simple, another to be paid and delivered to, and to vest in William Patterson, absolutely and in fee-simple, and another to be paid and delivered to, and to vest in Alice Patterson Harris, absolutely and in fee-simple, and the other one-fourth to be retained by Thomas I. Wilson and Henry R. Wilson, and the survivor of them, and their successors, in trust for the said Anna St. Clair Patterson, the infant child of Arthur Melville Patterson, the deceased son of Mary L. Patterson until she arrives at eighteen years of age, as provided for in the said last wills and testaments of James Wilson and Mary Wilson.

4. And your respondents pray that your Honorable Court will decree that Mary L. Patterson did not intend to exercise, and did not exercise the power of disposition given and granted to her by the last wills and testaments of James Wilson and Mary Wilson, and that it may be decreed that the said complainants shall account to the said James Wilson Patterson, William Patterson and Alice Patterson Harris, respectively, for one-fourth of the said legacy of ($40,000.00) forty thousand dollars, and its accretions of the said personal, real and leasehold estate, given, devised and bequeathed to them in trust by the said last wills and testaments of James Wilson and Mary Wilson, for the life of Mary L. Patterson, and that the other one-fourth of the said legacy, and its accretions of the said personal, real and leasehold estate, shall be held by them in trust for the said Anna St. Clair Patterson, the infant grandchild of the said Mary L. Patterson, as directed by said last wills and testaments in the event of Mary L. Patterson failing to exercise the power of disposition given by said last wills and testaments, of James Wilson and Mary Wilson.

And that your respondents may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

And as in duty, etc.

Richard F. Kimball,
Solr. for Respts.

Report of Auditor and Master.
(Filed 13th March 1885.)

Thomas I. Wilson and Henry R. Wilson Surviving Trustees, etc. vs James Wilson Patterson, William Patterson and W. Hall Harris, Executors, etc., et al.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City. Report of Auditor and Master.

The complainants, as trustees, hold certain real and personal property in trust for Mrs. Mary L. Patterson, during her life, with power to her of disposing of the same by will, but with remainder over should she fail to exercise said power. Mrs. Patterson is now dead, leaving a will, by which, after certain specific bequests of articles of personal property belonging to her, she describes all the other property disposed of by her will, as "all the rest residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, wheresoever situated, and to which I am in any manner whatsoever entitled." The said trustees have filed this bill asking the Court to construe said will, and the wills creating the trust under the administration by them; and that they may be directed by decree to whom they shall pay over and transfer the trust property, and what estates shall be held therein by the parties to whom such transfer shall be decreed. All the persons now in being, whose interests are affected by either of said wills, some of whom are infants, are made defendants.

The pedigree and infancy are proven as alleged.
