

Week's Social Activities of Montgomery Co.

Bethesda Kenwood Chevy Chase Social Parties

Rexholm, on Glenbrook Road, Edgemoor, the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Preston C. King, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Preston C. King, Jr., was the scene of a delightful tea Saturday.

More than 250 guests were received by the hostess and her daughter-in-law. The spacious living room was gay with ferns and bowls of Spring flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland Huntington of Somerset were hosts Saturday at a dinner party, to which 10 guests were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Ames of Westmoreland Hills have as their guest for several weeks Mrs. Ames' sister, Mrs. Donald Ross of Grenada, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Harry Todd of Battery Park left yesterday for a visit of several weeks in Florida.

Mr. Charles Pusey of Bethesda went last week to Laconia, N. H., to spend the remainder of the Winter and Spring with his grandfather, Mr. Albert T. Sloan.

Mrs. Louis Keiser of Bethesda, who went to Fort Myer, Fla., in November, is now in Miami, where she met her son, Mr. Clarence Keiser of Edgemoor, who was there for a short visit.

Lieut. and Mrs. B. W. Fink of Chevy Chase Gardens entertained Sunday for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Archibald of Linthicum, Md.; Miss Ella G. Cook of Washington.

Paul Ryan of Bethesda entertained at a luncheon Thursday.

Mrs. Hardin C. Chandler of Decatur, Ga., came last week for an extended visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bateman Morris, Jr., in Bethesda.

Mr. and Mrs. David R. Starry of Drummond have gone to Lake Worth, Fla., for the rest of the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brady of Somerset announce the birth of a daughter, Marie Therese.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Troth entertained at a dance Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. S. d'Espard, of Thornapple Street, will be hostess at luncheon and bridge next Saturday, entertaining her guests at the Columbia Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Bates and their children, who have been living for the past year in Grove Street, will move soon to New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Orem, Jr., entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at their home in Williams Lane.

Monday, Mrs. J. Elliot Moran entertained at luncheon at her home in Exeter Road in Edgemoor, when her guests were the members of the bridge circle of All Saints Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sumner Wood and their children are moving this week from Chatham Road to their new home in West Woodbine Street.

Mrs. Karl Plitt, Jr., was hostess at luncheon on Monday at her home in Delaware Street. Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Plitt entertained at tea for a small company of friends.

Mrs. Kenneth D. McRae entertained at luncheon last week at her home in Thornapple Street for members of her bridge club.

An interesting wedding took place today in Richmond, Ind., when Miss Catherine Dennis, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Cullen Dennis, was married to Dr. Allan Grafflin, of the Harvard Medical School staff. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Allan D. Hole, of Earlham College, of which Dr. Dennis is president.

The bride wore an afternoon gown of blue crepe and carried Lestra Hibberd roses and lilies of the valley. She was unattended. Dr. and Mrs. Grafflin are sailing on Monday on the Bremen for Europe, where they will spend several months, later returning to make their home in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Barkley entertained at cocktails at their home in West Woodbine Street Saturday night in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. James V. Bennett. The Barkleys have as their guest, Mrs. Barkley's sister, Mrs. Sallie C. Landt, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. C. MacDonald Swan of Bethesda are in New York City for a few days.

Mrs. George E. Schultz of Bethesda has returned from a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Carback, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Jesse Franklin Sprinkle and her son, Mr. Leland Sprinkle, of Battery Park were hosts at a supper party Sunday night, when they entertained Miss Mercedes Rhyno and Miss Mercedes Berry and their cousin, Mr. Rader Mahoney.

Mr. and Mrs. David Clarke entertained at cards on Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clarke, of Brighton, Mr. and Mrs. Greenberry Griffith and Mr. and Mrs. William W. Griffith.

Mrs. Samuel Riggs, Jr., is spending several weeks in Catonsville as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Laurie H. Riggs.

Mrs. William T. Warfield and Mrs. Allison Taylor spent Thursday in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Mary Presson and Miss Mary Cornelia Warfield.

Mrs. Hiram Harvey has moved from her farm on the Brookeville road to her new home adjoining the residence of her son, C. Willard Harvey, in Brookeville.

Mrs. John Allnut, of Washington, and Mrs. Paul Allnut from Connecticut, spent Tuesday in Laytonsville with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allnut, their grandparents.

Mrs. Joseph J. Eiten entertained at a party on Thursday evening, having as guests Mrs. Otto W. Anderson, Mrs. Perrin Edwards, Mrs. James Schroder, Mrs. Merlie Haines, Mrs. Forrest Walker, and Miss Barbara Walker.

Mrs. William T. Warfield and Mrs. Allison Taylor spent Thursday in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Mary Presson and Miss Cornelia Warfield.

Mrs. Warren Ellis of Washington has joined Mrs. Ellis at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Simon Haines, for two weeks.

Sandy Spring

Mrs. F. Pole Robison has returned from a visit in New Jersey and New York City.

Miss Helen Bird has with her for the week-end Miss Sara Smith of Richmond.

Miss Jean Thomas is spending the week-end at Tanglewood, having as her guest Miss Eleanor Lewis of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thomas visited Philadelphia for the week-end.

Mr. Norman Farquhar and Mr. Henry Hyde, who are students at Episcopal High School, spent their Monday holiday with their parents in Sandy Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. William John Thomas have returned from a trip to Florida.

Mr. Tom Hollowell and Mr. John Beck are spending the week-end with Mrs. Hollowell at West Cedars. They are seniors at Swarthmore College.

Mrs. F. L. Thomas has left for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Carl Willson, in Rochester, N. Y.

Gaithersburg

Mrs. Garry W. Bell entertained 16 guests at an evening bridge party followed by a supper Thursday. The guests included Mrs. Alfred Richards, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. Virginia Williamson of Washington, Mrs. Allison Taylor of Laytonsville, Miss Lena Ricketts of Rockville, Mrs. Lawrence Darby, Mrs. William Cooley, Mrs. Clyde Thomas, Mrs. Norman Belt, Mrs. George Darby, Mrs. Irvin Thomas, Miss Ella Plummer, Mrs. Carroll Walker, Mrs. Louis Reed, Mrs. Merlie Jacobs and Mrs. Erland Etchison of Gaithersburg.

Mrs. Manie Dutrow, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Barr, of Clarksburg, Md., are visiting in Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Harvey Selby was guest of Mrs. Lulu Koontz in Washington the past week.

Mrs. Lewis Reed, Mrs. Carroll Walker and Mrs. Lawrence Darby attended the card party given by the Woman's Club in Rockville Wednesday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid Society of Epworth Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Norman Jacobs Thursday at luncheon. The hostesses were Mrs. Willard Jacobs, Mrs. Hanson Cashell, Mrs. Thomas Plummer and Mrs. Clayton Watkins.

Mayor and Mrs. William McBain attended the banquet held at the Lee House in Washington Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Byrne of Diamond avenue were hosts at dinner Sunday, when their guests were Mrs. Martha Marquette Gillman and Mr. Robert Garrett of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. West of Darnestown, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Walker and Miss Gloria Walker of Gaithersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Schroeder of Frederick road entertained at a late supper Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Christie.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burdette have left by motor for their Winter home in Hollywood, Fla., where they will remain until Spring.

Rockville

Mrs. Randolph Talbott entertained one of the bridge clubs on Tuesday at her home. The following were present: Mrs. Almus Spear, Mrs. Albert Bogie, Mrs. William Linthicum, Mrs. Adolph Gude, Mrs. Julian Whiting, Mrs. Barnard Welsh and Mrs. Harry Beard.

Mrs. Oliver Perry is spending two weeks at Miami Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Charles Beard, and Misses Alice and Lillian Brand are spending the week in New York.

Miss Margaret Dawson was hostess to one of the bridge clubs Tuesday at her home.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Linthicum, their two sons and Miss Emily Blandford spent last week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Latimer, at their home near Prince Frederick, Md.

Maj. and Mrs. Joseph White, who have been living in Rockville for two years, have moved to Chevy Chase, Md.

Miss Elsie England entertained the members of the Friday Afternoon Bridge Club this week at her home.

Announcement has been made of the marriage last week of Miss Marian Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Cleveland of Garrett Park, and Mr. Joseph Daniel Clagett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Clagett.

Silver Spring

Miss Dorothy Ann Fidler of Silver Spring, whose marriage to Mr. Carl H. Harvey of Anacostia, D. C., will take place Saturday afternoon at Grace Church in Woodside, was the guest in whose honor a miscellaneous shower was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Warren W. Cady.

Mrs. Cady was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Mildred Horner of Silver Spring. Among the guests were Mrs. Wilson Auld, Mrs. Percy Templeton and Mrs. Maury N. Parker of Berwyn, Md.; Miss Barbara Cornell, Miss Doris Price, Mrs. Roger Prichard, Mrs. Truman P. Smith, Mrs. John Maddox, Mrs. George Harmon, Mrs.

Sarah Whittlesey, Mrs. Edward C. Horner, mother of the hostess; Mrs. W. H. Fidler, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Leonard Wayland, Mrs. Charles Eckloff, Miss Evelyn Eckloff, Miss Sallie Johnson, the Misses Peggy and Betty Brown, Mrs. Harriet Kreuzberg and Mrs. H. S. Kreuzberg of Silver Spring; Miss Virginia Barnsley of Rockville, Md.; Mrs. Jerome B. Lawler of Takoma Park, Md., and Mrs. George Dirst, Miss Mary Kreamer and Miss Golda Simpson of Washington.

Mrs. Robert Bains was hostess at luncheon and bridge at her home in Silver Spring Friday.

Mrs. John Maddox of Silver Spring entertained at bridge Thursday.

Mrs. Karl Jarrell of Wynnwood Park entertained at bridge Friday evening. The guests included Mrs. Samuel K. Wade, Mrs. R. Branson Thomas, Mrs. Marshall Davis, Mrs. John Ballard, Mrs. Ernest F. Klinge, Mrs. Joseph B. Crosby, Mrs. Howard Kacy, Mrs. Howard P. Bailey, Mrs. Horace P. Donnelly, Jr.; Mrs. Fred Spanagel, Mrs. Lewis B. Moulton and Mrs. C. W. Hensey.

Mrs. Charles Jones of Silver Spring was hostess at a benefit bridge party Tuesday evening at her home, entertaining about 40 guests.

Mrs. E. J. Ackerson of North Woodside entertained at luncheon and bridge Friday at Toll House Tavern in Silver Spring. The guests were Mrs. R. W. Elliott, Mrs. E. C. Alvord, Mrs. A. K. Cherry, Mrs. V. E. Munsey, Mrs. Charles Murphy, Mrs. Henry Wood and Mrs. Bion Libby of Washington; Mrs. Charles Prettyman of Silver Spring; Mrs. J. H. McWhorter of Silver Spring; Mrs. M. C. Richardson of North Woodside; Mrs. Frederic P. Lee and Mrs. B. H. Penrose of Bethesda, Md.; Mrs. Leigh Lawrence, Mrs. Karl Riemer and Mrs. R. C. Duncan of Chevy Chase, Md.

Mrs. Charles E. Sellman and Miss Emma Hodgson have returned from New York.

Mrs. Ernest T. Harrison was hostess to members of the Ladies' Aid Society at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Elgin entertained friends at dinner at their home on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kohlross are spending the week-end in Ballston, Va., guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. Robert Ballantyne.

Mr. and Mrs. David Pugh are spending the winter months at Orlando Beach, Fla., while Mr. and Mrs. Brainer Nicholson are in Coral Gables, Fla., for a month, and Mrs. Harriet Bastable is on a South American cruise.

Mrs. May Christmas, of Washington, is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Lutie Hempstone.

Olney

Mrs. Ruth Sherman Jones Richards presented her pupils in a recital on Saturday afternoon. The following participated: Gordon Chance, who played "Dance of the Spooks," Muriel Chance—Gypsy Dance. Duet—Gordon and Merriet Chance, Cadets Patrol. Solo—Margaret Farquhar, Gavotte by Martin. Duet—Margaret Farquhar and Mrs. Richards, Winter Farwell, Sleep Beloved Sleep. Solo—Virginia Mae Harvey, Teddy Bear and Pretty Rosebuds. Duet—Virginia Mae Harvey and Mrs. Richards, Evening. Solo—Helen Grey Miller, Dark Eyes. Duet—Helen Grey Miller and Mrs. Richards, Under the Linden. Solo—Frank O'Neil, Fishing, a greiling and marching song. Solo—Patricia O'Neil.

At Sunset and Drifting. The vocal students were Patricia Beebe, who sang "All Through the Night," "The Cuckoo Clock"; Carolyn Barnsley, who sang "Grey Days, and Then You'll Remember Me." Virginia Hurt sang "Mighty Like a Rose" and "The Cuckoo Clock." Following the recital Mr. Richards gave several selections, one a Negro spiritual, "Shorten Bread," a ballad by Diago "Horning," and "Water Boy." A number of parents and friends attended the recital which was enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Rev. Fairfield Butt of Christ Church, Kensington, spoke to the students of Sherwood High School at the assembly January 27. His subject was "Character Building." A double quartet composed of Sarah Bryant, Carty Barnsley, Vivianne Rudarill, Doris Carr, Anna Beall, Cornelia Finney-frook, Martha Mott, and Marian Beall sang "Teach Me, Father, How to Go." Anna Beall and Carty Barnsley were presented with gold 4-H pins for outstanding work in the 4-H Clubs.

Dr. Opie is chairman of a committee on arrangements for a banquet to be held in the Raleigh Hotel, February 8, in celebration of the one hundred and thirty-fourth anniversary of the Churchman. Probably the oldest religious paper anywhere.

The Sherwood Alumni boys defeated the Sherwood Varsity boys in a basketball game Friday evening with a score of 20-16. The Sherwood Alumni girls defeated the Sherwood Varsity girls in a game the same evening.

Mrs. Wm. Gilpen entertained Mrs. J. J. Hutton, Jr., Mrs. Frederick Gilpen, and Mrs. Ridley Chichester for bridge luncheon recently.

Mrs. Grover Stanley, Misses Gertrude, Margaret and Phyllis Stanley, and Mrs. Lorraine Murley were Sunday guests of Mrs. Edward Barnsley.

Mrs. Fannie Stanley of Damascus is visiting Mrs. Edward Barnsley.

Mrs. Anna Boyd of Olney is attending University of Maryland, having resigned from teaching at Sherwood for awhile.

TYPEWRITERS and ADDING MACHINES

BOUGHT
SOLD
RENTED REPAIRED

Largest Typewriter House in Washington

United Typewriter and Adding Machine Co., Inc.

813 14th Street

National 6063

Day Phone Met. 1662

Night Phone Adams 4703

Colonial Decorating Co.

"Decorations of Distinction"

D. J. CORSO, Manager

1131 9th Street N. W.

"See ETZ and See Better"

ETZ

Optometrist

608 13th St., N. W.