from the Paramount Picture of the same title, based on Vina Delmar's story.

SYNOPSIS

Regt Alien a manicurtal em ployed in the barber shop of a swanky Now York hotes has ambitions to marry a millionaire Al though she intrigues the interest of Allen Macklyn young millionagre paratyzed from the waist down as the result of a plane crash Regi has eyes only for Theodore Dress III society playboy Drew has plans to marry a wealthy society girl after a short trip to Bermuda But a dinner date with Keys at which Drew gets drunk causes him to miss the bout and Regs has to put him up for the night in her apartment The next day she so surprised to and Drew still in the apartment He tells her that he tasnt a cent his tather tosing everything in the crash Meanwhile Macklyn to making plans to marry Regi who is still underided about what to do about Drew then his teft Regi, who was waiting loping gait. nearby tooked at him curiously, un "This is terrible," exclaimed Regi could have." able to understand it.

CHAPTER VII

lobby and up to a door marked ask you not to use nasty words like "OFFICE OF MANAGER." "I'd like to report a loss," he said you I'm going to wash your mouth work and 'job'? Next time I catch

"I'm sorry. I keep forgetting. But

"You and your ideas," she laughed.

"You wouldn't give an inch, would

"No!" she said after a little pause.

As he spoke there was a knock at

"Say, what's that? A lighthouse?"

"Take your shirt off and get un-

"Will it hurt?" He eyed the con-

"Now, there's nothing to it. They "Are you getting undressed or do

"All right all right." He started

"You'd better do something about taking off his shirt and undershirt.

looking up the time when your boat gets in tomorrow Where's the thinks of the whole business."

"The cat's on it. That's what be

"He always has been something of Again there came a knock at the

"Your husband's shoe, ma'am,"

"Say that's about the tenth guy said Ted from under the sun tamp.

lots of funnier hings. We might ing to lose sight of your plans, are

"I'm not either." His tone became

"Nothing doing!"

you must have a lot of friends that out with soap and water."

"Nope. Would you?"

'I wouldn't give an inch."

to the individual at the desk. "Certainly. What is it?" The clerk picked up a pencil. Calmly Ted planted his naked could give you a job." toot on the desk and wriggled ats "That'd be a fine friend that would toes. 'Six eight-and-a-half B. Black." give you a job." be jeered. "No he said. "And I'd like it delivered friend of mine had better try anyto Allen 493 West thing like that." 120th I'm very much attached to that shoe. Thank you." He turned and walked dignifiedly you? out of the room. But since his feet were not on the same level, his gait was slightly reminiscent of John Barrymore and his peg leg in "Moby the apartment door downstairs "ED was restless Waiting in line Did you see a one-legged man "Oh. I nearly forgot," cried Regt, at the cashier's booth of a neigh come out of that aisle?" be asked as she jumped up and started climbcorbood movie house he kept shift. Regt confidentially as he took her ing through the skylight. "It's a suring from one foot to the other Then arm. When they reached the street prise for you." ne would swing his right foot, and passersby stopped to stare at his "Stay here, Regi," Ted pleaded softly. "That's the nicest present !

lafter enduring the stares for sev. She shook her head and nurried

A..... ... paper?" Regi inquired. enjoy the fine spring night.

Finally he purchased . .. o .. acts eral blocks. "I'll meet you at home." As they entered the lobby be "Oh, a fair weather friend, eh?" sneezed a tiny spasmodic sneeze he called after her. "You big snob! a critic." Then to the cat as she took it?" When Regi only walked faster look at the shipping news." "How did you get that cold?" asked Regi.

"Wet feet." He was contrite. "You couldn't get your feet wet on a day like this." "Oh. couldn't 1? Well, I did"

"Your shoes aren't wet," she said. tooking down.

"It's the socks. I just washed "I knew you'd come back." ne "Yes" Regt was moved but did them. They're the only pair I've said softly as his expression of not show it "Funny isn't it?" taked pain changed to pleased tri- "Not so terribly funny I've heard

They made their way over peo umph pie's laps to their seats.

"Now, take those socks off, whis and hurried away again while he fol- "Have you forgotten we're neels?" pered Regi. "But they're almost dry I can t | High hat! Stuck up!" even feet them." He sneezed, looked Arriving at nome after seven you?"

at his companion, then bent down blocks of torture, they went up on "Are you?" he answered, scarcely obediently. the roof of the apartment to enjoy above a whisper. When the show ended in a tearfu. the fine spring night. Ted amused "I suppose not." Her breath and nappy "clinch" they started to himself by singing "The Morning caught, then she straightened her get up. Ted stopped abruptly and After." to the accompaniment of the slim shoulders. "Certainly not!" radio, which they had brought up tooked down. "Wait a minute," he whispered "How was that" he asked when gay "Well we had a lot of laughs, There followed a desperate scram | the song was finished.

at the two in wonderment.

Regi. embarrassed.

and more common of abuse and murder called for during prohibition days.

had killed his sense of right and wrong, and did nothing about it.

The stories which are becoming more And how about revenue from liquor?

caused by drink are having their effect, traffic continues without paying its and people who are realizing that in- share. Crime was to cease, but instead flocking to Keeley Cure Institutes and is a question whether the increased hospitals till the capacity of these is revenue will pay for the efforts to re-enlarged many times over what was strain it. Judge Keating stated when thirst for liquor who cannot resist the the cases brought before the court were temptation to stop in at the saloon on traceable directly to the influence of the his pay check to celebrate? Then if he Where are those women and men who spends it all, and next day takes the brought about repeal and promised to Christmas basket which kind neighbors educate for "true temperance" when have provided for his family and trades their first object was accomplished? Are it in for more, as has been done in they going to abandon the field entiredulgence is getting the best of them are is mounting higher and higher.

the corner to spend just a little of Dance Halls and Beer Gardens.

didn't we. Regi?" ble to retrieve his shoes Other peo "Pretty good." she said judicially "Yes We had a lot of laughs." she pie wedging through the aisle looked "It's a nice voice. Ted Did you ever choked, biting her lips. Then, unable think of doing anything with it? to stand it any longer she added: "I "I've only got one shoe," panted Sometimes people who can sing get I'm awfully tired. Ted. and you've

It was all right when I had it, wasn't to avoid the titters of the crowd, he added in a louder tone: "Who dently having stepped on something

He started hopping on one leg. evi- said an usher from the theater.

Regi was hopping mad. She turned make a darned good couple."

lowed her, hissing: "You big snob! she asked scornfully "You're not go-

"Does it hurt?" The girl came run- that's thought we were married."

cares? Keep walking.

ning back. 'Is it bleeding?"

"Are you suggesting some form of She ran out of the room as Ted "Just a minute. He took ner by industry for me?" Ted sat up nor looked after ner in bewilderment.

It is still acknowledged that the illegal addressing the Jurors at the last ses-jobs doing it. A lot of them even get | had enough of that lamp. I've got to "I'll wait for you in the back. sa.d paid, even."

the arm and led ner tirmly into the ror-struck 'How often do I have to To be continued known cases, must be bare all the blame ay? If they do they need not blame from the State Racing Commission the W. C. T. U. NOTES known cases, must be bare all the blame by? If they do they need not blame from the State Racing Commission the C. T. U. for continuing to teach from the State Racing Commission the for the sorrow and suffering caused? the W. C. T. U. for continuing to teach from the State Racing Commission the for the sorrow and plans for the track, Stop and think, how much are you to the harmful effects of their beverages. stands, stables and prospects must be blame for putting temptation in your Let's all pull togetchr to make Amer- drawn and submitted to the commissi a man or woman under the influence of and vote to repeal the 18th Amendment during the coming year. known better? Granted. But why did than one fourth of the people did that, he not know better? Because alcohol while more than half stayed at home ? Phone, Plaza 2838 Hours 9 to 5

Optometrist Eyes Examined, Glasses Furnished 801 Lexington Building BALTIMORE, MD.

Who is to blame for the man with sion of the Circuit Court that most of MEN'S, LADIES' AND

"ILDREN'S APPAREL ELKTON, MD IN ST.

Organize And Elect Officers For Horse Racing Corporation

Head Of New Association

MAXIMUM OF 4 P. C. FOR PROMOTERS

luk farms, southwest of Stanton, brings ming. a Delaware race track one step nearer

At the general meeting in the offices For a time he swam rapidly, but those of William duPont, Jr., of those inter- weary muscles grew still more weary, ested in the formation of the company, incorporated under the laws of Delaware to promote the breeding of thoroughbred horses and establishment of a race track in this State, the following directors were elected:

Charles W. Baker, Jr., Alfred E. Bissell, State Senator Donald P. Ross, J. Simpson Dean and William duPont, Jr. Mr. Baker was elected president of the corporation, J. Simpson Dean, vicepresident, and Mr. Bissell, secretary and treasurer.

Officers of the organization, questioned about the future, said the objective of the association is to premote thoroughbred horse breeding and to take over the portions of the farms of Cunthe purchase of the property, for which options were secured sometime ago, as announced in these columns, were taken and by the time he reached the middle immediately following th eorganization of the Big River it seemed to him that respects for steeplechase and track rac- clump of trees he could see on the op- have no chance at all, for the hunter once in a lifetime." ing, should sufficient interest be taken posite bank above the point where he would simply wait for him and shoot by the residents of the State to warrant had entered the water, but to do this him as he came out of the water. the erection of an establishment for that he had to swim against the current, But rest he must, and so he stood her smile crumpled against the hard

Should the interest in the racing protion will own portions of two good This made the swimming easier, for the farms which may be resold in the future, which may be used for industrial aviation field.

purchased which the promoters believe on each side of the property.

Officers of the association hope sufficient interest will be displayed in the project that it will be possible to promote the erection of a modernly equipped establishment, for track running races and also for steeplechase racing. Initial surveys of the property by engineers representing the association and familiar with requirements for a large track, have shown that the portions of the two farms are as good as any in this section. Under the Delaware racing act, passed by the last Legislature, a track for racing must be a mile or longer in circumference. The properties to be acquired will accomodate such a track, grand stands and stables, parking area and other necessary space with The property is considered ideal in every respect, as the drainage is good and is accessible by trains, highways and also by plane, if desirable. All of-taken place is that five persons, interest- them that dice are magnetic. So you ed in establishing a high grade track in proceed to prove it. Delaware, have organized and taken. You set one of the dice with the steps to secure suitable property so that six side up. Taking the other, you if sufficient interest and enthusiasm is carefully place it on the first, holding WILLIAMS' developed in the State, the property the six side down. The same surfaces of the Durpose, will be available for that purpose. the six side down. The same surfaces of the O-MATIC will be available for that purpose.

No steps to build any track or stands will be taken, however, until it is possible to estimate the interest of people of the dice. Invariably, the lower one the project.

Before any permit can be secured Did you ever hear a person criticise brother's path? Did you go to the polls ica a safer and better place to live in for approval. No such specific plans wi be made until the financial prospects of of James R. Cunningham and Wladislaw Beware Coughs rence P. Talley obtained the options many weeks ago. Officers of the racing lassociations say that the options provide for acquirement of the ground an average of about $70 an acre.

The Cunningham property is lev and the Samluk farm rolling. They are located about seven miles from W mington and can be reached by the thing less than Creomulsion, which Capital Trail and the duPont Boule vard by Hare's Corner.

Under the Delaware law not more than four per cent profit can be taken out of racing by the promoters, the mainder of the receipts to go into plan maintenance, establishment and purses to winners.

Charles W. Baker, Jr. Is by Thornton W.

LIGHTFOOT'S LONG SWIM

THE Big River was very wide. It from his long run ahead of the hounds.

ningham and Somluk. Negotiations for So for a Long Time He Remained Right Where He Was.

and he soon found that he hadn't the for a long time on the little sand bar indignation on Dave's lean face. strength to do this. Then he turned in the Big River And little by little and headed for a point down the river. he felt his strength returning.

This feature of the law is expected purposes or would make a nexcellent to result in high purses and attraction DADA KNOWSof famous horses here should such a There is a level straight-away of track be established and maintained about a mile across the property to be over a period of years. Construction of would make an excellent airplane run- a track, development of the turf, and raising of the prize money to desirable The P. R. R. and B. & O. R. R. are amounts would be a development of several years.

MAGNETIC DICE

ficers of the association agreed on the COME of the cleverest of impromptu suitability of the site and on the deci- tricks require a bit of "bunkum" to sion to immediately acquire and hold it make them mystify. This is the case for possible use as a track. with the "Magnetic Dice." Most per-So far, it is explained, all that has sons will doubt you when you tell

Sixes are the best sides to use. Whereupon, you lift the uppermost comes along. There are the dice, magnetized as you promised. Sides have nothing to do with it, nor has magnetism. That is your story to cover the real secret. Simply moisten the lower side of the upper cube. Press the dice together and they will stick until you separate them. WNII Service.

from common colds That Hang On No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anygoes right to the seat of the trouble phlegm is loosened and expelled. Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not

I current helped him instead of hinder-be torn to pieces by dogs.

not take another stroke and that the and said, "Charge it, please, to my faend was at hand, a foot touched some- ther-Gaston Cartwright, you know." thing. Then all four feet touched. A "Fifty dollars." The clerk's voice second later he had found solid foot- honeyed the words. "Of course," she ing and was standing with the water went on, "the little peach taffeta at only up to his knees. He had found twenty-five is sweet, too, but it can't a little sand-bar out in the Big River. compare with this." With a little gasp of returning hope, Marjorie glanced at her husband Lightfoot waded along until the water and squared her lovely shoulders. began to grow deeper again. He had "I'll change back into my own clothes hoped that he would be able to wade and then decide," she said. ashore, but he saw now that he would | When she emerged from the dressing have to swim again. So for a long room in her trim black street suit, the time he remained right where he was, clerk discreetly hustled away with He was so tired that he trembled an armload of rejected frocks. all over, and he was as frightened as "Well, Davie, which shall it be?" he was tired. He knew that standing | Marjorie asked brightly. out there in the water he could be "You know darned well," said Dave, seen for a long distance, and that made | "we decided that if you got a new him nervous and fearful. Supposing a formal it wasn't to cost over twentyhe was not getting ahead at all. At hunter on the shore he was trying to five bucks." The site is considered suitable in all first he had tried to swim toward a reach should see him. Then he would

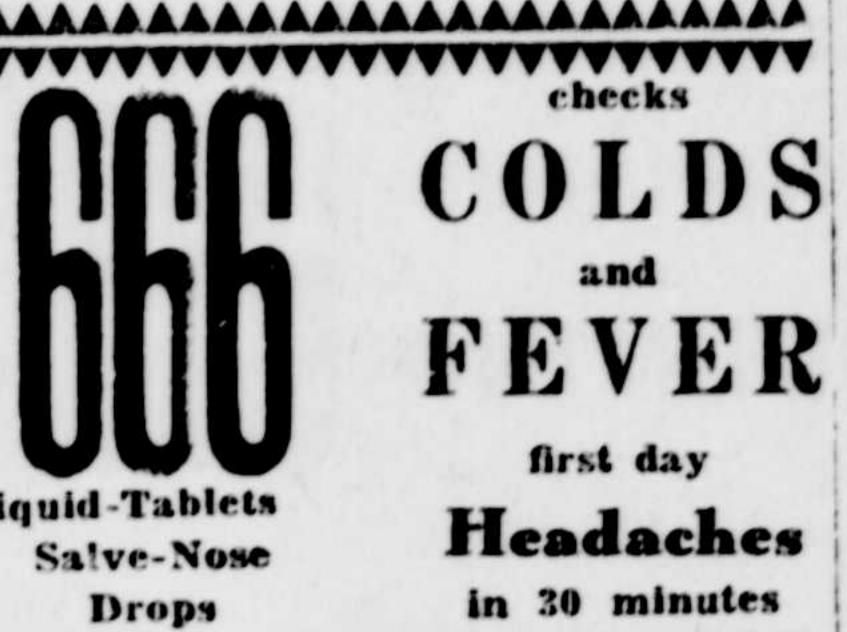

Organization and election of officers I would have been a long swim for leaving him. Had he escaped those ruffled skirt and the smart shoulderof the new Delaware Steeplechase and Lightfoot had be been fresh and at his | hounds and the terrible hunters only strap arrangement and the color-" Race Association, Inc., and decision of best. Strange as it may seem, Light- to be drowned in the Big River? This appealing suddenly to the young man the association to immediately acquire foot is a splendid swimmer despite his new fear gave him more strength for who sat stiffly on the saffron settee-450 acres of the Cunningham and Sam- small, delicate feet. He enjoys swim- a little while. But it did not last long. "stunning with your dark hair and fair He was three-fourths of the way across | skin, isn't it?" But now Lightfoot was terribly tired | the Big River, but still that other shore | "Yeah," muttered the young man seemed a terrible distance away. Lit- warily. tle by little hope died in the heart of "How much is it?" asked Marjorle, Lightfoot the Deer. He would keep prompted by his tone. on just as long as he could, and then It was a nuisance to have to ask -well, it was better to drown than to cautiously the price of things. Before

OT. W. Burgess. - WNU Service.

"Pop, what is mercenary?" "An eagle's talons." @ Bell Syndicate. - WNU Service.

CAN STATE

MAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

Oil-O-Matic Burns No. 4 Oil

is approved by National at one corner with pain. ire Insurance Under- He clipped them together with anriters for the burning of up from across the room. No. 4 oil.

Big news to those that "The young man I've been waiting on know oil because No. 4 oil is less expensive and actually contains nore heat value than ordinary burner Oil-O-Matic Distributor to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden J. H. McCloskey, Inc. ELKTON, MD.

115 E. Main Street Phone 306-W satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now.

The Orchid Dress

By KATHLEEN CP : NNELL McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
WNU Service.

A ARJORIE smilled at herself in IVI one of the mirrors of the Metrosalon and turned quickly to make the orchid dress swirl around her ankles. "Oh, it's perfect on you," sighed the Even then, he could feel his strength | clerk with the ruby finger nails. "That she had married-just a year ago now Just as Lightfoot felt that he could -she had gone in any store in the city

"Oh, but this is a dress that comes "That seems to be your theme song." Marjorie smiled mischievously, but "It isn't as if you weren't doing well in the office, or as if we didn't have money in the bank," she sulked. "It wouldn't be there if you had

"You know now what I think about it." Marjorie struck back impulsively. "Mamma warned me to go easy about falling in love with a Forner-'a whole clan of fishhook pockets,' she

"Remarkable coincidence!" retorted Dave with crescendo acridness. "I had a forewarning, too, about pockets. 'The Cartwrights are all spendthrifts,' my Dad told me. 'In one pocket, out of the other." Marjorie frowningly bit her lip. It seemed fantastic that she and Dave were saying these things. "Davie-" She conjured up a halfapolegetic smile.

But Dave wasn't looking at her. He was going on in a more deadly tone, "I suppose you haven't the slightest memory of an April night about a year ago when you promised you'd sacrifice anything-even your daily coke-so I could start in business for myself. You AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA knew how much it meant to me and you haven't given up a damn' thing. It's been getting me down for a long COLDS time. We're going to settle it now, once for all."

So that was all that sacred night meant to him. Of all the things they FEVER meant to him. Of all the things they had talked about he remembered only this. All these precious, blithersome twelve months he had been thinking how extravagant she was. He didn't remember how on the same night he had promised her the very moon for a fraternity pin if she wanted it.

"All right," she said, suddenly. "We'll settle it right now. This pennypinching is getting me down, too. We'll buy the orchid dress, or I'm leave for Reno tomorrow. It has been done you know." "Good-by!" Dave snorted. Too late now. She couldn't-she wouldn't-take it back. The rubynailed clerk was coming toward them, brows lifted inquiringly. Dave was opening his lips. Proud young lips, Williams' Oil-O-Matic white with anger, quirked down a bit noyance when another clerk hurried > "Is this size sixteen?" she asked in an undertone of Ruby Finger Nails. saw it over here and says it's just what he's been looking for He wants it for a burial dress for his wife. So sad. They'd just been married a year. She's—she was a size sixteen. It isn't sold, is it?" She smiled gently.

"Is it?" Ruby Finger Nalls turned to her customers. Marjorie and Dave were staring transfixed across the room at the sagging shoulders of the other young man.

"Do you want it?" the clerk per-"Yes," said Dave. "No," said Marjorie.

She discovered that somehow she was holding Dave's hand and it was equeezing back until her knuckles "I think I can make my old white formal do," she said "Come on, Dave,"

The Scientist's Dilemma He was, in fact, the absent-minded professor, and he was strap-hanging in a tram. The other arm clasped half a dozen bundles. He swayed to and fro. Slowly his face took on a look of apprehension.

"Can I help you, sir?" asked the "Yes," said the professor, with relief. "Hold on to this strap for me while I get my fare out."—Santa Fe

ALAAAAAAAA

Magazine.

Old Man Winter WITH A 20PIC-AIRE Water Motor

hicle Heater NJOY MOTORING rom Winter to Tropic-Aire 2.95 and up

mer Main & Bridge Sts. ELKTON. MD. AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA