Gravelers

Fall and Winter Arrangement

1878. THE STEAMER

Olive will run as follows; For Baltimore -! eave every Monday, nis' Wharf at 9 A. M., St Michaels 10 A. M. Claiborne 10:45 A. M. Biver at 7 a. m., Tunis' Wharf 9 a. m., Michaels 10 a. m., Claiborne 10:45 a. m. Returning-Leave every Tuesday and Thursday, at 10 a. m., for Claiborne, St. Michaels, Tunis' Wharf, Trimble's Wharf and Leave every Saturday at 10 a m., for Claiberne, St. Michaels and Tunis' Wharf.

R. 8 DODSON, Proprietor. d. Michaels, Sep. 7, 1878.

Fall and Winter Arrangement

N and after Monday, Sept. 28d, 1878, trains will run as follows:

GOING NORTH. * 7 30 AM 7 45 Woodland, 7 55 8 10 8 45 9 00 9 15 9 25 Henderson Clayton, Arrive, Wilmington, Philadelphia, 3 35 Baltimore, 5 10 GOING

New York, Leave, 8 25 PM 6 50 AM 8 00 Philadelphia, 9 30 Wilmington, Clayton, Kenton, Slaughters. Henderson. 12 50least Thirty [30] Minutes before starting of trains

J. L. CALDWELL, Supt. Easton, Sept. 17th, 1878.

Easton Livery Stables. FRANKLIN G. WRIGHT, Proprietor

Office next door to the Easton Star Office. TRAVELERS will deposit their whips, robes, brankets, &c., at the office Biareceived on livery by the day, week, month or year. Horses and carriages for hire at all times. Travel rs promptly sent to any part of the county or adjoining counties.

extra charge will be made. Hacks run regularly to the steamboat landing , to convey passengers with dispatch A daily Stage line to the Railroad. Passen. gers leaving Easton in the morning arrive in Baltimore and Philadelphia in time for dinne The highest market price paid for corn, hay, oats, blades rnd straw.

Farmers' and Merchants

Packet Line

The Schooners

Clara M. Leonard

Annie M Leonard.

THE above bo its are making weekly trips between Easton and Baltimore, and wa sion Merchan's corner of Bowley's Wharf with all the other tashi nable points of this buy what you wan get what you pay for; and Pratt st., Bal imore, will be promptly at just y aduired breed. tended to. Grain bonght or taken at the lowest freigh rates. All Grain stored in our apr23yr Warehouses, in case of fire will be at the owners risk. Agricultural Lime delivered at the lowest cash price Feeling thankful for past ness, a continuance of the same C. R. LEONARD & BRO

SAM'L MULLIKIN House, Sign and Ornamental

ver street, Faston.

may8,77

Easton, Md., Offers his rervices to all wanting first class or cheap work done in his line.

Oranges, Lemons, Cocoanuts. Figs, Raisins, &c. Fresh invoice just received. Oranges2 cts. G. W. MINNICK

l'inware-

一种 医自己性 电电子性 医性性 医性

Dovoted to Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Pereign and Demontic Bowe

NEW SERIES.

EASTON, MD., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5. 1878.

Immense Display

MARYLAND STEAMBOAT CO. C. I. C. I. O. C. I. D. E.

THE NEW

CHAS. W. ORHOLA SON.

230 W.PRATT ST

(Iron Front Building), Near Hanover.

Handsome Suits of Cheviot,

In All Colors and Designs.

THE LEADING FABRICS for this Season surviving son of old Theodore Davies, the

Made to Order at $15, $18, $20, 25, and $30

TO PREVENT

TAKE

SIMMONS

It Saved the People of Savanna

Yellow Fever malaria.

SELLERS' LIVER PILLS

Rox. Sold by all Druggists and esuntry Store Keepers. R. E. SELLERS & CO., Prop's. Pittsburgh, Pa.

Freights Reduced

Capt. Nicholas C. Marshall.

G. MARRHALI.

J. S. BYINGTON

General Agent, Washington D. C.

rivers for the accommodation of farmers.

of Richmond, Va.

Rates reduced to 4 cents per bushel.

For further particulars address

Sept. 17th, 1878 tf

Pickles, Pickles!

something very nice; fry it.

Royal Blue Seap-

B. PATTERSON,

JOHN R. COLLINS,

Ga.. who used it during the

Terrible Epidemic

UMMER GOODS.

TACOB WILLIAMS, on Market space, annonnees his late return from the city, with a full line of Cheap Goods,

Groceries

Boots and Shoes, Wood and Willow Ware, Crockery, Glass & China.

and a variety of other articles for family use. all purchased especially with a view to May | MESSES. J H ZEILIN & Co.,

Spring Stock Just Arrived

Straw Goods a Specialty! otherwise they will lay over twenty-four hours.

Cheaperthan ever before sold in Easton.

Children's Hats Very Cheap! My friends and the public are requested to call and examine my stock as I am sure I can

JAS. H. LINTHICUM.

Talbot House In hiring horses 12 hours is considered a RESTHURHAYT, day, 6 hours a balf day. For extra hours an (Formerly White House,)

No. 186 West Pratt Street, (Between Meltby and Green House,) BALTIMORE. Henry & Goldsborough, Agents, Easton

HENRY BANNING, Proprietor.

STRAW GOODS. Have just received my full stock of Straw

Goods of all descriptions.

Taylor's Mackinaw Hats

M. M. HIGGINS, Herd Book Jersey Bull

CERCONE.

Baltimore, the registered Jersey Ball "Chrome," Herd Register No. 1718, by Druid " Herd Register No 299 out of 'Mat," Herd Register No. 2798, and offer his at rvices to the public at $5.00 per cow. "Chrome, was droap d Sept. 16 1874, 18

Notice,

hankful for past favors, I hope to continue to receive the public patronage. All may rey on their horses being properly fed and wa-P. G. WBIGHT.

CROQUET. Base Balls & Bats.

ABGE stock, better and cheaperthan ever before offered in this market day made by any worker of either sex, Hooab. It is us cheap as any other soap, and it Galle Brigh for Wala Keller's Roman Linument ap.

hat Bible, the volume of God's inspiration

The Story of Kentucky's Greatest Tragedy, by an Eye Witness.

Louisville, Ky, Sept. 24.—In my account to you of the Harrodsburg Court House tragedy, in which Philip Thomp son, Jr., recently nominated to Congress from the Eighth Kentucky District, was one of the principal actors, there were some errors, due to the length of time since that extraordinary event occurred, and to the fact that I wrote entirely from memory. The story was given me by a Mercer County farmer who, with two Thompson and three of his sons, one of were behind the bar and facing the elder died-bequeathing a memory to them that stock still. was afterward one of the witnesses in the could not be sustained by evidence. Yellow Fever.

grateful obligation for the benefits we receiv- part of the new South, comprehends its the man next to him. and also in spending entire nights in the city should say that he will undoubtedly be air. Over his body and inside the room trusted the manuscript of that speech. Liver Regulator while we were exposed to this the mistakes of my former letter shall not he came upon his father's body. Not once a achieved place so honored.

seniors of the two families. That note, within Dr. Thompson's coat, and pulled Wye, Miles and Choptank Riverst as I am now informed, was for money the trigger. But Thompson suddenly borrowed by Theodore Davies of one writhed his body away from the direct Greenbury Marshall, and the Meux, a well-to-do old Frenchman, who aim, and the bullet only ploughed a shal-Schooner William Hayward, came to Harrodsburg from Missouri. He low crease along his abdomen, hardly cuthad no relatives, and bargained with ting the skin. The front of his vest was stop when you please, and keep y ur res rves eld plan would have co-L $24.844 69!! The months. Ladies insured for $4,500 only. terward pressed him to see that the over- acheigh horing office. Cooumber Pickles by the hundred or dosen; also, pickled Chow Chow by the pint: paid the note in full, The paper, Thomp- Tomlinson, trother of Mrs. W. W. Belk- knowledge, money. The deadly quarrel was begun, cient make. Quly one cartridge had been ninor children. The paper was his last but three, and of the wounded but two, of a not passive spectator there. He see, he couldn't do anything else, if his spendthrift! Shattered-brained simplestood beside the stove where Philip father really thought there was going to ton!" Thompson, Jr.-now candidate for Cong- be trouble." But my friend, who saw the der brother; and his father, the elder Phil- his brother, and the girl to whom he was Spriggs speedily, Sam." ip Thompson, was among the other law- afflanced, turned over on his side, and

Thirtoon Conts a Day will secure to your family $5,000d! in the -for the old lawyer.

Theodore Davies as he testified from the was better than gold. I am prepared to have all sympathy for This distribution of the Thompof the Thompsons—a young man who was sons, it was afterward charged by the young Phil Thompson, the chosen of the in the Jourt House on that fatal day, and State, was preconcerted—a charge that good citizens of a fair section of Kentucky slowly, shaking stupendously. Sam se- what money I could in the bank. I did it. trial of the Thompsons for murder. His This was the juncture when my infor- know that he did not kill his opponent in Short,—Sophia Sofronia Short,—Samuel could. Now I am as poor as when I comaccount is substantially that apen which mant heard Larue Davies say to young defence of his own life; and all accounts Short's spouse,—sounds splendid; suppose menced. And you have nothing you say the I hompsons based their theory of de- Philip Thompson: "I am not afraid of make him a good, husband, a pure man, fence, and upon which they were finally any of the Thompson blood." The two and likely to do honor to his constituents. acquitted. As the story of an eye wit- young men, thereat, started down the aisle Their regard for him found expression ness, it is even more dramatic than that leading to the court-room door. Judge the other night in an enthusiastic serenade starching, saluting Sam smilingly. Sam sadly: "My boy, this is a great tribulation. which, as published by you the other day, Wickliffe, from the bench, jumped to his at his home in Harrodsburg. But I conhas again recalled public attention in feet and shouted, "Stop those men!" The fees that little kindness would I have for Kentucky to the most dramatic of her great audience, by one impulse, arose.— him if the bullet from his pistol had given Three pistol shots rang out on the in the death wound to this noble fellow, in-The newspapers here, in their comments stant; by whom fired, or which came first, stend of to the reckless brother, who had upon Philip Thompson's nomination, neither my informant nor any other of also been to his slayer playmate and friend. have not referred to that tragedy. The the witnesses who afterward testified A jury acquitted him freely of any fault

Courier Journal, which, as you know, is could say. The room was arranged in in that act. I should not like to have the leading newspaper of the Southwest, seats like a theatre, and the crowd, at the been on the jury that considered the other and which probably circulates more large- first shot, dropped behind them, leaving death. ly in Mr. Thompson's own district than seven men, with pistols in their hands. The rest of the story of the tragedy is do all the local papers combined, says of standing erect. These were the Thomp- about what I wrote you before. "Jo" "Sartin," said Sophia, smiling significant the local papers combined, says of standing erect. These were the Thomp- about what I wrote you before. "Jo" "Sartin," said Sophia, smiling significant the local papers combined, says of standing erect. him: "Mr. Thompson is young, ardent sons, father and three sons, and the Da- Blackburn, who will sit in Congress with cautly. "Sip some sweet sherbert, Sam." ample might be repeated. and active. Sprung from honored stock, vieses, father and two sons. Caldwell young Philip Thompson—if he is elected (Silence sixty-six seconds.) the scion of a noble family, he was educa- Davies, boy as he was, was unarmed, and af- from the Eighth District—was retained call and pay your expenses by saving money gineers on the Georgia Central Railroad in the rude school of war. He is a ter a moment was pulled to the floor by by the grand mother of the two dead boys, said Sophia. ed from the use of Simmens Liver Regulator wants and needs, sympathizes with its as-during the aforesaid Epidemic, we used the splendid race, and we predict for him a sent; but old Theodore Davies was seen ging a deliberate conspiracy on the part lence. medicine known as Simmons Liver Regulator. brilliant career in the greater field of na- to make his way from the witness box of the Thompsons to kill the Davieses, I medicine known as summons Liver acgulator. Drilliant career in the greater neith of the line with the former Managing Editor of the Sam strangely; so Sam suddenly spoke read it for me?"

| prepared by J. H. Zeilin & Co., and though tional affairs to which he will presently down the aisle and near to the door, stagexposed to the worst missingly influences of the Vellow Fever by going it and a ming ont be called to address himself." Unques- ger there a moment and fall—as he fell the Courier-Journal, now a resident of sentimentally. "Sophia, Susan's sunflow-

> demic, with but the single-exception of one of competitor use against him the circum- bule outside, bloody but desperate, was to allow the Thompsons to attend the fu- Sparkling springs shall sing soul-stirring bule outside, bloody but desperate, was ed, we continued in our usual good health a stances of that tragedy, it will probably Larue Davis. Facing each other's pistol neral of their uncle, ex-United States strains; sweet songsters shall silence series. circumstance we can account for in no other only make his majority more certain, un- mouths, he and young Philip Thompson Senator and ex-Lieutenant-Governor Jno. cret sighings; super-angelic sylphs shall? way but by the effect, under Providence, of less, by bad chance, the reminiscence fired, the one at the other, across the fa- B. Thompson. the habitual and continued use of Simuons when recalled should lead to another spill- ther's body, until the Davies boy, with a "Every man and boy of us was searched when recalled should lead to another spilling of blood. Such a reminiscence could bullet hole through his neck, gasping, for weapons as we entered the Court not be safely invoked even in the best or- turned and dropped stone dead just out- House the day the Thompsons were placdered community, and human nature be- side the door. Half way up the room ed in the prisoners' dock," added the cere Sam's seeking some sweet spouse, ing human nature, I think the sad story Theodore Davies, Jr., and Dr. Davies friend to whom I am indebted for these Sophia. will not be a feature in that section where Thompson were struggling. A ball, pro- corrections and additions to my former the troubled ghosts of the father and sons bably from the Doctor's pistol, wounded letter. "Judge Wickliffe issued a strict could be summoned only for harm. I young Davies in the thumb. He turned order to that effect, and Bud Roberts, the speculates sorrow." quote to you what is given herewith, that and moved slowly toward the door until jailer, stood at the door and saw that no stand against Philip Thompson in his knowing that his brother was dead out sons were never put into jail after the said "Sartin." struggle for a place in that same govern- side, but for the first time moved out of fight, but were kept under the surveilling body of the nation in which his uncle an almost supernatural calm—you will ence of offers. There was sisty of sevremember that his face was before de- enty of us who testified on the one side or You will remember that the cause of scribed to me as strangely white, but the other, and my story on the witness er says. the quarrel which led to the death of old firmly set; and that description is the stand was what I have just told you.— "In a good celler we can keep our cen-Theodore Davies and his two sons was a same as given to-day—he rushed back to When Philip Thompson, the father, came tury plants, cleanders, and cactuses from note for some $2,000, the payment of where Dr. Thompson was still standing round the corner of the court house, For November till May; and there, too, our which was in controversy between the and still firing, thrust his pistol directly rest Smedly, clerk in the bank, shouted to cannot caldium, (the greenleaved section) There wasn't a better boy in Kentucky, and I was sorry he didn't get off safe." Isaac Pearson, a merchant of Harrods. blown away and burned. Then young tucky lost a son worthy of a State of brave English yews, camellias and other some closes his will by the prevision that if burg, to make Pearson ha beir on condi- Davies moved away again, slowly, and men and true women when he died. tion that Pearson should take care of him firing as he moved, until he reached his As proof that the Davieses came to the pots can, too, be safely wintered in a dry, the estate is to be given to the President brother's body, lying outside the court court house expecting a fight, and there-airy cellur, even with no straw covering of the United States provided he is a

The loan was made through Philip house door. Over it was Philip Thomp- fore presumably ready to provoke one, it their branches; but their roots had better Democrat, to be used to further the inter-Thompson, Sr., then as now the foremost son, Jr., panting. Theodore Davies threw | was testified that young Larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young Larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young Larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young Larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young Larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young Larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young Larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young larue Davies had be protected by placing the potasomewhat | was testified that young larue | was testif lawyer in Harrodsburg. He and Davies himself upon Thompson, and the two two pistols with him, and fired every curt- closely together and packing marsh-hay had been boys together, and intimate wrestled for a moment together. Then ridge thereof before he fell, and that there or strawor leaves between them, or even friends as boy and man; and the old farm- Thompson fell. At that moment the el- was taken from the dead body or his fath- plugging the pots over the hritis in dry er had but a little while before named his der Philip Thompson, with a ballet er, besides his pistol with its one ineffect- sand, saw-dust, or earth, If these plants city, who is matched to youngest son—the Benjamin of his loins through his thigh, came round the corner walk on the Both instant against W. E. of the house. He had leaped through a ried conce led beneath his vest, but had the garden with a good built of with about Harding, of New York, the said and the Thence on ward the stories of the two window of the court room, earrying sash no time to draw. The plea of self-de-their roots, they can be surcessfully win-tifty-inffe championship, has in a trial here "Knigutly," Miles River Neck. organized February 1874. It has paid for losses $203, 257,00 at a cost to the beseficia- truth and falsehood. Which told the Theodore Davies, seeing him, arose and tragedy of a father and his sons killing a er closely in a sand or closely ries of $6,028 51 The same insurance on the truth and which perjured himself no man | walked backward toward the gate. The father and his son's was noted for a while mulcining with dry hay. can ever know, for one of them went to elder Thompson drew a derringer; Theo in its fatal coincidence, and then was put "A cold pit as winterquarters is better his sudden grave with either the exact dore Davies took deliberate aim at him aside as a thirg held by all the community than a cellar for source with either the exact dore Davies took deliberate aim at him aside as a thirg held by all the community than a cellar for source with either the exact dore Davies took deliberate aim at him aside as a thirg held by all the community than a cellar for source with either the exact dore Davies took deliberate aim at him aside as a thirg held by all the community than a cellar for source with either the exact dore Davies took deliberate aim at him aside as a thirg held by all the community than a cellar for source with either the exact dore Davies took deliberate aim at him aside as a third exact dore than a cellar for source with either the exact dore than a cellar for source with either the exact dore than a cellar for source with either the exact dore than a cellar for source with either the exact dore than a cellar for source with either the exact dore than a cellar for source with either the exact dore than a cellar for source with exact dore the exact dore than a cellar for source with exact dore that exact dore the cellar for source with exact dore than a cella truth or an evil lie on his lips. Thomp- and snapped his pistel in vain. Every ty as best to be forgetten. It was that ed up, little place- is -worse than useless. Teary. son said that Davies came to his office one load was gone. Simultaneously, it was other coincidence of the probable election. The length depth of the pit day and paid $800 on the note; that after thought, Thompson fired, and the heavy of one of those prosecuted to sit in the should be guided by the kinds, size, and endorsing the payment, he shoved it back bullet crashed through the young man's same delegation with the lawyer who pro- number of the plants to be wintered in it; loosely among other papers in his desk, spine. Of course it was a mortal wound, secuted him, that wealled the circumstant but I would silvise three to six feet deen. and then that he went away with Davies, and of it he afterward died, as I before ces to public attention, and led me to four to six feet wide fleigth of sash), and leaving the desk unlocked. His client af- told you heroically in a little room over send to you facts that have never before in length free one to any number of sach been made public. With that letter and es. due note was paid. He called upon Dav- The smoke had not fairly lifted before this you have the story as told by both "After storing, we keep the pit uncov-

son said, had disappeared from his deak map, whose husband was then Secretary Mrs. Davies is still in Harrodsburg; but and even on fine frosty days we tilt up a when he went to look for it. Davies in- of the Army, hastened to the prostrate Caldwell, the boy who was saved to her little at noon, During intense frosty | Prof. E. A. Newhorles of Hagward Colsisted upon the fact of a payment in full. body of old Theodore Davies. A bullet that fatal day, died a few bours later weather we keep the pit rather close. lege is going to Enrope for a few m Thompson accused him of taking the had passed through his heart. In his pencefully in his mother's arms. Her lot merely sliding down the shutters a few visit. Probably going to see out $5 to $20 per for bluing clottes. It is as good as any other note. Davies retorted with the charge nerveless hand he still grasped his pistol, you will agree with me, has been a hard in case of heavy cles. Periodes, Ripides, that Thompson had misapplied his client's a self-cocking Cooper revolver of the an- one-a later Niobe, if of a humbler mould. snows or storms we leave all covered up other Suchasta believed was a conspiracy planned by the walls-not another man had been harm- sewed skirts, stitched sheets, stuffed so- dies out before lighting your cigars. Thompsons to murder him, in the event ed. But some of the escapes were har- fas. Simon's six stout, sturdy sonsthat the jury's verdict premised to go row, indeed. One bullet had sped between Seth, Samuel, Stephen, Saul, Silas, Shad-At morn and at evening could yield us delight, against them. There is certainly no doubt two young men crouched near the floor, rack, sold sundries. Sober Seth sold suproved to be an exact prophecy of what just behind them, and then buried itself dies, stirrups, screws; sagacious Stephe munity, already profoundly moved by the and younger brother," my informant con- smart Sophia Sofronia Spriggs. Sam soon And wander unknown on a far distant shore. circumstances of the quarrel that mutual tinued his story, "young Theodere Da- showed strringe symptoms. Sam seldom the case was nearing its end when the gether, though he was older than I. He society, sang several serenades slyly. S first sympton of trouble appeared. The fought that day like a brave man, and he mon stormed, scolded severely, said Sam good time to take the train. account I now have differs from my other | died like a brave man. He didn't want | seemed so silly singing such shameful, mainly in the intensity of the description, to go into the fight at first, but his father senseless songs. "Strange, Sam should less you are on your way to be hanged. for I have it direct from the vivid memo- made him arm himself that day. You slight such splendid sales! Strutting ress and the commonwealth's Atterney fight that day, did not hear, as I did, the smitten; Sam's spied some sweetheart. for Mercer County—was earnestly talking stery of young Theodore's death from his "Sentimental school-boy!" smarled Si- known as Long John. He belongs to one with young Larue Davies, Theodore Da- brother's lips—the same brother who es- mon. "Stop such stuff." Simon sent Sal- of the oldest and most respectable famivies's second son. Theodore Davies, Sr., caped from the Court House alone of his ly's scissors, smashed Sally's spectacles, lies, but he was a wayward youth, and was in the witness box and was just char- family. I told it to you the other day— scattering several spools. "Sneaking got away with his share of the estate earging the elder Philip Thompson with how the gailant young fellow laid himself scoundred Sam's shocking stillness shall ly in life. Then with commendable pluck having received the full payment of the down to die on the hard floor, because the surcease! Scowling Simon stopped speak- he got on the force, straightened up, and note-money that he had appropriated and blood would not hurt the bare planks; ing, starting swiftly shopward. Sally has been a temperate man ever since. afterward spent. Young Theodore Da- how he called his brother to him, and made sighed sadly. Summoning Sam she spoke vies sat near his father, and beside him him promise he would not seek the re- sweet sympathy. "Sam," said she, "sire a certain bank and deposited whatever he his younger brother, Caldwell, a boy of 15. | venge that he had already threatened, boy seems singular snappy; so, sonny, stop | could save. He continued this frugal way Behind the witness stand, or a little to though he then was; how, lest his mother strolling streets, stop smoking segars, of living until he had saved about $700. the right of it, was John B. Thompson, might be made altogether childless by the spending specie superfluously; stop spru- Not long ago, when one of the solid intwin brother of "Little Phil, 'as the can- violent death of her remaining sons, he cin so; stop singing serenades; stop short; stitutions of the Chicago of the West went didate in the 8th district is called through- burned the fatal paper that would pro- sell saddles sensible; see Sophia Sofronia down, and the "bosses" of the institution out Kentucky. Near Theodore Davies, voke another quarrel with the Thomp- Spriggs soon; she's sprightly, she's stable; were "regretting" in tears to their pen-Jr., sat Dr. Davies M. Thompson, the ol- sons, then bade good-bye to that mother. so solicit; sue; secure Sophia Sofronia niless depositors, Long John walked u

"specially since sire shows such spirits." through my part of the estate you got me So Sam, somewhat scared, sauntered on the pelice force. You told me to put for a most responsible office, for I do not liloquizes; Sophia Sofronia Spriggs,- I worked hard as a niggar and saved all 1

"Spl-spl-splendid summer season, Se-seventeen seconds.) "Selling saddles still, Sam?" "Season's somewhat sudorific," said brains out here on the spot. Sam, stealthily staunching streaming sweat, shaking sensibly. "Sire shot sixty shelldrakes, Saturday,"

"Sixty? sho!" said said Sam. (Silence

"Sophia's sprightly sauciness stimula- it, too."

the Yellow Fever by going in and c ming out of Savannah at different hours of the night, lionably he will make a strong canvass; I his pistol discharged itself uselessly in the Sofronia Springs stroll carefull carefull carefull carefull carefull carefully carefull carefull carefull carefull carefull carefull carefully carefull carefully careful during the prevalence of this most fatal epi elected; and even should a Republican was Philip Thompson, Jr. In the vesti-

> "Sophia," said Sim, solemnly. "Sam," said Sophia. "Sophia, stop smilin'. Sam Short's sin-

> "Speak, Sophia, speak! such suspense.

"Seek sire; Sam, seek sire." So Sam sought sire Sp. iggs, sire Spriggs Wintering Tender Plants.

Upon this subject the Rural New York young The. Davies to run, Davies looked dalilias, crape myrtles, and fuschsins. up and saw the old man, and then moved Should frost be likely to penetrate; we can MeGill, a decembed wealthy cittles of Aloff toward the gate where he was shot .- cover up with dry hay or straw; just as we teghen y was filed to day in the Register's would in the case of pointees or apples. office. After making several bequests to Straw spread over the leaves of the centu- relatives, he leaves the residue of his es-It was a thing to be sorry for, and Ken- ry plants won't hurt them a bit. Hellies, tate to three sunts living in fremide and ies, and the old farmer said that he had the bloody work was over. Dr. Wm. M. sides to the saddest tragedy within my ered day and night in mild weather, titt up the sashes in mild but wet weather, shipped to day o for a few days. But I make it a point to and was brought into court by woult for exploded, and the bullet from that had Such is the force of habit. A reporter winit so feasible opportunity of yendin-to The Danb the alleged balance unpaid. Solemnly the gone harmlessly into the ceiling as he fell. Writes a love story, in which the her ting or, at least light-giving and of many his almented to the President and said to him: 'Look "So soon? so soon?" said Sam standing here, when I was a wild boy you talked to me about saving money. You told me "So soon, surely" said Sally, smilingly; to fellow your example. When I run Soon Sam spied Sophia starching skirts, The great bankrupt placed his hands on singing softly. Seeing Sam, she stopped Long John's shoulder and spoke to him I have lost everything, and I cannot-"

Long John took the hand of the banker from his shoulder and said: "I don't want "Somewhat sultry," suggested Sophia. any crocodile tears from you. Every "Sur-sartin, Sophia," said Sam. (Silence | cent I put into your bauds I worked for like a nigger, and you know it. I would sooner be dead than lose it. Now, if you "Sar-sartin," said Sam, starting sudden- | don't pay me that money I will blow your

In ten minutes Jong John had his $700, and the great penniless banker was begging him not to give it away lest the ex-

Uncle Sam Out Nine Cents.

"Is there a letter for me?" asked an ancient female ef a postoffice employee yesterday. Inquiring her name, the obliging it the old lady drew a long breath, and believe I will take it," walked out, leaving the astoniehed clerk with the voluminous document and hime cent postage bill on Avery's Suit Against Batler.

his lily white hunds, - Cincinnati Break-

WASHINGTON, October 21.-Wm. O. Avery, ex-Chief Clerk of the Treasury Department, who was convicted in St. Louis of complicity in the whiskey frauds to-day entered suit against General B. F. Butler to recover $500 which he alleges he paid Butler as a retainer to defend him, when on trial at St. Louis. Avery claims that Butler did not assist him in any way, and did not make his appearance during the trial, although he repeatedly sent for him, and that as a result he was convicted.

what tender evergreens, if established in they should all die without issue the en-in 8 hours and 36 minutes. The best time

The Baltimore Locomutive Works has to be the largest ever built in this con

Ague, and Liver, Pad the old man had his three-year-old son to-day the boy is called hand to feel his heart, he revived for the som, and speke substantially as follows.', not one perished."