Answer of J. Wilson Patterson et al., Executors, and Wm. Patterson, Trustee.

(Filed 31st January 1885.)

Thomas S. Wilson and Henry R. Wilson, Surviving Trustees, &c. vs. J. Wilson Patterson, William Patterson and W. Hall Harris, Executors, &c. et al.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable, the Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore city:

The joint and several answers of J. Wilson Patterson, William Patterson and W. Hall Harris, executors of the last will and testament of Mary L. Patterson, late of the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland, deceased, and of William Patterson, trustee for Anna St. Clair Patterson, under the said last will and testament of the said Mary L. Patterson, deceased, to the bill of complaint of Thomas S. Wilson and Henry R. Wilson, surviving trustees of the estates of James Wilson and Mary Wilson, deceased, against them and others in this Honorable Court exhibited, respectfully represents.

1. That these respondents admit the matters and facts stated in said bill of complaint, and that the exhibits therewith filed are true and accurate copies and exhibits.

2. These respondents further answering allege that Mary L. Patterson, their decedant, intended and did by her last will and testament, filed with said bill of complaint as "Complainants' Exhibit F." exercise the power of disposition given her under and by the last wills and testaments of James Wilson and Mary Wilson, and did devise and bequeath the trust property and estate mentioned in said last wills and testaments.

3. And your respondents charge and allege that the legacy of forty thousand dollars ($40.000) mentioned in said last will and testament of James Wilson, and in the said bill of complaint, together with the accretions as in said bill fully set out, and also the one-ninth of the ten twelfths of the rest and residue of the fee estate of the said James Wilson, amounting, as in said bill mentioned, to about twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.) should be paid to your respondents as executors of said last will and testament of Mary L.
