ORDINANCES

PASSED AT THE ANNUAL SESSION, HELD JANUARY, 1844.

No. 1.

A SUPPLEMENT to an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the Inspection of Beef and Pork."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That it shall be the duty of the inspector appointed under the direction of the ordinance to which this is a supplement, to brand each and every tierce inspected by him with the words "prime, mess beef"—provided each tierce shall be sufficiently tight to hold pickle, and full hooped except a space of not more than ten inches from hoop to hoop along the bilge, and at least two of said hoops to be of iron. Each tierce to contain three hundred and four pounds of beef; to consist of an equal proportion of fore and hind quarters of good and well-fattened cattle, weighing, when dead, not less than six hundred pounds each, the necks and shins to be excluded—and provided also, that each tierce shall contain not less than one and a half bushels of good clean coarse salt and six ounces of salt petre and filled up with clean strong pickle. Duty of Inspectors of Beef and Pork prescribed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That so much of any existing ordinance as is inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved Jan. 21, 1844. JAS. O. LAW, Mayor.

No. 2.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for opening of a street thirty feet wide, to be called Boyd street.

WHEREAS, George Law and others, proprietors of the major part of the ground over which the contemplated street will Com. of streets to open Boyd street.