Nem Year Thought

* * * *

Let me but live from year to year, With forward face and unreluctant

Not hastening to, nor turning from the goal;

Not mourning for the things that dis-

In the dim past, not holding back in a whole And happy heart, that pays its toll

To youth and age, and travels on with cheer. So let the way wind up the hill or down, Tho rough or smooth, the journey will be joy; a boy,

a crown,

I shall grow old, but never lose life's treasurer. Because the road's last turn will be
