RAYVILLE.

The Pine Grove U. B. Sunday School will hold its annual Children's Day service tomorrow morning, and will undoubtedly draw a large crowd of people. It is sad to relate that many people never attend the church services only on special occasions of this kind, and would rather remain at home in spite of the good sermons and services we have from time to time.

Mr. Harry Perego is a patient at the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium. We hope that he may be able to regain good health at this institution.

As usual many people came to the cemetery at this place on Decoration Day.

Mr. Harry Shauck and family, and Mr. Roland S. Hoshall motored from Baltimore last Sunday and visited relatives in this village.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION AND CHANGE OF NAME OF HELEN SCOTT COOPER AND STANLEY SCOTT COOPER, Infants.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

The object of the petition filed in the above proceedings by Patrick W. Scott and Elizabeth Scott, his wife, is the adoption of said infants by the petitioners and for a change of name of said infants from Helen Scott Cooper and Stanley Scott Cooper to Helen Scott and Stanley Scott, respectively.

The petition states that the petitioners reside in Baltimore County and have the guardianship and custody of said infants since the 29th day of February, 1916; that the mother of said infants is dead and the whereabouts of the father unknown; that it would be to the interest and advantage of said infants that their names be changed as prayed and that their general welfare would be promoted by the adoption.

It is thereupon this 25th day of May, 1920, by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County in Equity,

ORDERED that the petitioners cause a copy of this order with the object and substance of the petition to be inserted in some weekly newspaper published in Baltimore County, once a week for three successive weeks before the 21st day of June, 1920, giving notice to Stanley E. Cooper, the father of said infant children, to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor.

On or before the 21st day of June, 1920, and show cause, if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

ALLAN McLANE, True Copy—Test: WILLIAM P. COLE, Clerk. 5-29-20.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintiff, Florence E. Canfield, from the defendant, Charles E. Canfield. The Bill recites that the parties were married in the City of Chicago, 1915, by the Reverend Dr. Clemens, a Minister of the Gospel, and lived together up to the first day of September, 1915, when he deserted her in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois; that the plaintiff is a non-resident of the State of Maryland for more than two years prior to the filing of this bill of complaint, while the defendant, Charles E. Canfield, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, his last known place of residence being the City of Chicago, State of Illinois; that there was no issue as the result of the said marriage; that through the conduct of your oratrix toward her said husband has been affectionate and above reproach, the defendant, Charles E. Canfield, her husband, has without any just cause or reason abandoned and deserted her, and declared his intentions to live with her no longer; that said abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years; is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

It is therefore ORDERED by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, this 26th day of May, A. D. 1920, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some weekly newspaper published in Baltimore County, once a week for four successive weeks before the 28th day of June, 1920, give notice to the said non-resident defendant, Charles E. Canfield, of the object and substance of this suit, and warn him to be and appear in this Honorable Court either in person or by solicitor.

On or before the 15th day of July, 1920, and show cause, if any he may have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

WILLIAM P. COLE, Clerk. True Copy—Test: WILLIAM P. COLE, Clerk. 5-29-20.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

HETTIE CLAY ALLEN, Plaintiff, vs. GLENN PHILLIP ALLEN, Defendant.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii and the care and custody of the minor child, William Walter Allen, by the plaintiff from the defendant. The Bill states that the parties were married on the 28th day of February, 1917, and that they resided together until the 3rd day of April, 1917. That the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Maryland for more than two years next preceding the filing of her bill of complaint, while the defendant, Glenn Phillip Allen, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and was last heard from in Reno, Vanango County, Pennsylvania. That there is one child as issue of said marriage, William Walter Allen, aged three years.

That though the conduct of your oratrix toward her husband, the said Glenn Phillip Allen, has always been kind, chaste and above reproach, he, the said Glenn Phillip Allen, has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her and declared his intention to live with her no longer; that said abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years; is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable hope of reconciliation.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Circuit Court of Baltimore County, in Equity, this 21st day of May, 1920, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some weekly newspaper published in Baltimore County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of June, 1920, give notice to the said absent defendant, Glenn Phillip Allen, of the object and substance of the bill and warn him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor.

On or before the 12th day of July, 1920, and show cause, if any he may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

WILLIAM A. SCHOTT, vs. LILA M. SCHOTT.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the Plaintiff, William A. Schott, from the Defendant, Lila M. Schott.

The Bill states that the parties were married on the 29th day of June, 1905, in the City of Elkton, State of Maryland.

That, though the conduct of your Orator towards his said wife has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Lila M. Schott has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted him, and has declared her intention of living with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

That no children were born as a result of said marriage. That your Orator has been a resident of the State of Maryland during his entire life.

That the Defendant, Lila M. Schott, was at the time of said abandonment and desertion a resident of the State of Maryland, but since said abandonment has been a non-resident, and when last heard of was a resident of the State of Pennsylvania.

It is thereupon ordered by the Circuit Court of Baltimore County this 12th day of May, 1920, that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some weekly newspaper published in Baltimore County once in each of four successive weeks before the 14th day of June, 1920, give notice to the said absent Defendant, Lila M. Schott, of the object and substance of his bill and warn her to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor.

On or before the 30th day of June, 1920, and show cause, if any she may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
