Fields, but I hope she will come to day. Your Cousins Mrs Wilmer and Betsy were here yesterday they desired their love to you.

Give my Love to Augusta if she is with you, as I take it for granted she is. I suppose you will stay sometime at yr Aunt Thompsons as you have not been there for so long. Pray Ann what is become of Mr Keene? h[illegible] chosen an Angel yet to carry out with him? I really wonder he did n[illegible] carry you. — — — — I have no news to tell you or I would make my letter longer. Do write me word what you put (postage from Miss M. Lloyd) for on the back of my letter for I cannot understand who it is that is to take the postage, & likewise ask Sally what she put it on the back of Hester's letter to me for, as I know it was her writing. I shall expect a letter from you soon.

I am my Dr Anna affectionately
Yours, Maria Lloyd

Pray write me word who it is that Hester has made a conquest of —
