Our Failure in Character

Is the Tragedy of Life Life is given for wisdom, and yet we are not wise; for goodness, and we are not good; for overcoming evil, and evil remains; for patience and sympathy and love, and yet we are fretful and hard and weak and selfish. This is the tragical feature of life-that it is linked with so much failure in character. Are most of us considering success and failure in this high and eternal light? We ought to be.

Anxiety Is Parent of Many

Sins and of More Miseries Anxiety is the poison of human life. In a world where everything is doubtful, and where we may be disappointed, and be blessed in disappointment, why this restless stir and commotion of mind? Can it alter the cause or unravel the mystery o human events?-Blair.

Fleeting Justice Federal court at Lockport, in the western district of New York, was open for only one minute before U S. Marshal Joseph Fritsch adjourned the session. It's just an old Lockport custom. A regular session has not been held there for ten years.
