

Gaithersburg Social Events

Miss Julia Mae Johnson, daughter of Mr. James Edgar Johnson and the late Mrs. Johnson of Gaithersburg, Md., and Mr. Douglas Trail Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bernard Jones of Rockville, Md., were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crawford of Gaithersburg, uncle and aunt of the bride, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Norman O. Scribner, pastor of Epworth M. E. Church, officiated. The wedding marches were played by Miss Hazel Jacobs of Gaithersburg.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white velvet, made on straight lines, with a short train, and a turban of velvet and maline. Her corsage bouquet was of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. James Rolan I Ward of Woodfield, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore brown velvet with matching accessories, with corsage bouquet of talisman roses.

Mr. Alton Bernard Jones, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for the close friends and relatives who attended the wedding. The house was attractively decorated with ferns, roses and white candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for a short trip South. The bride's traveling costume was a green wool dress, with green coat, hat and accessories, with a corsage bouquet of gardenias. Upon their return they will reside in Rockville, Md.

Miss Ruth Ramsdell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Ramsdell, of Summit avenue, entertained at a buffet supper Tuesday evening. Miss Ramsdell is a student at Immaculate Seminary in Washington.

Over 100 guests attended the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Walker, Sunday afternoon in honor of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rhodes and their daughter, Miss Ellen Rhodes of Atlanta, Ga., who are spending several weeks with the Walkers and Miss Ella Plummer.

Mrs. J. P. Engle has returned from a visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Etchison, of Charleston, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Merhle Haines had with them at dinner New Year's eve, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cashell, Mr. and Mrs. William Ricketts, Miss Elizabeth C. Cashell and Mr. Robert Miller.
