four above granted and described as aforesaid unto the said John Eager Howard the younger, and William Howard and the survivor of them, and the heirs of such survivor to the use of them the said John Eager Howard the younger and William Howard and the survivor of them and the heirs of such survivor upon the several trusts nevertheless and to and for the several uses, intents and purposes and under and subject to the several powers, provisoes, declarations and agreements herein after expressed and declared, of and concerning the same, that is to say, ~~in trust to the use~~ to the use of the said Charles Carroll of Carrollton for and during his natural life without impeachment of, or for any manner of waste; and from and immediately after his death in trust ~~to the use of~~ for the Harriet Carroll Daughter of Charles Carroll Junior and of Harriet Carroll his wife, untill the Marriage of the said Harriet Carroll the daughter, or the death of the said Harriet Carroll the Mother, whichever of those events shall first happen; they the said John Eager Howard the younger and William Howard and the survivor of them and the executors and administrators of such survivor to receive all the rents and profits of the said lots, lands and premises, and to pay out of them annually the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars current money of the United States to the said Harriet Carroll the mother untill her death, or untill the marriage of the said Harriet Carroll the daughter, which ever of those events shall first happen, and to pay over to the said Harriet Carroll the daughter untill her marriage or the death of the said Harriet Carroll the mother which ever of those events shall first happen all the rest and residue of the said rents and profits; and from and immediately after the marriage of the said Harriet Carroll the Daughter, or the death of the said Harriet Carroll the Mother, whichever of those events shall first happen, to hold all the said lots, lands and premises with the appurtenances in trust for the sole use and behoof of the said Harriet Carroll the Daughter her heirs and assigns forever, and to convey the same to her the said Harriet Carroll the Daughter her heirs and assigns by good and sufficient deeds and conveyances in the law whenever thereunto by her or them or any of them requested. In

MdHS 1974 [1302-1443]