"Scanty Darlings," comes === to the New Gayety Theatre, Baltimore, next week, opening with the regular Sond Service Matinee Sunday, Nov. 8, is no exception. It is just a splendid lot of fun with moments that will make one tired with laughter, and moments that will keep one busy applauding the amazingly daring dances presented by pretty and well formed women who display their varied charms in spanish, Egyptian and Nudity

The star of "Scanty Darlings," is Miss Jean Lee, platinum blond who has decorated various magazine covers. Her pleasing personality includes songs, exotic dances and the display of her lovely undraped form. The comedy and end of the show is taken care of by Harry Evanson and Billy Fields, real honest-to-goodness funsters who, without apparent effort, cause gales of hearty laughter.

Other players of prominence include Jess Mack, sonorous voiced master of ceremonies; Johnny and Sis Patchens, specialty artists in a remarkably clever imitation of Will Mahoney; talented musicians and expert tap dancers; Evelyn Whitney, Ingenue and Strip Teaser, and several other entertainers.

The chorus-eighteen of 'em, is claimed to be a bit better than the usual run in the way of pulchritude and in the singing and dancing habit.
