Poetry.

From The Flag of our Union.

BY ELIZA.

m whence proceed the flowers-The beautiful and fair?

th their gentle, fraceant breathing fron the morning air: ith their smeet and silent language, Which fails not to impart heir own peculiar beauty

To the pure and loving heart. re they not emanations From him who dwells above? Vords which are bursting from the appearance.

depths Of his eternal love? Methinks, that as day after day, Their petals they unfurled, could have read a something there,

About a better world: And felt that He who fashioned them, With varied form and hue, And bathed them in the twilight hour With soft, refreshing dew-

Had for his children each a love, Which might dispell all fear; And a paternal care which could Have known no ending here.

ANOTHER MAMMETH CAVE.

description of a western cave:

miles west of this place, there was a at his agreeable nonsense. "Fire!" cavern of considerable extent; but it ly, Esq., a member of our late Legisla- and said in a singular marked voice,ture, arranged for a full exploration to the cave, taking with them rations for at week's absence, a canoe, and other needful provissional.

The party were in the cave near five days. After exploring in all directions, with the undischarged pistol. they finally emerged from the cave, by another opening which they discovered. 70 feet; his impression is, that it extends if his heart did not break before he could under much of the two counties of Dane | complete his intention. This sad epistle and Iowa, and he is enthusiastic when he refers to the novelties, curiosities, and in this mammoth of a cavern.

At one point on their route they traversed over and among large masses and by the half-bewildered aunt, were brought entered the lecture room he found the carry it higher and there comes a falling blocks which they supposed to be rock, galena—lead ore of fine quality; this wretched father had once lived a happy Mischeif, it was evident, was the cause, ten thousand; while a present of one but which proved, on examination, to be gi was spread over a surface of 3 miles. — and prosperous man. Fine specimens of copper, ore were discovered, and at one point 11 pounds of of native silver were found. They discovered a lake of considerable dimensions and which in their canoe they partially lege particularly. It is what the mind instead of getting angry and stormy at benefaction." explored. The greatest depth they disfeet and four inches.

Excellent Advice.

dust of diamonds. is much to be done and perhaps you are at Cambridge or Yale for four years .- without leaving a smile behind him. weak handed; but stick to it steadily, and But if they are poor, laboring people; you will see great effect, for a constant stay with them and labor too. But don't dropping wears a stone.

which may be valuable to him all his books and time. Journey on foot and pishes that paper with the following pursues him like a bloodhound, and Learn all you can, and you will live everybody and everything. to see its value.

ing a new idea.

seem worthless. man can spare some moments.

Love, Revenge and Suicide.

been pronounced nearly as handsome as the law of their conduct. T

leave the place for their future destina- ety. tion, went into the refreshment: and | Might we not profit by imitating the knowing that his master had drawn the old Spartan usage, of taking children kind of sweet, well-made hay, cut it charge from the pistols the night before, com under the control of their parents, and that the state of road required every at the age of seven years, and placing it well around the hams in the bags; tie precaution, took this opportunity of re- them under rigid morel, men and the bags with good strings, put on a loading them. From the return from physical discipline? It seems to us, we the stroll, the young couple went into might be greatly advantaged by such a this room, and the gentleman, seeing his course. Thus many of our boys would room, and they will hang five years, and pistols laid where he left them the night be developed into men, having not only will be better for boiling than on the day is before, and being sure that he had un- the semblance of men, but their strength you put them up. This method costs loaded them, took one of them and pre- and their principles, in mind, morals and sented it at his fair bride, saying, with physical power. Now, by the plans of the most winning flattery-cruelties you have been guilty of to- dwarfs, which will be but a curse to the up by the hay and the hay will impart a wards me, -my sleepless nights, my days nation. There is not one boy out of ev- fine flavor to the hams. of anxious hope. I will revenge my- ery hundred now growing up, who self! Fair tyrant you shall die with promises to be anything better than a your instrument of torture about you, that first rate consumer of tobacco; a well Hartford Courant gives the following enchanting smile and those killing ring. skilled engine bully, or an accomplished season in many places.

ison, the capital of our State, and 90 said the confiding girl, laughing merrily being anything but a pretty, good-for- correspondent to the Boston Journal, arms of her injured husband, as she said

He did so, and shot her dead! Who can paint his horror? After a

"William, did you load those pistols?"

being finished, he put an end to his life.

The body of poor William, whose fa-

~~~~~~~~~~

Educate Yourself. produces whenever it acts. Great schools them, he mildly remarked--"Aha, covered on sounding this lake, was 37 are chiefly appliances for the lazy, to fur- young gentlemen! quite republican, I nish substitutes for knowledge by which see, in your tendencies: fond of a re- himself to vice must inevitably suffer. If the glory of a summer sunset. "You to make their way in the world. No presentative government-elevated one youth who has a noble thirst for science, of your own number to the chair, ha!is not so much benefitted by a "libera" Well, well, it is all right. I dare say Set a value on the smallest morsel of education" as he is apt to imagine that the pesent incumbent can fill it as well knowledge. These fragments are the he will be, before trying it. If your pa- as any of you. You may listen to his rents are rich, and have nothing better to lecture to-day. Good bye! Don't feel ure; and just as surely as God governs Opium.—Over 40,000 chests of opium It is true as poor Richard says, there do with their money, let them board you sheepish about it!" And away he went, the universe, so surely does a crime, al- are shipped annually to China, taking off the less strive for a liberal education.— A man may learn that in two minutes Be liberal in supplying yourself with dent of the New Orleans Crescent fur or how desperately executed, detection study nature and men. Ask questions of Lem:

knowledge put into your mouth with a latter there was not one tee-totaler. Redeem time for study, the busiest pap-spoon. It is thus that the greatest and best men are made in every country. | & Little and often fills the purse.

Parental Responsibility.

In the year 1780, a young London | It appears to us that parental responmerchant, having won the affections of a sibility, at least in the cities, is regarded lovely girl, also obtained the consent of as a very intangible and uncertain mat-THE DIE O WE BE SE her father, to whom she was an only ter, which it were well to maintain if child. The old gentleman had a singu- perfectly convenient, but the neglect of lar fancy that they should be married which, is a thing of contemptible im- subjects. the same village church where his own portance. Children in this day, are rure not the words in which we clothe happy union took place; and being a lers, instead of the ruled. Parents are ideas the flowers of thought?-H. suffering from the gout, he placed the generally the subordinate party. It was young lady under the charge of her not always thus, for in olden times the aunt; and the happy lover, taking his father's mandate, were red law, and t, set out on his journey to the mother's wiels a viable obligation. at the place, a letter full of transport good effects were plainly visable. But was despatched to the father; the wed- now, as a general thing, they grow up as ding had first taken place, the bride had they list. Their own inclinations are her mother; although the bridegroom taught-if not by direct precept-by wore no "shoulder knots, open sleeves the passivenses of their parents, that the or pantaloons!" he might still compete chief object of their life is to do as they with the bridegroom of earlier days in please: to cultivate their natural appetites, and to give loose rein to their pas-After the ceremony, the happy couple sions. Hence they rush headlong into took a walk in the vicar's garden; and vice and become a burden to themselves, a the valet, aware that they would soon curse to their parents, and a pest to socirearing children most fashionable, we the hay is well pressed around them, "Now, Maiden, repent of all those are bringing up a race of pigmies and the sweating of the hams will be taken fop; there is not one girl of a hundred, "Pray, do not suffer me to linger," raised in our cities, that gives hope of service in the domestic circle. til a couple of weeks ago. Then, a par- pause he rung the bell-his servant en- rental discipline and instruction. If the rations and says "while there, we saw, ty of five men, headed by Howel Lum- tered, and his master locked the door, children and youth of our cities were in one hour, three pints of pure water de-geous violations of law and order. wrote an exact account of the occurrence | the perverseness of children, and the ex- | which were absolutely produced without | ries. to the bereaved father, and concluded by istence of "black sheep in all flocks," any other cost than the interest on the they entered. Mr. L. speaks of the extraordinary vastness of the cavern at dif- made the happiest man alive, but that tled opinion, that in nearly all cases, the three hundred dollars."

Anecdote of Dr. Cooper.

great mineral wealth which abound with- tal carelessness had led to so sad a catas- lege, was one of the best natured old not a dollar in his pocket, would give a trophe, was interred in a church yard, gentlemen that ever lectured to mische- penny for almost any purpose. If he Witherspoon.—Not to hit a mark is to and the corpses of the lovers, attended vious boys, On one occasion, when he had a hundred dollars he might give one; to London, and privately laid in one class all seated with most unwonted punc- off. One hundred dollars would be congrave, in the parish where the now tuality, and looking wondrous grave. sidered too large a sum for him who has is to sink down to hell. pared for a burst of laughter as the old raculous for a man worth one hundred doctor waddled along up to the profes- thousand-yet the proportion is the same pedo affair took it to the police office, sor's chair, for there sat an old he goat, throughout; the poor man's penny and where it was put in a basin of water for Knoweledge is its own exceeding bolt upright, lashed to the chair. But the widow's mite is more than the rich half an hour, and then opened, displaygreat reward. It is not the gift of a col- they were disappointed of their, fun for man's sounding and widely-trumpeted ing the destruction of two beautiful dague-

During the late prevalence of the Thus doing you will probably acquire | Cholera in Ireland, the town of Ennis and what is more, sounder character and of this frightful epidemic. The number

mmmmm

upon to-night?

'Ah, well, then, I shall certainly attend,' was the lady's exclamation, 'for I have been very much troubled with that complaint of late!'

The doctor was satisfied.

To PRESERVE HAM THROUGH THE SUM-MER .-- Make a number of common cotton bags, a little larger than your hams; after the hams are well smoked, place them in the bag; then get the very best with a knife, and with your hands press hang them up in the garret or some dry but little, as the bags will last for years. No flies or bugs will trouble the hams it up by the remark, "I do not say that ev-

The hams should be treated in this manner before the warm weather sets in, and the present time is about the right ~~~~~~~~~~~ nothing plaything, totally unqualified for named E. L. Browne, states that he visi- the boy had give her love powders which ted Mr. Paine's apparatus at Worcester compelled her to go with him against This is all the fault of improper pa- for the purpose of witnessing its opera- her will.

them the information desired.

monnon CHARITY .- Men measure their charity | main spring of all our action. Dr. Cooper, of the South Carolina Col- by a peculiar standard. A man who has and it was apparent, that they were pre- thousand would be considered almost mi-

the human law does not convict and pun- seem animated by the scene," said he. ish him, the moral law, which will have No, George, I shall never be Annie maobedience, will follow him to his door. ted until I am your wife replied the af-Every crime is committed for a purpose, fectionate girl. with some idea of future personal pleasof the future. No matter how deeply This trade is under the British govern-BRANDY IN CHOLERA.—A correspon- laid have been the plans of the criminal, ment. tracks him to his fate.

TEMPERANCE IN OREGON.-The Leg-Never let slip an opportunity of gain- more satisfactory and useful knowledge, was subject some weeks to the ravages islature of Oregon have passed a law, 000. prohibiting the importation, manufacture,

A TROUBLESOME COMPLAINT .- Dr. | A CALIFORNIA TREE. - We have, says Wieting, in one of his lectures given the Mobile Register, before us a letter, lately, remarked there were a great many from a gentleman, well known in this persons who had not the slightest knowl- city, a man of integrity and veracity.edge of the human frame or the 'ills that | He writes from California, (but of his flesh is heir to,' while they were appa- where bouts we are not informed) as ently pretty well informed on most other follow: "I send you the dimensions of a redwood tree near my camp, mea-To prove his assertion, he said that sured by myself. Height of the tree, he once met a lady pusessed of great 253 feet; c'eumference, six feet above conversational powers, and was disposed the ground, 56 %. 4 in height to the to think her rather intelligent till at the first branch 130 fee; estimated diameclose of the collobuy between them one | ter at the first branch, 6 feet. The body a ernoon, she inquired:
Doctor, what subject do you legrure seven fect four tinches circumfe ence do would give nearly 19 feet diameter .-'The circulation of the blood,' he re- Think of that, ye whose parlors are less than 19 feet square.

> A taftsman who had drank a little too freely, fell from the raft and was drowning, when his brother plunged into his relief, seized him by the hair, but the current was strong and the brother's strength being nearly exhausted, he was about relinquishing his hold, when despairing, the drowning brother raised his head above the water, and said "Hang on, Sam!-hang on; I'll treat, I swear I will." His words were stimulating, and the brother at length saved him.

Horace Greely calls juvenile tobacco chewers, 'young donkeys who are just learning to brutify themselves by the use cithe vile weed." He speaks from experience, for he says when he was six years old he smoked nearly an inch of a cigar himself. He winds ery smoker and chewer is necessarily a blackguard, but there is a very steep proclivity that way.

A beautiful woman, living in the vicinity of Bardstown, Ky., ran away from her husband's house a short time since, in company with his brother—a youth of seventeen. After an absence of a week or more, the lady returned home More About Paine's Light .- A and begged to be taken back to the

Rhubarb.—If you have none of this well governed at home, and had from composed into its component gases, with- growing in your garden, procure one or their infancy been accustomed to habits out the consumption of acid or metals, two dozen plants, set them out in a rich-The unfortunate wretch, horrified at of sub dination, they would not be and with the use of no motive agent, save ly manured border, keep them clean, and what he saw, mechanically answered found to be such unwilling subjects of the descent of a weight of 67 pounds, a they will supply your family with malegal restraint, and our Sabbath days and distance of a little over two feet; the terials for making tarts throughout many His master instantly shot him dead evenings, would not witness such outra- gases envolved from which amount of years after the present; and, when these water were employed, in our presence, tarts are well made, will be as good as After this, in a state of insanity, he Men may say what they will about both for purposes of heat and light, and those made from gooseberries or cranberferent points; its great width, and at one now, as the object of his love lay dead at "black sheep" is made so by improper As some of our readers wanted to mental fluid electrical in the force and place his impression is, that it extends his feet, he should finish his wedding family discipline, or by the total want of know the amount of water it decomposed rapidity of its movements, and silently under he supposed the height to be full day and his life, by falling on his sword, discipline.—The Monumental Fountain. in a given time, the above will give flowing unseen within its own secret avenues; yet it is the controlling power of all animated matter, and the chief

> A SENTENTIOUS SAYING OF DR. Christian is to remain an impenitent sinner; almost to enter the gate of heaven,

A gentleman named McNice received a box last Monday, and thinking it a torreotypes of two young ladies.

A Modest One.—Annie Dervent and MURDER WILL OUT .- He who yields her bashful adorer were gazing on though concealed, destroy the happiness in return thirty-five millions of dollars .--

PRESENT TO THE POPE .- The republican of Chili has sent to the Pope, as a specimen of her metalic riches, a mass of silver worth from $30,000 to $40,- Remember that the beginning of the firmer health—you will be more of a man of cases were several thousand—the or sale of intoxicating liquors, within A woman offering to sign a deed, sublime sciences are often so simple as to than if you distress your parents to have number of deaths, 1,260. Among the that territory. Physicians alone are al- the judge asked her whether her huslowed to use it in their practice. The band compelled her to sign? "He comfar west is setting a noble example to pell me!" said the lady, "no, nor twenty