FOREIGN NEWS.

NEW YORE, July 21. From London Papers to the 25th, re- Prince Regent, declaring the cessation Post of Captain of the North American have the advantage of concentrating his approached to within half a mile, and ceived at the Office of the Mercantile weak creatures, who some months since, the largest and finest vessel ever known terior his other Ministers are not yet a manner as to relieve that ill-fated dis- with the honors due to his rank. uaged the necessity of making peace in the British navy, is now completed at known. with him now join in urging a peace Woolwich, and the launch of her is re- May 19 .- The peace is signed; at least pled invaders, and prevent a recurrence ven years in the war of the revolution; with his tool, James Madison. They a- served as an interesting spectacle for the it is the universal assertion; and every of similar misfortunes. bused and vilified us then as members of illustrious Sovereigns who are about to one pretends to have received his inforthe war faction, and they do nothing else visit this Island. nov. We appeal to the common sense. May 20.—Ghent is now said to be fix- not yet been published; it is added, beof the country. Is it, or is it not, the ge- ed on for the scene of the American ne- cause the ratification of the Prince Rehis party should be reduced to their na- Capt. Broke, the gallant commander lowing, according to report, are the prinneral and just feeling that Madison and gociation. tive insignificance? Is it, or is it not, the of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of the Shannon, attended yesterday at the cipal conditions of a treaty which must force and relieve the state of dictate alike of justice and policy, "not | Chamberlain's office, Guildhall, to re- constitute the happiness of nations:only to chastise the savages into present ceive the sword, valued at 100 guineas, Guadaloupe, Martinique and St. Dominpeace, but to make a lasting impression which was voted him by the corporation go to be restored to France, who will alon their future fears? This is Mr. Ma- of London, together with the freedom of so recover the Isle of France, and have us for adopting it. The Morning Chromicle is true to its old and British feelings, tack and capture of the Chesapeake, A.

the City, as a testimony of the night sense in the Maladara ind Coromicle is true to its old and British feelings,
tack and capture of the Chesapeake, A.

artillery in fortresses now occupied by
the course of the Chesapeake, A.

artillery in fortresses now occupied by
the course of the Chesapeake, A.

artillery in fortresses now occupied by
the course of the Chesapeake, A. tells us, that we have obtained all that merican frigate.—The Captain was in the allied armies, to be restored to her; afternoon of that day in the position which he had taken up at Street's Creek.

The British commissioners informed he had taken up at Street's Creek. not go to war for any thing. In common vered from his wounds he received in the ther with all the districts enclosed within he had taken up at Street's Creek. commence hostilities with a view to ob- was bound with black silk. The sword Constat, &c. There shall be no talk eitain some object not in our possession; is of exquisite workmanship, the handle ther of contributions, war expences, or but it was Mr. Madison who went to war is solid gold, beautifully embossed with any other extraordinary imposition; no with us, and that in June 1819. Mark naval trophies; on one side it bears a picture, nor any monument of the arts the time, reader; for it speaks volumes, well executed enamel of the action be- will be removed. in explanation of the traitor's motives .- tween the Shannon and the Chesapeake, FROM THE LONDON TIMES OF THE 25TH It was, at the very moment, when Bona- on the other the city arms. parte crossed the Niemen, at the head of half a million of soldiers, professedly to thing so agreeable, so attractive, and so put the last hand to the continental sys- new to us, that we cannot avoid mentiontem, for the ruin of G. Britain. Then, ing the reports which have been in cirwhen our fate (as this serpent thought) culation for some days past, though we hung trembling on a balance, did he not cannot undertake to warrant their authen-Let slip the dogs of war, to seize & bring ticity. If we may believe our politicians, us to the ground. The scene is com- we shall soon see our former relations pletely and wonderfully changed. Bopaparte is fallen, Madison disgraced and discomfitted, and G. Britain has the means the coasts of Malabar and Coromandel. of inflicting ample and deserved vengeance. Lo! the pupils of liberality, the was on the 1st of June, 1792, will obtain indemnities, are works of nicety, requirphilanthropists, the sworn advocates of an increase of population when the defiforeign perfidy and treachery, step forth nitive treaty shall have been signed. and deprecate the very idea of justice, or of prudent precaution against future in-sult; but they will no more be listened expences of the prisoners of war. gently pleaded the cause of the monster 000 men, including the household of the troops are to be embarked in the Garonne may fail them—and one of them is of so who came in the Steam Boat, states, that Bonaparte. It is true, that negociators King, which will not exceed 30,000.— for Ireland and a large body for Ameri- desperate and atrocious a character that immediately on its being made known of great respectability have been appoint. Several other arrangements will soon, it ca. We trust that the latter will be suf- they dare not yet divulge it to the unini- at that place, that General Brown had ed on the part of Great Britain to meet is said, be known, unless the high con-ficiently numerous to terminate the war tigted—the rank and file of their own made a descent upon Upper Canada, rious orator Clay, the surly Bayard, and not be made public till after the signing A more particular account of the capture Russell the worthy defender of the forg- of the definitive treaty, which will take ed revocation of the Berlin and Milan place in London. At any rate what is A gentleman who arrived in town on vernment, so disgrace and degrade the had removed all the heavy baggage of Decrees.

not condescend to discuss the impudent ence on the public mind. linely to be facilitated by the arrival of distinction. our triumphant army from the South of Letters received in town on Saturday no person had any communication with Nor can we think the second will be may take place. France, the embarkation of which is not state, that Adm. Sir J. B Warren had ar- nor was any information received from more successful. Yet that such is the On Sunday afternoon, passed through proceeding with all diligence, and it is izing a large fortune from his appoint- miles; that he saw at Jonesborough, on we have no more doubt, than that Mr. at Greenbush, about 160 British prisonprobable that we shall shortly have to an- ment of commander in chief on the North Tuesday, two soldiers, who informed him Government delivered an Ora- ers, taken in the late affair at Fort Eries Hounce its arrival on the shores of Ame- American and West India stations. The that they with 6 others, had made their tion on the 29th of June. As little do we FROM THE ALBANY ARGUS OF THE 26TH week, with the permission of the British maica. government to proceed to Rome, landed at Rotterdam on Wednesday last.

a Marshal of France, & the King is said style.—He selected the Isle for his resi- It was not known who the British ships to have assured him, that he hoped for dence "in consequence of the mildness were.

to the amount of 4000 and upwards, con- car General of the Isle declares that the ny Messenger from England via Halifax, submission, by men whose cry of no dan- tained from intercepted letters written by tinue to be very refractory, and peremp- Island will become more illustrious from or otherways; and as to any expectation | ger has prevented preparation. When British officers, and from the inhabitants, torily refuse to acknowledge the new go- possessing a Prince of such immortal of an armistice; but, on the contrary, are will shudden at the their of religion to the enemy lost, in killed, wounded and Morn. Chron. vernment of France.

much larger scale than it was originally from Bermuda. She left there Vice Adimagined, it is said it will be placed un- miral Sir A. Cochrane, with the Asia, Robinson, Kempt, and several others are included in the arrangement. It will be composed of the 14th dragoons, a detachment of ar illery, the 3d, 4th, 5th, 39th, Boston Bay, waiting the return of the troops, under the command of General Gen. Brown and Brig. Gen. P. B. Porter Utica en Sunday, that the fleet was to Wellington.

Lord Hill, it is said, will command the expedition to America.

together. low the fortunes of her husband.

of hostilities between this country and seet, until Captain Codrington shall ar force, and choosing his point of attack. then returned, bearing their expiring ge-Advertiser by the General Armstrong. France, by sea and by land, in virtue of rive.

Paris, May 18. However, as very large reinforcements neral, who died before morning. The General's body was taken to the FROM THE LONDON TIMES OF MAY 30. 23d ult. and ratified on the 2d inst.

May 23.—The word peace has somerestored with St. Domingo, Martinique, our possessions in the Antilles, and on the Genevese democrat Gallatin, the fu- tracting parties determine that they shall properly. already known of the terms of this trea- Saturday evening, has communicated the administration, by compelling it to a dis- his army from Plattsburgh to Whitehall, We have however good reason to be- ty has produced a great sensation among following information respecting the honorable peace with Britain, as shall which is at the head of Lake Champlain, lieve, that the British Diplomatists will all classes, and had a remarkable influ- capture of Eastport, by the British.

this atrocious outrage; they will insist which place he left on Friday.—The re- ter handing their sails, a barge bearing a under the protection of the Prince Re- FROM THE ALBANY REGISTER OF JUS upon the safe & undivided possession of the turn of his Lordship is not known, nor is flag of truce, was dispatched from one of gent. Lakes, the abandonment of the Newfound- the departure of the Allied Sovereigns the frigates to the shore, which went a-

Eugene Beauharnois has been created ous documents. They are in his usual ately made off. peace; but that if occasion required, he of the manners of the people and the cli- FROM THE BOSTON PALLADIUM OF JUwould employ him with great confi- mate," so congenial to his own!!! The The French prisoners at Norman Cross songs of joy and triumph !- and the Vi- 12th inst. are sient as to the arrival of a- preparation assigned as a pretext for

The expedition to America is upon a has had a tedious passage, of six weeks day's passage. der a Lieut. Gen. not yet named, altho' it Ramilies, Loire, Dotterel, and Loup Ceris supposed to be entrusted to lord Hill; vier. The other ships of the fleet were transcribing intothis number a general Sir Henry Clinton, Major Gens. Barnes, cither cruizing in small squadrons on the order published here yesterday, by which FROM THE ONTARIO REPOSITORY American coast, or blockading the ports. it appears that a severe battle had been Admiral Cockburn was in the Chesa- fought on the Miagara frontier, on the 5th peake; the Tennedos and Junon were in ult. between a snall body of our brave 58th, 88th, and several other regiments, Constitution from her cruise among the Riall, and an American army of 5,000 dated Queenston Heights, July 13, and have sailed on Friday, under capt. Jones. composing the elite of the army, at pre- West India Islands, and the Essex from men, which had landed in the neighbor- nouncing, that on Tuesday evening, July Private letters purport differently. sent under the command of the Duke of the South Seas. The Orpheus, Captain hood of Fort Erie the gallantry of our 12, Brig. Gen. JOHN SWIFT, of Pal- It is ascertained, that on the receipt of Hugh Piggott, and Shelburne sloop, had officers and men, is this unequal contest myra, in this county, was killed in a most the news of the capture of Fort Erie, lately sailed from Bermuda under se- was highly conspicuous, but they were perfidious manner, by one of the enemy. 3,000 men were immediately sent from cret orders, with a large quantity of arms under the necessity of retreating from The General had volunteered to recon- Montreal to reinforce Gen. Riall, and The 14th light dragoons are under or- and ammunition on board, which it was such an immense disparity of numbers, noitre the enemy's positions and works at that more were to follow. This reinders for America. Land Harcourt's fine conjectured were for the purpose of arm- to Chippewa, and ve regret to find with Fort George, and took with him 120 forcement must by this time be at the regiment, the 15th, except a similar or | ing the natives of the Southern States. | considerable loss. The movment of the men. In proceeding, he captured, with | head of Lake Ontario. Gen. Brown's der, as they have always been brigaded The Superb 74, Hon. Capt. Paget, had enemy for those some weeks past have out firing a gun, an outpost, with a cor- movement was intended, without doubt, also sailed, with a quantity of retrench- strongly indicated, as we have previous- poral and 5 men, one of whom, after beg- with the co-operation of the fluet, to at-Jerome Bonaparte's second wife, who ing tools, and other military stores, which ly mentioned) that the Niagara frontier ging and receiving quarters, wounded the tempt the reduction of Ports George and is daughter to the King of Wirtemburg, being intended for the service in the en- would be the scene of his operations con- General by shooting him thro' the breast. Niagara. Finding b'imse, f disappointed te gone to Switzerland, determined to fol- suing campaign, were to be deposited on sequently we are not surprised at his at- The alarm occasioned by the discharge in this co-operation it is not improbable an Island in the Chesapeake. It was un- tempt to gain a footing on our side; but of the gun, brought to the spot 50 or 60 of he may have been i muced ere this, by A committee of the Upper House is, derstood that the President had been dis- we must confess that we were disap- the enemy, whom Gen. Swift, the' mor- dictates of prudent to retrograde acressed his arrival in the Island of Ellia, appoint- Europe, we hope that our force in Upper American side of the Niagara, and on The friends of Bonaparte, and the poor The new ship of the line, the Nelson, ed Gen. Bertrand his Minister of the In- Canada will soon be augmented in such Wednesday last, at 6 o'clock, interred mation from an authentic source. It has gent of England is waited for. The fol-

have received from Paris lead us to be- proportion of officers. lieve, that the great work of pacific neprincipal points in the Treaty, are under- the wounded. stood to have been long since agreed upon, and the outline to be nearly the same as that which appeared in the Moniteur; but the settling the boundaries of the Our territory, taking France as she new to tes, and weighing out the various

of Eastport.

during his stay (until the next morning) tish dominion. Times. | command is now divided between Admi- escape from Eastport; that the officer doubt of the impossibility of convincing tals Cochrane, Durham and Brown; the that landed in the barge, bearing the flag, their infatuated followers, that men, upon M. Lucian Bonaparte, who left his seat former for America, the second for the demanded of the commanding officer of whose sleeves they have so long pinned as warm in language as ever. A frigate will shudder at the tho't of political sui-

MONTREAL, July 12.

Chipperva Battle-British Account. We have the extreme mortification of and Trators of the Revolution. a understand, about to be formed to manufed, and Com. Rogers and his crew pointed, in finding that our force was so tally wounded instantly attacked with the Ningers.

consider of the present depressed state were gone to the Lakes. Sir A. Coch- much divided in that quarter, which can much state were gone to the Lakes. of agriculture in the three kingdoms. rane was to sail for Halifax in the Asia be accounted for only by the adherence His officers, however, animated by his The Gazette of last night contains a 74, Capt. Wainwright, on the 7th ult. to the defensive system on our part, by example, led on the troops, beat & drove proclamation by his Royal Highness the The Hon. Capt. H. Hothan is thus the which means the enemy must always the enemy into Fort George, which they Paris, May 18. However, as very large reinforcements neral, who died before morning. trict from the presence of their unprinci- General Swift served his country se-

GENERAL ORDER.

Defuty Adjutant General's Office, ? Kingston, 9th July, 1813.

Lieut. Gen. Drummond has received the 3d inst.

purpose of attacking Major Gen. Riall, Baynes and Baynton, commissioners on who had taken post at Chippewa, (wait- the part of the British, a few miles be-der Lieut. Col. the Marquis of Tweedale, to June 14, but that nothing of their conand one wing of the Royal Scots, under tents had transpired. Report states, that Lieut. Col. Gordon; Major Gen. Riall Col. Lear's business was to negociate an withdrew his small force to Chippewa, exchange of prisoners, and that he has after having sustained a very severe loss effected it for all prisoners in the land The latest private accounts which we in killed and wounded, including a large service, up to the 14th of April last.

Lieut. Col. the Marquis of Tweedale, gociation will not be brought to an end so of the 100th regt. Lieut. Col. Gordon of soon as has for some time been expect- the Royal Scots, and Capt. Holland, aid ed. The chief basis, and indeed all the de camp to Major Gen. Riall, are among

York. (Signed)

FROM THE NATIONAL ADVOCATE.

There will be no contribution for the will not be settled at a Congress, but by tern States, and in this City, are, at this iug was heard, supposed to be occasion-Commissioners named by the late belligerents. Our correspondent writes that game. They rest their security and sucIsland. The French army will consist of 230,- between 30 and 40,000 of the British cess upon alternatives, both of which A gentleman directly from Montreal,

If, by any means short of overt acts of that quarter. treason, they can so palsy the arm of go- It was also reported, that Gen. Izard, open to themselves the road to power about 65 miles from Albany. That on Monday the 11th inst. about and preferment—all is well. If not, if The arrival of the Steam Boat, did not Journal de Paris, May 13. | 5 P. M. he was in the ferry boat, passing the war should be protracted, if the Ad- furnish us with any news from General bout the impressment and native allegi- According to the latest accounts from Lubeck to Eastport; that when ministration, and a majority of the States Brown's army. ance, which was in fact a mere pretext Italy, the Pope, accompanied by the Sa- within about one mile of the harber of continue faithful to themselves and to for the war on the part of Mr. Madison, cred College, was to make his solemn en- Eastport he discovered 7 sail of armed each other, then, whenever and wherebut they will enter into the true merits of try into Rome on the 10th of this month. ressels, (6 ships and a brig) two of them | ver the enemy shall appear with an im- By the Steam Boat Richmond, we the question, the unprovoked and unprin- Mr. Krauntz arrived yesterday norn- frigates, the rest smaller vessels, just posing force, these leaders are prepar- have received the Albany papers of the cipled attack on Canada; they will de- ing at the Foreign Office, with dispatches anchoring, some of them abreast of East- ed for the second and last resort, which 25th instant, which contain the subjoined mand full security against a renewal of from Viscount Castlereagh, at Paris, port, and some of Indian Island; that af- is to make terms, by putting themselves news.

land Fishery, and restitution of Louisiana for this country. One of the Paris pa- longside the wharf, near the Custom dence, will fail them. The aeministrati- under date of the 20th inst. informs us, and the usurped Territory in Florida. pers which we have received to the 20th House; and about half an hour after the on is so identified with the country, and that our fleet lies safe in that Harbour; If, after all, the Eastern States should inst. speaks of the departure of the Em- barge returned, and the American flag has taken such high ground, that it can- that it has not its compliment of men; consider, as they well may, that an ami- peror of Germany, as near at hand, and was struck at the Fort; that shortly af- not be driven from it by artifice and blus- and that Commodore Chauncey is so uncable arrangement with Great Britain is likely to take place between the 25th and ter, 15 barges full of men, were sent from tering. Already has it triumphed over well as to be confined to his room. But more for their advantage than a subjuga- 30th. Private accounts represents the the ships to the shore, and soon after the faction in the Eastern States in the a- why has not the fleet its full compliment tion to the tyrannical and usurped autho- French capital to be the seat of endless landing, the British flag was hoisted on bandonment of their doctrine respecting of men? The British, it is reported, are rity of their Southern neighbors, we see intrigue; and it is not without great sur- the Fort; that not a gun was fired on ei- the service of the militia, and over the e- increasing their fleet with the utmost no reason to prevent our government ac- prize that several notorious adherents of ther side, and it appeared that it was sur- nemy in the exchange of all prisoners of vigor and celerity, both in men & ships; ceding to a point in every measure of late Tyrant have recently been seen to rendered without opposition; that the war, including those detained for criminal and if we are correctly informed, will ve-

The San Domingo, Sir J. B. Warren, had arrived direct from England in $5 cide. They will turn and interrogateand we to those who have misled them! British proclamations and promises will avail them as little as they did the Torics and, "never was his country called on to lament the loss of a firmer patriot or a braver man."

JULY 19. DEATH OF GEN. SWIFT.

In the steam-boat Car of Neptune, which arrived here on Sunday evening, force on the Niagara frontier on Sunday, his retutn to Washington from Canada, where he had been on government busi-Having advanced on the 5th for the ness. We understand he met Majors After an action highly creditable to the messenger arrived from Quebec, who

N. Y. Ev. Post

NEW YORK, JULY 23. LATEST FROM SACKETT'S HARBOUR. Argus Office, Albany, July 21.

A gentleman who left the Harbour on Major Gen. Riall has been reinforced Monday morning, informs me, that on at Chippewa by the king's regiment from Saturday, 300 riflemen left it in boats. J. HARVEY, for Brown's army, conveyed by 2 brigs. Lieut. Col. and D. A. G. On Sunday, the tissemen were compelle ed, by hard weather, to land upon Stoney Island, and the brigs to return to the Harbor; and that on Monday morn-The leaders of Opposition in the Eas- ing, as the Stage left the Harbour, a fir-

JULY 27. BY THE STEAM BOAT.

The first expedient, we feel a confi- A correspondent at Sackett's Harbor, Mew so desirable. This object is very arrive there, & even to be received with Ferry Boat then returned to Lubeck, and trial, as natural-born subjects of the Bri- ry soon be far superior to our force as to stopped as was reported yesterday, but is rived off the coast of Ireland, after real- Eastport, although the distance is only 2 calculation of the leaders of the party, this place on their way to the Cantonment

INSTANT.

FRONTIER NEWS. An officer arrived in the Sunday evenin Worcestershire in the early part of the Leeward Islands, and the latter for Ja- the Fort to surrender; that he answered, disholical machineties. But we fool a when he surrendered he would strike the diabolical machinations. But we feel as- Niagara. Nothing had transpired in the May 24.—Bonaparte upon his arrival flag; that about haif past 5 P. M. the flag sured, that when time shall have fulfilled army which remained at Queenston, but in the Isle of Elba, published some curi- was struck, when these soldiers immedi- our predictions—when the crisis shall some trifling affairs of out posts, which have arrived, a terrible reaction will ensue had terminated with various success.--that the well-disposed of this party (for | On Friday se'night our reconnoitreing such there are) will denounce, as Tories parties were attacked by a detachment and Traitors, those who have so long de- with six pieces of artillery from Fort ceived them with hollow professions.— George; some pieces of our artillery prefect desires the inhabitants to sing Quebec and Montreal papers of the They will not patiently hear the want of were bro't up, and the enemy were soon driven into their marks. It was accerprisoners, at Chippewa between 580 and 600 men. A report come down by the Stage, that a cannonading was heard on Wednesday, in the direction of the Nia-

> Our fleet remained in Sackett's Harbor on Thursday. Com. Chauncey was very unwell. The riflemen who left the Harbor some cays since, the Watertown paper informs us, were safe at Hender-We have received the orders of Major son's Harbor. A report was current at