TERMS. Two Dortars, if paid within the year, or Two Dollars and FIFTY CENTS at the end of the year. Clubs of ten, cash in advance $15. No paper will be discontinued, except at the discretion of the editor, until all arreariges are paid. No subscription will be taken for a shorter period than six months. Books received free of postage will be promptly noticed under the editorial head. Single papers five cents.

Baltimore Advertisements. WM. H. HOPKINS,

ENT AND COMMISSION MERCHANT, No. 2 BOWLEY'S WHARF, BALT.

DEALERS IN FEE MEETER OF ALL KINDS.

Cor. of Mill & Bowly Sts., (McELDERY WHARF.) may 1—ly

J. S. ROBSON WM GODWIN, JR. Loudly didst the ship's captains wail for thee ROBSON & GODWIN, COMMISSION MERCHANTS. No. 4 Bowly's Wharf, FFER their services to Farmers and others for the disposal of Grain and other pro-

Particular attention paid to the purchase of Agricultural Implements, Seeds, Guano, &c. All consignments of produce, and orders fer goods will be promptly attended to, and every exertion made to give entire satisfaction. Ezekial 26c. 3v. Baltimore, Feb. 21---1y

ARTHUR EMORY, COMMISSION MERCHANT, No. 16 Bowly's Wharf.

A/ILL attend to the sale of all kinds of VV Country Produce consigned to his care. A long experience in business justifies him in promising the highest prices for Corn, Wheat, Oats, &c. Any grain consigned to him will command his utmost efforts for interests of own-[June 27—1y

EDWARD B. HARRIS, COMMISSION MERCHANT.

No. 4 BOWLEY'S WHARE. march 20-1y BALTIMORE, MD.

T. MCCAPPEEY. MARBLE CUTTER,

EAST PRATT STREET, Between President and Albemarle Streets, BALTIMORE, MD.

S prepared to executed all GRAVE STONE I Work, in the neatest manner and on the most reasonable terms. Every description of lettering alone in the best style. Bes All orders left with Mr. John Mason. Cabinet Maker, Easten, Md. will be correctly and promptly attended to.

CABINET FURNITURE AND CHAIR WARE-ROOMS.

No. 45 SOUTH STREET. BALTO. THE subscriber begs leave to call public at-I tention to his Landsome assortment of CABINET FURNITURE, of superior workmanship, and every variety of styles and pat-

Sofas, Centre, Route, Breakfast and Dining Tuas Mul agony & Walnut stuffed and Spring Lairs, Tete-a Teles, Whatnots, Divans, French Bedsteads. Marble Top s, and everything in the Cub-re and desirable assortment cat Chairs of the best Manffice, Children, and Nurse dsteads, Hair and Husk Mata the country respectfully sowe goods will be sold on as ATTALLOF CIRCUMSTATIALIEVED HER. ms as any house in the counlarge stock offers great in-og and Sawing done with des- rooms, which caused that gentleman to commodating terms, at No. 4 look up again from his ledger and eye the opposite the Maryland Insti- young man more closely. BENJ. WASKEY.

r's Last Notice.

surance Co. Notice.

100 ACRES of LAND FOR SALE, between them he had come to this country, the twelve? EING a part of the Tinkers' Hill or Jack- and had been here several months, but not 'Yes, dear Fanny.' son farm, lying on the north side of the being able to get anything to do, he had Sternberg's departure, and reproached her stretch, Lexington showed barely half a ed—and then we want more economy in its went into the watter, and the dog pullread leading from Easton to the Trappe, and spent his last penny, and had not tasted the fate of a human being, and terrible more like a demon than a man, with her length ahead, of them going at an easy use. You may afford to waste corn at ed him across. After playing about on the Smal. Hambleton.

mation given on application to apr 17-3t PHIL. F. HEMSLEY.

Alexander's Kid Gloves, the warm weather, we will commence this day take him in his own employ for the presto sell them at the low price of 75 cts. They ent, and that the contents of the wallet his death; if all the others insist, you must

The repentant lover died, and the father the back stretch, when Lecompte rushed ty let him have it; it is your duty and his wet clothes, and the doc had been been the back stretch. York, GOLDSBOROUGH & DAWSON.

Mamboured Collars, &c. GOLDSBOROUGH & DAWSON have just received another handsome assort- confidence Respectfully informs his friends and the public Talbot's most confidential letters and to at- claimed Fanny Talbot, with unwonted ve- It was a proud and exultant heart that on the home quarter, but it was unavailing was the introduction into France by M. neck, saying, 'I thank you, too, deared that he has so far recovered from the effects of tend to he most private accounts; for the hemence; and then she poured into her the fourth mile at de Montigny, the French Consul at Shan- gie, for not letting go." Little the fire as to secure his old stand, corner of merchantest that time was deeply involved father's ears the deep, abiding interest she in that of Ildo Sternberg, who under an least five lengths in advance, which he ghai, particular kind of Yam—now known new Admiral Sir Charles Re Dover & Washington street, and is prepared in several complicated speculations, all or took in the young man, also her deep-seat- assumed name, had won both fortune and increased by rounding the turn at a as the Dioscorea Batyles, or Chinese Poagain to supply individuals and families with which, if successful, which are to benefit the ed conviction of his truth and innocence, fame during his exile,—who had also proall kinds of groceries, cheap for cash. He will be grad to have his old custom all kinds of groceries, cheap for cash. He will whole system of community and the grounds of these conviction of his truth and innocence, fame during his exile,—who had also proved and the grounds of these convictions, say and the grounds of the grounds of the grounds of the grounds of the

A WEEKLY JOURNAL-DEVOTED TO NEWS, POLITICS, LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, ALVERTISING, &C.

VOL. 14--NO. 17.

Hoetry.

[WRITTEN- FOR THE STAR.]

"The surf was magnificent, rolling up

Nor costly wares for nobles or for king.

Vain was thy boast of all thy regal state.

"I am against thee Tyre," Jehovah said,

By siege and sword, in battles fierce array

Thy princes fell, thy glory passed away.

ships of Tyre?"

STAR GAZINGS.

The countless stars! how gloriously, *

To this wondering heart of mine.

With their pure and holy light,

First, my fancy leads me onward-

And methinks the stars are smiling

On the picture bright and fair,

O'er her cheek a blush is spread,

As she listens to sweet words of love.

While the stars look down in gladness

Like soft loving human eyes-

Where, in calm and trusting rest,

How witchingly they shine!

For I think, as I look on them

Disclosed to them to-night.

On its gentle mother's breast:

As so feadly and caressingly

She smooths his golden lmir.

Next, I see a beauteous maiden,

And meekly bows her head;

As all silently and peacefully They twinkle in the skies.

Now my fancy bears me swiftly,

Far away from land to roam.

O'er the ocean's sparkling foam;

For the vision they have brought him

Of the home where he shall rest.

When they bring to any trusting heart,

Glad thoughts of Him who made them-

And the heart of many a wanderer

The quiet stars hath blessed,

But oh, how much more gloriously

As they have brought to mine,

The blessed stars can shine,

Of his mercy and his love;

The purer joys above.

So I thank you, gentle teachers,

For the lesson ye have taught,

Of his watchful care and kindness-

And I gladden in the thought

With his strong and holy arm,

From all danger, sin and harm.

ILDO STERNBERG.

BY PAUL LEAN.

Will forever keep his children

That He who guides your movements

Where a noble ship sails proudly

Of the many different scenes

A little babe is sleeping

April 20, 1855.

EASTON, MD., TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1855.

though on a very much reduced sesle. power to save the prisoner. "A professional friend of mine wishes a The trial proceeded, the evidence was all article. Such a letter is worthy of such a ling over the railing from all points, the These naturally comprehend the quality of secretary, will you accept the situation, Ildo? convincingly against the young Pole. His man! Men like Cass, Clay, Calhoun, track was soon crowed, the small number the plant, in point of flavor and nutritive The salary is good—far better than any- own words were few and pointed: he decli- Webster, and those still greater names, of policemen which the track was able to properties, its productiveness, and the charthing I can offer you, for just now, alas! I ned any explanation of the case, but dis- Jackson, Jefferson, and the immortal afford, being unable to resist such a tide actor of the soil upon which it might be Bricks, of different grades, made by hand—a cient power was in their shock and roar, and can offer you nothing. I mentioned you tinctly and firmly pronounced that he was WASHINGTON, could never sympathize, The Lexington men were now very nume- grown with the greatest success. These very superior article and sold at kiln prices.— every great wave that plunged and drew back to my friend, telling him he could not find not guilty of the awful charge preferred a- much less be associated with Know-Noth- rous, and odds to a considerable extent experiments were made by the most skill-Also Lump and Builders' Lime at kiln prices. again, called in its solemn bass:" Where are one more capable and more unexceptiona- gainst him.

No more shall harp or song be heard in thee Thy ships no more shall gold from Ophir bring Thy wealth and grandeur, didst thy heart elate

Mr. Redfield, the professional gentleman, duty to society.

With whom Sternberg now took up his The impatient multitude without and I beg leave to be excused for declining its a secondary consideration. Judge Cox generally considered barren soils, and thus And soon against thee, kings their armies led. abode, was a lawyer of much repute, prac- within awaited twelve long hours. At acceptance. "How hast thou fall'u, O, Tyre, Queen of the tended hand and looking upon him with the The bench was perplexed. The Presi- the land of your birth or descent, in this der and took the purse (1,006; and thus remarks on cultivation.) Fishers shall spread their nets upon thy shore." fondness of a father, And for thy pride, and all thy haughty boast, . "I hope you will not forget your old again dilating upon the points which pro- to do honor to the memory of the Apostle seem still in solemn bass to call with restless ire "Where are the ships of Tyre? where are the And they bring strange thoughts and fancie

When they raise the soul from earthly scenes, in the grove, and as soon as the news of her death reached them (for it spread like | Three years after the above occurance, a the young lady seemed very much excited the father of the murdered Isabel.

she seemed very resolute in refusing. The testimony crowded in so closely Agustus" said Mr. Redfield kindly.

There was a certain heart-sinking look about the seedy stranger as Mr. Talbot told him he was in need of no help in his wareble! but he is innocent. He never could Before his death, he narrated all the par commit murder. The court will find the ticulars of his unnatural deed. With a half audible sigh, and with an air of hopeless, utter despondency, the ob- Talbot spoke confidently. ject of his scrutiny had turned to leave the are strongly against him.

binson, in Easton, will receive sufficient energy to undertake in and per- go ill with him at the trial.'

WM. B. CLARK, Sec'y. apr 17—tm retary for several years to an English no- bleman, but a misunderstanding occurring 'Yes, my daughter. 'You are to sit in the jury box—one of his place in her affections.

must be the remorse of him who sentences perfidy. ing a tolerably well filled wallet to the thought to have murdered!

that shewed Mr. Talbot had not over estimated either his moral or mental capacity. The side up with Care.

Well, dear child, we will see what can he had ever been beard on the his friends more on this friends more on the kneeled down at his mother's kneeled do Sternherg was employed to write all Mr. Father, you must promise me, ex- fore.

creditors who were involved through the | Deeply affected by his daughter's pleadunfortunate speculations, Mr. Talbot was ings, Mr. Talbot left her to attend the tri- | We publish below, the eloquent, wise, | winning the heat easily in 7;23.

Orders respectfully solicited and promptly attended to.

Orders respectfully solicited and promptly the ships of Tyre? where are the good opinion of me and of your care for minds of some. But all the evidence be- attended a public festival, and the same when near the moment of saddling up in the opinion of Professor Decaione, sume," replied Sternberg warmly. I will ing so strong and decided against him, the affecting circumstances which led me to a- this unwelcome fact was announced from perior. accept your friends offer, whatever it may presiding judge closed his speech with dopt this cource, yet operate to render me the stand. It was stated that Gen Wells II. That the quantity yielded is greatbe, on your recommendation, and I hope pronouncing the words "guilty," and re- indisposed to change it. While, there- did not consider Lecompte in a condition to er than that of the potato, whilst its freethe result will prove your good word for commending the jury to remember the fore, you and those associated with you, go another heat without injuring his run- dom from disease renders the crop more

The Lord hath said, "thou shalt be built no said Mr. Talbot, shaking Sternberg's ex- of the foreman, to the usual question. you will assemble to recall the glories of himself at the stand, Gilpatrick rode un- the greatest facility (as will be seen by the dent went over the whole of the evidence, land of your hopes and your homes; and ended the sports of the day.

shall expect to see you as often as you can hours this time were passed before they Ireland. Obeying the injunction of the Fanny Talbot's bright eyes lingered with the verdiet of eleven was guilty while virtue," though in these latter days we thought what the result would be if they etating, for many months after the potato him as he entered his new abode. They one persisted in the belief of the prisoners are called upon to glory in ignorance, and should plant one year an extra acre of land has become useless for food. looked up from the paper on him, day after imnocense and solemnly avowed that he to found our claims to centidence upon Will it appear impossible when we say it When these things are considered, it canday as it lay before him upon his desk.— would suffer death himself before he would knowing nothing. Your illustrious miss- would give us the product of one hundred not be doubted but that this esculent must distance of behavior toward the bright ment and indignation of all present, the oring to 'darken counsels by works with- The product would be five millions and Professor Decaisne, whose report is full in Fanny that had marked his conduct from eleven unanimously concurred with one in out knowledge." Honor therefore to one hundred thousadd bushels. Now in- its details, and conclusively important in path a short/time after, seemingly follow- He opened it and to his surprise a roll of troubles and their trials, and will we hum- several years past, they have been drawn except the leaves, is covered ightly with ing in her footsteps. bank bills fell from it. He glanced apon bly hope, guide and protect us and our off from agriculture suddenly, with a re- earth, care being taken that they (the Isabel Redfield was a belle; a dark, wil- them; they were all bills of large amount. children whenever troubles and trials shall duced supply of grain, comes a foreign de- leaves) are left exposed: if it rains the same ful beauty. full of headstrong passion, and The letter merely said: beset our national path. There is no dan- mand, and such an increase in the value day they take immediately; but should it wild fire) they came forward to give in their young man lay sick to death upon his bed THE GREAT RACE BETWEEN LEXINGTON stock on hand this day than we have had of the first or main crop." in her manner and spoke angrily, and that Mr. Redfield stood beside the dying containing an account of the great race be- but we deem it necessary to arouse the cultivate it is still more simple than the issued to apprehend him, and so rapid had stabled Isabell' exclaimed the young man gayety and animation. The day was per- not drouths ratker apt to follow in succes- the strength, the shoots are spread overon board of a South American packet. All were horrified at these words. His candition. The sun shone brightly but a been the experience of this country. within five minutes of the time of sailing. mother and sister imputed them to the de- light breeze tempered the warm rays, and And what would be the result if this each other (care being taken to cover the 'Suspected and apprehended for murder!' lirium of disease; but when he grew more and all circumstances were as auspicious season should prove as disastrous as the joints or parts pegged down with a portion exclaimed Fanny Talbot. 'The murder calm, and solemnly repeated his asseveral as the warmest devotee of the turf could last? There are now full granaries of old of erath) when they soon strike root and real murderer and acquit HIM, and Fanny It seems that the proud Isabel, from the ded feature. We saw odds put up on Le- hio, Indiana, Illinois, and other great small peice of ground.

"I am sorry to see you so low, my poor

time the handsome Sternberg entered her compte, and there were numerous similar corn growing States have been eking out But, to obtain them of a large size, I hope so, my child, but appearances father's house, had smiled less graciously preparations, with Lexington on the long their corn and preserving the lives of their small tubers, or portions, are planted on upon her affianced, Augustus Raymond. - side. A very large amount of money had cattle by cutting down forrest trees for ridges, at ten inches to one foot apart, and But papa, yeu do not believe him guil- Stung to madness, by jealousy, he had been staked in town, and the betting was them to browse upon. A writer in Put- the plants are allowed so grow freely till watched them together, had heard Isabel, spirited upon the track and in the public nam County, Indiana says: efore the 1st day of June next. 'I have never been accustomed to any stands. All Red River was down here, 'We have had a very protracted winter and attain on an average one pound and upif amounts due will be collect- kind of business except that of secretary, the low will allow.

I dare not believe anything. My good a meeting place, that she had something and feeling so much confidence in Lecompte but I possess an excellent education, and they place, that she had something and feeling so much confidence in Lecompte but I possess an excellent education, and they place, that she had something and feeling so much confidence in Lecompte but I possess an excellent education, and they place, that she had something and feeling so much confidence in Lecompte but I possess an excellent education, and they place, that she had something and feeling so much confidence in Lecompte but I possess an excellent education, and they place anything. The feeling so much confidence in Lecompte but I possess an excellent education, and they place anything and feeling so much confidence in Lecompte but I possess an excellent education, and they place anything and feeling so much confidence in Lecompte beautiful to say to Sternberg. Augustus repaired himself to the spot result the conversation; saw the reluctance of neunced that Gilpatrick (Lexington's joc- further heavy losses will I fear, be sustain- root, that if exposed to frost, it is not inmy part of the county, for a young man's manner that interested the Meantime, the day of the trial approach- Sternberg—heard the passionate Isabel a- key) was four pounds over weight, and this ed in this way. Stock hogs are to be jured by it. I. W. Jump. good Mr. Talbot. So he told him to take ed. Fanny Talbot had watched the tide vow her love for him, and urge him to circumstance was very justly considered a found dead in heaps through the woods. a seat beside him and answer a few ques- of public opinion to discover that the uni- make her his wife. Sternberg refused point in favor of Lecompte. It was not the fact is they in a deplorable condition BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT.—A correspondent versal voice was against the ungrateful ber gently but firmly. At first she was much spoken of, however, and with opin- in this section of the country. Corn is of the Preston (England) Chronicle gives Meeting of Stockholders of The young man pleased Mr. Talbot. A young man who could murder his liberal angry, but he soothed her into quiet, and ions as much at variance as ever, the two 50c. per bushel but it is not to be had to the following anecdote: A good while ago suraocc Company of Talbot | mutual confidence springing up between | employer's daughter. Fanny also watched | left her after confessing to her that he lo- noble animals (Lecompte apparently some- any extent, Oats 48e and 50e; Wheat | a boy named Charlie had a large dog which ace at the office of the Com- them, the stranger confided to the good her father's countenance to gain some con- ved another. She acquitted him of at- what drooping,) came up for the start- $1 50." pany, on the land of May next, at 11 merchant his pressing necessities. | solation from him as to Ildo's chance of tempting in the slightest to gain her love, ing. o'clock A. M., the purpose of electing He was a Pole by birth; he had been acquittal, but she could glean nothing and as he turned to depart, she smiled First Heat—It needs not much elabe- same deplorable accounts. Is not this suf- which the boy lived. One day the thought Twelve Directors le said Company. Per or- despoiled of home, fortune and country at there. one blow. He had served as private sec- To-day the trial takes place, dear father? to forget him except with the love of a sis- Lexington had the track but the advantage Let us then urge upon the farmers of make the dog carry him across the river, ter, but that none other could ever supply of this was not much, as the start was even our country to plant one acre more. Hoard so he tied a string to the dog's collar, and gustus Raymond stood before her upon the quarter post and swung into the back corn planted—we want more bushels rais- by the dog's neck and bit of string, he

Mr. Talbot did not read him a lecture a brother to an ignominious death, and af- Her manner was so haughty and indig- compte was waiting. They maintained waste it at a dollar. Do not let your land the way they had come; but when Charlie on the uncertainty of human prospects, but terwards—when it is too late—finds the nant, that insane with jealousy and pas- this position waste itself in idleness. As an individual looked for his clothes, he could find nothhe put his hand into his pocket, and hand- murdered man as innocent as the one he was sion, her discarded lover plunged the fatal throughout the mile, the speed being you may not need its products, but as one ing but his shoes. The wind had blown steel into her fair bosom; and then dash- slightly increased down the home stretch, of the great human family it is sinful to all the rest into the water. The dog saw stranger, bid him go and make himself first 'How strangely you talk!' exclaimed Mr. ing into the thicket made his escape and as they passed the score Lecompte thus deprive human beings of food that what had happened, and making his little The Ladies.—Having purchased an comfortable with good cheer, and then pre- Talbot, startled by her words and manner. with the cunning caution that eluded the was close up to Lexingtons's saddle skirts might be grown upon that land. You master let go by making believe to bite sentable with good clothes, and then to re- Father, Ilde Sternberg is innocent.' eyes of all, and locking up the fearful se- On the turn Lexington's pace increased, may not require the product of that acre him, he dashed into the river, and brought and not wishing to keep them on hand during the warm weather, we will commence this day the warm weather, we will commence this day the warm to the counting room, that he would take him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the warm weather, we will commence this day the warm to the counting room, that he would take him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him in his own employ for the presting suspected even of the foul deed, the him is a suspected even of the foul deed.

> stranger left Mr. Talbot, wallet in hand. But, child; my friendship towards him Finding the turn affairs had taken, Fan- turn, when Lexington again slid away in THE CHINESE POTATO. There was a something in the lastre of his is known—my reputation may suffer, may my Talbot confessed to her father, with a front. As they came into quarter, Le- Mr. John Henderson, Kingskerwell, that he should thank God for making the bor, the schemes ended in a sudden failure.

bor, the schemes ended in a sudden failure.

bor, the schemes ended in a sudden failure.

After honorably satisfying the calls of all live to bear the horror of the thought.

an's heart and happiness.

GENERAL CASS. enabled to continue his regular business, al, with a solemn promise to do all in his patriotic and christian letter of the distinguished statesman whose name heads this great that the people now commenced jump- watched with reference to each particular.

responsibility resting on them and their for the kind invitation to attend the cele- ing qualities, and he would consequently than certain.

that interesting occasion, yet I can rea- the heat were considered withdrawn. At profit. "Take care of yourself, Ildo my boy," We cannot agree." was the response lize and appreciate the feeling with which the time for starting Lexington showed IV. That it can be propagated with duce. Strict attention will be paid to the deThe distant breakers with their sullen roar.

Ruins and gloom, still broad our all thy coast, friends for your new ones," said Miss Talved so conclusive the prisoners guilt.

The distant breakers with their sullen roar.

Of Christianity, who first carried the Gostant breakers with their sullen roar.

The distant breakers with their sullen roar. bot with a pretty blush. "Father and I The jury again withdrew and thirty pel of Jesus to the Pagan inhabitants of of the benefactors of the human race, and dependent of their own selfish inducements its results.

SISTER FANNY." | Col. W. O' CALLACHAN, President. completely exhausted the store houses of root, and so produce another set of tubers old grain, and there is probably a smaller which latter would injure the full growth

AND LECOMPTE. Sternberg seemed to be expostulating with couch of the man who was to have been the tween Lexington and Lecompte. We clip country to a sense of the exigencies of above. the following from the Delta.

they piled up dollars freely on the general hausted. The farmers are cutting down round is required for other purposes is ta stride, and appearance indicating that Le- ten cents a bushel-you cannot afford to other side for some time, they returned in refuse to be convinced. They cannot hang of the murdered girl wished to make rep- up and again lapped, and the two ran right .- N. Y. Tribune. With an expression of gratitude the him without your sanction.' aration to the falsely accused Sternberg. that way past the half post to the upper and 35 ceats for every additional insertion.— A liberal deduction in prices to those who advertise by the year, or for six, or three months Advertisement sent to the office not marked the number of times to be inserted, will be continued till ordered out, and charged according to regular rates. Special notices, inserted before deaths and marriages, ten cents a line for each insertion. Marriages and Obitnary notices inserted free WHOLE NO. 737. of charge.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Lexington came in under a strong pul' so pre-eminently distinguishes them.determined to base their opinion of the plant u-announced that all bets made before the affords an excellent means of turning waste tising in the city and dwelling in much length they returned and the crowd were But, though I shall not be with you on race were good, but that those made after land to a useful purpose, as well as to

V. That it may remain in the ground several years without degenerating, but on the contrary, each year it increases in size. make it convenient to give us a call." pronounced a second decision, and then Scriptures, he "added knowledge to Have the farmers of this State ever preserved in cellars or sheds, without veg-ionary belonged to the great Order of know and seventy thousand acres in addition to ere long come into general use, and obtain ings and incomings; their light had be- Finding this man solemnly impressed somethings—to that class of it, indeed, the usual crop. As an instance let us that consideration at the hands of all which come the guiding star of his life. But yet | with the prisoners innocense, and his ar- which knows a great deal, and he deserves | suppose that each farmer should plant this | its intrinsic merits so imperitively demand. in his numerous visits to the merchant's gument in his favor still sounding so con- the gratitude of mankind for imparting additional acre in indian corn, and that it Amongst those who are per-eminent in the house Ildo preserved the same respectful vineingly in their ears, to the astonish- what he knew to others, instead of endeav- averaged only thirty busnels to the acre. attention paid to this plant, is the learned

Mr. Talbot was once more prosperous, The prisoner being therefore set at liber- let us render it the more freely now, when to raise a crop of grain to sell, we contend Cultivation.—M. de Montigny informs and learning wisdom from experience, he ty narrowly escaped the Lynch law of the local and sectarian prejudices are striving it is the duty of every farmer in America us that "the Chinese put aside all the pursued the beaten path to wealth, leav- infuriated mob without. A strong police to create a distiction among us, as unjust to plant this every spring, one more acre. small roots at the taking up, and place them as they are unconstitutional. But we If it cannot be planted in spring wheatoats in pits or trenches, covering them well with It had grown to be toward the close of Once more Ildo Sternburg stood upon the have nothing eventually to fear from error or maize, then plant it in buckwheat or straw, over which they afterwards spread summer when Ildo Sternberg entered the deck of a vessel bound for South America. or opression, as Mr. Jefferson well said, if rutabagas. But be it what it may, either a coating of earth. In the spring they are office of Mr. Redfield one morning some- A boy whom he recognised as the one in "reason is left free to combat it." That one thing or the other, we urge you to in- taken out and laid horizontally in the beds what later than usual, and told him he the employ of Mr. Talbot, approached him freedom is a portion of our heritage and it crease the number of your planted acres. of prepared moulds, where they soon gercould no longer remain in his employ. In and placed a letter in his hands. The will triumph over this delusion as it has We urge you for your own sake and for minate and produce long trailing stems. vain Mr. Redfild urged him for a reason, Captain's orders in the meantime had been triumph over many a one heretofor, and the sake of humanity to increase the pro- As soon as they have attained about six he would give none, merely saying that he given, the anchor was drawn up and will triumphed over many a one hereafter; duets of earth this year. Endeavour to feet in length (which is generally in a had made up his mind to go to S. America, the brig under way. With a cat like those who have participated in it will a add to the supply of whatever will sustain month or six weeks' time) they are taken In about an hour after Ildo left the of- spring the agile messenger jumped upon waken to the conviction that the worth of the life of man or beast during the exigen- up to be replanted and layered. The manfice, Mr. Redfield was summoned home, the parting wharf receiving a lusty cheer an American citizen does not depend up- cies of next winter. Consider yourself ner in which this part of the operation is his eldest daughter had been found dead from the jolly Jack Tar's who witnessed in the grove of woods by the seaside, which the fact.

on the place of his birth, nor his claim appointed by Providence a special committee to confidence upon his religious faith; and tee to provide against famine, such as last ing been prepared and thrown into ridges, had ever been her favorite walk. Her Ildo leaned his head mornfully upon his upon the mode in which he worships that season afflicted this fertile country. sister had seen her start in the direction of hands, and gazed abstactedly upon the re- God, who is equally the God of the Catho- Let the present situation of affairs be slight furrow is made on the top of each lic and of the protestant—who guided and well thought of. In consequence of the ridge with a rake or hoe, and the plant also seen young Sternberg take the same Suddenly he bethought him of his letter. protected our fathers in the days of their demand for laborers upon public works for laid in a lengthways, & the whole of it is. from her wil and sparkling playfulness was - "You will not refuse the enclosed from ger, if we only appreciate the blessing we of beef cattle that immense quantities of bedry weather it is necessary to water the idol of ther father and the imperious one who believes in your innocnce. When enjoy in a spirit of mutual concirliation and corn have been used in feeding beeves for them till they begin to grow. At the encircular the imperious one who believes in your innocnce. mistress of both father and mother and in you make the fortune which I know your forbearance, and with thankfullness to Him the market Then the unprecented of fifteen or twenty days they will produce fact the entire household. Some of the energy will achieve in the new country to who gave them, and may take them address to drouth of last summer cut off the crops to tubers, and at the same time throw out long field laborers had seen Sternberg closely which you are going, you can repay them way. I am dear sir, with great regard, such an extent that the demand to carry trailing stems, which ought to be examined LEWIS CASS. | through a hard winter and late spring has from time to time, to prevent their taking > in comparison with the population any time | But I find, says Mr Henderson, that the The New Orleans papers are at hand in half a century. We are not alarmists, ordinary manner in which the Chinese present circumstances. What would be The earth is formed into ridges, when The number of spectators altogether the result of another drouth similar to that small tubers, or portions of large ones, The testimony crowded in so closely agustus" said Mr. Redfield kindly.

against poor Sternberg, that a warrant was against poor Sternberg, the sternberg was against poor Sternberg, the sternberg was against poor Sternberg, the sternberg was against poor Sternberg was aga fectly lovely, the track was in admirable sion of several years? Such at least have the sides of the ridges and pegged down have wished. During the two hours pre- corn to fall back upon through the west. throw out tubers; by this means, immens vious to the start, the betting varied so Those granaries have been exhausted long | quantities of roots, of the size of early-farmmuch that it is impossible to say on a deci- since. For weeks past the farmers of O- ed kidney potatoes are on a comparatively late in the autumn; the tubers by this means te and County, in my absence. severe in any pursuit that may offer itself.' Oh, papa,' responded Fanny, do not say before day-dawn, secreted himself—heard On weighing the riders, the judges an- ber of cattle have died from starvation, and and spring; and it seems a pecularity in the

was very fond of water, and in hot weather From a dozen other sources we have the he used to swim across the river near struck him that it would be fine fun to and a beautiful one. They went round ing to increase the price, or buying up to ran down with him to the water, where he Perfectly infuriated with passion, Au- the first turn on a lap, and as they passed sell again will do no good. We want more took off his clothes; and then, holding hard what fun he and the dog had had. His mother told him that he did very wrong in going across the river as he had done, and large, earnest, grey eyes that told the worthy inerchant he had not misplaced confidence.

But then, you will have saved an innoconfidence of the acquitted Illustration of the large of the acquitte lars and Chimizettes, which they will be pleascal to exhibit to the Ladies.

Confidence.

Conf head. There was another galliant brush discovery Providential, was made. This again, he threw his arms around his dog