalf of his majesty, commands of the behalf of his majesty, commands of the behalf of his majesty, commands on the behalf of his majesty, commands of his majesty of his confident hope that we have a conclusion, but he was a conclusion of his majesty of his confident hope that we have a conclusion of his majesty. the French service at the isle of France, us to express his confident hope that the French service at the isle of France, you will enable him to continue to affor High Treason under the statute 35, you will enable him to continue to afford the reach service at the isle of France, and is formed by that river and to consistent with Henry 8. The first meeting of the ford the most effectual aid & assistance would be resorted to, consistent with for the correspondence had already appeared the river St. Charles. The Upper court was to have been on the 20th Jan. in the support of the centest, which the honor and interest of the country." in the American papers. From the correst Town, which stands on the termination General Jasen, governor of Batavia, brave nations of the Penicsula still The Lord Chancellor did not like the pondence between Mr. Monroe and Mr. of the Plains of Abraham, is 350 feet has endeavored to rain all the native maintain with such unabated zeal and whole of the speech. has endeavored to rain all the native princes of Java, to oppose the English resolution.

His royal highness commands us to counteract which the English were dispatching embassies to their several decrees of France were repealed on the 2d resolution.

He protested in the strongest terms of November. [Here Mr Percival said against being included in any expressions the table, "America says so."] Mr. whole of the speech.

His royal highness commands us to against being included in any expressions implying the approbation of the Whitbread then challenged the right hono-constraint to the level of the river St. Law whole of the speech.

"He protested in the strongest terms of November. [Here Mr Percival said dicular. The river at this point, is sions implying the approbation of the Whitbread then challenged the right hono-constraint to the level of the river St. Law constraint with such undoacted zear and the speech.

"He protested in the strongest terms of November. [Here Mr Percival said dicular. The river at this point, is sions implying the approbation of the Whitbread then challenged the right hono-constraint with such undoacted zear and the speech. courts, warning them—sgainst giving cess of the British armies in the Island past, or a pledge of perseverance in the rable gentleman to produce one instance completely command it. The distance the French general any succor. A of Java. great quantity of colonial produce em- The Prince Regent trusts that you acted upon-convinced, as he was, that he would call on that minister to prove it to where the fortifications are erected, is bargoed at Berlin in 1810, was lately confiscated in December last, and sold approving the wisdom and ability with confiscated in December last, and sold approving the wisdom and ability with ment of that system, that there existed France of our colonial produce, and deprived Abraham, ten miles to the south west, prietors failing to pay the continental ture of the Islands of Bourcon & Mauson gave notice that he should, on the General of India; and that you will apfirst Tuesday in March, move for a re- plaud the decision, gallantry, and spipeal of the legislative union of Ireland rit conspicuously displayed in the late with G. Britain.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

In use of Lords, Tuesday, fan. 7. Soon after 3 o'clock, this day, a con- his majesty's naval force. siderable number of Peers attended in By the completion of this system of their places, in consequence of his Roy. operations, great additional security al Highness the Prince Regent's Pro- will have been given to the British clamation for the assembling of Parlia- commerce and possessions in the East ment for the dispatch of business. The Indies, and the Colonial Power of Lord Chancellor, his grace the Archbi. France will have been entirely extinshop of Canterbury, the Marquis Wel. | guished. lesley, the Earls of Westmoreland and Camden, being attired in their robes of dient to recommend to your attention State, took their seats on the Bench, in the propriety of providing such meafront of the Throne, as his Royal High- sures for the future government of the ness's Commissioners. Mr. Quarme, British possessions in India, as shall apacting usher of the Black Rod, was pear from experience, and upon mature then dispatched to order the attendance deliberation, to be calculated to secure of the commons, who forthwith ap- their internal prosperity, and to derive peared at the bar, to a considerable from those flourishing dominions the number, with their Speaker at their utmost degree of advantage to the comhead. The Lord Chancellor then, as organ dom. of the commissioners, delivered the following Speech on the part of his Roy- Regent to acquaint you, that while His al Highness the Prince Regent:

45 My Lords and Gentlemen, Highness the Prince Regent, to ex- castill remain unadjusted, the difficulpress to you the deep sorrow which he ties which the affair of the Chesapeake feels in announcing to you the continu. frigate had occasioned have been finalance of his Majesty's lamented indispo- it removed; and we are directed to assition, and the unhappy disappointment sure you, that in the further progress of those hopes of his Majesty's early of the discussions with the U. States, recovery, which had been cherished by the Prince Regent will continue to em-you, and he is satisfied that you will BRITISH Empire. adopt such measures as the present melancholy exigency may appear to reprovision for the support of his Majes- rent year to be laid before you. He ance upon his Majesty's sacred person, such supplies as may be necessary to events our sincere desire for peace was rests assured, that you will also bear in which his majesty is engaged with that the Chesapeake." mind the indispensable duty of continu- spirit and exertion which will afford ing to preserve for his Majesty the fa- the best prospect of its successful tercility of resuming the personal exercise mination.

family and his subjects. signify to you, the satisfaction with He has the satisfaction to inform you, which his Royal Highness has observ- that the improved receipt of the revenue ed, that the measure which have been of Ireland in the last, as compared with pursued for the defence and security the preceding year, confirms the belief continue to manifest itself, and pervade of the Kingdom of Portugal, have prov. that the depression which that revenue ed completely effectual, and that on the had experienced is to be attributed to most expedient to abstain at present several occasions in which the British accidental and temporary causes. or Portuguese troops had been engaged with the enemy, the reputation al- "The Prince Regent is satisfied that tended it." ready acquired by them has been fully you entertain a just sense of the ardu-maintained. prise which terminated in the surprise, quence of His Majesty's continued in- desirable that any discussion should had done every thing in our power to By this means, we can obtain ample and in Spanish Estramadura, of a French disposition. corps by a detachment of the Allied ar- "Under this severe calamity, His and under the present circumstances of maritime superiority." my under Lieutenant General Hill, is Royal Highness derives the greatest the negociation between the two counhighly creditable to that distinguished consolation from his reliance on your tries."

On the 9th of January Mr. Hutchin- immediate direction of the Governor operations of the brave army under the - command of that distinguished officer, Lieut. General Sir Samuel Achmuty, so powerfully and ably supported by

" His royal highness thinks it expemerce and revenue of the United King-

"We are sommanded by the Prince

" His Royal Highness has directed vantage of Great Britain. " In securing a suitable and ample the estimates for the service of the cur-finances of Ireland, which you had com-"The Prince Regent directs us to menced in the last session of parliament.

" My Lords and Gentlemen, ous duties which his royal highness has [Mr. Percical] said, "The successful and brilliant enter- been called upon to fulfil, in conse-

officer, and to the troops under his com- jexperienced wis Jom loyalty and public | The next day, Jan. 8, Mr. Whitbread mand, and has contributed materially to spirit, to which in every difficulty he observed, obstruct the designs of the enemy in will resort, with a firm confidence, that through your assistance and support, ly interesting and important, on which it By the arrival of the William, captain

By the arrival of the William, captain

Dunkin, from Archangel and 37 days from Pennance where she put in distress, we have been obligingly favor that part of the Peninsula.

through your assistance and support, ne shall be enabled, under the blessings of Divine Providence, successfully to discharge the important functions of the high trust reposed in him, and in the high trust reposed in him, and in the part of the Peninsula.

through your assistance and support, ne shall be enabled, under the blessings mation; he meant the unfortunate unadjustto become well acquainted with the discharge the important functions of the high trust reposed in him, and in the high trust reposed in him and in the Gazette.

OF AMERICA.

marks, he observed,

ed with greater execution on our own sures. commerce and manufactuaes." (Hear him, was reiterated.)

Earl Gray, speaking of the affairs of America, &c. said,

dress was agreed to sine diss.

carried without a division.

Mr. Vyse said,

Mr. Ponsanby observed, "The third topic embraced by the ed by the wishes and the prayers of his the consideration of the state of the insula, and that topic was our relations with America. He had seen with pleasure the pacific spirit that had recently marked the communications of this goremarks on the consequences which at-

The Chancellor of the Exchequer

The peech contained another topic high gentlemen on the other side, their prophecies thousand; about two thirds of which were reviled or disregarded; but what they is in Lower Canada. Probably, about proceedings-from London papers to pass; for after our differences with A seven eighths of those people are desreceived at the office of the N. York | merica had subsisted five years, and govern | cendants of the old French Canadians ment had resorted to every political subter. a small part of the population of Upper fuge to avoid conciliation, notwithstanding | Canada, descended from the same the repeated efforts of America to come to stock-a great portion of the Upper an accommodation, we had only to expect Province is from the U. States. After the Prince Regent's speech was the fatal catastrophe of seeing that govern- Quebec is the capitol of the Lower ing their neutral commerce were repealed; A. D. 1608, by Samuel De Champlain. Foster, it was evident that the obnoxious above the level of the river St. Lawsame system which had of late been shewing that they had not been repealed; from the St. Lawrence to the St. Charles, which this enterprise, as well as the eapat auction in consequence of the proprietors failing to pay the continental daties.

The Mutchin in Consequence of the proture of the Islands of Bourcon & Mauritius, has been conducted under the daties.

The Mutchin immediate direction of the Governor which this enterprise, as well as the eapture of the use of Peruvian bark, and desolated the Royal Exchange of London.—

lated the Royal Exchange of London.—
lifections to the point of land, formed with which our resources had been
with which our resources had been
that minister to prove it to the government confiscated in December last, and desolated the Royal Exchange of London.—
lifections to the point of land, formed by the junction of the two rivers, is one that minister to prove it to the government
that system,
any hope of safety to the country." squandered, when they should have been of America that it was unable to govern that husbanded for a protracted war, of which | country. From the Message of the Presino one could see the end. He still re- | dent, and the Report of the Committee of tained all his objections, and in their ut. Foreign Relations, nothing but war threat most force, to that policy which had in- ened us, while our government obstinately called the Plains of Abraham, are about

in reply, said

had been, in fact, the source of almost particulars of which he must decline at eleves thousand. The river St. Lawall our present and impending calami- present to state for obvious reasons and rence is navigable for ships of three or in the hope, they will be amicably four hundred tons, as far as Montreal, After some farther discussion, the ad. removed, but not from any inability to a distance of about five hundred miles. establish a good cause on the part of This wonderful river is connected with A most singular and unprecedented Great Britain. The terms offered by and formed by the waters of Lakes occurrence took place in the House of Britain were moderate & conciliatory, George, Champlain, Ontario, Erie, St. Commons.-The instant the speaker but consistent with the honor and dig- Clair, Huron, Michigan, Superior, and had finished the reading of the Prince vity of the country. Let the House the numerous streams which fall into Regent's speech, Sir Francis Burdett look to the conduct of Britain & France these lakes, many of which have their started up, and after a long speech, con- to America, as well as the conduct of sources in small lakes, not enumerated. cluded by moving an address to his roy- America to both, and judge whether A distance of about two thousand miles al highness. Lord Cochrane in ano. Britain had committed an unjust ag. from the Capes of St. Lawrence to the ther speech seconded the motion, and gression. Should the " fatal catastro- south-west. Excepting the rapids in the mover and seconder of the minis- phe" of a war break out, he would not the river between Montreal and Luke terial address who have uniformly ob | disguise that it would bring great evil | Ontario, the Falls of Niagara, between uned precedence on all former occa- upon the country but he was persuaded Erie and Ontario, and the Falls of St. sions, were thrown out. The order of that America would not be the least Mary's between Huren and Superior, important subjects of difference with things being thus reversed, the address sufferer. Whatever gentlemen might these extensive inland waters are navi-"We are commanded by his Royal the government of the U.S. of Ameriamendment to the address of Sir Fran- or her resources-on the contrary, he by locks and canals, at a trifling expences cis Burdett. Sir Francis and Lord looked to the wealth and prosperity of compared to the advantages which would Cochrane were adopted tellers, but they that country as accessary to those of be produced. had only one member to count and that Great Britain, and that the diminution The immense countries lying on was Mr. Cuthbert. Lord Locelyn's of those of one must affect those of the these waters possess a fertile soil, and address, or rather his amendment, was other .- [Hear! Hear!] From every the best climate for the health and hapconsideration, he was able to give the piness of man. In the free use of these the loyal attachment of his people.

The Prince Regent has directed copies of the last reports of her majesty

During the debate in the Commons, hope, that the adjustment of the affair of the Chesa-adjustment of the affair of the Chesa-adjustment of the affair of the Chesa-adjustment of the national honor, submit more than adjustment of the national honor.

She did to the national honor. During the debate in the Commons, subject, he did not think Britain could, waters, the United States now have a the Queen's council to be laid before commercial rights and interests of the friendship between the two nations, were repealed; he said they were not. than a million of people, at the present " Gentlemen of the House of Com- which they must equally redound to the [Hear, hear!] He plainly saw in moment, reside on these waters, and benefit of America, as it will be the ad- every subsequent commercial decree more than one half of them are citithat the principals were adhered to and zens of the United States; and the acted upon. If America had evidence country is capable of a larger popula-"Our differences with America pro- of their revocation, where was the pub- tion, than the present population of the ty's royal dignity, and for the attend- trusts that you will furnish him with mised to be amicably adjusted, and at all lie instrument to prove the fact? - The U. States. during his illness, the Prince Regent enable him to continue the contest in sufficiently evident from the "affair of only a distant revocation conditionally is the possession of the Canadas, and that England renounced her new sys- this great outlet? tem of blockade, by revoking her O .- The inhabitants of this valuable and ders in Council, or America should extensive country never can, and never make her flag respected—that was to will live without this privilege. They vent of his recovery, so earnestly desir- to recommend that you should resume importance than the contest in the Penshould not conform to them were de- tain it themselves, or join the uation in nue vernment to that power—and, trusting, clared to be denationalised.—[Hear! the possession of it. All these consi-[hear!] Was that a virtual revocation derations ought not, and would not inthe future negociations, he thought it France should revoke them, Britain provinces, without a necessary and juswise reduce. Mr. Hutchinson said

"As to America, he did not think it pect of Peace with America, the' we of nations, to obtain them by force.take place on that subject at present, provoke her to war, relying upon our complete indemnification for the wan-

> The discussion, on motion, was to be taken up again the next day.

FROM THE BOSTON PATRICT. RESPECTING THE CANADAS.

Geography is a useful part of know-

The position of the ground on which quarter of a mile, and on this ground stands the City of Quebec.

The ridge of land south west from the fortifications on the St. Lawrence, flicted a blow on the enemy that recoil- refused to evade the tempest by timety mea | the same height as the Upper Town of Quebec. On this memorable ground, The Chanceller of the Exchequer, fell the gallant Wolfe and Montcalm. In an attempt to storm this fortress, "He could have no hesitation in likewise fell, the brave and intrepid saving that great and very important | Montgomery. The population of Que-"That the general system adopted differences existed with America, the bec & its suburbs is estimated at about decree for repealing them promised How important than to the U. States.

and Milan decrees were repeatedly de- the enjoyment of it; and they will furclared to be the fundamental laws of ther say to our government, if they the Empire, and all neutral ships which will not secure it to them, they will obwould repeal her Orders in Council, tinable cause. But if the nation to but not relinquish her maritime supe- which these provinces belong, continue riority, which France could not other- the wrongs, which a number of years have been practiced, and criuse friendly megocation to restore to us our "He was happy to hear of a pros- rights, we shall be justified by the law ton injuries we have received.

A Revolutionary Officer Newton, 19th Jan. 1812.