The Leader.

Published every Saturday by McCARDELL & ALBERT,

The LEADER will be served by carrier to any subscriber in town, or mailed to any address in the United States for $1.00 per year.

No paper will be discontinued until all arrearges are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

All subscription will be considered as due or collection for the whole year after the expiration of the first 3 months.

Correspondence containing important news solicited from every part of the

DR. D. T. LESHER, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.

Office first door West of the Taylor House. Calls answered promptly at all hours in town or country.

TR. S. K. SNIVELY, Physician and Surgeon,

WILLIAMSPORT, MARYLAND. OFFICE.-At his residence on East

Potomac Street. Night and day calls promptly responded to in town or country.

CROWTHER & HUNTZBERY, DENTISTS.

Will visit Will'amsport on Wednosday of every week. Artificial teeth from $3 up, and every set warrented. Gold and Silver filling at the lowest living prices. Office in the room adjoining the resi dence of Mrs. Weisel, on Potomac street. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Terms-CASH.

W. Harry Fuss,

PRACTICAL

WATCHMAKER & JEWELER The undersigned has opened a Silversmith shop in the room lately occupied by Dr Oowns, on Conococheague street, and is prepared to repair de., in manner that will insure satisfaction, and as moderate prices Engraving a specialty.

W. HARRY FUSS.

Blacksmithing!

The undersigned having opened up the Blacksmithing business in the shop on Salisbury street, mown as the Ardinger at fair living prices. Horse and Mule solicited. Respectfully. CHARLES W. KLINE.

SHOEING

CHEAP CASH STORE,

Under Odd Eellow's Hall, corner of Conecocheague and Salisbury Streets, WILLIAMSPORT, MP.

CHOICE

DRY GOODS.

NOTIONS,

BOOTS -SHOES and GROCERIES,- always in stock. Quick sales and small profits for CASH the motto.

kheun atism and Neuralgia Cured in 2 Days The Indiana Chemical Co., have discovered a compound which acts with truly marvelous rapidity in the cure of Rheumatism and Neuralgia. We guarantee it to cure any and every case of acute Inflamatory Rheumatism and Neuralgia in 2 DAYS, and to give immediate relief in chronic cases and effect a speedy cure. On receipt of 30 cents, in two cent stamps, we will send to any address the prescription for this wonderful compound which can be filled by your home druggist at small cost. We take this means of given our discovery to the public instead of putting it out as a patent medicine, it being much less expensive. We will gladly refund money if satisfaction is not given. THE INDIANA CHEMICAL Co., Crawfordsville, Ind.

FRESH MEAT!

AT THE LOWEST MARKET PRICES. I would respectfully inform the public that I will keep constantly on hand at which I will sell at from 7 to 12 cents per pound. Meat delivered at your residence at any time when ordered. My wagon will make regular trips over the town

MEATMARKET

TUESDAY THURSDAY and SATURDAY. Chice Beef a specialty. Respectfully,

M. B. SWARTLEY. THE NEW GENERAL MERCHAN-DISE STORE OF

brey on Conococheague Street, William sport, is now open. DRY GOODS, LADIES DRESS GOODS,

NOTIONS, all new and of the very latest patterns. BOOTS,

SHOES,

for Men and Boys of the best quality. GrocerieS 3 of all kinds new and fresh. selected and marked at prices to suit the for the cash. Respectfully,

VAN LEAR WOLTZ.

VOL. III.

WILLIAMSPORT, MD., SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1887.

NO. 38.

(TELEPHONE 101.,)

SHIPPER AND DEALER IN

CEMENT, PLASTER, SALT

WILLIAMSPORT MARYLAND,

Orders solicited and premptly afterded to.

WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY. STONEBIE AKERX EJ

(SUCCESSOR-TO STANHOPE & EMBREY.)

SHIPPERS AND DEALER IN COAL,

1) 1) 17 (11 Boyd, the Spy."

Constantly on hand the celebrated American A Specialty. Buggies, Carriages and Wagons repaired, and all other work done Company's Bituminous Coal, also Lykens ly, rainy night, on the Potomac, ut- until I set sail for England, bearing country I have only received the in the best werkman like manner on : VALLEY anthracite, all sizes at lowest prices terly ignorant that Belle Boyd and a some important papers, on the ship kindest of treatment from Northern guarentee, A share of public patronage is VALLEY anthracite, all sizes at lowest prices terly ignorant that Belle Boyd and a Greybourd Our record was reldiers." for Cash.

> ORDERS from any part of the County, State or United States prompty filled either by canal or railroad. ORDERS left at the Store of Theo. Embrey, will receive prompt atention. Office at lower wharf near the lock on C. & O Canal.

> > STONEBRAKER & EMBREY, Williamsport, Md.

TELEPHONE NO. 23.

E. P. STEFFEY,

JAMES. FINDLAY.

Telephone 107.,

STEFFEY & FINDLAY,

SHIPPERS AND DEALERS IN

BITUMINOUS & ANTHRACITE COAL, FERTILI-

ZERS &C.,

CANAL STREET, WILLIAMSPORT MD.

on Conococheague street, in Williamsport, CHNICE FRESH MEAT of all kinds, ESTALLESTALLESTALLS

MILLER BROTHERS, Williamsport, Md.

We take pleasure in stating to the public that we have added to our Mill all the necessary machinery for the manufacture of

-Doors, Sash, Blinds, Moulds, &c.,- and have on hand a large stock White Pine and Yellow Pine Boards and in the room lately occupied by Theo. Em- Scantling, Joists, &c., PRIME, which we can supply at any time, from the my cell was a poor, sick Confederate by the same thoughts that filled me, best yellow pine sold in the country. Those that want

-Flooring, Siding, Dressed Boards,-

SIDING, WHITE PINE FLOORING, WHITE and called for the poor fellow. He me to be his wife.

PINE DRESSED BOARDS, SHINGLES, LATHS, &C.

We can supply on short notice, Heavy Bill Lumber for Barns, &c. Call instant, and to make the officer be- the north, by the conflicting emotions around and get kicked by an army My gooks in every department is well and see for yourself, as we will sell the above lumber at BOTTOM PRICES

Factory on Canal, at Aqueduct,

MILLER BROTHERS.

SELECE STORT.

STUCK TO HER PETTICOAT. arm through the bars and pinned me superiors to be shot or, perhaps, meet

BELLE BOYD. the officials of the War Department | peated my cry, and the only thing | macv. Washington by the ears during that prevented a mutiny was the I finally replied that I would ac-The rebellion by her acts of daring somewhat ridiculous sight afforded by cept him if he could assure me of the and shrewdness in acquiring from the corporal kicking the guard down release of Capt. Henry, save me from under their very noses information of stairs. The guard was then placed prison again, and save the $25,000 the utmost importance and value to under arrest and punished by con- which I had. This was the first the Confederacy, may well be sent | finement. down to history as one of the remark | 'A short time afterwards I was en- ey. I need not dwell upon the deable women of her time. History changed for Col. Corcoran command- tails of our arrangements. The Licumay have dealt slightingly with the er of the famous 'Irish Brigade.' I tenant agreed to my conditions, Capvalctions deeds of "a rebel spy," but returned South, but was soon captur- tain Henry escaped, I was assisted off as a brave American woman, whose ed again, sent to Washington, and the vessel as an invalid, and driven heart was enlisted with the cause of placed in the Carroll prison. By to a hotel. A few hours afterwards those among whom she was born and permission, I was walking down the Lieutenant Hardinge joined me at and educated, the true American in steps of the prison one day, when a the hotel. We deposited the money, whose bosom there rankles no bitter- guard attempted to bayonet me. A s cured an exchange on a bank in ness, Belle Boyd, "the rebel spy," corset steel saved my life this time. Canada, and I left at once for Niagara must always be admired and respect- I clinched the bayonet and held it Falls. There I narrowly escaped ed, if not cherished, as a courageous | until other guards arrived, who gave | kidnapping by United States deteccountry woman. To day she begs not | me protection. On being exchanged | tives that had been put on my track. to be remembered as the "rebel spy," this time for 12 soldiers, I was told There Capt. Henry joined me. His but as Belle Boyd, who is a willing that if ever I came back to Washing | wife came on from Baltimore. Later, subject of the Government again t | ton I would be shot. which she fought, and a lover of the To the South I went again, and by same rendezvous, and we all left for be bought was within reach. Her before we reached New York I cap- the war?

the petticoat. said Belle Boyd to the reporter, "du en $15,000 more. I locked the door or less associated during the war." ates. I had them carefully sewed up We set sail for New York.

was just reaching out to receive the "I hesitated a moment, but in that articles when an officer was heard brief space of time was shaken as a rebel blood boiled. I seized a water attachment that I had formed for the Bell.

stars and stripes, to save which she this time the name of Belle Boyd had London, where I delivered safely the would again take her hand as "Belle become famous throughout the Con- messages entrusted to my care, and federcy. I was received with honors we were married. While in Pittsburg, recently, she and military escort wherever I went. I remained abroad until after the met an old captain in the regular ar I held the commission of a Captain, war. My husband died in England. my, who lay wrapped in a blanket but was breveted a Lieutenant-Colo In England I was treated in a royal not two feet away from her one chil nel and served in the latter capacity manner, and since my return to this bundle of valuable information from Greyhound. Our vessel was over- soldiers"

who he was, and never will. This is gallant captor were not those prompt. Erie railroad. one secret among meny others which ed by gallantry alone. Strange as it I will carry with me to my grave. | may seem, though my heart was filled | A KICKING MULE CURED.—A I was always successful in carry. to overflowing with the bitter rebel crowd of boys, men and women were ing valuable papers and money, con- sentiments characteristic of the wom- surrounding a man, a cart and a mule cealed about my person. The buttons on my dress were ofteh worth thousands of dollars, made of little rolls any tender feelings that I may have by the way of inducement he several of greenbacks, carefully pressed in entertained toward this brave and ac- times attempted to hit the recalcitrant the shape of a button, covered with complished gent!eman, I could but animal with a short cowhide. As the acknowledge that I was powerless to distance he kept was too respectful Thave often been made the target extinguish the little flame of friend- the mule was never touched, but he for the enemy's bullets, but was nev- ship, which I knew had rapidly kin er wounded. The day I ran across dled into the fire of a stronger affec- kickin'? asked a round resident. the battle-field of Fort Royal in full tion. I knew that he loved me and range of the Union men, and deliver- that I reciprocated his love. One replied the owner of the cart and ed some important papers to one of bright moonlight night, just as we Oh, yes they can, mine freund. General Jackson's aid, my dress was were entering Hell Gate, at New Ffery dime he dries to kick, yust almost riddled with bullets. I was York, I sat upon a bale of cotton katch him py de hint legs fen dey are captured that day and afterwards sent picturing the reception that I should in de air. I know a man vot dried it to Washington and placed in the old receive when taken ashore again as und he has nefer seen a mool kick Capital prison. There I was stabbed the rebel spy with the fate of a spy with a bayonet by one of the guards. hanging over me. I was aroused I do not believe that I can ever for- from my abstraction by the approach get that cruel man. Just across from of the Lieutenant. Moved, perhaps, soldier. I had some lemons and su- and by the strongth of his own pas- usually pointed out as me." gar. As the guard came marching by sion, he was on his knees before me I hailed him, and asked if he would in a moment. A strange place and allow me to pass the sick soldier some rather remarkable circumstances in into the fort?" lemon and sugar. He consented. I which to plight one's troth, you may put my arm through the ceil door say, but there the Lieutenant asked about it when I asked her what you

Circulars.

Letter heads. Sate Bille, clc. "Neatness, taste and dispatch," is our mainean Carda, Wedding Invitations and Visiting Cards recieve Call and ascertain our prices.

pitcher and hurled it at his head. Union officer; charged with my safe He ran towards my cell, poked his deliverance into the hands of his . REMINISCENCES OF THE REBELSPY to the wall with his bayonet, the spear a more disgraceful death, and the passing through the top of my should probable fate of my fellow captives. Belle Boyd, the famons Rebel spy. er. I yelled, 'Corporal of the Guard! and what should become of them, the accomplished daughter of one of Corporal of the Guard! Murder!" should I desert them for the object the V. F. F's. of Virginia who set | Every Confederate in the prison re- of my love, all straggled for supre> time that I had told him of the monmy intended husband reached the

the confederate lines, which she caried | hauled and I was captured again, but | Have you visited Jeff Davis since all and I him was the occassion tured the officer who captured me. No, sir; but I received a letter a social chat in which "the rebel A short time before the Federal from him a short time ago inquiring spy" narrated some of the interesting vessel reached ours, Captain Henry, after my welfare. I wrote him a events of her career called to mind our commander, had a keg of gold, few days ago. I entertain the kindby the incident. Her success as a containing $150,000, thrown over est regard for Mr. Davis, and hope to spy she attributed to her sex, and the board. Another keg containing the beable to visit him before he dies. garment that proved so poor a disguise same amount was opened, and all on I have received a number of letters for her illustrious chief, Jeff Davis- | board was given just as much money from General Buregard and other. as they wanted. I had about $10,- prominent Southern Generals who are "I never discarded the petticoat," | 000 in my state-room, and I was giv | yet living, and with whom I was more ling all my experience in the service. of my room and walked out on deck Miss Boyd has been married three I was often treated kindly by the and calmly awaited the result. A times, and for one with such a re-Union officers simply because I was a portion of our crew were exchanged markable career age has dealt gently woman, In fact, there were but few and Lieutenant S. W. Hardinge, a with her. She is 5 feet 8 inches, but exceptions to this rule, On leaving United States naval officer, of fine has an erect, commanding figure and Baltimore after my first arrest in 1861, military presence and as brave a man, military bearing that makes her look I carried with me some twelve or fif though he was a Yank, as ever drew taller. During her recent stay in teen thousand percushion caps which a sword in defense of his country, Pittsburg she had the pleasure of were needed badly by the Confeder- was placed in command of our vessel. meeting an old playmate, one with whom she had made mud pies and in a cotton padded unnderskirt. The "During the voyage we became played marbles in her father's yard caps were given me by a Union man intimate friends, and I was not slow at Martinsburg, W. Va., he being in Baltimore, but I have never told to discover that the attentions of my Superintendent Quincy, of the Lake

'Vy, you don'd cure dot mool of 'Mules can't be cured o' kickin',' since. - Phila. Call.

AT THE PANORAMA.-Little girl: "Is that you, papa, on the brick-coiored horse that is up on its hihd legs? Parent-"Yes, my child, that is

"And did you out that other man's head off and ride right straight over

"Yes, my dear." "But mamma didn't say anything did in the war."

"Why, what did she say" (looking around at the spectators proudly.) "Oh, she said that all you did that coming. The guard wheeled in an strong tree by the rude blast from anybody ever heard of was to fool lieve he was vigilant, struck me on within me. My love of country, mule, and that now you haven't sense the hand, breaking my thumb. My fealty to the Confederacy, the strong enough to get a pension. - Dakota