Wine, Cheese And Crackers Make Ideal Buffet Menu

An informal and triendly atmosphere prevails when the hostess chooses to serve her guests from a buffet, and tere is a buffet meal that is attractive enough to tempt any appetite. The variety of cheeses, crisp crackers und domestic wine make an especially delightful after-the-theatre snack. On the cheese tray you will fine e diversity of color, texture and flavor which should appeal to the most discriminating of guests. Ripe and stuffed olives and deviled eggs mingle with American Cream, Edam, Roquefort, Camembert, Liederkrantz and various types of packaged cheese and cheese spreads. The wine may be a good domestic brand of Port, Tokay, Sauterne, Reisling or Burgundy.
