My dear Aunt

I hope you and Aunt - yourselves laughed told you when we sp you may depend I felt as mad when I retired ~~that~~ but could not help laughing at myself when Miss Harriett left my room and bid good night to think where my bones were resting however they were very kind and we found every thing very nice - the Widower followed us on to Town where he took the S. Boat for Bal-more - and spent the following Sunday evening with us Mr Ostorn who was with him said - I did not get -
