careful and conscientions. The erroneous judgments of public men and of members of the press spring from the same cause; namely, visiting the short-comings of the few upon the many. In the one case the fact that party men as a rule, unite to shield those detected in wrong creates a general opinion that the class is corrupt. In the other the fact that there is too much toleration by the press of its libelers and sensation mongers gives excuse to public men for their sweeping charges. In a word, the most effective foes of the press are those of its own household. It is fully able to deal successfully with all others; it should be abundant ly able to crush these

A private dispatch received at London from Japan says that the loss of life by the recent earthquake which shook the Islands of Hondo and other places is estimated to be 10,000.
