Farmer Enters Grade School

E. G. Mealer, sixty-seven-year-old | He fainted. so late in life was prompted because | that much money.

Bodyguards of Dictators

Because of attempts to assassinate liner. are their movements kept secret, but est expectations. they are surrounded by hundreds of bodyguards and often impersonated by doubles.-Collier's.

To keep clean and healthy take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate liver, bowels and stomach.-Adv.

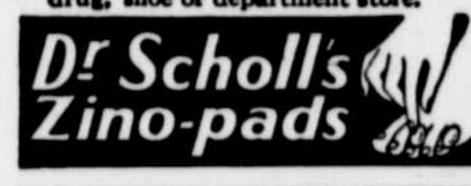

Pick Your Side There are two sides to every argument-your own and the wrong one.

Depends on Reviewer Book reviews are valuable, if you callouses or bunions. In one minute discomfort will be gone! Nagging shoe pressure or friction is stopped. New or tight shoes won't hurt or cause sore toes or blisters.

Get a box of these flesh color, velvetysoft, waterproof pads today at your drug, shoe or department store.

Forest Fire You have to see a forest fire to fully believe It.

Bad Elimination Makes It Easier to Catch a Cold With the right sort of food and proper exercise, constipation might be rare, but in actual living conditions, how few manage to escape it

Mr. Clyde Martin, of Ona, W. Va., recently wrote: "If I let myself get constipated," he explains, "and my system filled with impure matter, I feel bloated, take cold easily, and feel out of sorts in a lot of ways. I will take about two good doses of Black-Draught It seems to cleanse my whole system and I feel like doing my work." BLACK-DRAUGHT

Don't be BALD

MANGE MEDICINE No Need to Suffer acid condition. To avoid it, acid must be offset by alkalis - such as magnesia. Why Physicians Recommend

"Morning Sickness"

Milnesia Wafers These mint-flavored, candy-like wafers are pure milk of magnesia in solid formthe most pleasant way to take it. Each ly, then swallowed, they correct acidity in the mouth and throughout the gestive system and insure quick, complete elimination of the waste matters that cause gas, headaches, bloated feelings and a dozen other discomforts.

Milnesia Wafers come in bottles of 20 and 48, at 35c and 60c respectively, and convenient tins for your handbag containing 12 at 20c. Each wafer is approximately one adult dose of milk of magnesia. All good drug stores sell and recommend them. Start using these delicious, effective anti-acid, gently laxative wafers today Professional samples sent free to registered physicians or dentists if request is made on professional letterhead. Select Products,

A SMACK ON THE NOSE

By R. H. WILKINSON © Associated Newspapers. WNU Service.

paid $5 for a ticket on a cer-The name of the horse he had drawn was Hotcha.

and that he was the richer by $25,000. parted. ed to school with his grandchildren, fortified himself with a slug of his laden with steaming hot soup.

of his love for the Bible, from which | He could, for example, take that once more. he can quote entire chapters, learned trip abroad he'd been wishing and For six days Wally lay prostrated by memory after they had been read | hoping and planning he could take for | in his bed. twenty years past. Yes, sir, and he them, Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin and In fact, he had never even seen one. guarded men in the world. Not only a thrill that was far beyond his great- thought, the look of a man who con-> him with a happy smile. Besides the ness, weaklings. sitting room, there was a bath and a bedroom, all for his own private use. Wally's bed, he explained that this DRINTED silks headline Presently he returned to the deck, was his method of curing seasick pas- I the fabric story both for and during the hour before sailing sengers. time he explored the greater part of the vessel available to curious eyes. Coming on deck once more, he dis- apprise them of the fact that others look. New techniques and covered that the Princess Marietta was are much worse off than themselves." being towed out into the river channel. He stood by the rail and watched New York skyscrapers recede against far worse than Wally's.

the horizon. No one could have been happier looked forward with a greater feeling on the Nose.

or joyful anticipation to what was to come than Wally. what he wanted to do without thought | turned.

or worry of expense. He didn't care. He was going to en- ing his bags. Presently he straightjoy himself while the money lasted. | ened up and regarded Wally with ing could mar the complete joy of louder than words: "Well, mister, that trip across the Atlantic. But, alas! It was his first expe- to be at least ten dollars." rience on the high seas. He was not a sailor, hence could not anticipate what might happen. Late that night a storm blew up. The Princess Marietta dipped her nose | were clenched and there was a gleam prettily and mounted every wave with in his eyes. the ease and grace of a gondola. But gers, including Wally Jordan. Wally opened his eyes about 3 a. m. and was aware of a sensation of coasting through the ozone smoothly and sank to the floor. Blood spurted. rapidly, but with a distressingly nauseating result.

He switched on his bedside light and He picked up his bags. At the door discovered that the ceiling of his bed- he paused and turned. "Don't feel room had changed places with the bad," he grinned. "You'll recover. floor, and that the room's furniture Two-thirds of it is mental anyhow." seemed frantically to be attempting to get settled first in one place and then | duced a ten-dollar bill, flung it toward in another. He considered rising and straightening things out, raised himself tentatively on an elbow and lay back groan-

After awhile, he rang for the steward, and ages later the steward ar-steward entered with a broad grin curious that it had to be removed on his face.

He was a large, robust man, a jolly- request a wealthy iron-master was infaced individual who had never been | terred in an iron coffin that was placed ill a day in his life, hence lacked two feet above the ground on iron piltrue sympathy for less fortunate be- lars, and around the coffin was built the steward balefully. The steward beamed. "Not feeling so well, sir? Too bad, grave near the place. sir. Is there something I can do?" "There must be," said Wally," and only wish I knew what it was." "Well, sir, it might be a comfort to Asia from Africa. It runs through the know that half the other passengers kingdom of Egypt, and the boundary on board are seasick also." "Listen, steward, can't you suggest which separates Africa from Asia. This a remedy?" The steward regarded him ruefully, canal and runs in a southeasterly di-you will be." "Think I'm not ill? Say, you—how long is the storm apt to last?" "I'm afraid, sir, it might last for four or five days." Wally groaned. He wondered if all stewards were as unfeeling as this one. You'd think a man would have more mmon sense than to talk such rot, when a fellow was suffering. "Perhaps," said the steward, "If I brought you some hot food-"

"Get out!" said Wally. He wanted to say more, but certain On April 30, Wally was advised that expected activities in the region of Hotcha had stretched out its tongue his stomach prevented. and Joins Grandchildren at the finish line and won by a pant, The steward, grinning broadly, de-

Shortly after daylight the serving farmer of Jonesboro, Ark., has start- Returning to consciousness, Wally man appeared again, bearing a tray with hopes of learning to read and private stock. Twenty-five thousand The odor of it permeated Wally's write. His desire for an education bucks! A chap could do a lot with nostrils and brought on a spasmodic eruption that lasted until he was alone

Five of these he was ill to the point could have the best of everything, too. of wishing fervently that the Princess Wally had never been aboard a big | Marietta would call it a day and sink. The jolly-faced steward appeared often. There was a perpetual grin on Kemal, dictators over nearly 300,000,- Hence, when he walked up the gang- his face and a look in his eyes that 000 persons, are the most closely plank of the Princess Marietta he knew Wally came to hate. It was, he sidered himself a superior being and

Minutes later he stood in the center | regarded people who succumbed to of his first-class cabin and gazed about such effeminate maladies as seasick-Once, standing near the head of

"The idea is to detract their minds this season have an enfrom themselves," he explained. "To | tirely new and refreshing He then recited three cases of other passengers on board which were far,

Wally was too weak to reply. He merely lay there, staring glassyeyed and wishing he had the strength and the gun with which to put an end to at least one sourse of his misery. On the sixth day the Princess Marietta slid along in smooth and quiet waters. Wally began a slow recovery. That night he ate a little something, ern silks. with the jolly-faced steward standing happily by.

"I knew you'd recover, sir. I knew you would. My system never fails." Wally said nothing.

He finished his meal and lay back, closing his eyes. The next day he ventured on deck. The jolly-faced steward buzzed around him solicitously, proudly happy, fre-Wally's Fist Smacked the Steward's quently reminding his charge of the Jolly Old Face a Resounding Smack | success of his system. Always he smiled and beamed and acted very happy about it all. Wally said nothing. On the eighth day the Princess Marietta docked at Liverpool. Wally was For once in his life he was doing completely recovered; his strength re-

Down in his cabin the jolly-faced What if he did come back broke? steward completed packing and lock-It seemed in that moment that noth- that characteristic expression that said have served you well. The tip ought

Wally nodded. "Through?" he asked. "Yes, sir," said the steward and Wally stepped forward. His teeth

"Good," he said. "Now, you're goin so doing, she upset the equilibrium | ing to get what you deserve." With and stomachs of a great many passen- which remark Wally's fist smacked the steward's jolly old face a resounding crack on the nose. The man's knees buckled and he Wally heaved a great and contented Wally reached into his pocket, pro-

the groaning steward, and went out, He was smiling happily. So far, he thought, nothing had happened to mar the pleasure of his trip. Novel Tomb in Ohio

A novel tomb at Hangin; Rock in Lawrence county, Ohlo, the middle of Immaculate in white uniform, the last century attracted so many of the along with the corpse. At his own a wooden building. Crowds poured in Wally opened one eye and regarded from all directions to see this strange tomb until the building was finally removed and the coffin buried in a Suez Canal, Asia, Africa The Suez canal does not separate between that country and Palestine, a "Very encouraging," said Wally, purely arbitrary line, is the boundary is many miles to the east of the Suez "I'm afraid there isn't much help rection from the Mediterranean sea to for seasickness, sir. Two-thirds of it | meet the Gulf of Sinal.

Doctors Believe Control of Thymus Gland May Aid Progress of Children

The miracle of children walking at | So far, the British scientists have the age of six months, becoming ath- hesitated to make the experiments letes at five years, and entering uni- with human beings, because it is too versities at ten may be produced some | dangerous and they are not sure of day by means of thymus extract in- the means of controlling the thymus jections, says a London United Press | reactions.

The British Medical Research coun- search for years, is believed now to cil, which has established a committee | be a determining factor in defective to study the wide-range subject of sex personalities. hormones, said that the possibilities of control of the thymus gland are "actually beyond all comprehension." in treating the offspring of animals | Shoals. According to that authority with thymus extract have produced a the rapids evidently received their remarkable precocity of development," name from the numerous fresh-water the council reported. rats were as advanced after thymus | the time this region was settled "musinjections as they normally would have | cle" was the usual spelling of the word been in a month. After being treated which we often see written as "musfor three generations the rats have sel." Etymologically they are been born with teeth. A few hours same word, both being derived from afterward they grew fur and could the Latin "musculus," meaning a little swim and run when two weeks old." mouse,

Mexico Was First Country

Muscle Shoals In 1892 the United States geograph-

The thymus gland, object of re-

"Experiments that have been made ic board decided in favor of "Muscle" mussels formerly living among the "When only a few days old baby rocks at this point in the river. At

to Have Columbus Statue | lumbus drawing aside the vell that hid

No man, probably has as many memorials erected to his memory in the figures of famous Mexicans and Spanwestern hemisphere as has Christopher | lards, one of whom is the distinguished Columbus. But the distinction of be Spanish Dominican friar, Bartolome de | colffure vary from large combs of year, will be seen again, most popu- It is used in perfumery. ing the first country to honor the dis- las Casas, who defended the Mexican coverer of America by a statue goes to Indians against their cruel conquerors. | according to London stylists. Mexico, states a writer in the Philadeluble Record. In the middle of the Columbus. The statue represents Co- struct them by hand. the New World. Around its base are

Laws Must Re Just

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

nitely 1936 and not carry-overs. butterflies dart over many of the mod- convey the idea.

As to flower prints, daytime florals | spiracy, coming out in colors to match are the most infinitesimal in years. | the bright hues of the prints. Small bright florals spattered here and there, tiny bouquets and single flowers pictured are, as one sees at a glance, give silk prints a decidedly different look this season. Larger, more conspicuous flowers are reserved for afternoon and evening. Gorgeous florals ing a gown made of a silk print that on black, white or colored ground reflect exotic beauty. new vegetable and fruit prints quite front of the buttoned jacket-blouse mode via apples, cherries, plums, straw- ton sleeve. berries and grapes in discreet and colnumeral motifs.

frocks worn under them. When one dares to think of the nov-new patterns make current prints defi- | elty and chic of the new silk prints in the same breath with the novelty the brackground. These miniature ob- comes positively exciting. For expatternings. Horses, and cunning dogs of the new silks by creating vegetable are decoratively delineated. Barn- and fruit dress clips, bracelets, buckles much timber land had been rendered yard themes include roosters, tiny pigs, and various other gadgets of colorful ducks and flying birds. Even fish and enamel and other composition, somefowl have become print-conscious while | times using bright stone settings to | lars.

Gloves too have entered into the con The very attractive young women thoroughly fashion-wise as to what is modish in silk prints and flattering accessories. The seated figure is wearspaces miniature butterflies instead of the traditional dot. The three but-The woman who diets will find the terfly bows of starched lace down the to her liking. Radishes, carrots, beets, gether with white roses on her cunpeppers, parsnips and tiny ears of corn | ningly veiled sailor of lustrous straw thrive on silk crepe and silk shantung give a sprightly touch. Take note of grounds. Fruit prints abound in the the well-bred version of the leg-o'-mut- down.

The other high-brow lady has chosen orful patternings. The newer prints one of the new pure silk vegetable ply furnished by the small streams. also inclure landscapes, newspapers, prints for her gown. A beet is used music notes, the alphabet and Roman as motif of the familiar polka-dot theme for her modish wine and white eaten bread since the beginning of re-Twin prints are news. Printed silk | suit. A new and important detail is taffeta is combined with silk crepe in the flower treatment that places a twin prints for jackets and redingote | carnation on each lapel of her tailored ensembles. Silk mousseline coats match | close-fitting jacket. The silk faille hat the design of the printed silk crepe has a third carnation. The dress is one-piece type.

fully and launders to perfection.

silk crepe. White silk serge, silk pique, silk jersey, parachute silk, plaid silk crepe are of intriguing in-

Western Newspaper Union.

SPORTS-TYPE SILK GABARDINE SUIT FASHION HIGHLIGHT

The perfect tailoring of this distin-fine wool gabardine which neither

To Match Prints

silhouette line.

with which it is worn.

Accents in Accessories Colored gloves for spring are established, but the chic of this fashion lies in the discretion and taste with which the accent color is applied. Browns, rust or chaudron, and blues are the best accent for gray. Red and rose are gayer but not as smart.

Use Discretion in Color

love to wear."

The new violine ranges are smart with blues, and with the marine blue of Molyneux, the cyclamen shades are extremely smart. With browns, their own darker or lighter shades or the rose tones are excellent, and with black, all colors, and white. The cinnamon browns are particularly good with black and exguished suit is achieved by the use of | tremely smart. Greens may be worn with gray and with blue, are excellent with brown, heavy for comfort. The jacket is sub- but are never worn with green. There is something all wrong about tly fitted. It has two slash pockets set in at the sides. The straight cut skirt | accessories that match the gown, and has the popular inverted pleat at cen- conversely, the accent note of contract ter front, so that the skirt is amply | ing accessories is so very right, full for walking but keeps a slim Pleats Prominent Pleats play a prominent role advancing is that of porcelain jewelry pleats and evening gowns have insets of people in New York. painted to match the printed dresses of sunray pleating. Short fan-pleated capes top several evening frocks.

The dipping back in shorter coats The vogue of sequin embroideries is most popular. There is to be a revival of old-fash-loned lawn this season. Paris stylists are showing new cocktall suits of black linen. An interesting dinner gown entirely covered with cire braid suggests an all-over sequin treatment. Crown bracelets have made their

The newest and most exciting berets Chapultepec, stands the first statue to | are made of rope by sailors who con-Flower-sprigged lawns and organdles will be seen in our best stay-up-late spots next summer. Black ornaments for the evening debut in the fashion world.

Pill-box turbans with flower at front are favorites. Knitted evening dresses are still distinctly in the swim. Colored gloves were an outstanding feature of the collections. Much heavy gold jewelry is being worn with black day dress. Dark day frocks with fairly full skirts are worn with crisp petticoats | mahogany veneers. of striped or polka-dotted taffeta. An innovation in knitwear is a reversible plaid knit suit. Sheers are dominant for evening, with chiffon first, and heavier weaves primitive roads caused them to be also employed.

One of the keynotes of spring fashion is the key print, developed in gay printed silks. Spanish design to narrow bandeaux, lar in white motifs on black or brown backgrounds. Necklines are high, and collared A "cruise suit" is a jacket-frock enin ruffled effects a la Margut, with semble which combines a sleeveless will end poverty, every year another of campers, hunters and motorists who, paying no heed to warnings posted up through all the country, throw lighted cigarettes and cigars into underbrush, leave burning camp fires behind them, or deliberately start fires just to see them burn. A friend of mine, fifteen or twenty years ago, bought a ranch in southern Montana, with a forest filled with game, through which ran a beautiful mountain river. One day a man and a woman drove past his place, and stopping asked him the way to a town fifty or sixty miles

6. Bell Syndicate.-WNU Service.

He took his own car to lead them to the right road, and when he left them he asked them not to start any fires, not even a cooking fire, for there had been a protracted drouth, and dry tree limbs ignite easily. Three hours after they left his place

. . .

he saw a thin trail of smoke rising on the side hill across which ran the road they had taken. In less than an hour after that the woods were alight. In a few days lique quilt. Quilt-makers, young and more, a vast tract of splendid forest | old, will find it fun to do, making the had been destroyed, and rangers and 'ulip flowers as varied as the scraps in the country. Down the mountain, struggling frantically to escape, came deer and bears The latest treatment for daytime and chic of the accessories that will and one or two cougars, but they were prints spaces tiny amusing motifs over | be worn with them the situation be- | all stopped by the lake around which the fire had spread. Their charred jects are frequently used instead of the ample, jewelers are playing up to the bones were found afterward when the dot theme. Animals are popular in charming and beguiling eccentricities terrain was examined to learn just how far the flames had gone and how

> The total ran into millions of dolministrations are obliged to hire thou- not put dressing on lettuce until it sands of men to keep a watch on state | is to be served. and national forests, which would be safe from harm were it not for the criminal practice of tourists of throw- when the stores offer sales of soap, ing away lighted matches into tinderdry woods, or building camp fires and neglecting to put them out.

One of the glories of the western half of the country is its vast stretches of

The foliage provides shade and potential lumber, for when trees are cared for scientifically replanting takes the place of those that are cut

Moreover their shade protects the hill sides and continues the water sup-. . . By the sweat of his brow man has corded time. Fighting for Adam started in making the frosting stick. about that time, but it was bread fruit. not bread, probably, which he ate. And he didn't stay in the Garden very long,

On my way to the coast of Maine last fall I had an opportunity to observe close at hand a number of phases of this bread hunt in which all of us engage, directly or indirectly. The apple crop was just ripening in In the realm of sports-type silks New England and among the hills. many newcomers are listed. Silk I saw many herds of milch cattle, surah is a fashion highlight this seaanimals which every night and morn son. Designers are using it in monotones, and in dotted or striped effects. Ing must submit to the inconvenience Silk shantung is also a great fa- of being milked, so that people far vorite. The printed silk shantungs away may be awakened by the rattle are especially smart used alone or in of milk bottles on the back stoop, and combination with plain. White silk realize that they must get up, bolt shantung is the chosen medium for down breakfast and take a subway or many of the handsomest summer elevated ride to the place where, tailleurs shown. It tailors beauti- the end of every week or month they obtain the wherewithal to buy more Other sports-type silks include silk bread-not to mention meat and vegefoulards, silk seersucker and striped tables,

. . . Here in New England this continchecked silk sailcloth, also plain or | uous battle is a little harder. Root crops flourish, it is true, but terest. It is well to familiarize oneself though there are some limited grain with these new silks, in order to buy fields there are no wide prairie intelligently and acquire clothes "you stretches like those of the middle western states. But if Maine lacks in wheat and rye and oats, she more than makes this up by her fisheries. Crossing the plains from Minneapolls to Seattle one travels through the Dakotas, which supply the great national flour barrel. Man has followed the wheat as he has the fish. When I was a child in the northern part of Iowa, most of the farmers living in my vicinity planted and reaped wheat. Then it was discovered that the soil of the Dakotas and parts of Minnesota provided more and better crops, and the Iowa lads, always resourceful, began raising oats, some of which, when ground went into fancy packages and was sold for breakfast food, get "?" though the bulk was consumed by horses. Meanwhile up in Montana the ranchers had taken to grazing which transformed the grass into beef and mutton. Most of which went east to enrich the dinner tables of men, women and children who did not know what a wheat field looked

Today as I write in a little place in Maine I can hear the "put put" of half spring fashions. Sleeves, bodices and a dozen lobster trappers, whose pro-One of the new ideas that Paris is skirts of day frocks are worked in fine duce will soon be gracing the tables The fight for food never slackens.

Mahogany American mahoganies straighter grain and more mellow texture and are found in logs of longer and wider cuttings. They are a rich, golden brown in tone. African mahogany logs are enormous, sometimes measuring from 14 to 36 feet long and from 3 to 5 feet thick. The wood is of a pale, golden brown color and is lighter in weight, with slightly larger pores, than the other types. Also, it is more lavishly figured. Therefore, it furnishes three-fourths of all Corduroy Roads The material for corduroy roads was named first. The ribbed condition of called corduroy roads.

Bergamot Oil Bergamot oil is made from the rind The Scottie print, introduced last of the bergamot, a variety of orange.

Progress of Poverty Every year dies a movement which

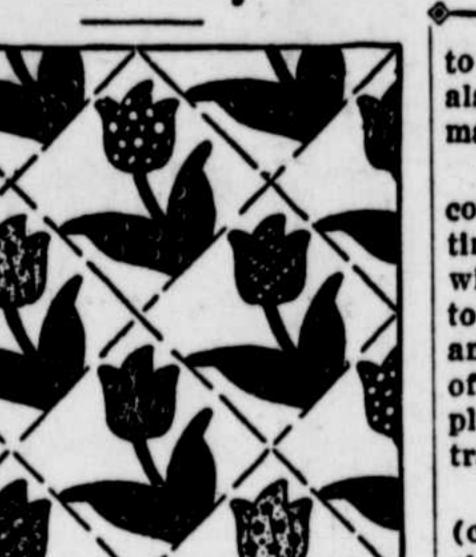

Historic Royal European Castle Will Be Converted Into a Hotel

Once the home of the late Queen | scription in the mantlepiece reading, I have journeyed through the plains and mountain regions of many parts of this country, and always I have been impressed by the criminal carelessness of campers, hunters and motorists

| Alexandra and net sister, the late of west—Home is best, with the sign A. (Alexandra). At one time it was rumored that the castle would be acquired by the late King George, but owing to his ill-health, it is stated, the purchase was never accomplished and it did not pass into the west—Home is best, with the sign A. (Alexandra). At one time it was rumored that the castle would be acquired by the late King George, but owing to his ill-health, it is stated, the sign A. (Alexandra) and the sign A. (Alexandra) and the drawing-rooms. There is an in- Windsor family hands.

'Pride of the Garden," Lovely Applique Quilt, Easy and Inexpensive to Make

Pattern 1118

'Twill be the "Pride of the Garden," and also the pride of whatever Pari-Mutuels Invented 60 bedroom it adorns-this lovely ap-

no water is on the leaves when izator was invented in that country french dressing is added. The water and is the recognized method there will spoil the dressing and the oil now, only just coming into this coun-The government and local state ad | will not adhere to the lettuce. Do | try. The Oller system or pari-mu-

> it is economy to buy a quantity of it if you are able to store it in a are sent to the central office, where cool, dry place. . . . Cold roast beef toughens if cooked for any length of time in hot gravy.

It is better to heat gravy and pour

Scap improves with keeping, so over the meat when ready to serve. When papering a room cut off the left-hand selvage on rolls before you begin to paste. Leave right-hand selvage uncut. The overlapping meth od of papering is far easier than try-. . . To make frosting adhere to a cake, that know how to dust a little flour over the top of the grow. Well, it cake and you will have no difficulty ing to place two edges together.

Do not add dressing to a salad until just before salad is to be served. If salad greens are allowed to stand in dressing for any length of time, they will wilt. . . .

will quickly dissolve the bone. . . . Gelatin for fruit desserts shou be whipped until the consistency whipped cream, thick enough to pre-

If a fish bone gets caught in the throat, suck a lemon and the juice vent fruit settling to bottom of mold . . . Don't keep gas stove burners turned on full after foods begin boil. Turn burners down and keep down gas bills. copy of our Home Garden Catalog.

. . .

potson. You must dose them with some kind of liquid that will smother them to death. Kerosene emulsion

You can't kill plant lice with a or tobacco dust will do this. @ Bell Syndicate.-WNU Service.

What's in a Name? A boy entered a grocery store and said to the storekeeper: "Gimme a dime's worth of asa- cian many votes.

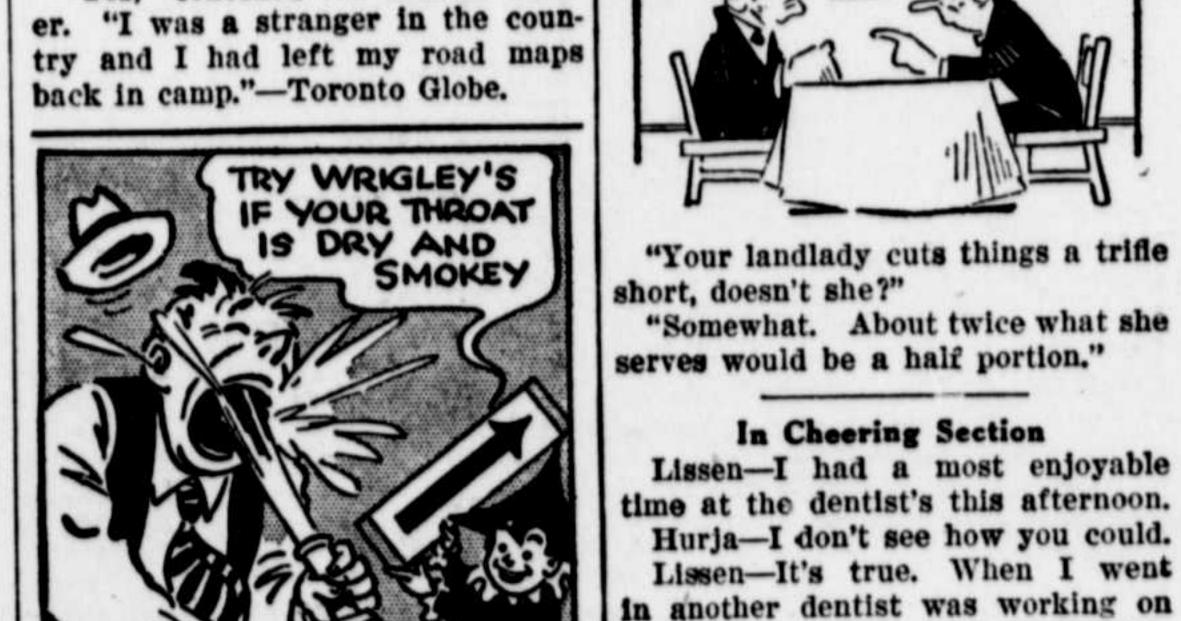

The storekeeper tied up the package and the boy said: "Dad wants you to charge it." "All right; what's your name?" "Shermerhorn." "Take it for nothin'," he said, "I ain't goin' to spell asafetida' and 'Shermerhorn' for no dime,"-Troy

(N. Y.) Times Record. Heritage "Your son has a great thirst for knowledge, madam. Where does he

"He gets the knowledge from me and the thirst from his father." Second-Hand Papa Daughter of First Film Star-How do you like your new father? Daughter of Second Film Star-Oh, he's very nice.

"Yes, isn't he? We had him last year."-London Morning Advertiser. Traveling Fast "You were at a disadvantage when you met that bear without your gun," suggested the sweet thing. "Yes." conceded the famous hunter. "I was a stranger in the coun-

Alexandra and her sister, the late "East or West-Home Is Best," with to give a bride-to-be. The tulips can also be used on scarfs and pillows to make your bedroom linens match. Pattern 1118 comes to you with complete, simple instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) to The Sewing Circle, Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Ave., New York, N. Y.

Years Ago by a Frenchman

The pari-mutuel system was involunteers were fighting one of the on hand, but keeping leaves and vented about 60 years ago by a hottest blazes that had ever been seen stems uniform. A very inexpensive Frenchman named Oller and was quilt to make, it's one you can afford conducted in opposition to the bookies doing oral betting. When its profits became known the French government banished the bookie, imposed rules, allowed the turf authorities to run the pari-mutuels and took a percentage. That is what the various states here are now doing. About ten years after Oller devised the parimutuel system the Australian totaltuel has been more closely followed in the United States. Instead of one machine to record bets there are several small ones. Each machine operates as a unit until the race is on and betting then ceases, while totals the grand aggregates are ascertained.

Are some SEEDS more intelligent than others?

Maybe you think it impossible to breed vegetable and flower seeds isn't! For that's exactly what The Ferry - Morse Seed Breeding Institute is doing at its stations in Rochester, Mich., and Salinas, Cal. Cucumbers eight inches long no more, no less; solid red beets; carrots that are practically coreless; rust-resistant snapdragons. Just a few of our achievements! Year-in, year-out, new strains, adapted to varying soil and climate conditions, are being developed . . . existing quality is being improved and protected. After thorough tests for germination and purity, progeny of the foundation stocks is offered for planting in your garden. You'll find them listed in your free your local stores. Ferry-Morse Seed Co., Detroit and San Francisco. THE FERRY-MORSE SEED BREEDING INSTITUTE

Look for the Ferry display in Devoted to improving and maintaining the quality of America's garden seeds. Golden for Some Silence may be golden but, unfortunately, it doesn't bring the politi-

ALL ON DIET

"Somewhat. About twice what she serves would be a half portion." In Cheering Section Lissen-I had a most enjoyable time at the dentist's this afternoon. Hurja-I don't see how you could. Lissen-It's true. When I went in another dentist was working on my dentist's teeth .- Pathfinder Mag-

