TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNIT ED STATES.

COUNTRYMEN, telligence, and the weakly cherished unsuspected powers, and sustained by John W. Duggan, David Bias, Josiah Shat proach nearer. of those who call for a stern suppression stitutions made not for himself, but you. pher Houston. sinctured with tenderness; and the bra pride and envy, of avarice and revenge, Delany Ward. vest of man have been the gentlest. -- rages against the men who will not be marked as having the unfortunate | Though not defeated, be not despirited; Francis Nichole, Walter Abbatt, Wm. A. ed. brave citizens for its object, more that | though falling seven times, you shall be | Weaver, Edmund M. Russell, Wm Berry, It is pleasing in this hour of trial and sp a loss of national force or honor. It supported and lifted up to final victory, mid-hipmen. was the pride of our adversary that was Wounds and death are to be looked for Peter Adams, boatswain, (since dead); posure which prevails—not the slightest ap chiefly wounded in his deleats, and pro- y warriors. But who saves himself J. fferson G. iffith quarter master; James A. pearance of alarm or confusion. The mea vengeful exercions I is a principi of the detence of his injured country gunner, (since dead); Samuel Hutson, sail spired all with confidence. The zeal with time an exchange of discharges took place rior as humanity is to bru al rage. W have met with disaster; we have been in the corner where he snugs himself; her; John Teazy, do; John Giles, do; Tho- Marin a and by all ranks of citizens assurdiscomfitted in battle, and have given a disease and pestilence shall follow his mas Rouse, do; and Thomas Jackson, 2d us that the enemy will pay dear for any at day to mourn the honored dead. It is retirement, and he shall rot in dishonor. I narter master. in sacred remembrance; and the Ame. with the feelings of nobler minds, re. John Appleton, Peter Quantin, James But | hourly uniting with the army. ver. Now let us recall the sterner reso a monly temper have devoted yourselves Sterling Peter John, John Smith Way. formation on which we can rely, that the selves in the woods near the road by which land Francis Symonds (since dead,) John enemy mbacked his whole force at san se it was supposed the enemy was approaching. harbors, with insulting hopes and in lives are thus engaged; let all who are John Hodgmin (since dead.) France Frank in number, and proceeded to the fleet. From fire on the head of the invading columns. creased confilence. He meanly sup covered by your bodies, and pursue the lin Henry Hyde Alexander Grant, Enach the number of boats, it is concluded the Being now well satisfied as to the point of It is yours to undeceive him by acts too in peace. Shame be to him that keeps Peters, Robert May, Joseph Vaughan, John course of he day. his sight and feeling. He shall know favor of his country and abundant bles. that you are free, resolved and unsub sing of Heaven be upon the head of him Charles Thompson, Abraham, Richardson, New Port Neuse, at the cutrance of James command to the point of attack, inorder to mitting; that your cause is just & can- who does his duty for his country and James Durfee, Lewis Hanscom (since dead) River. An attack upon Hampton is proba support it, as well as to annoy the exemy in not stoop to less than Heaven's decree mankind. Here is your hope; your confidence must be here. Is there any to rule the world but he that made it. Is there any power in the universe but that which Copy of a letter from Lt Budd to the Sody. produced the universe? Is life, intellectual, moral life created, beings and worlds their habitation formed, and left SIR, to be wildered felly and mad iniquity to take their course destructive thro' the Lawrence & Lieut Augustus C Ludlow, has Harris; corporal Wm. Dix n. (since dead); force, which landed yesterlay, we received & a thicketel pines, we were fired upon by the space, unregarded, checked, judged punished? A sparrow falls not to the capture of the late U. States Frigate Chesa Joseph Twiss. Geo. Upham, John Crippen, 102d regiment heads are numbered. Away then with On Tuesday. June 1st, at 8. A. M. we Wright, Miles Morris, Mathias Woolberry, From the ships of war, marines the stupid imagination, that the earth unmoored ship and at meridian got under Warren Fogg Thomas Johnson, Geo Clyne, Seamen was rolled from the Almighty hand to way from President's Roads, with a light Joseph Crane, Wm. Lewis, John Livre and Two companies of French sweep along the circular orbit under wind from the southward and proceeded on Joba Brady. the impulse of secondary causes, with a cruise. A ship was then in sight in the out fur her care to its maker. Is Al offing, which had the appearance a of ship of mighty Power fatigued by its works ! war, and which, from information received Does i fi lie presence contract itself from pilot boats and craft, we believed to be and retire to repose in some local Hea the British Frigate the Shannon. We made went The thought, worthy only of the all in chase and cleared ship for action .three, springs from human weakness her head to the southard and eastward. At without any opposition or loss, there and cannot be but in one place, & with in the narrowest bounds of a mortal body, at once. The human machinis dy, at once. The human machinis action commenced within pistol shot. The constructs his work, & leaves to spring: | fi s' broadside did great execu ion on both and weight its fu ure operations. Bu sides, damaged our rigging, filled among the presence that fills infinitude, and i others Mr. White the sailing master, and beyond all created bound; that is in it wounded capt. Lawrence. In about 12 self power, wisdom u most, transcendan | minutes after the commencement of the ac and alone, acts not by ways that need the ion, we fell on board of the enemy and im second cause of human fancy. The un- mediately after one of our arm chests on the speakable energy is the first and second quarter deck was blown up by a hand gre together, and is the last -- His word, | nade thrown from the enemy's ship In a which only has made him thus wonder few minutes one of the Captain's aids came fully known, declares that he views all on the gun deck to inform me that the board things at once and forever; that with ers were called. I immediately called the a particular Providence which sustains boarders away and proceeded on the spar enthusiasm. on earth for their just or impious con | gained complete presession of the ship. duct. For the reason why individuals On my being carried down to the cock wishout effect. The individual's term is short, very mer had been carried below previously to my was so roughly handled by the ar Roads. short, and tu ure judgment remains .- | the ship's being boarded; the latter was wound | tillery, that he did not come within the But that of nations is tenfold the length, | ed in attempting to repel the burrders .- | re ch of small arms. that nation which gives itself to pride, rines. oppression & cruelty; that in the whir! I herein enclose you a return of the killed We have already presented our reaof avarice, fust and ambition, derides a and wounded, by which you will perceive ders with a hasty sketch of events, as judge invisible and long delayed judg. hat every officer upon whom the charge of they occurred for the last 3 days. So ment. All history is the fate of nations | he ship would devalve, was either killed or far, the enemy has been completely foil destroyed, and empires seen no more. - | wounded previously to her capture The | ed in an enterprize of great importance, vicute the incritable inference of rea | mid-hipman and 58 seamen wounded. and reverence and trust in it. A war longing to the Tenedos. sion for years, were engaged to avoid, respect, &c. is strangely bro't upon you; as plainly against your enemy's interest, as your The Hon. Wm. Jones. will. But moral n isbehaviour has bro'i the uplified scourge on both. I cherish the hope that it will be a chastise | List of the Killied and Wounded on board the every trivial success, but the events of ment only on you; but to your enemy. I feer, a terrible descruction. To en sure your speedy deliverance, hasten to and of p. commetion for humble relience, for ; Pollard Hopewell, midshipman ; made a formidable appearance, & from 25 & initian, I will now, having it more in on Him who is just and sulce in the ar John Eruns, do.; Courdent Livingston, 3 to 4000 men could be landed. All my power, beglesve to cummunicate to your mies of Heaven and Earth. Tract me, do. ye young and serving and bold, them is Daniel Barnham, quattermaster; James one postone and hetanding the situation of day. no courage like that which is thus found | Woodbary do ; Michael Kully, quarter this post was such, that if overpowered. At an early period of the morning on the

AN OLD AMERICAN. Baltimore, June 28, 1813.

of the Navy, dated.

HALIFAX, June 15, 1813.

The unfortunate death of Captain James endered it my daty to inform you of the privates Richard Hoffman. James Brown, fr. a prisoner; we give it as such.

worlds on worlds in every moment, he deck, where I found that the enemy had at every cast of the lot: for they are the distely gave orders to haul on board our earth. Earth is the stage of action, of attempt to regain the quarter deck but was in the action with the Gun Booats, re- 4 and 8000 discipline and trial of this moral being, wounded and brown down on the gun deck | ceived nine shot in her huil, had many | 11 o'clock. A. M.—Information is just which together with that from the two for's judged by him, and rewarded specially ers but in he mean time the enemy had maged.

GEORE BUDD.

Secretary of the Navy.

Chesapeake. KILLED.

WOUNDED.

Wm. Hubans Benj Sumner, Wm M. biy meditated Dezink, John Petusiwing Wm. Peterson, received, that the enemy landed this morning us off from retreat. Wm Stewart, Asa Newhall, Alexander at or near Hampton. John Kegan were discovered with their barges pull of seamen commanded by the officers of he Constellation, who opened a heavy fire, that compelled the enemy to re creat with great loss. Three barge were sunk-one was taken with 18 men on board, belonging to a foreign reg't. Our officers, soidiers, seamen and ma

NORFOLK, JUNE 23.

o 1500. This we give as report. It is but too common to exult upon from our land? yesterday were calculated to excite pride and exultation .- The enemy's force it | SIR. Officers Edward J. Ballard, acting lieu- view was imposing, upwards of twenty Although I have given you, by two com they did under a continued but ill directed reform and repentance. Change the tenant; James Broome, Let. lieutenant of vessets of war, some of the largest size, munications, a partiel account of the engage. fire from the enemy, who pursued for two inguing of boneting for medies hope, marines; William A. White, sailing mas is mumber of smaller, with transporte, all stient with the escent at Hempton, on the their efforts appeared directed agains excellence a detail of the occurrences of the parent danger to notice the universal com tempt on this post. The local force of this shots fell within our encampment.

I movements.

Brown, Mathias Douglas, John M. Neai | Weshould have stated that the enemy could (since dead.) John Crutchett, Thomas Jones | not, from the positions he chose be molest | a lane and an open fornfield, which led from 2d. John Caldwell, Wm. Gardener, and ed by the gun boats in his movements yester our encampment to the enemy & tothe Mail

Marines-Bargeants, John Twiss, Wm. The following statement of the enemy's yards of the gott opening into the Celey road Yesterday about day break the enemy service who deserted yesterday have been rockets of a small size. Upon this suddeds brought in. They state that there were a land to our whole detachment, unexpected ing to shore, about two and a halt or 3 bout 200 French troops landed, the greater attack with ordnance, I deemed it necesses miles above the upper point of Crancy part of whom they suppose have also quit to wheel again into column, and gain if pos-Crancy Island -but another detachment ney Island, and that then there would be no its deadly discharges under the direction which pulled directly for Crany Island, other ob tacle of consequence to prevent their of capt. Servant, who with his brave officers met with a different reception. The laking the town which ite promised them the and soldiers, acted in a manner worthy of batteries were manned with the troops pillage of for three days and 2. 5 sterl per veterass. At this time capt. Cooper, & man exera, if they would exert themselves. most skilful, brave and vigilant officer, with stationed on the Island, & a detachment Neither the prisoners nor deserters can give his brave troop, at hough much worn down any certain information of the damage done with the fatigue of patroling and other dua to the British frigute (which they say was tree, were closely engaged in enhaying the he Junon) by the gun boats, in the attack enemy's left flank, and would have been cut on Sunday morning. They only repeat off but for his superior judgment. The cofrom hearsay, and their information is quite lumn was formed with all the celerity that contradictory. The majority of them agree the nature of the ground, (a soft and new) that the Junob lost upwards of 60 men in ploughed field) - the advantageous situation rines exhibited the utmost coulness and killed and wounded among the former the of the energy a ded by his heltered position captain, and that from 50 to 70 shot struck - and the partly disciplined experience of Foiled in the attempt on Crany Island. her hull; but many of our officers who could our troops would ad it Daving the time regards the insect of the dust in all its succeeded in boarding us and had gain the enemy landed the whole of the force easily dis inguish when a shot missed or occupied by the change of position in our changes, and disposes of humn beings ed possession of our quarter deck. I imme struck the ship declare, that to their certain detachment, and its march through the defiles The prisoners state that the expedi- knowledge, from 70 to an hundred shot took a continued fire on us was kept up by the intelligent and conscious natures in sub fore tack, for the purpose of shooting the lion was commanded by Admiral Cock effect. They all agree however, in stating the enemy. On our reaching and passing the servience to whom all inferiors exist on ship clear of the other, and then made an ourn. They also report that the Junon, number of the enemy's troops to be between road, into the wood, the grape shot from a man. He has declared that nations are I again made an effort to collect the board men kitled, and her rigging much du brought that the enemy is linding et New. mer. threw the placeurs of our column into port Neuse, 7 miles above Hampton. He confusion and retreat. A few of our leading The enemy threw some rockets, but ports, which are not entirely satisfactory, platoons, headed by maj. Corbin and myselfs state, that troops are also landing at wheeled promptly into the wood, and fordimay be suffered to prosper in wicked pit, I there found Capt. Lawrence and lieut. The infantry and riflemen, under & ness to the end, applies not to nations. Ludlow, both mortally wounded; the for had their share of the action, as the ene Saturday; his flag ship is now in Hampton heavy and continued discharge of the enes

The borough and County Militia are or dered under arms. Every man ble to with warmth and pirit, both on the part of and the national character exists no more Among those who fell early in the action was bear arms turned out with alacrity. Nor. the enemy and our Riflemen and leading hereefter. Upon earth then must a na Mr. Elward J. Billard, the 4th Lieuten. rines for landing, are said to be about folk is now considered a besieged town. Infantry platoons, commanded by raptains tion receive its reward. And woe it ant, and Lieutenant James Broom of Ma. 3000 -those already landed from 1200 Our troops are full of ardor and in high Shield and Herndon, with their subalterns

> RICHMUND, June 30. OPERATIONS AT HAMPTON. Wanton escasses of the British.

At half past 7 o'clock last evening, the | de'achment, and acted with great courage The sacred word declares that it was de | enemy report the loss of one man on our | governor received from Major Crutchfield, and coolacts. creed by him, who styles himself the lightenant; the parter, the captain's clerk part, or even one wounded. The following minute and satisfactory detail In this sharp and trying contest, Major judge of all the earth, and shall felly ri and 23 seamen killed; and capt Broke, a of the operations in the late attack of the Corbin received in his left arm and leg two judiciously—the detachment first land it itieb on Hampton. While we coutem severe wounds, with a musket hall in the son, from the undeniable fact? Re | The Shannon had in addition to have made a niver plate the overwhelming force of the inva- neck of his horse. My efforts, sided by the member my fellow citizens, there is bu | complement, an officer and 16 men belonging | sion or an attack at the undaunted and obsti. | brave Adjutant John P. Armistead, thou of one power, one cause in the universe, to the Belle Poule, & a part of the crew benate defence made by our handful of troops, and reverence and trust in it. A was longing to the Tenedos.

It is the Belle Poule, & a part of the crew benate defence made by our handful of troops, force was to have landed directly upon we must blush with indignation at the savage tion in exerting themselves to rally the troops, that all your endervors, all your submis | I have the honor to be, with very great it -the spirited and well directed fire and brutal excesses of the enemy, after escaped beyond expectation; and who for from the Artillery on the Island, drove getting possession of the town & neighbour. their skill and undannted firmness, cleserve hack the principal force, with apparent bood. Who can read this faithful & exact much of their country,) were directed to rale great loss, and in confusion—the attack narrative, without an eager desire to partici lying the rear and retreating platoons of the trom the minor force was never made. pate in the glory of expelling hese monsters detachment, which were dispersing in every

Fork County, Half way Rouse, ? June 28, 1813.

You have been sometime in a fearful ed, and no success like that which is gunner; John Carter, Bostowarn's mute. | there was much difficulty in retreat, not 25th inst: our Mill creek patrologave inforexpectation of learning the issue of the hus gained. Believe one who has been | Seamen-Heavy H. Manroe, Abraham the smallest symptoms of apprehension mation, that from 30 to 40 British barger, combat between the frigate Chesopeake a soldier and a sailor, and in the storm of Cox. Sterling Clark, Alexander Marino, appeased, but the very reverse, all were filled with men, were approaching the mouth and one of the enemy; now all the me- battle, or of loosened elements, has wit. Thomas Evans. John Miller Daniel Mar | cool & collected, rather wishing the at | of Hampton creek, by the minor channel, lancholy anticipations of the unfortunate | nessed the strong and audacious failing, | tim, Robert Bates, Wm. Rossell, Harris | tack, and we feel confident that the ene- from the direction of Newport's Noose. result have been confirmed by actual in when the weak and unboastful exerted Ball, Andrew Williams, Joseph Simmonds, my was fortunate that he did not ap. Our troops were immediately formed by their encampment on Little England planhopes of a more fortunate termination an all powerful hand, came secure, and field, John Phillips, Benjamin Esday, of the contest have vanished. You now honorably through. Cæsar then the Reed, 2d, Samuel Mallin, Michael Sawyer, attack would be made, but all was quiet, ton by a narrow creek, over which a slight Indulge a general grief; and it is natu- sottish blasphamy of the name of the James Betton, John Crabb, Samuel M and at the moment we are writing, we first bridge had been erected. In a very ral, just and becoming. I am not one Supreme; bonor his sabbaths and his in Perkins, Joseph Judith, John Jones, Christo are informed of the enemy's subsequent short time after, our Celey's patrole reported the landing and approach of a number of of the feelings, or deem it weekness to And go forth again fearless, for your Marines-Thos. Wheaton, Benj. Morris- Between 20 and 30 deserters and pri the enemy's troops's in our rear. A little exhibit the signs of painful affections people and for mankind, whose cause is son. John German, when a breach is made in our society .- all involved in the present contest; Huntress, Jas. Trainor, Jacob Preston, Phil before noticed. They are all, but 2 or proaching Black beard's point the headment The feelings of heroism are always where tyranny, with all its passions of Bryant. Redmond Barry, Robt. Stanley, 3, foreigners, chiefly French, that had of which commenced a firing of round enlisted to get clear of juils and prisor. hot, which we simmediately returned from our battery of 4 long 12 pounder. The For it is combining intelligence with stoop to be the creatures of its luxury. Officers-James L. whence, Esq. Cap | We have not been able to learn the enemy, intimidated by the quick and direct courage, lostiness with humanity, that the panders of its lust, the subjects of its lust, the su constitutes the hero. Grieve then, and ambition, the beasts of its burdens ; Lieuten mt, (since deceased) ; George forces, but the Brigade of Marines. himself behind the point; and from thence I will grieve with you, over the fallen with whom all the proud and cruel are Budd, lieutenant; Williams, is stated to continued to throw his round 12 & 18 pound It is a generous sorrow, and deserves to sociated here and in every country - | do ; Samuel Livermore, acting chaplain ; be among the troops on board or land- shots, accompanied by a great number of rockets charged with combustible matter; which, with very few exceptions, and those without injurious effect apon our detachment or encampment, either fell short of, or overreached their object. For the space of three duced his unmanly complaints, and red by eluding the just struggle, and learn. Lewis, quarter master; Forbes Dela quarter sures which the General has taken, have in quarters of an hour or more; during which that moves your sympathy as far supe- othe warmer, more generous spirits of maker's mate; Thomas Finnagan, gunner's which he is supported by his officers and the without the enemy's doing any damage; out thers, shall die like the vilest animal. yeoman: Thomas Smith 2d. quarter gun. Naval Commander, officers, seamen and lifeatry troops were posted under cover of a high ditch, immediately in front ofour camp. During this period, many rockers and large enough at present; let them be laid up Strengthen yourselves then, you who | Seamen-James Sprout, Sylvester Starey, place, and milita of the adjacent rounties are this time our R fis company, which, upon the carliest information of he enemy's approach rican Ensign throud their names for e sent your country's wrongs; and with ler, John Johnson, John Peterson, Thomas Eleven o'clock A M - We received in by land had been dispatched to cone; all them. ulting enemy advances again into ou And while your time, your toils, your Brice, Eliphalet Carr Thomas Planagar, last evening, on board he barges, about 40 commenced a well directed and destructing poses you appalled by little losses, scar works of peace and fortune at home, Hackett. Andrew Mercer, John Tallman force landed did not fall short of 2000 - attack on us from the land side, and discovers ed at his greatness, and ready to shrink give largely, freely of the fruits to them James Parker, Ehenezer Day Giles Cone M nedeservers were brought in this morning; ing from the timidity of the enemy in his from the threatening war he brings. - by whom they plough and sow and reap It is yours to undeceive him by acts too in peace. Shame be to him that keeps Lee (since dead.) John Hunt, (do) Rolls in he woods, which may be expected in the made on our water position, and knowing that our Ritte corpe, from its great inferiers Devo, (since dead) Noel Deurborn, John | LATEST -- Accounts have just been re- ly to the enemy. was in a very critical stua-Rollins, Charles Sargent, Wm. Me calf | ceived, that the enemy landed last night at | don I merched with the infantry under my ins approach, and prevent his making an att Cufforty, Marcus Mansel (since dead) John Twelve o'clock-Information has been just | tack on our rear, advantageous to his views We advanced in columns of platoons thro

> & Celey's roads & when in the field within 200 Jenemy's Musketry, from a thick wood at 1000 the uppor end of a field immediately bors 1600 dering on the road. Upon this discharge 400 order were given to wheel to the left into 1000 line, and march upon the enemy. In this 300 postion we had marched not more than 50 yerds, when the enemy opened upon us two 4300 & pound field pieces loaded with grape and About thirty Frenchmen in the enemy's cannister shot, and his machines filled with third field piece commenced its fire on us my's cannon, musketry and rockets. The action was now for a short time. kept by in the first division of the battalion. Captte. Ashby, Blown, Miller and Carey, with capt Goodall of the U. States Regiment of artillery, who volunteered on this occasions cammanded the remaining divisions of the > > direction, while a large body of the enemy made an effort to outflank, and cut off nur retreat. It now became indispensably nenessery for all our troops to retire, which