Come To The Fair

Every one down around West Nottingham Academy is singing "Come To The Fair." And from such melody, they certainly must be going to have some fair.

Last year Mr. Slaybaugh and the students of the Academy began a project of converting the barn at Gayley into a Field House. This year, The Woman's Auxiliary, composed of the boys' mothers and all the other ladies interested in improvements, decided they would lend a helping hand. Thus, they have decided to hold a two-night fair—July 29th and July 30th, and the proceeds will be used to help with this project.

There are to be attractions for everybody. If you are interested in knowing what the future holds in store for you, just visit the Fortune Teller. Of course, you want to go dancing and play bingo. You can make the fun strenuous, but there will be plenty of eats. Then all the mothers who have children between the ages of 2 and 4 are going to show them off on July 29th.

The fair will be held on the Academy grounds.

STRIKE SYMPATHIZERS STONE TRUCK

Deputy Sheriff Louis Seth reports that alleged strike sympathizers of Philadelphia stoned and halted two large trucks of the Pioneer Paper Company of Philadelphia along the Elton-Glasgow Road, on Creswell Hill, about a half-mile east of Elton, Thursday night. Two cars, with 10 men, trailed the trucks over the Maryland line from Delaware, one of the cars running ahead and stopping directly in front of the head truck causing the driver to drive in the ditch. The other car stopped directly back of the second truck, the occupants alighting. A number of stones were thrown through the cab windows, but the drivers were uninjured. When several other cars came in sight the supposed strike sympathizers jumped into their machines and drove off. The supposition is that the trouble was the outgrowth of the recent truck strike in Philadelphia.
