Anne 25 Know all men by these presents that I John Hammond and doe hereby ordaine, constitute, make & ordaine my beloved Anne Hammond my true & lawf[ull] wife & attorney in my name & stead to act and doe according to power [illegible] to her & her in a letter of Attorney bearing date [illegible] this present month of under my hand & seale, & furthermore I hereby confirme & ratifie that said power to herselfe only with this addition, that it shall & may be lawfull at her pleasure to revoke, annihilate & null any such power by me given to the said Walter [illegible] other person whatsoever notwithstanding any such power so so given & that it shall & may be lawfull for her to [illegible] doe, say, sue, implead, lease, sell, order & dispose of my part of my estate or any thing belonging to me whatsoever as full & ample power as may or can be expressed & as if my selfe were personally present. In witnesse hereof I have hereto set my hand & seale this sixteenth day of April 1655.

John Hammond

Signed, sealed, & delivered for the use of my said Atter-ney in presence of us.
M Fantleroy
Rich: Brownrigge.

Know all men by these presents that I Anne Hammond wife to John Hammond do revoke all power given by my aforesaid husband to Walter Peake jointly with me or to either of us severally to dispose of any thing to him belonging, by vertue of a second letter of Attorney from my aforesaid husband revoking the same imposeing me to act by my selfe & further the aforesaid Walter Peake is agreed hereunto as is testified by me & the underwritten witnesses Anno Domini 1656, the 17 November.

Anne Hammond.

Witnesses
John Lawson
Walter Peake

Husband interlined in the ninth line was before the delivery hereof.

These last words were written in the margent of the above Revocation.

Philip Calvert.