Run Away

Get As Far As Roanoke, Va., Before Being Overtaken

And Brought Back from school, on Friday morning last, the right arm.

and boarded the bus for Baltimore. They were just as they left school, without hats or grips, but one of them took with her romantic dreams of a vine-covered cottage, caressed by gentle zephyrs, and bathed in shimmering silvery moonlight, located in the sunny south; the other in her possession, the other $17.00, aged it is reported.

aged 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Logan on Thursday, March 11, Joseph Ayers, of near Rising Sun, 2:00 p. m. Devotional leader, Mrs. and Margaret (Peggy) Tyson, aged Mayde McDougal; Program leader, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Miss A. Mabel Reynolds. Tyson, of this town. That the girls had earefully planned their trip beforehand was indicated by a map they had in their possession, with certain designated points marked.

Their absence was not particularly noticed until some time in the afternoon, when inquiry revealed the fact they had purchased tickets and year. boarded the morning bus for Baltithe assistance of the Police Depart- tion. ment in their search for the runaways. The two girls, travelling without Washington, where they had purchased tickets and boarded the train three of the automobile party kept on to Roanoke, where the girls were finally apprehended and brought back to Rising Sun.

They are now stending High School, as usual.

LEADERS PAY TRIBUTE TO RITCHIE

Party lines were forgotten Wednesday when State and city leaders joined in tribute to Albert C. Ritchie in memorial services on the first anniversary of his death.

Eulogies were heard at the Eleventh Ward Democratic Club, where Governor Nice, Mayor Jackson; Herbert R. O'Conor, Attorney General; WILSON'S FISH MARKET OPENS Maj. Gen. Milton A. Reckord, Adjutant General; David C. Winebrenner III .. Eugene H. Beer, Mrs. Ethel L. Lorentz and Mrs. James G. Whitely were on the list of speakers.

Ideals, statesmanship and legal acumen of the man who served Maryland through four terms in the Governor's chair were emphasized. ----

JUNK THIEVES STEAL HARFORD COUNTY BRIDGE

Somebody took one of Harford County's bridges, but the county got it back.

It was a 15-ton structure to be placed across the Winters Run at Hookers Mill. The steelwork was delivered to the site, but when work-

Sheriff Granville C. Boyle said he found it later in a junk yard. The ces, Nathan L. Smith, chief engineer ling the highway. He claims that officiated. sheriff locked up four men on a of the commission and former chief the defendant company is responsible charge of larceny. The prisoners said they didn't know they were stealing anything. They said they were just hired to cart it to the junkyard. The junkman said he didn't know it was stolen-he just bought DUCKING POLICE APPOINTED Governor Nice has appointed the following ducking police: Thomas Bines, Perryville; Ulysses G. Way, Havre de Grace; Roger M. Gilbert. Aberdeen.

DIES FROM INJURIES

Charles Nichols, colored, a farm hand of near St. Augustine, this county, died at Union Hospital, Elkton, Feb. 23, from internal injuries near Glasgow, Del., destroyed a milk ling job at the mill, was arrested sustained three weeks previous in a house and part of a silo. Monday peculiar manner. His car had be- morning of last week, causing damcome mired in a lane a short distance age estimated at $18,000. A large from his home when two boys with lot of hay, alfalfa and other feed mules came to his aid. While Nichols were also destroyed. was fastening the chains to the car, Fire companies from Elkton, Chesthe mules started, throwing him un- apeake City, Newark, New Castle dragging it over his body. He suf- Points, Holloway Terrace, Christiana, eral ribe, also internal injuries.

Owing to the poor support given the team last year. Havre de Grace State base ball league.

Mrs. Roger Wooleyhan, of Chesa peake City, while roller skating at Two Rising Sun High School girls the Black Cat Rink, near Wilming took unauthorized leave of absence ton, fell and suffered a fracture of > William R. Smith, of near Rising Sun, has sold his farm of 102 acres n West Nottingham Township, Chester county, Pa., to Clarence Fisher, who will take possession April 1.

During the heavy gale and rain on

The Woman's Christian Tempe The girls were Annabelle Ayers, ance Union will meet with Mrs. G. C.

While W. Coudon Reynolds, Lewin Owens.

more. Then Mr. Tyson, accompan- at the Conowingo dam, given by the John E. Mackie, Clarence Gifford, SPORTSMEN ATTEND DUCKS UN. ied by Wilson Ayers, brother of An- Philadelphia Electric Company, was Ralph T. Wilson, Henry D. Smith, nabelle; M. U. Zimmerman, principal held Monday evening at Conowinge. Willis B. Gorrell, Ralph Campbell. of the school; Max Dinsmore an A dance followed the dinner. The William Harvey Tome, Israel T. Rey Organization Formed To Increase Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Williams, of and assigned for short periods to John Mackie drove to Baltimore and dinner was served by the ladies of nolds, William D. Ewing, and John instituted further inquiry, getting Rising Sun Parent-Teachers Associa- Schaefer.

vice officer will be in the Court House at Elkton, Monday, March 8th, for with his claims, incidental to hospatilization, compensation, bonus or refor Roanoke, Va. Telephoning ahead, lief. There are no charges or any nature for these services.

STORE AND DWELLING PROP-

ERTY SOLD week was the sale by Jos. E. Cameron Ernest Biles, to Woodrow James, green grocers and provision dealers of this town. The reported price was $5,200.

The property embraces a two story brick-and-frame dwelling, with large store room, and a stable and garage in the rear.

market, in Port Deposit, Md., for the you want in the way of fish.

STATE ROADS CHAIRMAN TO RESIGN

Homer E. Tabler is about to submit ually engaged in business there. men went to put it in place, it was his resignation as chairman of the State Roads Commission.

to be the Washington county physi- point. Officer Perkins is now at- lace with matching accessories and a cian's successor.

KILLED BY FALLING TREE Michael Oremusz, 38, of near Nottingham, Pa, was killed Thursday forenoon near Little Britain Presbyterian Church. He was struck by a limb of a falling tree which he an other men were cutting down.

Deputy Coroner Fred L Cauffman returned a verdict of accidental death from a fractured skull. Oremusz leaves a wife and four children.

FIRE DESTROYS MILK HOUSE Fire on the farm of J. Wirt Willis, hose and chemicals to the scene.

Session

has decided to withdraw from the Bi- March Term Convenes At C. D. Cullen, Rising Sun, Elkton---Long Term In

Prospect --- Jury Lists

The March term of Circuit Court extra long one.

and 43 appeal cases.

The juries drawn are as follows: Sunday night of last week, the smoke Elkton, foreman; Oldham W. Davis, sion service in cooperation with the ding anniversary Tuesday, Feb. 23. the Western and Eastern Shore comvisions of Hollywood, and life on the stack at the cannery of W. Scott Sil- Frank S. Hutton, John Jenness, Al- Tri-State Packers Association. open range in the glamorous golden ver, in Nottingham, Pa., was blown onzo B. Creswell, James M. Ritten- Herman A. Hunter, canning crops West. One of the Misses had $15.00 down and building otherwise dam- house, Norris J. Reynolds, Ralph specialist for the extension service, Campbell, John F. Garvin, J. Lawson said the yield of 17.6 tons of toma-Crothers, Howard Benson, George toes per acre, produced by Cullen. Thornton, John K. Burkley, Millard was the highest ever recorded in the E. Hess, Elwood D. Heisler, Albert contest.

> Nimrod Minner, William E. Roney, during the previous year. The annual dinner for employees John P. Logan, George W. Owens,

MEETS WITH OPPOSITION

propriations And Do Away

With Carnivals veloped to the movement headed by an all-day session. East Volunteer Fire Company, to to increase the supply of ducks avail- married Tuesday, Feb. 16. at lvy have a bill passed in the General As- able for hunters in Maryland and Mills, Pa., by Rev. Sylvester M. Mc-A real estate deal negotiated thi: sembly, making it mandatory upon other sections of the country, has Cartly. the board of county commissioners spread rapidly in the state. for Cecil county in making up its Among the aims of the Marylan! of the store and dwelling property, budget every year, to provide body will be the raising of $20,000 a $10,500 for the seven volunteer fire year for the next five years as th. companies of the county. For the state's share toward buying, leasing past two years the county commis- and policing breeding grounds in sioners have levied $2800 for the Canada. companies-$400 for each unit. The Board of County Commissioners express the opinion that such a measure should carry provision for a referen-season and hopes to serve his patrons Circuit Court at Bel Air granted a Brand, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robbetter than ever before. This is the judgment of non pros in the $50,000 ert P. Brand of Conowingo, were of Chesapeake City, observed 42nd year Mr. Wilson has been deal- suit of State Policeman George M. quietly married on Tuesday evening. fiftieth anniversary of their wedding ing in Susquehanna fresh Shad, Rock Perkins, of Elkton, against Philips Feb. 23, by Dr. E. Glenn Switzer. on Wednesday, Feb. 24. They wer and Herring, and he has established Bros., contractors of Salisbury. The The ceremony was performed in th. married in Chesapeake City, Feb. 24, an evitable reputation during this court ruled that while the contract Sunday School room of the First 1887. long period of business. He deals in on the new Philadelphia road, on Presbyterian Church, Bel Air, in the all kinds of fresh fish in season, as which the defendant corporation wa- presence of the two families. well as salted cut herring and shad. engaged, was a large one it was sing-His market is the place to get what ular and casual. Under the law Perkins has the right to bring his suit families attended the wedding at 1 Maryland. again in Salisbury, the home of the company.

It was reported in well-informed kins had no right to sue them in legislative circles last week that Dr. Harford because they were only cas-year after being thrown from a mo-And, according to the same sour- torcycle near Aberdeen, while patrol- of the Kemblesville M. E. Church, engineer of Baltimore, is slated for neglect of the highway at that riage by her father, wore blue silk tached to the Conowingo sub-station.

are looking for the thieves who stole blesville. brass and babbitt metal from the plant of the Jessup & Moore Paper thieves got away with a large quan tity of material.

On Monday, Samuel Belgu, Jr., ficiating. aged 37, of Coatesville, Pa., employed as a torchblower on the dismant- the presence of the immediate fami Rhinehart. charged with the thefts, and lodged in Elkton jail

MARYLAND TUBERCULOSIS AS-

SOCIATION CLINIC March 10, at 10:00 a. m.

Awarded Prizes

Produces Highest Yield Yet Recorded

Clarence D. Cullen, Rising Sun; for Cecil county convened at Elkton John F. Kolk, Long Green, and Riley more, spent the weekend with her on Monday. Judging from the size J. Wiley, Vienna, received watches at parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Connelly, of the dockets, the term will be an Thursday's session of the annual canning corps conference held at There are 181 civil cases on the College Park, in recognition of their dockets, 29 appearances; 18 petitions records in the 1936 ten-ton tomato Pa., was the guest last week of Mrs. for their continued operation. crop contest.

Grand Jury-Murray J. Ewing, by the University of Maryland exten- Zion, celebrated their fiftieth wed- commissioners at the conferences of

M. McNamee, John R. Nesbitt, Fred | Carlos Campbell, of the National wood, N. J., were week-end guests of as winners by a small margin. S. Weiant, George W. Peterson, Fris- Canners' Association, a speaker on Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Ewing, at "The Advocates of continued state operby Boyer, colored; Benjamin Ross, the conference program, told dele- Bungalow." William C. Racine, and Eilton E. gates that, despite constantly increasing demands for canned tomato juice, ing Sun M. E. Church, who recently Peterson and several others were Petit Jury—H. B. Manlove, Roy C. the market has held up well. Camp- sustained an operation at the Meth> fishing with a hauling sein in Bohe- Carpenter, William H. Husfelt, John bell said last year, although 44,000 dist Hospital, Philadelphia, is recumia river, Tuesday afternoon of last L. Shelton, Irvin G. Griffith, J. Hayes fewer acres of tomatoes were in cul- perating at his home here. week, they caught among other fish, McCauley, J. Frank Blake, Jr. Wil- tivation, approximately 1,000,000 one herring. This is the first herring liam C. Feehley, Dr. S. C. Sykes, cases of tomatoes, juice and pulp reported caught in local waters this Frank Steele, John Lawrence, Jr., were produced in this country than

LIMITED MEETING

Supply Of Wild Ducks For Hunters

Thomas B. Edwards, veterans ser- FIRE COMPANY MAINTAINENCE sportsmen attended the state-wid ner parents before taking a position. and the State Roads engineers do not meeting of Ducks Unlimited, branch of the More Game Association, held Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Griest of Darlhats or grips, were easily traced to the purpose of assisting any veteran Measure Would Increase County Ap- in Baltimore, Friday, when expan ing, Pa., and granddaughter of Mr. sion of the organization in Marylana and Mrs. Andrew Angle, of Provi and increased propagation of ducks dence, Cecil county, and Mr. Alexan

Marion Rose, president of the North The organization, recently formed Little of Chester Heights, Pa., were

WEDDINGS

BRAND-ENFIELD

eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. J. Wilson has opened his fish RULING IN $50,000 DAMAGE SUIT Roy Enfield, of Forest Hill, Harford FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVER-Judge John A. Robinson in the county, and Mr. Robert Patterson

GEORGE-MACKIE

o'clock on Monday, Feb. 22. of Miss S. Mildred George, daughter of Mr. and The company had argued that Per- Mrs. James H. George of near Kemblesville, Pa., and Mr. Joseph W. Perkins was badly injured last ville, at the home of the bride's par-

The bride, who was given in marcorsage of sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackie are on a wed-THIEVES STRIP MILL OF METAL ding trip by motor to Florida. On Sheriff Eugene Racine and deputies | their return they will live near Kem-

BROWN—SCARBOROUGH

Miss Mary R. Brown, daughter of greatly appreciated. Company, located in Elkton. For Mr. and Mrs. E. Kirk Brown, and J. some weeks past work of removing Gifford Scarborough, son of Mr. and all machinery from the plant, form- Mrs. J. Leedom Scarborough, of Eikerly the pulp works, has been in pro- ton, were married at the Methodist gress, and it is alleged that the Protestant Church at Snow Hill, Md. at 12 noon, Friday, the Rev. A. H. the High School auditorium, was Townsend, pastor of the church, of lies of the young couple.

the groom is the Educational advisor. ed by those present. Mrs. Scarborough is a graduate of Goucher College, Baltimore, and a Dr. W. A. Bridges, of the Maryland member of the Kappa Kappa Gamm?

Kappa Pai fraternity.

Ross Cameron, of Freehold, N. J., spent Sunday with his father, Jesse T. Cameron.

Miss Katherine Donache entertained the Young Ladies Bridge Club on Friday evening.

Miss Frances Connelly, of Balt'near Porters Bridge.

Scott Wilson, Mount street.

The contest is sponsored each year Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Yerkes, of dation for return expressed by county

The wedding of Miss Emma Dean and Mr. William T. Warburton, of North East, Md., R. D., is to take place in the near future.

and Miss Cornbrooks, of Collings- mission operation will come through Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Evelyn Boyies assert that state operation provides and Mr. Clifton W. Morgan at the for better long range planning and home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs more economical handling, that it evening, March 13, at 8 o'clock. Zion, finished her three year training counties where they maye be needed. course in Chester hospital last week | Relations between the county com-A large number of Cecil county and will spend a short vacation with missioners in the various counties

Miss Emma A. Griest, daughter of Considerable opposition has de- in feeding grounds was discussed at der Little, Jr., son of Mrs. Alexander Little and the late Mr. Alexander

SIXTY-SEVENTH WEDDING ANNI-

VERSARY 1870. Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Hogg. of Atglen, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Leon Miss Dorothea Holland Enfield, many flowers and cards.

SARY

Captain and Mrs. Preston Foster ty. The Fire Chief's Club of Maryland will hold a banquet. Ou the last day of the convention a parade will be held. Fire companies from Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware and

Captain and Mrs. Foster have three children, Mrs. Frank Shivers, Bayonne, N. J., Mrs. Holland Jarrett, and Only members of the immediate Mr. Bryan Foster, Chesapeake City,

MORNING BUS TO BALTIMORE RESTORED

Mackie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clar- morning bus to Baltimore. On Jan- than his share of the road, Mr. Ewing ence Mackie, also of near Kembles uary 1st this bus was discontinued, swerved his car to the right, and it and the schedule then adopted made plunged off the road and fell into a ents. The Rev. R. R. Hunt, pastor it impossible for patrons of the line deep ravine. Fortunately he was from this section, to reach Baltimore thrown from the car, and escaped until late in the afternoon. The new with only a sprained shoulder. His schedule, effective February 24 pro- car was completely demolished. The vides for the restoration of the bus other car proceeded on its way. leaving Rising Sun at 9:49 a. m., and arriving in Baltimore at 11:20 a. m.

This bus has always been popular with our citizens, as it enabled them

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT P. T. A. MEETING

The program at the meeting of the was also a guest. P. T. A. on Thursday evening last, at furnished by the North East Band and the North East High School Or-The ceremony was performed in chestra, under leadership of Director Association, at its annual meeting on Several selections were rendered in They will reside at Public Landing, splendid style by the organizations Maryland, near Camp M. C. 73, where and the entertainment greatly enjoy-der the wheels of the machine and Delaware City, Minquadale, Five Tuberculosis Association will conduct sorority. Mr. Scarborough is a grad-sales of new Plymouth cars to Miss G. Allender, president; John a clinic at the County Health Depart- uate of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Mary E. Hill, of Oakwood; Miss Minster, vice president: R. J. Mcfered fractures of the spine and sev- Middletown and Elsmere, brought ment office, Elkton, on Wednesday, Pa., and is a member of the Phi Miriam E. Scarborough, of Elkton, Cauth, treasurer, and Henry and Elmer Ingram, of Rising Sun. Mets secretary.

DRIVING NEW PLYMOUTHS

Short Paragraphs Cecil Circuit Court In Tomato Growers Are Personal And Social Road Control Before The Legislature

Much Discussion Concerning Maintainance By State

Or The Counties A great deal of discussion and maneuvering is going on in the General Assembly at Annapolis over the question of returning the lateral roads to county jurisdiction or giving the Miss Reba Keeports, of Red Lion, State Roads Commission a mandate

Despite the unanimous recommenmissioners at Annapolis some time ago, the outlook for a change in the present situation is far from rosy. One delegate stated that it was a nip and tuck battle right now. Others Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cornbrooks believe that advocates of Roads Com.

ation assert that a referendum on the Rev. Frank White, pastor of Ris- question might prove surprising, that state operation might be approved. Some contend that county operation provides closer contori and more sympathetic consideration of the needs of the people. On the other side are those who William J. Boyles, Elkton. Saturday provides better equipment, especially in the form of machines for special Miss Nellie Williams, daughter of uses which are bought by the state > tollow any groove. In some counties the engineers do not even contact the commissioners. They are not required to do so and they don't do it. In at least one Shore county the commissioners have washed their hands completely of al! road problems, putting them frankly in the lap of the State Roads Com-

EASTON PLANS FIREMEN'S CON-VENTION

More than 2000 firemen and ladies' Mr. and Mrs. William Ritter, of auxiliary members are expected to at-Atglen, Pa., celebrated their 67th tend the forty-fifth annual convenwedding anniversary on Tuesday. tion of the Maryland State Firemen's Feb. 23, they having been married in Association to be held June 23-24-25. Curtis C. Larrimore, Secretary, Easten Fire Department, announced Fox, of Westwood, are great grand- that the convention committee alchildren. The aged couple received ready had prepared a tenative program covering three full days. The program includes a moonlight excursion on the Choptank River, with dancing on board, a midnight show for the firemen, a crab and beer par-

Virginia are expected to be in line. CAR PLUNGES INTO RAVINE

Joseph Ewing, of Port Deposit, had a narrow escape from serious injury early Wednesday morning at Conowinge Dam. To avoid being struck by what is known to all motorists as The Short Line has restored the a road-hog, who was taking more

EASTERN SHORE DENTAL

SOCIETY At the meeting of the Eastern to reach Baltimore, in the morning, Shore Dental Society, held in Easton, in time to transact business and re- on Thursday, Dr. J. L. Trone, of Elkturn home in the evening, and its ton, was the speaker. Dr. A. Y. Rusrestoration by the Short Line is sell, of Baltimore, President of the Maryland State Dental Society was present and gave a short talk. Dr. Richard Leonard, of the State Department of Health from Baltimore,

SECTION AND VALUE OF THE PARTY NAMED IN COLUMN

SUSQUEHANNA BUILDING &

LOAN ASSOCIATION The Susquehanna Building & Loan Feb. 22, elected directors as follows: Harry L. Croak, John H. Minster, James W. Hughes, Henry R. Shank, G. A. Allender, R. J. McCauley. Henry A. Metz, John Maloney, W!1liam Gardner, F. A. Alexander and

Argus F. Robinson. Scott Wilson & Son report recent | The directors organized by electing