Miss Olivia Kellholtz, who spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Erwood Sparks, of Baltimore, fell when getting out of bed early Saturday morning, breaking her hip and was removed to St. Agnes Hospital.

WEST NOTTINGHAM TANGLES WITH P. M. C.

Today at 3:00 P. M. on the home field the W. N. A. gridgers meet P. M. C. Prep in an attempt to repeat the victory of two years ago and avenge last year's stinging defeat. True it is the Maron has been very tame so far this season, but P. M. C. also has yet to take its first victory.

With the happenings of previous clashes adding spice to the dish this situation should result in an interesting tussle.

Misses Hazel and Charlotte Ewing, entertained a company of their friends at a Halloween party at the formers home.

Clarence Starkey is building a bungalow on the property he purchased some time ago near West Nottingham.

The American Store at Aberdeen was entered by burglars on Sunday night last, who carried away the safe. The safe is reported to have contained about twenty-five dollars in cash and checks amounting to several hundred dollars.
