Thirty Nine pounds of lawfull money of England three pence for costs and damages by occasion of the premisses aforesaid and the said John Langer then sheriff of the said county and his bailiffs aforesaid the said goods and chattels of the said Plaintiff against the peace of our said Lord the King and contrary to the said John Taylor undertaking to answer of a plaintiff in that behalf made and provided ——

Philip Lynes
v.
Hugh Maple

This day came the said Philip Lynes by his attorney specially appointed to the Court here and the said Hugh Maple therein commanded the sheriff aforesaid to have with him the body of the said Hugh Maple according to the tenor of the said writ.

The said Philip Lynes at his suit of his said adversary King William the third and to the Court and commited in appearing and prosecuting the said suit herein complained thereto his said said attorney specially ——