Dr. H. C. Byrd, U. of M. Head, Speaks At Gathering

Kent County was represented at the 4th Annual Students Conference at Salisbury, Teachers College on Saturday, March 25, by both students at the college and high school seniors from various parts of the county.

The main feature of the day was a speech by Dr. H. C. Byrd, president of University of Maryland, who spoke on the conference theme: "Preparation for Tomorrow's America." He told the delegates at the conference, "Tomorrow's America is going to be what you determine it to be."

He stressed the point that tomorrow's America is being built in our public schools.

A Maryland Day observance was staged by the sophomore class in the afternoon. After the conference dinner, an excellent dramatic performance entitled "Sky Fodder" was presented by the "Sophanes" players. After an athletic demonstration, the conference ended with an informal dance.

WHERE NUMEROUS CARS HAVE TAKEN DIVES IN THE PAST

THOUGHT TO HAVE CRIMINAL RECORDS KENNEDYVILLE

The two negroes pictured above were caught in a phase following the recent attempted daylight robbery at the store of Albert L. Wheat. One of them has a criminal record having served time for larceny and felonious entry. The Sheriff is checking with Baltimore police as to whether he is wanted in that city. They have been very close-mouthed as to their former activities which has led to a check with authorities from Maryland and other States.

A hearing has been set for next week at which time they will be tried for the attempted robbery here.

Women Conducted Earliest Strike
One of the nation's earliest strikes developed at New Orleans in 1706. Women of the tiny colony threatened to leave because they were obliged to eat cornbread.
