THE EASTON JOURNAL.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING AT EASTON, MARYLAND.

ARTHUR BROWN, PROPRIETOR.

TERMS :- Two DOLLARS, if paid within the year, or $2.50 at the end of the year. Clubs of ten, cash in advance, $15. No paper will be discontinued, except at the discretion of the proprietor, until arrearages are paid. No subscription will be taken for a shorter period than six months. Books received free of postage will be VOI. 1. promptly noticed under the editorial head.

THE HERRIT AND DUCK.

BY THE BARD OF MARBLE HALL.

In a wood, by a streamlet that flowed to the Bay, Thro' the land of the fair Eastern Shore, There dwelt an Old Hermit who staid there, they Thro' summers and winters three-score. 'Twas said that once when the full, liquid fire Of young life tingled on thro' his veins, e'd encountered the winged God's withering ire, And been bound by his cankerous chains. But loosing these bonds (as a free agent should), To society bid farewell,

He retired alone to his cave in the wood, Where it's treacherous echoes ne'er swell.

One maining the streamlet o'erflowed ite banks, e down to the door of his cave, A flaxen-haired boy on a water-soaked plank, Whom the Hermit concluded to save. So rearing him up in the way he should go, De told him of things and their names; in the Heavens above, in the waters below, And the regions of sulphurous flames. He told him of earth-its beast, insect and bird; Of man, the Lord over them all; But of woman, not even a low whispered word, Was heard from his white hips to fall.

For he judged could he keep from the heart of the All knowledge of Eve and her race,

His were all happiness, Heaven and Truth, And Earth an Elysian place.

How he succeeded, I will tell you in my next. At present, you will pardon me, if I notice one great neglect in the youth's education, viz: the Hermit never told him of MARBLE HALL, and its in mease bargains in CLOTHING, which, of course, he didn't know, as it was in embryo at the period of his voluntary exile. Of course, if the youth had not already discovered it (but I am an- For the hectic streak and the sunken cheek helpareng) the Harmit would have said in his next

SMITH BOWER & CO'S MARBLE HALL CLOTHING OUSE, No. 40 West Balt. street, Baltimore, ad., is the cheapest and best place in the country to buy Men's and Box's CLOTHING.

Mill Notice.

HEREBY tender my thanks to the public for I the liberal patrouage heretofore extendedand hope by strict and prompt attention to business to merit a continuance of the same, both with Grist and Saw departments. My mode of grinding is, to weigh all Wheat where as much as their advantage to have their grain ground up in ther, and said, "My mother is a good woman, too: peace. a low to leave the mill with less than a barrel full of flour and packed; and for quality, the Easton Steam Mill stands probably unsurpassed by any mill on the shore.

Flour, Meal, &c,

Will keep for sale Flour by the barrel and to retail, of different grades. Also, Meal, corn chopped for feed, and chops mixed, bran, seconds, &c. at the lowest prices. Terms cash.

P. S .- Wanted to purchase 1,000 bushels prime

THE public is respectfully informed that the prepared to sell at auction. Real and Personal pro- ty felt its revivifying influence. perty, in all parts of the county. Administra- In all ages the respect bestowed upon woman tors, Executors, Trustees and others, having pro- has been a distinguishing mark of civilization, and perty for sale at auction, will be promptly waited nowhere is this respect carried to such an extent upon, and every effort made to give satisfaction, as in the States where subgenation exists. In the The subscriber's long experience in the business of North we are fast adopting the corrupting civiliauctioneering is his sufficient recommendation.

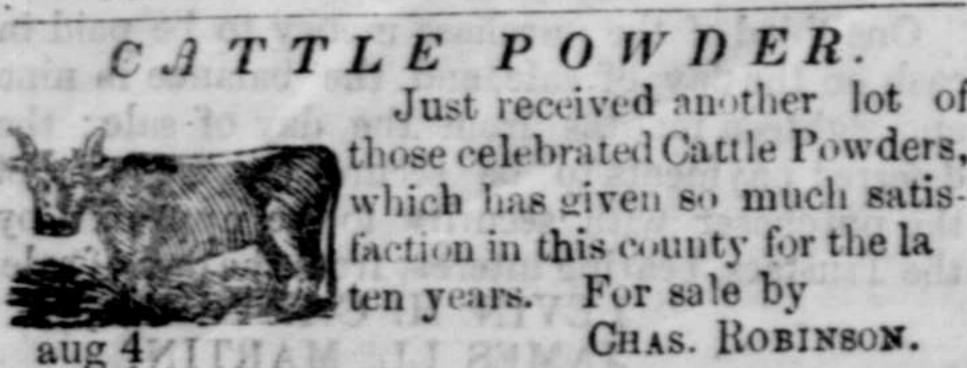

AUCTIONEERING.

WM. H. BOSTICK. dec 8-ly

for PANTS and VESTS, by JAS. H. GRACE may 3

Schenck's PULMONIC SYRUP. Schenck's SEA WEED TONIC. Schenck's MANDRAKE PILLS.

Kennedy's MEDICAL DISCOVERY, for sale by L. H. CAMPBELL.

WANTED.

Hardware Store in Easton.

wrought Iron-at the hardware store. H. M. Nicols & Co. | corrupt civilization.

fault, having no use for them.

well to call at the Hardware store for particulars. common affections between the sensitive and spir- recommended before.

"The Laborer is Worthy of his Hire."

TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1864.

Loeiry.

BY JAMES R. BREWER. All pallid upon his couch he lay, As death fast dimm'd his eye, And his wandering thoughts were far away, For he knew that he must die;

. THE DRUMMER BOY.

His parching lips must thirst in yain, For his blood went with his breath, And the racking pain that rent life's chain Would leave him still in death; And the tear that nature bade him weep, Should glaze his eye when cold in sleep.

And they asked the slowly dying child, Why one so young should moan? And the ashen lips, replying smiled, "To defend my Mother's home!"

She kissed me with a tearful smile. And bade me be a man, So I marched where Death its victims piled, And led the battle's van, Till, where the streams of carnage flow, I fell beneath a cruel blow.

"But though my body's racked with pain, I cherish no regret, And I will again, through the leaden rain.

Lead Freedom's legion yet; And glory-crowned, in peace, draw near The scene of childish joy. And a mother's prayer and a mother's tear Shall welcome back her boy-

But no, ah, no! I feel the smart,

The hand of death is on my heart! "My God! Oh, would that she was here, To kiss me, ere I die-" With the vacant stare of wild despair, He struggled back to die,

His strength was gone, his frame was weak, And dull his gasping sigh, Proclaim the destroyer nigh; Whilst a prayer escapes his lips of foam,

'Tis done-his gentle spirit's flown With the youthful hero's breath, And the Angel throng with his soul is gone, And he smiles alone in death. While fellow Angels watch his grave,

"Oh God! defend my Mother's home."

To her home he flits away, In the hours of sleep his vigils to keep And guard her through the day. And now no longer doomed to roam, He watches above his Mother's home.

JULY 28, 1864.

WOMEN AND SUBGENATION.

The following excerpt is from a late work "Subgenation" in reply to the author of "Miscegena-

"If we ask," says De Tocqueville, "to what a singular prosperity and growing strength of the American people ought mainly to be attributed, I should reply to the superiority of their women." But how came the women of America to be sumoral nature of woman was different from man's, Austria, and peace was the result. and we adapted our laws and institutions to that difference. In Europe, females of the higher classes had been treated with justice, and even with undersigned has taken out License under the U. chivalry. But here we honored the sex, and S. Internal Tax Laws, as Auctioneer, and is thereby elevated it. Every ramification of socie-zation of Europe, which undervalues and degrades distinguish the master race of mankind. tion of the sexes. Prostitution is also largely on nanimity will add luster to our arms. those celebrated Cattle Powders, civilization to Rome, for the first thing they did and Madison sat side by side in the convention which has given so much satis- was to abolish polygamy, and the gladiatorial ex- which framed the great Constitution. faction in this county for the la hibitions. True civilization resides not in learn- Reason is the attribute of the gods-carnage is down with his club, and carries her to his cave. H. Stephens as Confederate commissioner; and, house." H. M. Nicols & Co. The Mongrels treat their women as beasts of bur- since then, I have frequently urged the appointden; and the Negro butchers them at his sacrifi- ment of commissioners on our part, to meet with WANTED .- 10,000 feet prime white oak ces! Is there a man so fiendish or demented as to others to be appointed by the authorites of Richplank. Persons having lumber to sell would do insinuate that there can be common impulses and mond; I respectfully advise, what I have so often different species are not attracted to each other. men, your obliged fellow citizen, Mungo Park relates that the African women would avoid, if possible, even the sight of a white To Robert Miller and William Lahman. man. In the San Domingo massacre it was not lust that drove the negroes on in their horrible butchery, but an insatiable thirst to extirminate the white race—the infant in its mother's arms, as well as the adult. The very conception of love-upon which all lawful intercourse of the sexes is founded-is im- just been issued: blacks. The author of "Miscegenation," in his vile aspersions against the white women of the Whereas, By the act approved July 4th, 1864, ury in order to secure a political re-distribution death; health is made to operate its own destruc-South, has won for his name an immortality of "An Act further to regulate and provide for the of the patronage under him. tion; the food that nourishes containing the ele-The very reason why the women of the South dent of the United States may, at his discretion, They declared martial law over Kentucky in or- death lurks in ambush along the paths. Notwithhave been so fierce and implacable, the very rea- at any time hereafter, call for any number of men der to prevent its vote against Lincoln! standing this is the truth so palpably confirmed through the slow process of reason, the delicate call, then the President shall immediately order a rotten-borough constituency. susceptibility of woman grasped the idea with the draft for one year to fill such quota or any part The rebels advance, break up the railroads from Washington Chronicle of Saturday says: speed of an electrical flash. It was the spirit born thereof which may be unfilled. the plantation, before the Confederacy makes tion for recruiting and keeping up the strength of edge of their follies! peace on any terms but their own." She felt that the armies in the field, for garrisons and such mil- All this time the President, the Cabinet and the Fort Washington are shedding their leaves as the war was for the degradation and debauch- itary operations as may be required for the pur- Administration journals clung to the idea that though they had been burned by fire, and the ment of her sex. The destruction of subgenation pose of suppressing the rebellion and restoring the there was no danger. "It is a mere circus riding | grass presents a similar appearance. The proit is this prospect which fills their sour with "a insurgent States;

INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.

AN OHIO GENERAL PROPOSES AN ARMISTICE

[From the Mount Vernon (Ohio) Banner.] PLEASANT TOWNSHIP. Knox Co., Ohio, June 16, 1864.

General G. W. Morgan:

Very truly,

always danger of civil war among a free people; tember.

mission, storage, &c. "A word to the wise is my child," said a lady, "for your mother," and she for a given purpose. In wars between civilized sufficient." For every 51 bu. of good wheat did so. The child was already at the last gasp, nations an armistice always precedes peace, though weighing 60 lbs. to the bushel or over, I will not and in a few moments he expired .- N. Y. Post. | sometimes resorted to other purposes. None but barbarian powers pursue hostilities to extirmination, and extirmination or complete exhaustion of both contending parties would be the necessary result in all wars, did not the opposing parties agree to suspend hostilities so that the question in dispute might be submitted to the arbitrament of reason, after brute force had failed.

their respective positions, and if terms of adjust- from the State Executive. The particular field of ment are not agreed upon, hostilities can be re- a State in which each agent is to operate is to be commenced. But as a general and almost inva- specified in the letter of appointment. Expeririable rule, an armistice is followed by peace. - ence has shown that these agents should have P. S.—Wanted to purchase 1,000 bushels frine perior to all others? Simply as follows:—The white wheat, 1,000 bushels corn and twenty tons conception of the proper relation of the prop white wheat, 1,000 bushels corn and twenty tons of good Timothy Hay, to be delivered and paid weloped a corresponding conception of the proper for as wanted.

The proposition of the proper relation of the proper relation of the proper ferino, gained by the French, the Emperor Napoferino, gained by the French Napoferino, gained b redeemed a mistaken cause.

woman. With a more delicate physical structure, point of numbers or dauntless intrepidity. We ster, laborer, guide, etc., or who is so employed by she is often forced to stand in our public cars, have sent to the field more than two millions of the military authorities as to be of importance to when the very instinct of "the lords of creation," men; and nearly, if not full, one-half of them military operations. with their strong sinews and Samson-like muscles have gone down to their graves. More than one- Recruits procured in accordance with the act THE subscriber having taken out license for ought to prompt them to relinguish their seats to tenth of the entire population of the loyal States quoted must be delivered by recruiting agents at incompanion of the smaller Atlas. The hatchthe above business, most respectfully informs the her. Such a scene is often witnessed in New have been actual combatants in this war. Whole one of the following named rendezvous, viz: Camp ing of the eggs has already commenced, and withpublic that he will promptly attend to Auction- York-of fragile women standing while lusty men regions of country have been made desolate; the Casey, Washington, D. C., for Noatheast Virginia eering in any part of the county that his services are sitting-could not take place in the South- busy hum of workshops has been hushed, as if Camp near Fortress Monroe, for Southeast Virmay be desired. When it is not convenient for | Such occurrences are the sign of decaying virtue palsied by eternal death; the plow has been left ginia; Camp Newbern, N. C., for North Carolina persons to see him in person, a letter addressed to and civilization, and evince a loss of that chivalry in the middle of the furrow, and the father, the Camp Hilton Head, S. C., for South Carolina and him at Easton, will receive immediate attention. and its concomitant bravery which ought ever to husband and the son have alike gone out to bat- Florida; Camp Vicksburg, Miss., for Mississippi; tle. And yet naught absolutely has been gained Camp Nashville, Tenn., for Georgia and Alaa great extent, the conception of the proper rela- Union formed by our fathers. I say, then, for a the duty of the United States officers there to have number of them." TUST received another lot of beautiful COAT- tion of the sexes. Already that tendency is ap- time let the torrent of blood be stayed, let the tendency is ap-ING CASSIMERES, and a fine lot of ditta parent in the North. All the more pronounced olive branch supplant the sword, and heaven-born abolitionists are in favor of "Female Reform," as reason take the place of force. Victory has crownthey style their efforts to destroy the proper rela- ed our banners on unnumbered fields, and mag-

the increase, and, most astonishing of all, poly- Say to our countrymen of the South: "Let us gamy is becoming quite prevalent. The spiritu- reason together. Southern homes are draped in alists, of whom it is said there are 5,000,000 in mourning, and so are ours Many of your noblist tary posts, and will be conducted as such, under the Northern States, hold generally to the doctrine sons have perished on the field of battle, and such of a plurality of wives. There is one residing in alas is the case with us. We are countrymen, and issued through the Adjutant General's office; but New York who has both a natural and "spiritu- we have been friends, and even now, amid the red department and army commanders are desired to al" wife! Civilization may be refined into barba- storm of battle, we are proud of each others deeds. exercise a supervision over them as coming within rism! As nations become effete they seem to be We honor the name of Lee, Sidney Johnson and the limits of their departments, and to make any left to work wickedness with greediness. Rome Jackson; and you respect those of McClellan, of reports to this office concerning them which may fell a prey to her own debauchery as much as to Grant, and of Sedgwick. Let us talk together the arms of the Goths. Indeed, contrary to gen- and call back the sacred memorees of the past. erally received opinion, the latter actually carried Washington was your's and our's, and Franklin BUSHELS ONION SETTS for which the powerful pledge of their submission. Yet even sixty days. We can make the proposition with recruiting by unauthorized parties. OU highest price in cash will be paid at the so great a man as Guizot, in his "History of Civ- honor because it would be done on southern soil. ilization," has made the mistake of ascribing the We blockade all of the ports of the South not in never let a lie come to them from your lips. H. M. Nicols & Co. elevation of women entirely to the feudal system. our possession, and great Father of Waters is ours known far and wide for their interminable squab-swer the question, why is it considered impolite from its source to its mouth. But we want peace, bles. Suddenly they changed their mode of life, for a gentleman to be seen in his shirt-sleeves.

A Puzzled Roman for the from its source to its mouth. But we want peace, bles. WANTED.—A large lot of scrap and old white societies, and is an instinct of the race, un- we want Union, we want a cessation of the car- and were as complete patterns of conjugal felicity whilst a lady can appear with nothing on a great lyn papers tells a laughable story about a puzzled

It is an invariable law of the animal world that Union, and the return of peace, I remain, gentle- WHAT WAS TOLD THEM OF WASHINGTON, AND GEO. W. MORGAN.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, July 18 .- The following has

A PROCLAMATION.

cess of the call beretofore made.

WM. LHAMON. ery town, township, ward of a city, precinct or to despise even our example in this? election district or county, not so subdivided, to It was in the midst of arguments like these,

By the President: WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

RECRUITING IN THE CONFEDERATE

Washington, July 15 .- Regulations for recruiting in the Rebel States for the loyal States have been issued. It is provided that the recruit-During an armistice the hostile armies maintain ing agents must have a letter of appointment greatness, and the absence of it is the certain evi- commanding officer of the army, department or dence of a want of proper self-respect. The cause district in which recruiting agents operate, and of of the Union has been nobly vindicated on more commanding officers of rendezvous, to order back than a hundred battle-fields, and the deeds of our to his State, or to arrest and hold for trial, as he soldiers have reflected immertal glory upon our may deem best, any recruiting agent who shall arms. But our enemy has been equally brave; commit frauds upon the Government or recruits, and, although we hate secession, we accord an or shall violate the instructions issued to govern honest admiration for the heroism which has half this recruitment, or be guilty of any offence against military law. No man shall be recruited who is The world has never seen such battles, either in already in the military service as a soldier, team-to have them immediately mustered into the United States service, properly provided for and sent to the regiments for which they may have been enlisted or assigned, or to such other regiments as the service may require. The aforesaid rendezwous are regarded as milithe immediate orders of the War Department, as be deemed advisable. If it is desirable to put act into service as substitutes before or after the ernment by the recruiting agents to the district in white societies, and is an instinct of the race, unless debauched and destroyed by an artificial and nage of war, and these blessings can only be attained through an armstice.

we want Union, we want a cessation of the caras they had formerly been of discord. A neighbor, anxious to know the cause of such a converbor, anxious to know the cause of such a convermade to a lady rolling up her sleeves when she evening, and sent her twin sister, clad in the In the lower races, this appreciation of women In my letter th the State Central Committee sion, asked the gudewife to explain it. She regoes to work, for instance making bread, scouring wedding finery, to take her place beside her lov-WANTED.—A purchaser for two horses, one 5 is not to be found. The New Hollander, instead in September, 1863; I denounced the policy of plied, "I and the old man have got on well enough etc., (which but few do). This is necessary, but ing husband. The cheat remained undiscovered years old, the other 3 years old. Sold without of courting his wife with affection, knocks her President Lincoln in refusing to receive Alexander together ever since we kept two bears in the there is no need of appearing so in company.— until the false bride could personate the true one

"Two bears!" was the perplexed reply.
"Yes, sure," said the lady, "bear and forbear."

H. M. Nicols & Co. | ituelle white woman and such beings as these? | With earnest hopes for the preservation of the high price of the raw material. | lady.

WHAT THEY Did.

[From the Albany Argus and Atlas.] tion was warned of the unprotected condition of if one be broken. Frail and thoughtless mortals the valley of the Shenandoah and the exposed are surrounded by innumerable dangers, which state of the stores at Harper's Ferry. What did | make it much more strange that they escape so A CALL FOR FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN. command at West Point!

The rebels marched up the valley, defeated day to crush the mouldering tenements we inhabit Hunter and drove him beyond the mountains in The seed of disease are planted in our constitupossible, eternally impossible, between whites and By the President of the United States of America. the direction of Ohio. What did the Adminis- by nature. The earth and atmosphere whence we tration do? They removed Chase from the Treas- draw the breath of life are impregnated with infamy-should it ever come to the light-far enrolling and calling out the National forces and | The rebels seized Harper's Ferry and crossed | ments of decay; the soul that animates it, by vivbeyond that yet achieved by any human being. for other purposes," it is provided "that the Presi- the Potomac. What did the Administration do? lifying first, tends to wear it out by its own action;

son why they have been nerved with such a lofty as volunteers for the respective terms of one, two The rebels pushed on, and at the Monacacy by the daily example before our eyes, how little courage and inspired to deeds of such self-sacri- and three years, for military service;" and "that met and defeated the opposing force of General do we lay it at heart! We see friends and neighficing devotion, has been because they instinctive- in case the quota of any part thereof of any town, Wallace. What did the Administration do? The bors die among us, but how seldom does it occur ly saw that miscegenation or amalgamation was township, ward of a city, precinct or election dis- President issued another president issued anothe the object of the war, and its only logical result. trict, or of a county not so subdivided, shall not readmission of the seceded States, rejecting the the fruitless warning to the world! While men might reach this conclusion only be filled within the space of fifty days after such 'majority principle, and clinging to his one-tenth

Baltimore north, and thence on to Washington, "A gentleman who visited Fort Washington on of this instinct that induced a gentle and tender And whereas. The new enrollment heretofore and cut off the telegraphic wires. What does the Thursday informs us that the immediate vicinity Southern wife to say, "I pray that Philip may ordered is so far completed as that the aforemen- Administration do? We know not. Happily, of that fortification present the most remarkable tioned act of Congress may now be put in opera- the breaking of the knowl- instance of the severe effects of the drought in this would be the establishment of miscegenation, and authority of the United States Government in the affair," said the President. "It is a humbug," prietor of a farm just across the creek running by said Mr. Stanton, which showed his reflection .- | the fort, who has a beautiful place under fine cul-Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President "It is a clear case of horse-thieving," cried the tivation, much of which is appropriated to the of the United States, do issue this my call for contractors and speculators in Washington. "No- raising of vegetables, stated to our informant that Five Hundred Thousand Volunteers for the mili- thing but larceny," said the editor of the New | no rain had fallen upon his farm since he planted tary service; Provided, nevertheless, that this call York Evening Post, whose editor is undergoing his corn, and that product shows clearly that there shall be reduced by all credits which may be es- his examination for peculation. "Larceny and could have been but little benefit derived by it tablished under section eight of the aforesaid act, burglary," said the Tribune, whose editor, Santon, from the showers which the farmer might have on account of persons who have entered the naval has been hauled over the coals for official derelic- forgotten. service during the present rebellion, and by cred- tions. "Larceny and gold speculation," cried the "He has an acre and a half under grass, and its for men furnished to the military service in ex- Times, whose late sensation editor is now in Fort | even the plants there growing are very much Lafayette for a nefarious forgery concocted in the stunted, and will yield but a trifling return for the Volunteers will be accepted under this call for interest of the gold speculators.

DEAR SIR: Inasmuch as you are one of the one, two or three years, as they may elect, and And so they all cried in chorus, "the object is sand head of cabbage, which are not half grown delegates from this congressional district to the will be entitled to the bounty provided by the law larceny"-for they argued to themselves, here are and badly wilted. He was digging out his pota-Chicago Convention, both we and our neighbors for the period of service for which they enlist; and the opportunities of unmeasured pillage, larcenies | toes and onions with an axe and hatchet, the are anxious to learn your views as to the true line I hereby proclaim, order and direct, that imme- of all kinds, loot, ransom, forced levies and con- ground being too hard for the use of any usual imof conduct to adopt in order to secure the return diately after the 5th day of September, 1864, be- tributions, and it is not in human nature to fore- plement. of peace and the preservation of our liberties ing fifty days from the date of this call, a draft go it. Is not theft one of the objects of war; and ROBT. MILLER, for troops to serve for one year shall be had in ev- have the Confederates so far rebelled against us as

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio, June 17, 1864. fill the quota which shall be assigned to it under and self-delusions like these, that the President He found his old homestead occupied by a Nothern Gentlemen: Your note is before me, and with this call, or any part thereof which may be un- and Cabinet and their parasites dwelt, until the pleasure I comply with your request. There is filled by volunteers on the said 5th day of Sep- enemy were at the very front of Washington .-Then they flew to the telegraph to communicate He asked for the occupant, who appeared, and, A drummer boy in the agony of death being and I do not believe that mere force con restore In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my the extent of the danger; but too late, for the 5 bushels is sent, (and Corn, also if requested,) asked where he was from, replied that his mother and send back in writing the weights of both wheat and flour, when persons do not come them
The damper; but too late, for the danger; but too late, for the danger.

I danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bouse.

SEAL. States to be affixed. Done at the line cannel of the danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bouse.

SEAL. States to be affixed by the enemy!

SEAL danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bouse.

SEAL danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bouse.

SEAL danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bouse.

SEAL danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bouse.

SEAL danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bouse.

SEAL danger is a sked where he was the rightful owner of the bou wheat and flour, when persons do not come them- her home," and that "he did not regret it, and was an armistice; and I believe that a cessation of the capital may be selves. Farmers and merchants will find it to ready to do it again." He wanted to see his mo- hostilities would result in an honorable and happy day of July, in the year of our Lord one thou- the source of its safety. The Secretary of War in its fourteen months. He gave him thirty minsand eight hundred and sixty-four (1864), and of can no longer captiously reject troops offered him asked him if he wanted a receipt. The occupant stead of shipping all they have to Baltimore, and said, "My mother is a good woman too: peace.

stead of shipping all they have to Baltimore, and she would treat a sick prisoner kindly, and if she the send back for their flour, pay freights, come were here she would kiss me." "I will kiss you, it is between belligerents for a specified time, and ninth.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

sand eight hundred and sixty-four (1864), and of can no longer captiously reject troops offered him she would treat a sick prisoner kindly, and if she it is between belligerents for a specified time, and ninth.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN. and character sufficient to have repelled this invasion before it reached its present formidable proportions. The booming of cannon in front of a mass of ruins. Washington may arouse the Cabinet from the contemplation of its intrigues and its enormities, and force it, in looking to its safety, to pay some attention to that of the country.

A TERRIFIC SWARM OF LOCUSTS .- The Moni-

"In this village the crop-devouring plague fell lowing dialogue ensued: on us for ten consecutive days. During the two first the insects did little harm, but on the third they arrived in such large quantities that all the fields were literally covered with them. The it was twenty years ago, is it?" pairing took place the moment the insects alighted, which they did in such swarms that in cer-All recruiting agents will be subject to the rules Every means employed to drive them away prov- well you can remember." Without magnanimity there can be no real and articles of war. It is made the duty of the ed without avail. The crops of cotton, potatoes and maize and especially the kitchen-garden pro- gated in this manner—it is insolent." duce, were eaten up in a few minutes. The tobacco alone, suffered but little. "In one field, in a space of about five square About twelve years ago you studied in Judge acres, I found twenty locusts' nests, each contain- B_'s office, did you not?" ing about two hundred eggs; this gives four mis, for a breadth of about two-thirds of a mile, sir, I remember as though it had been but yesterand terminate at the brushwood situated on the day." out a miracle from Providence, a scourge still more plied—terrible than the first menaces our agriculture for "I presume it will." the first fortnight of July. For my part, I intend to lay straw wherever the pairing has taken

SHORT SLEEVES AND LOW NECK DRESSES.

age. Time brings continual change. Old be- But if the mother has in any way cheated the comes new, and new old. From day to day, yea, child. disguised the truth, or in any way pervertwe may say from hour to hour, the fashious are ed it he will learn it, and from her own eyes and changing, to better or worse. But it seems that lips too; then her influence is no longer sure, nor all rules must have exceptions. As we glance a- is it safe. He ought to disturb her, and he will round among the ladies of our day, we still see an | do it. old disgusting fashion remaining. Why has not The child's noise disturbs her, and to still him be more becoming in a young lady to appear in thought of. Or he was cowardly, and to inspire company half naked, than to be dressed. Is it so him with courage she said what he afterwards any of the volunteer recruits obtained under this young creatures of our age think, that by cutting him to do as she wished, she promised a large redraft, they must be sent without expense to Gov- half their bodies naked, they will be considered ble to redeem. beautiful. But it is far from being so. If a gen- Be cautious how you promise. which the principal is, and if they be mustered theman appears before a lady in his shirt sleeves, He was irritated and disobedient, and to restrain Reason is the attribute of the gods—carriage is the festival of fiends. Then let us assemble around obedience to nature's laws. The Goths were the husbands of one wife, and entertained a high appreciation of woman. Cæsar once took the wives of the German tribes for hostages, as the most of the German tribes for hostages, as the most of the German tribes for hostages, as the most of the gods—carriage is the gods—carriage is the festival of fiends. Then let us assemble around the festival of fiends. The field up for the festival of fiends. The let us assemble around the festival of fiends. The let us assemble around the festival of fiends. The festival of fiends are field up for fiends. The field up for fiends are field up for fiends are field up.

In a word, let the result at Richmond be what it is thought perfectly right.—

Now why it should be considered more unbecoming the field up.

Now the festival of fiends are field up for field up fo almost say, undressed, is difficult to understand. | an effect of his conduct, not as an arbitrary affair. Yet it seems to be so. Can some of the Tadies But whatever else may come to your children, We do not suppose that it would cost a great no longer, when she told the astonished Benedeal more to have dresses made high neck and dict that she was not his wife, and refused to relong sleeves decently than otherwise, if that is an tire with him. In vain he protested, and in vain excuse. A maiden does not look any prettier with the assembled company bore witness to the marri-It is said that many of the cotton mills in her shoulders, half her back and bosom exposed, age ceremony, and urged to overcome her child-Rhode Island will be compelled to stop work on than being rightly clad in raiment becoming a ish scruples. She stoutly maintained, before as-

Terms of Advertising.

TERMs-One square-6 lines-one insertion advertise by the year, or 6 or 3 mouths.

Advertisements sent to the office, not marked the number of times to be inserted, will be con-tinued until ordered out, and charged according to regular rates.

Special Notices, inserted before Marriages and Deaths, 10 cents a line for each insertion. Mar riages and Deaths inserted for 50 cents.

Merchants and others advertising by the year NO. 52 will be charged extra for advertisements out of their regular line of business.

A BEAUTIFUL FIGURE.—Life is beautifully compared to a fountain fed by a thousand streams that perish if one be dried. It is a silver chord During all the month of June the administra- twisted with a thousand strings that part asunder they do? They removed Col. Bowman from the long, than that they almost all perish suddenly at last. We are encompassed with accidents every region which we have noted. The locust trees at care spent upon them. He has twenty-five thou-

SINGULAR EFFECTS OF THE DROUGHT .- The

BRADLEY JOHNSON BURNS HIS HOMESTEAD .-Washington, July 16-11 hen Bradley Johnson entered Frederick, he directed his steps to his old man, who had purchased it from the Government after a few pertinent inquiries, Johnson informed hours to move his goods out, which being done the house was set on fire, and in a little time was

A LAWYER THAT HAD TESTIMONY ENOUGH .-A story is told of a very eminent lawyer in New York receiving a severe reprimand from a witness on the stand whom he was attempting to browteur Algerien publishes the following account of save his cause from defeat, it was necessary that beat. It was an important issue and in order to an invasion of locusts by which certain districts Mr. A—should impeach the witness. He endeavored to do it on the ground of age. The fol-

"How old are you?"

"Seventy-two years." "Your memory, of course, is not so brilliant as "I do not know but it is." "State some circumstance which occurred, say tain places they lay to a thickness of five inches. twelve years ago, and we shall be able to see how "I appeal to your honor, if I am to be interro-

"Yes, sir; state it," replied the Judge. "Well, sir, if you compel me to do it, I will .-

thousand. Multiply that number by forty, and "Well, sir, I remember your father coming into you will have a total of one hundred and sixty my office, and saying to me: 'Mr. D---, my son laræ to the square metre. The zone invaded by is to be examined to-morrow, and I wish you these insects in the neighborhood of the village of | would lend me fifteen dollars to buy him a suit of Dalmatia, extends from the Beni-Ari river along clothes.' I remember also, sir, that from that day the Moulins gorge, in the direction of Oned-Kre- to this, he has never paid me that sum. That,

> The lawyer said, considerably abashed: "That will do, sir;" to which the witness re-

MY MOTHER NEVER TOLD ME A LIE. -- Mothplace, and to surround my land with it. When er! can your child say that? Happy are, you the sauterelles are coming forth through the straw | then; your child has no conception of excellence If we overthrow subgenation, we shall lose, to toward the restoration of that grand and noble bama. When received at rendezvous it shall be I shall set fire to it, and thus destroy a certain above yours, if your words to him have been uniformly truthful. He has perfect confidence in

> When a child looks to his mother as the embodiment of love and truth, he is safe; and she Many, indeed, are the fashious of the present is a blessed mother and a true woman.

this changed?—Perhaps, because it is thought to she makes a slight promise, never afterwards or is it a mistake? It seems that the poor deluded | learned was false. Or he was lazy, and to induce off their dresses, and appearing in public with ward for the service, which promise she was una-tonished guests and astounded groom, that she had