Rush of Work Makes Extra Meetings Necessary.

Owing to the increasing activities of the bazaar committee it was decided that extra meetings of the executive committee of the bazaar would be held in between the regular open meetings each week.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at both the luncheon and meeting next Tuesday, and that all those who wish to be present at the luncheon will send in their names at once to Mrs. C. E. Ellicott, 7

WOMEN HELP THE COTTON MARKET

Cotton Goods to Be the Fabric of the Hour With Patriotic Women-Maryland One of Sixteen Southern States to Purchase Bale.

The order to buy a bale of cotton has gone forth to the suffragists. The National American Woman Suffrage Association has sent a check for $50 through the treasurer, Mrs. Stanley McCormick, to the president of every State Suffrage Association in the South. The name of the fund for the purchase of cotton is "The President Anna Howard Shaw Cotton Bale Fund," and each suffrage president who makes the purchase is directed to store the bale of cotton in the warehouse or to have it sent to suffrage headquarters, where it may occupy a place of honor on the platform.

"She is to buy the cotton at 10 cents a pound," said Mrs. McCormick, "and regard it as an investment until financial affairs ease up in the South and the price of cotton returns to its normal figure.'

"We wish to show, as good suffragists," concluded Mrs. McCormick, "that in the severe economic predicament which confronts the entire South that our sympathies are with them, and that we have a desire to help."

Just Government League to Buy a Bale.

Mrs, D. R. Hooker, president of the J. G. L. of Maryland, has received a check for $50 from Mrs. Stanley McCormick, treasurer of the N. A. W. S. A. Mrs. Almira G. Sweeten has been appointed chairman of a committee to buy a bale and to make arrangements for holding it until she receives a request to sell again from national headquarters.

Speaker Clark's Daughter Starts "Cotton" Innovation

Another movement on foot among the suffragists has originated with Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of Speaker Champ Clark of Missouri, who came out so frankly for suffrage not long ago, and whose whole family are devoted adherents of the woman's cause.

Miss Clark's idea is that there shall be a cotton bargain day, when 10,000,000 women shall spend $t on cotton goods and thus relieve the money stringency which is paralyzing the cotton-growing manufacturers of the country.

MOVING PICTURES TO AID FEDERAL AMENDMENT Women Voters of the West Promise Support and Co-operation.

The moving-picture shows promise to be one of the most powerful factors in defeating the Democratic candidates for Congress in the nine States where women vote. Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs, in charge of the Oregon campaign headquarters of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, which is appealing to all women voters to defeat the Democratic candidates for Congress because of the opposition to the suffrage measure by the National Democratic party, originated this idea.

A slide was prepared by the Oregon headquarters bearing the figure of a woman trumpeter calling to the women voters to stand by their disfranchised sisters in the East. The legend on the slide reads: "The National Democratic party blocks the Federal suffrage amendment; defeat the Democratic candidates for Congress." This idea has been adopted by campaign managers in the other suffrage States, and will soon be displayed in the moving -picture houses from Seattle to Phoenix, Arizona.

Promises of co-operation from the women voters in the campaign continue to reach the National Headquarters of the Congressional Union at Washington. Word has been received from Mrs. William Kent, Kentfield, Marin county, California, in which she says: "The plan of action seems to me a highminded one, and it is bound to have a wonderful influence. What can I do to help?" Mrs. Kent, who is the wife of Representative Kent of the first district of California, is a member of the Executive Committee of the Congressional Union. She has arranged to speak against the National Democratic candidates for Congress as a part of the Union's campaign, before the Civic League of San Rafael and before a meeting at the Women's Progressive headquarters in San Francisco.

WAR AND WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Rabbi Wise Talks of Unrest and the Great Causes Back of It.

Rabbi Wise, who preaches in Carnegie Hall in New York every Sunday, is one of the most ardent suffragists who lifts up a telling voice for the cause of woman's enfranchisement. The following are extracts from recent sermons:

"I hold that the absence of women from the councils of State is partially, if not largely, responsible for the continuance of the plague of war upon earth. Is it less than incredible that six or seven nations are engaged in the greatest war that the world has ever known and not a woman in all these lands has been consulted as to whether war or peace should be. though tens of thousands of men of women born have died and the last great terrible cost of war in life-long sorrow and suffering will be women-

"Whether or not it be true, as George Meredith says, that the awakening of women is the most indigestible fact of the last 60 years, it is one of the most significant things that has ever come to pass in the history of the world. The awakening of women might be called the great unrest only in the sense that it represents a largely conscious, or a half-conscious, development of certain life forces. The woman's movement is not a feminist movement at all, but a human movement."

"Fine it is that women have come at last to be active on their own behalf and are no longer satisfied to leave the solution of their problems in the hands of others. Thus, although there are a number of men seriously active in the ranks of the equal suffrage cause in our land, the leadership of the movement is in the hands of women who are among the ablest persons in America. The cause is being led with a sound and wise statesmanship, which is not the least of the proofs of the fitness of women for

"Unrest there is in womanhood today, but there is more than unrest, for the unrest which obtains in the world of womanhood is symbolic of the warring of mighty forces. Cure for unrest-there can be none, for unrest is not a disease, but the never-ceasing pains of growth. awakening is the token of the life which calls."
