vernment had compelled us to have re-line off.

ing of the town of Newark, in which a Stadion, minister from Austria-to count de Neschatel, and the Prince de la Mosk- of the enemy for our own. One of his Champion, Cilley, Clark, Comstock. number of old and infirm persons were | Razumowky, the Russian minister and | wa continue here. Our troops occupy aids finding himself within ten paces of Cooper, Cox, Culpepper, Davenport, Dacumstances considered, is unexampled in gociations appeared to go on with great

I have the honor to be, &c. I. HARVEY, Lt. Col. D. A. G. Brig. Gen. M'Clure, less towns.

VERY LATE AND IMPORTANT NEWS FROM FRANCE.

Boston, March 23. The beautiful brig Rambler, Captain Wellington remained inactive. Snow, arrived here yesterday, from bordeaux, and has brought French papers and other accounts to the 9th Feb. containing most important and interesting intelligence.

Extract of a letter from Bordeaux to the be.

this side the Adour, have been rendered been hovering about Chalens, upon the impregnable. He suffers much for want | Saone, where a few skirmishes had taken of provisions, and his army is harrassed place. continually by the Basque Gen. Harespy, who has raised an army of volunteers among the Basque people, who are the best soffiers in France, of 20,000 men.-Soult is in so little fear of Wellington, out to put himself at the head of his arthat he has sent off 4000 horse, and mies. 12,000 foot from his army, to the north. His Lordship's career is at an end, and His majesty is to breakfast at Chateau who commands the cavalry, informed, we are now in no fears of a visit from him Thierry and arrive this evening at Cha- that Gen. Milhaud, with the five corps here. Indeed, it was never to be feared, loes sur-Marne. The camp which had of cavalry, between Maizieres and Brifrom the great extent of the dreary heath been formed at Nogent-sur-Seine was enne, was in sight of the army of the ene-

now more probable to be made at Vienna that his excellency the Duke of Dassano upon the right of the road and scized up- under him. than at Paris, is true. Large reinforce- is to set out this evening to join H. M. on the height of Perthe. The Prince of A letter from the army, dated Dec. 15, several times struck the officer, and likements are pouring into the low countries, at his head quarters. which has stopped all progress of the alto harrass them?

The conscription of 1814 is completed renewed on the 5th of January. That of the remains of 1812 to 1810 is also raised, and another of 1815 has just been called on. These 3 conscriptions see here the enemy. We receive troops enemy not expecting so severe an attack, engaged under Lord Wellington. furnish 3-0,000 men each :- add to this every day, and Marshal Augerau, is ex- had not time to withdraw his parks from lunteers, and lastly the levy en mass, and corps and artillery. Hope and enthusi- ce to pass the Aube to accounce. This had fixed on the 14th day of Jan. for meetyou will find that to conquer France is families out of the question. Let us rather suppose that the Emperor has used a ruse de guerre, to get the Allies into France, their outposts : they are in full retreat .- him many advantages ; but the taking of loth of Jan. at which time it was besiege factious " Refrere" made at the last seswhen they inclined to come, that he The resistance they have experienced, the Castle which he had neglected to oc- ing Bayonne.

Inight do their work for them to the best the good dispositions of the inhabitants cupy in force deprived him of them. advantage; for the best military men and the arrival of the reinforcements in Towards 8 o'clock seeing that he could think none of those that have had the au- the City, seem to have produced their no longer maintain himself, he set are to turn from whence they came. Public retrogade movement. spirit is now what it ought to be, and you that things have changed."

At the last date they were at Soissons fecture. [about 58 miles,] and at Fountainbleau, isted in Paris; and that many were re

CHENT, Jan. 20th. | wished to march upon Troyes in order ency and injustice. | to II. A. S. moving their valuables :—That there | By a manoguere as skilful as it was to operate, (operer) on the columns | Mr. Barnett of Geo. fol, ed on the this Port.

surrendered to the Swedish army.

Rambler."

augured from this meeting, as it is bees. The Duke of Turentum was at Clai. The enuny have sent us a cartel heaver the finest exploits of the French army, the various reasons that influenced him duce a certificate, I should give him up to alleviate as much as pos- consternation. The inhabitants were I evils of a mode of warfare to the City, and digging trouches in the We work with the greatest activity in pure their pieces for action, they formed acwhich the example of the American go- streets. The women and children mov- front of this City. Our City continues a squadron, attacked the enemy and sav-

The Dake of Vicence (Caulincourt) Linds. I allude as well to the employment of gave a dinner to Lords Cuthcart and A-Indians by the American Generals be- berdeen, Ministers Plenipotentiary from The Duke of Belluno has his head- posts, found the armies so near each oth- Mass. Bigelow, Boyd, Bradbury, Bradfond their own Frontier, as to the burn- England to the Congress—to Count quarters this day at Ligny. The Prince er, that he several times took the posts ley, Breckenridge, Brigham, Butler, left to perish in the snow-an act which, to Baron Humboldt, from Prussia. Lord St. Michiel. A great number of milita- a vidette, was made prisoner. The same vis of Mass. Ely, Findley, Fisk of Va the season of the year and all other cir- | Castlereagh was also present. The ne- ry veterans come to ask service.

Yesterday the Ministers of the Congress dined with Lord Castlereagh. It has been remarked that the most perfect es. The Duke of Tarentum Macdo- have made 250. commanding Magara frontier. etiquette reigned among the ambassa- nald] was at Chalons.

from Chatillon to London. es between the armies, but when the rity."
Rambler sailed, Marshal Soult and Lord

Neither the Texel or Scheldt fleets had fallen into the hands of the Allies.

Editor of the Chronicle, received by A passenger informs, that when the [Translated for the Patriot.]

This morning H. M. the Emperor set are beyond description.

may expect to find by the next arrivals, been continued for several days; all our voured to retake the Castle, which the unimportant character, the House resumauthorities rival in zeal to prepare against brave Major ----, of the 56th, de- ed the consideration of the the enemy if it should dare present it- fended intrepidly. He strewed all the self. Our national guards are organiz- poarches to the castle with dead, parti- The bill from the Senate providing for shed and confusion, they will once more but despatches, but the Governor retused in the midst of the obscurity of the night, in support of the bill.

to be stocked with provisions of all ed their horses, losing 15 men killed or passage of the bill, and decided in the ai-

Extract of a letter-dated

FRENCH OFFICIAL ACCOUNT. youd the little river Voire. Paris, Feb. 5.

Antwerp and Lyons were not in pos- has received the following news of the Contract Briefine the Brave Gen. Baste.— houn, Condit, Conard, Crawford, Creight difficult to paint the intoxication and joy of the inhabitants at this moment. The option of the inhabitants at this moment.

on Monteriender. On the 29th, at 8 8'-Paris, Jan. 25. clock in the morning, General Grouchy, directions. Paris, Jan. 26. Moskwa put himself at the head of six states that the enemy had retired, leav- wise most shamefully abused Mr. Ford. battalions in close column, and moved up- ing a garrison in Bayonne. From the savage disposition manifested him. Night did not put an end to the the town, and the conflagration spread HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES REELMS, Jan. 22. | with rapidity, all the houses being of The passage of troops to our City has wood. Profited by this event he endea-near that place. The English have withdrawn towards immediately filed over it. At 3 o'clock &c.

were at Pleardy, Duratte has taken command of the following the motion of a corps of cavel- the reasons which would induce him to place, in which the general of engineers by which was advancing to repela charge vote against the bill; and declared that within so leagues of Rogant is also. We are armed and pro- of the enemy, lost its road and was ta- this opposition arose not so much from taken prisoners. At 10 o'clock at night armative as follows: Bansun-Ornann, Jan. 22. | the Prince of Neulchatel visiting the | YEAS-Messus. Avery, Baylies of Jaccident which has happened to several lisk of N. Y. Gaston, Geddes, Gourdin, I threw themselves into our posts believ- Howell, Hufty, Irving, Jackson of R. 1.

The above apology for British cruelty dors; especially between the English and a The enemy have advanced consider- all the rear guard of the army was in or- ker, Pearson, Pickering, Pitkin, Post, is impudently false; because the enemy French, who are particularly attentive to ably. It is said they are at Picardy— der of battle before Brienne. It success Potter, John Reed, William Reed, Rich; were the first to set repeated examples | each other.

Were the first to set repeated examples | each other.

Were the first to set repeated examples | each other.

Were the first to set repeated examples | each other.

Were the first to set repeated examples | each other.

We sterday a courier from Lord Castle- | tainbleau, &c. The utmost exertions | sage of the bridge of Losmont, and to regies, Sherwood, Shipherd, Skinner, Smith reagh passed thro' this City, on his way are making to place Paris in a state of join the rest of the army. The Duke of of N. II. Smith of N. Y. Sturges, Tagfrom Chatillon to London.

Bayonne had not been taken the 10th dismay:—They are sending off all their bridge of Rosmay, was attacked by an Vose, Ward of Mass. Ward of N. J. Feb. There had been several skirmish- moveable goods to places of more secu- Austrian corps, which had passed in the Webster, Wheaton, White, Wilcox, rear of the woods Herepulsed it, made Williams of Mass. Winter, Wood. 300 prisoners, and drove the enemy be- Wright, Yancey-84.

Her majesty the Empress Regent tered Troyee. We have lost in the bat- Bowen, Brown, Burwell, Caldwell, Calappearances was it probable they would situation of the armies on the 3d Febru-The Emperor arrived at Vitry, Jan. verely wounded. Our loss in these two Farrow, Forsyth, Franklin, Ghoison, BORDEAUX, Jan. 29.

A passenger informs, that when the Silesia, had passed the Marne, and was the enemy is at least double. A division Indiana, Ind BORDEAUX, Jan. 29.

"Lord Wellington has made but a progress of 3 leagues into France in six months. He lost in the battle of the 13th conditions of which were, that he should be builded. I he doss of his march, and was made but a to the Swedish army; and that Murat tered Brienne the 27th, and continued had made peace with the Austrians; the march, but the lost much time in remarks. He lost in the battle of the 13th conditions of which were, that he should are builded. I he doss of leaves, Humphreys, Ingersoll, Ingham, marching upon Troyes. The enemy is at least double. A divisition of Kennedy, Kent of Md. Kerr, King of N. tered Brienne the 27th, and continued had made peace with the Austrians; the bis march, but the lost much time in remarks. The lost in the battle of the 13th conditions of which were, that he should be builded. I he doss of leaves, Humphreys, Ingersoll, Ingham, marching upon Troyes. The enemy is at least double. A divisition of Kennedy, Kent of Md. Kerr, King of N. tered Brienne the 27th, and continued had made peace with the Austrians; the bis march, but the lost much time in remarks. The lost in the battle of the 13th conditions of which were, that he should be a stablishing the battle of the 13th conditions of which were, that he should be a stablishing the battle of the 13th conditions of which were, that he should be a stablishing the battle of the 13th conditions of which were, that he should be a stablishing the battle of the 13th conditions of which were the should be a stablishing the battle of the 13th conditions of which were the should be a stablishing the battle of the 13th conditions of which were the should be a stablished by the lost march the should be a stablished by the lost march the should be a stablished by the lost march the should be a stablished by the lost march the should be a stablished by the lost march the should be a stablished by the should be months. He lost in the battle of the 13th Dec. from 13 to 15,000 men, and since then has made no move whatever. His army lies in the vicinity of the Adour, and his movements have been so slow that Bayonne, and the citadel opposite to it on this side the Adour, have been rendered by the lost much time in restablishing the bridge of Lesmont, upon the Aube. On the 27th the Emperor attacked St. Dizier.—The Duke of Belluno presented himself before this town. Gen. Duhesme overthrew the rear guard of the enemy had been hovering about Chalens, upon the charges of cannon, and driven bark at Wilson of Penn. Tour. made some hundred prisoners.—The charges of cannon, and driven back a Wilson of Penn.—76. Emperor arrived at St. Dizier .- It is league and a half. The Duke of Taren- So the bill was passed and the amend-

The last news from the army and clock.

The House then adjourned at four o'nemy commit, particularly the Cossacks,

M. the Emperor set are beyond description. On the 38th the Emperor moved up- jesty. Reinforcements of troops of all kinds continue to advance from different and sands which separate this City from raised the 18th, and carried forward to my, commanded by Gen. Bloucher, which pers to the 23d of Dec. The last paper secreted in a certain waggon, stopped Arcis-sur-Aube, where it still continued was estimated at 40,000 Russians and contains a brief account of Lord Welling- the teamster in Cambridgeport, for the The Emperor left Paris on the 21st; it was rumored that his majes- Prussians; the Russians commanded by ton's battles up to the 14th. Capt. Kirk purpose of searching for them. A trunk, to put himself at the head of the army in ty had arrived there with a considerable Gen. Saken. At four o'clock the little had died of his wounds. Major Pinto containing goods apparently British, was Champagne of 300,000 men. His artil- corps of troops, and it was believed that town of Brienne was attacked. Gen. Le- was wounded; and Col. Mayne and capt. found; and on the teamsters refusing to lery amounts to one thousand mouths of they were going to march immediately febvre Desnouettes, commanded a divi- Douglas were also wounded; 8 bullets show a certificate of the goods, the offifire, with which he intends driving the al- to meet the enemy. All the troops were sien of the guard, and Gen's. Grouchy passed through the hat and clothes of cer drove the waggen to the Custom lies out of France; and that a Peace is in the highest spirits. - We are assured and ne had two horses killed House in Boston. Upon arriving at the lies in that quarter. If he defeats the London papers received this on the town by the mob, it was easy to perceive they Allies, what will be their situation in morning in Paris announce that the ne- Gen. Chateau turned by the right, and ment of England, the British ambaesador were ripe for bloodshed. their retreat, with 13 garrisoned fortress- gociations between Denmark & Sweden entered the castle of Brienne by the at the Court of Brazils has, at a special we are happy to learn that the Cole es in their rear, and an enraged populace are broken off; that the armistice had park. At this moment the Emperor dibeen denounced, and that hostilities were rected a column upon the road to Bar, of Portugal, the acknowledgements of commenced by the U. S. district attorney upon the Aube, which appeared to be the the Court of London of the bravery and against the ringleaders of the mob; and retreat of the enemy—the attack was good conduct of the Portuguese troops that however audacious such men may We are yet French, and we shall not lively and the resistance obstinate. The in all the actions in which they have been be, they will find that the laws of the U.

BOSTON, MARCH 23. FROM PORTUGAL.

The Congress of Spain closed its sesthe remains of the army before, say 300, pected here to day with a numerous the bridge of Lesmont, where he intend- sion at the Isla, on the 29th of Nov. and

Lyons, January 22. | combat. The great force of the enemy 22, informs that the latest accounts from of the present day be again raised to CONGRESS.

Saturday, March 36. After disposing of some business of an | bitants.

YAZOO CLAIMS.

The Allied armics were rapidly ap- ed and armed; we see in the midst of cularly the steps on the side of the present rulers of the State in proaching Paris, on the north & the east. their ranks all the members of the Pre- This last check decided the retreat of lands in the Mississippi Territory, and power; but if they are friendly to peace the enemy, which the burning of the the amendments made thereto by this and internal tranquility, they will sup-TROTES, JAN. 24. I town favored. Gen. Grouchy and the House, being read the third time and the port Mr. Dexren, the man who has beabout 33 miles | from that capital. A | The spirit of the military officers and Duke of Belluno, at eleven o'clock in the question stated, 'shall the bill pass?' | fore preserved the State from the hor-

in session at Chatillon, on the Seine [a- fury transports them at the very name a- the village of Rothiere, where they took of more than half an hour, opposed its bition would be, to continue the imporbout 113 miles from Paris.]

Ione of the enemics that come to sack up their position.

Verbal and epistolatory news by the France; they burn to drive them on the We employed the 31st in repairing hensive view of the subject, and opposed The following is the statement of Mr. Rambler is, that the greatest alarm ex- other side of the Rhine. | the bridge of Leamont, the Emperor the bill on the grounds both of inexpedi- Johnson, the custom house officer, made were reports of recent battles, in which bold, Gen. Maison has disengaged Ant- which directed themselves upon Sens same side of the question. aving been the allies were successful :- That Den- werp, repelled and beaten the enemy, by Bar, upon Aube, and by the road of an eye witness of the original fraud, and SIR, mark had joined the Allies: That the of whom he has killed a considerable Auxerre. The bridge of Lesmont was having a personal knowledge of all its ul received information that Jerecitadel of Bayonne had not surrendered; number, and effected his junction with not re-established until the morning of enormity, he spoke in a feeling manner mish Wetherly was on the road from and that there had been to recent fighting the army of the Duke de Tarentum. the 1st of Feb. A part of the troops of that transaction & of its consequences, Canada, with goods which had been inconsidera- to receive it. The general of division a buttery of the grand Mr. M. I. im, of Mi. stated conciscisparis, which place was in the greatest visioned so as from a ANTWERP, Jan. 25. | the ambuscade into which they had fal- want of confidence in the bill which he the peaceful inhabitants, the employed in cutting down trees to fortify | The enemy is concentrated at Breda | len, and that there was not time to pre- decemed insufficient to effect he object,

Russian officers, having the parole, who Grosvenor, Hale, Hanson, Hasbrook, Bordenux, Feb. 19, 1814. | ing them to be their own. Few prison- Jackson of Va. Kent of N. Y. Kershaw, "The Emperor has retreated to Troy- ers have been made on either side. We Kilborn, King of Mass. Law, Lewis, Lovett, Lowndes, Miller, Mollitt, Mortget On the 2d of Feb. at the break of day, mery, Mosely, Markell, Oakland, Par-

NATE-Messrs, Alexander, Alston, On the 3d, at noon, the Emperor enter- Anderson, Archer, Bard, Barnett, Beall.

BOSTON, MARON 26.

SHAMEFUL OUTRAGE. On Thursday last a most disgraceful scene took place in this town. Ope of the officers of the Custom House having received information that some goods il-We have received a file of Lisbon pa- legally imported were supposed to be Custom House, a mob assembled, who

States are not to be trampled upon with

The well disposed and orderly part of society will at once discern in this proecclure what they are to expect, should Mr. Dunlap, who left St. Ubes, Jan. the STRONGS, OTISES and FESSENDERS The enemy has been driven from all and the fine situation of Brienne, gave Lord Wellington's army are dated on the power in Massachusetts.—Should the sion be brought forward by Gov. STRONG next summer, and read in the presence of such an infurtated mob, it would not be surprizing if the streets of the metropolis were to be stained with the blood, and strewed with the bodies of its inha-

We appeal to our fellow citizens at large. If with stoical indifference they can riew the approach of anarchy blood-Congress of the beligerent powers was soldiers is most excellent. A kind of morning of the 30th, pursued him beyond Mr. Sharp of Ky. in an animated speech rors of civil war, and whose highest am-to H. A. S. DEARBORN, Esq. Collector of

Bostow, March 25.

troduced into the U. States contrary to Mr. Preuss states it to have been re- Rosenthal; the Prussians have re-enter- in the afternoon the army being reinforc- Mr. Richardson of Mass. spoke a short law. I went to take possession of the ported at Bordeaux, that Hamburgh had ed their former cantonments, and the ed, by the whole of his army, deboucked time in support of the bill and in reply to same. Some conversation took place. frontier is sheltered from all insult. | upon Rothiere and Dienville, which we gentlemen who opposed it. | I told Wetherly I had authority as a A letter from an American public News equally happy arrived from the still occupied. Our rear guard shewed Mr. Forsyth, of Geo. replied to Mr. custom house officer to examine his load. character in Paris, dated 25th January, other points of the empire; the French much firmness. Gen. Duhesme distin- Richardson and entered again into an in- He asked me to show him my authority, says, "I expect our Ministers in Russia nation shew themselves every where guished himself by preserving Rothiere, vestigation of the bill, which he opposed which I did, by reading my commission. will reach the United States before the worthy of themselves. A noble enthu- and General Girard by maintaining Di- with his usual force, not from the just His wife got out. Wetherly said I had siasm creates new resources. Every enville. The corps of the Austrian Ge- abhorrence he felt at the ariginal corrup- no authority to search his load without a thing for des an approaching peace, and neral Goulay, which wished to pass from tion of the purchase, because that ques- warrant, and he would be demn'd if I From the Exchange Coffee liouse Books. if the alles could hesitate to conclude it, the left bank to the right and force tho tion was laid at rest, but from a convic- should. I examined it, altho Wetherly Paris, Feb. 9. | a proud and generous people who have bridge, had several of his battalions de- tion of the inexpediency, impolicy and a number of times clinched me, & forci-A Congress convened at Chatillon- so often conquered and pardoned them, stroyed. The Duke of Bellino main- inadequacy of the bill to the objects con- bly endeavoured to prevent me from so Lord Castlercagh was among the Pleni- would seen make them repent of having tained the hamlet of Giberie all day, in templated.

| doing. I found a trunk which contained spite of the enormous disproportion of Mr. Robertson, of Lou. followed in de-apparently British goeds, consisting of the enormous disproportion of Mr. Robertson, of Lou. followed in de-apparently British goeds, consisting of the enormous disproportion of Mr. Robertson, of Lou. METZ, Jan. 18th. | the forces which attacked it. This af | fence of the hill; in the course of which broadcloths, silks, stockinets, shawls, lieved the Allies are bent upon capturing The Courier and Diligences start from lair, in which our rear guard stood in a he replied to the gentleman opposed to cambries and files. I asked him if he here no more. We are inundated on all vast plain against the whole army of the him, took a sucinct and lucid view of had any certificate, and he did not pro-The Emperor had retreated to Troy- sides by the doodings of the Moselle .- enemy, and of quintriple force, is one of the subject, and enforced and illustrated duce any. I told him if he could prothe gover, is he said be would be demaid