Judge Calhoun Davis of the circuit court in the sleepy little town of Tidewater, Virginia, is hated by his stepson, Jim. Jim is in love with Mary Lee, the girl next door, who really is in love with Bob Stuart. In a jealous rage, Jim borrows a car from Higgins, a neighbor, and wrecke it. He finds an expensive shotgun belonging to Higgins on the rear seat. The garage wants close to fifty dollars to repair the car while Higgins threatens Jim with arrest. In desparation, Jim takes the gun and sells it to Bob for enough money to pay the garage

JESUS AND THE LAWYER LESSON TEXT-Luke 10:25-37.

GOLDEN TEXT-Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself .- Luke 10:27. PRIMARY TOPIC-Jesus' Story of a Good Neighbor.

JUNIOR TOPIC-Who Is My Neigh-INTERMEDIATE AND TOPIC-How to Be a Good Neighbor. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC-Whose Neighbor Am I?

AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

The subject, "Jesus Teaches Neighborliness," chosen by the lesson committee, deais only with one side of the question; namely, man's duty to his fellow men; whereas, his first duty is to God. I. How to Inherit Eternal Life

(vv. 25-28). 1. The lawyer's question (v. 25). The term "lawyer" here means "one versed in religious law, the Scriptures," not "lawyer" in our modern sense of that term. It more nearly corresponds to our theological professor. The law yer's object was to trip Jesus, to induce him to take such a stand as would weaken his influence miliar to him. Jesus thus robbed him of his own weapon. Though Jesus knew the motive of the lawyer, he did not evade his question.

3. The lawyer's reply (v. 27). He made an intelligent answer, declaring that the entire content of the law was embraced in love to God and man. 4. Jesus' reply (v. 28). The straightforward answer went to the heart of the lawyer. Perfect love to God and man is truly the way of life. No man has yet had or can have such love. His sinful condition precludes its possibility. The lawyer keenly felt this thrust. He was defeated on his own grounds and, therefore, convicted of guilt.

"Who is My Neighbor?" (vv.

29-37). The lawyer's question (v. 29). "Who is my neighbor?" This question reveals the insincerity of the lawyer. Christ's answer had reached his conscience and now he seeks to escape the difficulty by asking a captious question.

2. Jesus' answer (vv. 30-37). Jesus' reply more than answered the lawyer's question. In the parable of the Good Samaritan he makes clear who is a neighbor, and also what it mean to be a neighbor and what loving a neighbor means. Christ's answer had a double meaning. He not only made clear "Who is my neighbor," but also that the lawyer was not playing the neighbor.

a. This destitute and wounded man. left on the wayside by the robbers, is a man who needs a neighbor. My neighbor, therefore, is the one who needs my help, whether he lives next their neighbors on every hand.

b. What being a neighbor means, Our supreme consideration should not be, "Who is my neighbor?" but "Whose neighbor am I?" To be a neighbor is (1). To be on the lookout for those in need of help (v. 33). Love is always on a journey. It is keen to discern the needs of those with whom it is brought into contact.

(2). To have compassion on the needy (v. 33). Christ's compassion was aroused as he came into contact with those who were suffering and in need. Those who are Christlike will be likewise moved. (3). To give to those in need (v. Love does not calculate the cost its actions. Whenever there is the calculation of cost there is the expression of selfishness. Many are willing to give money to help the poor and needy, but are unwilling personally to minister to them. Many times the personal touch is more important than the material aid.

(4). To bind up wounds. If we have eyes to discern we shall see many wounds about us that need attention. (5). To set the helpless ones on our beasts while we walk (v. 34). This is the proof of the genuineness of our love. Those who are like Christ will deny themselves in order to have something to give to those in need. (6). To bring to the inn and take care of the unfortunate (v. 34). Genuine love does not leave its service incomplete. Much Christian service a good deal to be a neighbor. Love is 5.98 the most expensive thing in the world. 1.75 It cost God his only Son; it cost Jesus 68.00 Christ his life.

Goodness' There is an idea abroad among 7.50 moral people that they should make 9.80 their neighbors good. One person I

62.25 have to make good; myself. But my 70.38 duty to my neighbor is much more nearly expressed by saying that I have 4.50 to make him happy if I may. Our Road

We cannot always choose our road 25.00 in life, but we can choose whether we 5.60 walk along the shady or the sunny side 14.85 of it.-G. A. Steel.
