

THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

It is a hot time to be writing a letter, and I almost ran out on you this week, but the call to duty supplanted the urge to be a quitter. So, here I am for a brief moment.

Yes, verily, the Fourth passed off in a patriotic style, with fire crackers breaking the silence of the early morning's slumber, boats with twinkling lights anchored in your river, the dance a huge success, the club house packed with locals and their guests and the storm in abeyance to have the display of fireworks on Monday evening. And so, all's well that ends well.

One of the most attractive boats anchored here all week, is one familiar to most of us, the "Liberty." Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Crane and Mrs. Crane's daughter, Miss Betty Withgot have been aboard their boat a greater part of the week and have been enjoying the renewal of friendships as well as guests at several informal functions, given during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schmidt, accompanied by Mrs. Karl Melamet cruised from Baltimore Sunday and remained over until Monday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bachus. On Sunday evening, Mr. James L. Bachus, who was home for the week-end, entertained at supper in honor of the Schmidts and the Cranes.

Many from here spent the week-end away. Among those were Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins who visited friend at Ocean City, Md.

Miss Lina Harley, has returned from a visit to her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Marriner, of Loch Arbor, New Jersey.

The Gamma Sigma Sorority of Washington College have gathered at Rehoboth, Delaware for a houseparty extending from July 6th to July 13th. Those members from town include Misses Elizabeth Baldwin, Martha Speicher, Elizabeth Westcott, Mary Woodland Westcott, Anne Cameron, and Sophie Shaefer.

Miss Harriet Louisa Rogers left Monday to take up her duties as counselor at Camp Wright, Stevensville, Maryland. Miss Rogers is spending the week-end at Rehoboth with the Gamma Sigma house-party.

Miss Margaret Bell also left Monday to become a counselor at Camp Wright where she is to be tennis instructor.

Miss Elizabeth Johns left last week to attend the summer session at Alfred University. She was accompanied by Miss Dolly McCool, of Elkton and Washington College who will also attend the summer session.

Mrs. Rebecca Speicher and daughters, Misses Martha and Sarah Speicher, returned last week from a three week's trip in the south. They were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Beachley, of Bristol, Virginia, formerly of this town. Dr. and Mrs. Beachley and daughter, Eleanor, motored north and spent Sunday and Monday as guests of Mrs. Speicher. Miss Eleanor Beachley will remain some time to visit Miss Sara Speicher.

Last night Miss Mary Elizabeth Humphreys entertained at a buffet supper in honor of Miss Eleanor Beachley, entertaining 20 of the younger set. Later, the party hied off to Betterton where they danced for the remainder of the evening.

Mr. Robert Huey, Jr., was the guest over the past week end of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huey on Mount Vernon Place.

Miss Marian Aldridge, of Baltimore was guest over the Fourth of Mrs. Francis Young.

Mr. W. Heppburn Gill and family, of Lansdowne, Pa., spent the Fourth with his brother, Mr. Lee Gill.

Mr. John Traskow, of Baltimore, spent the holidays of the Fourth with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Traskow.

Miss Betty Anthony and Miss Kitty Anthony, of Philadelphia, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Runsey Anthony, last week-end.

Professor and Mrs. Frank Goodwin returned last Saturday after an extended visit in Georgia with friends and relatives.

Mr. Earl Willis, of the faculty of the Catonsville High School, leaves for Columbia University to study in the graduate school. Mr. Willis received his A. M. from that University last year.

Miss Mary Burris, of Annapolis, Maryland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. Crouch on High Street.

Miss Lucy Frazier, of Washington, D. C., visited in Chestertown over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perkins spent the week end at Ocean City, N. J., as the guest of Mr. Perkins' sister, Mrs. Ethel Bodine.

Lieut. Harry Derringer has returned to Chestertown where he will visit until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaeffer and family were holiday guests of Mr.

and Mrs. Simon Westcott.

Mr. Arthur J. Leonard, Jr., spent the week end in Baltimore.

Mrs. Hallie Simpson, of Washington, D. C., was the week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Turner, of Clarendon, Va., are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lewis.

Prof. H. M. Seigenfuss left last week for Camp Cadahoa, Colchester Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Irving Sparks and daughter, were guests over the 4th, of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arlington L. Sparks.

Mr. Nathaniel D. Sollers, of Baltimore, was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., for a few days this week.

Mrs. Irvin King, of Gwynedd Valley, Pa., has been the guest of Mrs. H. Clay Brown this week. On Thursday, Mrs. Brown entertained at luncheon in honor of Mrs. King. Mr. King will join his wife over the week-end, and with Mrs. Brown they will all be guests aboard the yacht, Marjion, owned by Mr. Robert Hooper, of Baltimore.

The other luncheon of the week was also held on Thursday which was given at the Lotus Inn by Mrs. William Paca. Bridge followed luncheon.

But I'm all but melted right about now, and what news I had has trickled away.

Yours for a breeze,
THE WANDERER
