February Term 1810 –

George W. P. Custis
v.
The Georgetown & Alexandria Turnpike Co.

This cause came on to be heard on the Transcript of the Record of the Circuit Court for the District of Columbia for the County of Alexandria, and was argued by Counsel, on consideration whereof, This Court is of opinion that the said Circuit Court had no jurisdiction for quashing the inquisition found in this case and for preventing the Clerk from recording it; It is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the said judgment and order of the said Circuit Court be and the same is hereby reversed and annulled, and the Court proceeding to render such judgment and order as the said Circuit Court should have rendered: It is further adjudged and ordered that the motion in this case by the Plaintiff in the said Circuit Court be dismissed. March 5th.

John Rutherford & others
v.
The Executors of Thomas Craike & others

This cause came on to be heard on the Transcript of the Record of the Circuit Court of North Carolina, and was argued by Counsel on consideration whereof, This Court is of opinion, that the representatives of Jean Junis in the Deed in the proceedings mentioned, who survived her husband Francis Corbin, in the said deed also mentioned, are entitled to the whole of the increase of the slaves in the said deed of settlement mentioned, which increase was produced during the coverture, and was not disposed of during the life of the said Jean. All which is ordered to be certified to the said Circuit Court held for the District of North Carolina. March 5th.

Oliver P. Finley
v.
Adam Lymer

This cause came on to be heard on the Transcript of the Record of the Circuit Court for the County of Alexandria and was argued by Counsel on consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion, that as the debt due from the defendant to Lemuel M. M'C. was contracted for goods brought into the copartnership, and was by covenant of the Plaintiff charged on the social fund, the articles of dissolution and bond of indemnity in the proceedings mentioned ought not to be construed, as to render the Plaintiff liable to the defendant, for that debt. The Court is further of opinion, that the Plaintiff is entitled to the profits, if any, of the jewelry store after deducting therefrom the goods in the store and the debts due to it, that he is also entitled to any debt which may be due from the jewelry store to the hardware store, to ascertain all which an account ought to be taken until which is done, the defendant ought not to be at liberty to use his judgment at law.
This Court is therefore of opinion, that the Decree of the Circuit Court dismissing the bill of the Plaintiff is erroneous, and doth reverse the same, and remand the cause to the said Circuit Court, with directions to have an account taken between the jewelry & the Hardware store, and of the profits of

v.
John Mayo's Exors

It appearing that the merits of this cause had been finally decided in this Court, and that its mandate required only the execution of its Decree; it is the opinion of this Court that the Circuit Court is bound to carry that Decree into execution, altho' the jurisdiction of that Court be not alleged in the pleadings; all which is ordered to be certified to the Circuit Court for the District of Kentucky. March 8th.

The Chesapeake Insurance Co.
John Philip Stark

This cause came on to be heard on the Transcript of the Record of the Circuit Court of Maryland and was argued by Counsel, on consideration whereof, it appears to this Court, that the finding of the jury in the special verdict in this case is defective, in not finding whether the abandonment was made in due time, or otherwise; It is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the judgment of the said Circuit Court in this case be and the same is hereby reversed and annulled: and it is further ordered, that the said cause be remanded to the said Circuit Court with directions to award a venire facias de novo. March 14th.

The President Directors &c. of the Bank of Columbia
v.
