Herewith you will receive a respectable ~~Petition~~ petition about retailers of spirituous liquors. I have put my name to it as it is intended for general good, but cannot think that the way proposed will correct the evil complained of – If a tax such as is imposed upon Billiard Table was laid upon retailers then Grog shops would be done away, and no other restriction will prevent the access from obtaining liquor – it can be had at night or any other time when those possess a mind to
