T. K. BOBSON, Editor.

NEW SERIES.

Devoted to Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Foreign and Domestic News, adelphia, Penn."

and indulgent papa to me."

tent to wait till he comes?"

ways love me as now ?"

of the building.

"I hope he will like me, darling."

"Yes, though it is happiness deferred."

to his bosom in the exuberance of his affec-

a square room partitioned off in one corner.

And so the days went on, and Aaron safe must have been picked by skillful

Miss DuBois was early at the store, and

"Don't worry, dearest," she said. "When

"But, Clara, I would not have it appear "Naughty man, hush! Will you not let my father comes I can help you. If this loss cripples you it shall only be for a time."

that I married you for your ---."

What could he say more?

endeavored to console him.

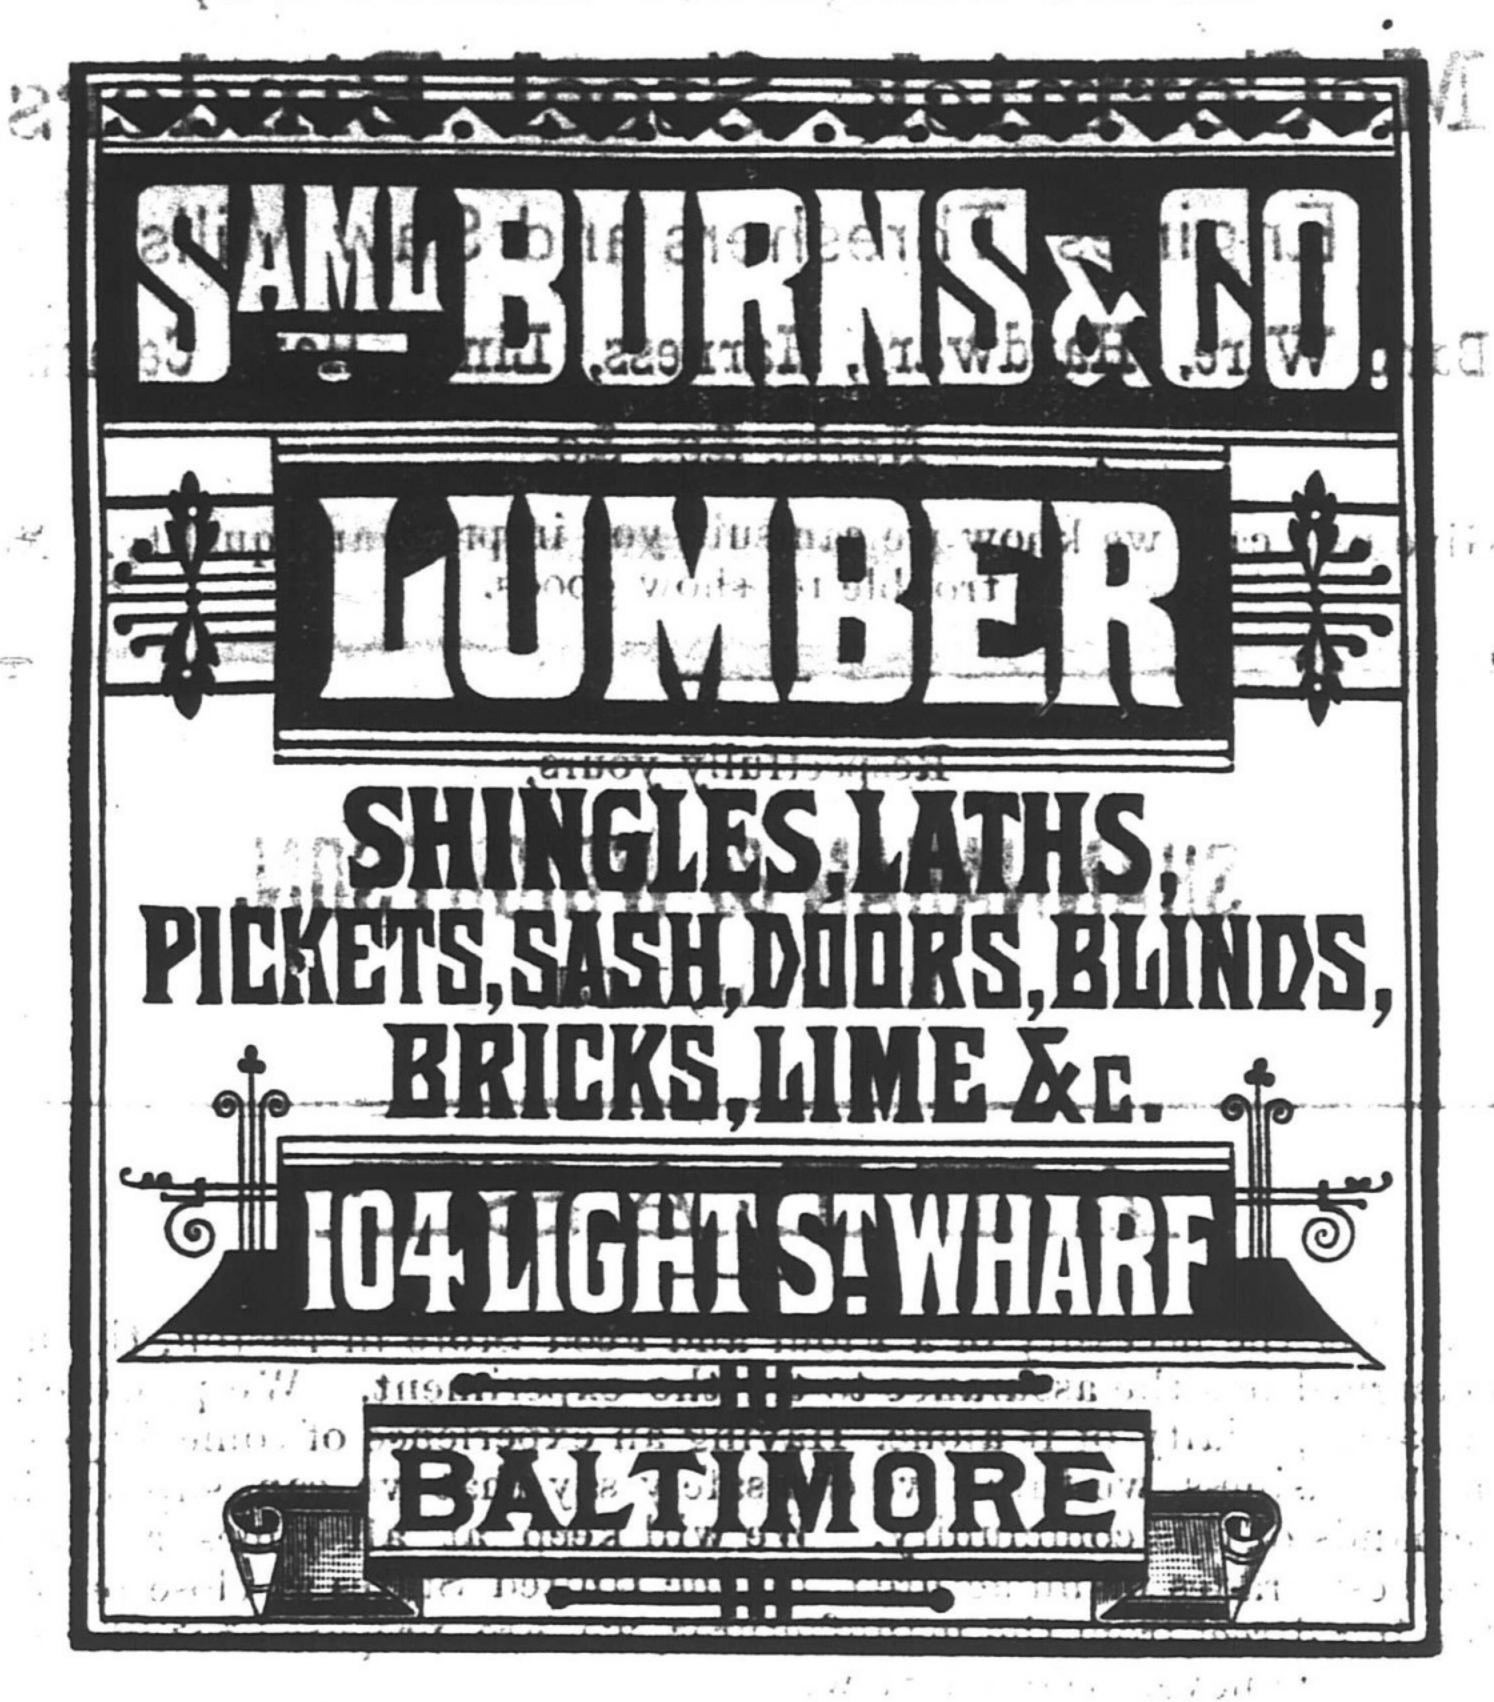

me love you a little."

$1.50 per Annum, if Paid in Advance.

EASTON, MD., TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1886.

Lumber Business.

"说,是,自身都是是是一个一个人,是一个人的一个人,是一个人的一个人,是一个人的一个人,是一个人的一个人,是一个人的一个人,是一个人的一个人,是一个人的一个人, Acme and Disc Harrows,

TUNIS' STEAM SAW & PLANING MILLS.

Pine, Hemlock, Cypress and Oak

ILUNIE EEE

SLINGLES, LATHS, PICKETS, MOULDINGS, CASINGS FRAMES, SASH, DOORS, BLINDS, LIME AND HAIR 50,000 WHITE PINE PEACH BOXES.

We have always on hand a full supply of MARYLAND, VIR- posted as to the merits of GINIA, GEORGIA and WHITE PINE, and HEMLCCK Souvenir only for a short time, an early 7 imber, with racilities unequaled in the State for manufacturing call is an absolute necessity. and filling orders promptly and delivering anywhere. We invite a comparison with city or other dealers. Our constantly increasing business is an evidence of fair prices.

We have also BUILDING HARDWARE and a full line of General Merchandise for country trade. W. W. TUNIS & BRO.,

TUNIS' MILLS, MD.

January 14, 1882-1yr

ILUNIE EIE

--AND--

Building Materials of all Kinds. White Pine & Hemlock Fencing. Celebrated Urquhart Shingles. UPHOLSTERING was LIME, Deliveries made on navigable waters free of freight. Estimate on bill of material furnished at request.

Anthracite and Cumberland Coals, FURNITURE UPHOLSTERING village, and was also our postmaster. A was a man of five and forty round and and FERILIZERS.

ROBERT B. DIXON,

Dover Street, Easten, Md.

GOTOTHE NEW

R. H. T. COUNCELL,

in the STEWART BUILDING, adjoining Masonic Temple, splended tot of New and Fine Furniture from Philadelphia and Baltimore, that is hard to beat, among which you will find Walnut Parlor Suits, Walnut Chamber Suits, Walnut Book Cases, Ladies' Walnut Secretaries, Walnut Hat Racks, Fancy Chairs and Chairs of all descriptions. Painted and Stained Cottage Suits, Bedsteads, Husk, Straw and Woven Wire Mattresses, Wall Brackets, Pockets, &c., Children's Carriages, Picture Frames, and Moulding to make to order, Window Cornices cheap, Looking Glasses and Plates. Come and see for yourselves, and you will be politely waited on by myself or my son Willie. REPAIRING done promptly by a practical Cabinet-Maker. UNDERTAKING!

Having just received a new and fine Hearse, of the latest style, made to order, with an extra set of white cloth-curtains for young persons, and a new and complete assortment of Caskets and Cottins, of Cloth, Rose Wood and Walnut, Children's Caskets of P. K. and White Gloss Finished, also Burial Robes for Ladies, Gentlemen and Children, everything else necessary. I am now prepared to fill any order for burial that may be entrusted to me. Bodies placed on ice when desired. Guarantee satisfaction in every respect, as I expect to attend all business entrusted to me in person.

Done in all its branches by day or contract. As I am Sole Agent for John Lucas' Ready-Mixed Pure Oil and Tinted Gloss Paint, I can offer inducements to persons wishing work done. I have painted a large number of houses in Easton with this paint since I have been using it. I give a few names of the persons upon whose houses this paint has been used;

Chas. T. Wrightson, I have on hand a good assortment of Mixed Paint, in Pints, Quarts and One-Half Julius W. Johnson, J. Geter Stevens, Gallons. All work in this branch will be done with despatch and in a good manner by myself or my son Charlie.

I WILL NOT CARRY AND OTHER Customers we shall present for a short time a genuine Stem-winding Water-

WATER, to every Cash Purchaser of Pratt and Hanover Streets, BALTIMORE. Samples sent by Mail on Application. .

Important Notice Hotels, Boarding Houses and Private Families.

ton Market House, at the following pares our house in Philadelphia. If he can Beef, from 8c to 18c per pound. Pork, from 8c to 12½c per pound. Mutton, from 5c to 15c per pound. Sausige, from 10c to 121c per pound. forn Beef, 10c per pound. Pork supplied in any quantity desir-

All Meats first-class. Mince Meat furnished in quantities to suit, and in quality that cannot be surpassed in this market. The highest cash price paid for beeves mutton and porkers. The public's obedient servint. HENRY NICHOLS.

dec1,85tf

THOMAS F. EATON respectfully informs the citizens of Easton and vicinity that he has com-

Business in Easton, in the rear of looking and had been a widower ten years. Messrs. John Mason & Son's furniture Mattresses, Cushions, Sofa Pillows, &c., specialties. Old Mattresses made over, and war- the marriageable young ladies of the village; He has had seven years' experience and a certain power he did certainly pos-in the business in the city, and can do sess, for in addition to his possible good the finest work in the most fashionable looks, he was wealthy—that is wealthy as Prices moderate. A call is solicited. | compared with other people in the village. |

Inquire at Messrs. Mason's office.

parlor, where he had been playing chess,

R. J. TRIPPE'S

You'll hardly believe it, 'twas then The handsomest one in the store. There's nothing I own in the word That I am so certain to miss; I've parted with two-legged friends With far less regret than with this.

Select Poetry.

THE OLD PIANO.

What joys it recalls of the past, What moments of rapturous ease: When delicate hands that I loved Rose, quivered, and died on the air And life was a story in song, Untouched by the shadow of care.

What visions of suppers it brings; More jolly, I fancy, than wise, When radiant bachelor swells Swarmed in for a merry surprise. Then chorus and song, till at last Wine clouded the talents of each. And musical lunacy came To finish it all in a screech.

What dreams of the dances now fled

We waltzed with the daintiest girls,

When, brighter to us than the stars

Who did not "object to cigars." Rare plans for the future we laid, We thought not of sorrow or loss. But whirled in swift circles of bliss To the magical measures of Strauss. You've answered to many a touch,

And sounded full many a tune; December hath brought you its wreat! And summer sent roses of June; You've witnessed the rise and fall Of many old friendships and new, But out of my feeling for all, Old friend, I've the deepest for you Select Story.

OUR VISITOR. her particularly because she was alone, be-

To introduce our Clothing to New was very pretty. She appeared to be a young lady of two or three and twenty, slightly above the medium height, of perfect form-that is if you can admit that perfect health and vigor may go with perfect form-with large piercing black eyes, and a wealth of raven tresses floating over her shoulders. She was habited in a neat and for her signature. She nodded pleasantly -nodded with a smile that completely capa very pretty Italian hand, wrote her name -"Miss Clara Dubois, Philadelphia, Penn.

comfortable and agreeable.

to play with her.

them at the chess-board.

accepted. He managed to keep the secret, mers, and even generous.

cess. On the morrow he would set forth Later, as the landlord politely escorted again, hoping that, in the meantime, he her to the supper-room, she informed him might receive favorable answers to some of holding out, it naturally suggested itself to that she had heard of his house—that it was the stage arrived that evening and the family to call on their Congressman, well, by Jove, the old man agreed, and tugging at my coat, determined to get the quiet and well-kept and that she had come for a short rest and respite from the din and old gentleman, with white hair and beard, families of voters in his district, turmoil of the great city. And then, with and wearing an enormous pair of green turmoil of the great city. And then, with and leaving an enormous pair of green the floor, he sweetest smile imaginable, she added: "As I am alone and a stranger, I ought, heavily upon his stout, oaken staff, hobbled thing of the whole lot came to me. There's house for three years on the terms I have stared wildly at him, took a drink of water, perhaps, to say just a word of myself. My mother is not living. My father and I have register in a trembling, straggling hand: "Dr. Sethpus, N. Y." lately returned from a European tour, and I sell ments, at his stall in the Eas- have sought this quiet retreat while he preleave his business he may, in the course of a

When the tea-bell sounded, he stood in hall, and watched while the guests entered the supper-room. The landtord came to wait upon him. few weeks, come up after me." "Landlord, who is that young lady who The good host was grateful for the inforjust went in with your store-keeper?" mation and was very glad the young lady

"That is Miss DuBois." had honored his house by her presence. He "I thought so. Egad, her father and I would do what he could to make her stay were old friends, and I have petted her ere Very soon Miss DuBois became acquainted with the guests of the house, and proved recognize me."

erself as intelligent and entertaining as she "Certainly." was pretty. She played upon the piano-And Dr. Sethpus was seated directly opforte, but did not sing. She played chess, posite the fair visitor. If he watched her too; there was only one party in the house sharply and studied her carefully, she did The days passed on and Miss DuBois favorably of what she saw. Her usual

a jaunty Swiss hat, and very few men met | her on the street who did not turn to take a Boarding at the hotel was Mr. Aaron ed them. The first two seated themselves as such is worth visiting. This cemetery | Huntly. He kept the principal store in the | a free-and-easy suit of blue flannel, had terv. He was a tender-hearted man, albeit a little stopped upon the threshold and was standself-sufficient and important; but he was iming in the open doorway. pressible and gallant, and he could unbend to the softer sex. In fact, he quietly enjoyed what he conceived to be his power over were compressed and pale.

He had been a successful trader, and he had been careful of his money, which he wor-with Miss DuBois. He was a very fair play- lifted off, the green spectacles and the white of the Chief Justice in Ohio hearing that not are such that we lead a more or less artificame off winner, though it is doubtful if he keen-eyed man of about forty.

length that almost every evening found were upon her before she could do any mist curiosity moved some one to open the box, whole system. chief, and had a sharp furious struggle-s and it was discovered to hold this memorial Miss DuBois. A score, at least, of the young were upon her wrists. ly showed that the genial merchant was her struck that all power of defending his pro- Howard Payne, the author of Home, Sweet -Palmer Journal.

she was among the most devout of the ed, "why do you treat a lady thus?"

pany of Mr. Huntly, and it is not to be won-"A lady! That's good! Say, you are She was pretty, she was intelligent, and she | Asron Huntly, ain't ye?" "And was robbed last night?"

> "Y-e-s, sir." "Well, I am Captain Joyce, of the New ion of yours has been giving me considera- Home." ble of waltz lately as he can tell you."

for four-and-twenty hours, and then he let it out to the landlord, and was congratulat- Jack?" He was smiling and gracious to his custo-on that very day be had mailed the letter nine masquerade. Oh! he's a keen one, he same grave, covered by a plain block of coladdressed to "Col. Charles H. Dubois, Phil- is, sir; but I tancy we'll sing him a song of ored marble, with a simple inscription. A clergyman in a Southern State was on Sing Sing now, and, if I ain't greatly out Lorenzo Dow, the Sam Jones of a by-gone his way to preach a funeral sermon. As we will find your money for you." "And," pursued Clara, with emotion, "1 know he will like you. He has been a kind regained his ten thousand dollars, though it fied by his directions to have an eccentric and stopped him, saying, as they had just

"Oh, I know he will. You will be con-"Ah! Aaron, do you think you will al-"Always, dearest!" And he pressed her

If you have a cough or cold, do not dose cemetery. yourself with poisonous narcotics, but take Red Star Cough Cure, which contains no store, and, in her playful, happy way, she assisted often in the post-office, which was

Members of Congress as Servants of the People. Members of Congress sometimes receive Huntly was certainly the happiest man in

QUEER REQUESTS.

very ludicrous requests fram their constitu- man entered our counting-room in response the village. But one morning a thunder ents. There seems to be a class of people to an advertisement far an assistant shipping clap fell upon him. He went to his store who regard the Congressman as filling an clerk. He told the usual tale of how he deand found the rear door ajar. He went to ornamental place at Washington, with noth- sired a position more than wages for the his safe and found that it had been opened, ing to do, and if they call him for a little job times being, and was willing to accept a ing upon his brow, and they began to whisand the money all taken—the savings of now and then it is, in their opinion, clearly nominal salary to start in on. The old man per to each other that Mr. Him must be his duty to comply. Browne, of Indiana, was feeling in particularly good humor that In anticipation of his marriage, Mr. Hunt- has a district of this kind, and as he makes afternoon, and said pleasantly to the new ly had thought of purchasing a house and it a point to be very accommodating—to his comer. he had drawn five thousand dollars from the constituents—he is frequently in request for | "Well, sir, what would you consider a to be preached. Just before entering Mr. pose. Then he had three thousand dollars district wrote that he was particularly anx- ing to accept in beginning?" been about two thousand dollars of governt could be had somewhere in Italy. This replied: ment money in his keeping. It was just at Hoosier modestly asked his Congressman to | "I want to show you, sir, that I mean creature a cruel kick, which sent him off the close of the postal quarter, and the post- ascertain the precise spot in Italy where this business, and I will work for one cent for howling. When the minister reached the masters of several adjacent villages having fowl existed, and having done this to get the remainder of this month, provided you pulpit—one of those old-fashioned affairs no safes of their own, had entrusted their the State Department to order the United think it would not be too much to double ascended by a short, steep flight of stairs returns in his hands. So that fully ten thous- States consul there, or nearest, there, to send my salary each month thereafter." and dollars had been stolen from the safe. on some eggs. The shrewd Hoosier said not "That's a novel proposition, surely," said about to commence his duties when the

For a time Huntly was like one distract a word about expense. He thought the the old man with a smile. "Do you know, sexton, a good old man, came noiselessly up ed, but he had sense enough to make his State Department might bear the expense what you are talking about, my dear boy? the steps with a slip of paper in his hand, she landed at the one hotel of our quiet village on a Saturday morning. We noticed village on a Saturday morning. We noticed loss known at once to the sheriff, and the village on a Saturday morning. We noticed which he wished to give the minister, but officers, with a pusse, was soon on the search. and that his Congressman could afford to the business," responded the young fellow, who was unnoticed by that gentleman, It had been an adroit robbery and in the send the eggs the remainder of the distance, and I would almost be willing to work for though seen by all the congregation. He outset the searchers had no possible clue. Another Congressman was requested by a nothing, but I'd like to feel and be able to gently twitched his coat to attract his atten-Both the lock of the door and the lock of termine the mineral value of land. The know." hands, for neither of them was injured in the he believed, or hoped, contained mineral and "One cent, two cents, four cents, eight, sixhe didn't want to go to the cost of having teen," he enumerated. "You won't get possession of the sausage before the whole when she had heard of her lover's loss she

the matter settled. He wrote that he had much for awhile," he added. "heerd the guvernent hired men rite along". He took him up to the cashier. "This He thought it quite likely that these men Double it every month from now on." amine his land.

Another M. C. had a letter from his dis- John Smith. Evening came, but not a trace of the burglar. The sheriff had hit two or three possible trails, but they had led to no suc made over after long use. The material not ment?" When the stage arrived that evening ad whose whole duty in life was to oblige the young Mr. Smith, on pretence of wanting sausage from my pecket."

spectacles. was helped out, and, leaning remarked Senator Beck, "the biggest fool that he had guaranteed a position in the and the minister at a glance took it all in, into the hall. He signed his name upon the a fellow out in Kentucky, and he's a good stated. friend of mine, too, who writes to me now He worked along for six months withou ed with consternation.—[Editor's Drawer, and then when he wants anything. He's drawing a cent. He said he would draw all in Harper's Magazine for January. nobody's fool either. He's got good sense. his earnings Christmas. The cashier one day Well, he wrote me the other day that a thought he'd figure up how much would be not notice it; for at the beginning of the | Washington has one of those cemeteries walked much in and about the village. She meal she was very busy talking to her com- pronounced by people with that taste for around, her vis-a-vis had concluded his earth," and to which strangers are carried walking habit was a dress of black silk, and study, and was watchful only of his plate, and expected to rhapsodize over the forest of When the meal was finished, Miss DuBois monuments, with all their painful and untook Mr. Huntly's arm and retired to the pleasant recollections. But in Oak Hill parlor, and presently afterward the white there is at least the interest attaching to the haired man named Doctor Sethpus, tollow- resting-place of the distinguished dead, and He upon the sofa, and the latter took a seat on in Georgetown, which is technically a part was a man of five and forty, round and good- a chair between them and the door, and at of Washington, and is four or five miles as the same time, a stout, dark-faced man, in the crow flies from the Congressional Ceme-

> Frederick to inspect hound pups!" Loveliest Spot on Earth.

> Here lies the body of Chief Justice Chase. No man, so honored in life was ever more Miss DuBois saw these two men-saw the neglected in death. When he died he own-"Look, my dear, and see if you don't retention bestowed on it by Ex-Gov. Cooke's doage in Chic member me." With this the white wig was orders, quite neglected. Some of the friends favorite. With him she went to a pic-nic, mised wife was lost to him; and he did not Home. More than fifty years ago he had and with him she went to church, where even recover his power of speech until the been the friend of Mr. W. W. Corcoran, the ignoble irons had been snapped upon her George Peabody of Washington. Payne, it simple, practical plan, is a useful body back to this country and erecting a which will be of permanent, value to the monument over it. It was placed in Oak participants. There should be a Farmer's Hill cemetery, near the main entrance, and Club in every farming community. on the noble monument is inscribed: "John York detective force; and this fair compan- Howard Payne, author of Home, Sweet

Mr. Corcoron himself has a plot here. where he the remains of his only child, who "Yes, sir, he. Didn't ye ever hear of one died in her early womanhood. A circular Jack," answered Mr. Huntly, wonderingly. M. Stanton, the Secretary of War. Whether very careful, John." "Well," returned Captain Joyce, "here Mr Stanton committed suicide or not has we have him as large as life and he would never been conclusively proved. His wife "we cannot be married yet awhile." For be full as natural if it wasn't for this femi-did not long survive him, and they lie in the be able to do without is power.

day, also sleeps in Oak Hill. The strength he was passing the house of a widow lady, And so Aaron Huntly lost a wife; but he of the ruling passion in death was exempli- a member of his congregation, she ran out was a long, long time before he regained epitaph on his tombstone, but instead is put staughtered their hogs, she had put up a anything like his old pride and self-compla- a commonplace verse from a commonplace few pounds of sausage as a present, adding cency, for he had, indeed, for four weeks, hymn. Among the last to be placed there that, as she had put it in double paper been wasting the love of his tender heart is the wife of ex-Attorney-General Brews- pockets, she thought it would not soil his upon one of the most accomplished rogues fer, who left Washington only a year ago, clothes. He thanked her earnestly for her that ever crossed the Atlantic to America. | the picture of health and beauty, to be kindness, and rode on, having put the parbrought back to tenant a grave in the old cel in his packet.

HIS LITTLE GAME,

THE YOUNG MAN WHO WASN'T PARTICULAR ABOUT WAGES.

An Agreement Which Proved a Disastrous One for His Employer-He Tries Mis Gaine Elsenhers. Year before last a bright-looking young bank in a neighboring town for that purpersonal favors. Recently a voter of his nominal salary? What would you be will laid aside for the purchase of goods for the ious to procure a certain species of fowl, and The young man picked at the lining d fall trade, and in addition to this there had after diligent inquiry he had learned that it his hat with his fingers, and deferentially constituent to send out a man who could de- say that I was earning something, you tion. A thrill of hornor passed over the writer of this letter had some lands which "I'll take you," remarked the old man.

who could accurately determine the amount John Smith," he said. "He will go to work struck the old man in the breast, who rolled and quality of minerals in land, "jess as as as as assistant shipping clerk tomorrow down the steps. ezy," he wrote, "as I kin tell the time a'day." His salary will be one cent this month. were not busy all the time and that his Con- In consideration of my working for this gressman might have one sent out to ex- small salary might I ask you to assure me a position for a definite period?" inquired trict enclosing a scrap of dress goods which "We don't usually do that," replied the age of sausage for me to carry home in my the writer wanted him to match in Wash. governor; "but we can't loose much on you, pocket; but ever since I dismounted from ington. The original had been bought very anyhow, I guess, and you look like an hone my horse this old dog"—pointing behind to many years ago, and was perhaps being est fellow. How long do you want employ the prostrate sexton, but without looking

"Three years, sir, if agreeable to you." length came into the pulpit, and has been some evidence of stability of his place, got At this moment the sexton, a little stun-man, some friend of his living in Frederick, coming to the young man. He grew so ining John Smith's salary.

positions they had taken—and her teeth ed not a foot of ground suitable for his bur- how much would be due him, and reminded the skin are the ruling classes. young man at once. Smith had figured up that the people whose veins show through came together with a snap, and her lips ial place, nor did his daughter, Mrs. Kate the old man of his written agreement. Rath-Chase Sprague, buy it for him. Ex-Gov. er than take chances in courts and let every-"Sir," said she, addressing the white-hair. Henry D. Cooke, the Washington banker, body know how he had been duped, the ed man, "you stare at me as though you had owned a lot in Oak Hill, and offered a rest- governor paid Smith $5,000 and bade him nounced in the Albany Court today met me before." And as she spoke her right ing place to the dust of the great jurist. good-bye. I've heard he tried the same that he had been approached by Superinhand stole down by her side toward the There he was buried, and for years his grave pocket of her dress.

There he was buried, and for years his grave dodge in Chicago after leaving here.—Courtiary, with an offer of $50 apiece for each and she was skillful. Sometimes he beard removed, revealing a compact, sinewy even the plainest stone commemorated his cial existence; the business requirments of grave, combined and bought a block of plain men, and the rate of high living universal On the next instant Miss DuBois had a granite, with the name and age of the Chief among the better classes, tax both the musthrough the kind suffrage of his antagonist. pistol in her hand, and was cocking it; but Justice on it. It got lost on the way to colar and the nervous systems. Hoyal El. it And so the village store-keeper and the the man in the chair and the man in the Washington and remained for several years IXIB counteracts this. It regulates the bow. and so the village store-scepet and it came at door had both been watchful of her. They boxed up in a freight warehouse. At last els, purifies the blood, and invigorates the

Let it not be thought that Mr. Huntly struggle in which the two strong men had stone. It was then forwarded and certain. Will the Florida editor who sent us an was the only man who sought the society of severe work to do—a pair of ratchet irons persons, rather than apply to Mrs. Sprague specimen of mistietoe with instructions to like for money, paid out of their own pockets the hang it up and kiss the first pretty girl what Mr. Huntly for the second time that day, small cost of putting the stone in position. | stepped under it, please call on us? We Free from was kind and gracious to all, but she plain- had been thunderstruck, so completely Here also lies buried the body of John have recovered, and would like to see him.

> A good Farmer's Club conducted of "In the name of mercy," he at length gasp- Tunis. He had often expressed a wish that ables men to sharpen their wits and brighthis bones might rest in his native land. en their minds by rubbing against each others. Three years ago Mr. Corcoran carried out a er in friendly discussions, and a great deal long-cherished design of bringing Payne's of information may be elicited in this way and sleep on a damp mountain for twenty? in a store that did not advertise.—Rambler John Roberts, otherwise called Liverpool temple in the severest style of Greek art, is I am to take all that medicine ? Wifethe family monument of the Corcorans, and "Yes, dear." Bick Husband wWhy there "I have read in the papers of a big re- under the flor lie the custing. Gen, Reno's is enough in that bottle to kill a mule." ward having been offered for Liverpool tomb, is conspicuous and also that of Edwin Wife (anxiously)—"Then you had better be

All the time he was officiating at the grave a large, half-starved hound kept snuffing around him, sometimes approachling alarmingly near, attracted by the scent of the fresh meat. As the deceased was a man of some prominence, there was a considerable crowd collected, and great mourning and lamentation came from the family group; so no one paid any attention to the movements of the animal, but all noticed with concern-for he was beloved, by his congregation-the great pallor of the clergyman, and the beads of perspiration stand-

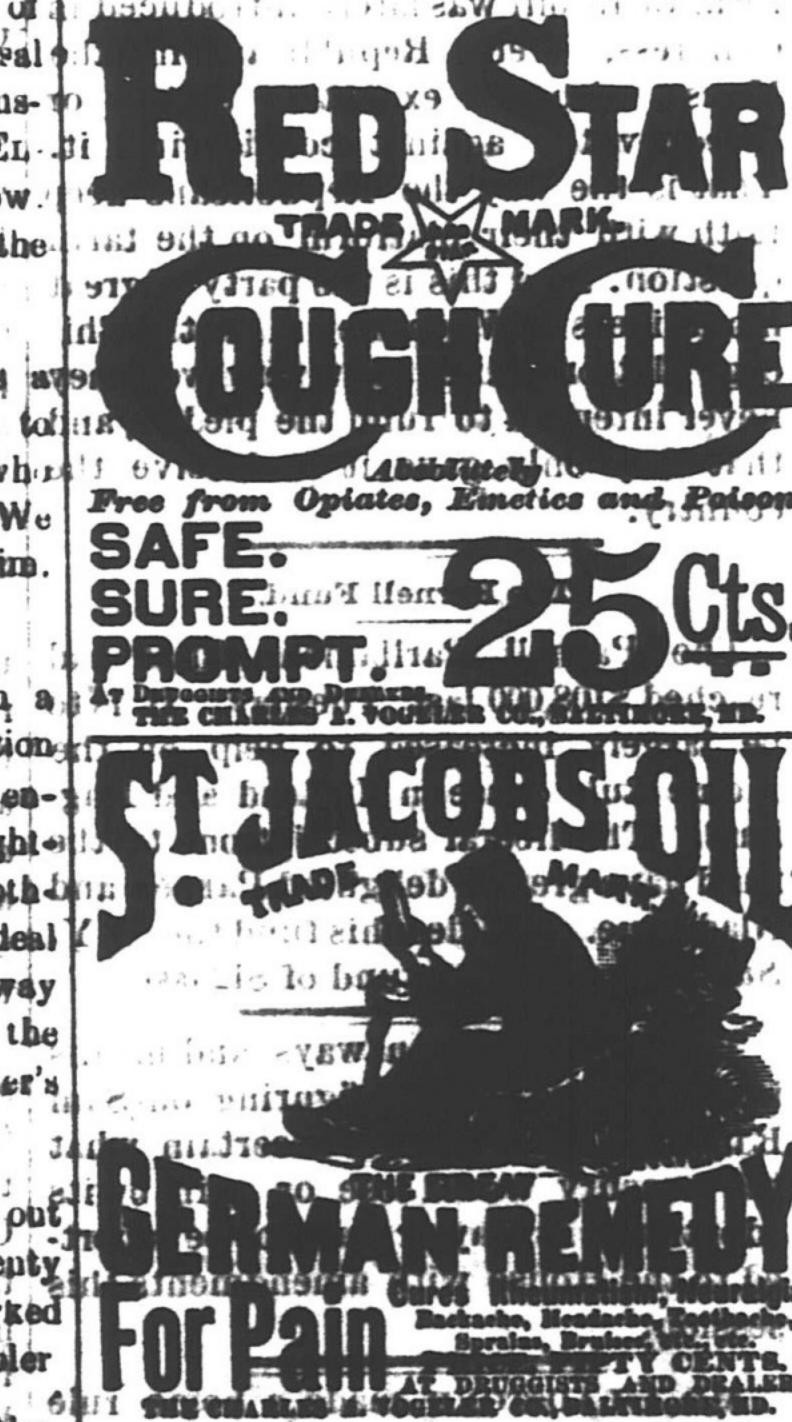

After the interment they all proceeded to the church, where the futieral sermon was H---- turned round to ascertain the whereabouts of his tormentor, when lo! there he was, not far from him, but the crowd prevented him from appreaching too closely. Just at this moment some one gave the poor he breathed more freely. He was just unhappy, preacher at the dreadful thought that the dog had entered unseen in the crowd, and was now about to take forcible assembly; so, hoping to drive him away, he kicked báck cautiously but vigorously, and

Seeing the look of surprise and lalarm on the faces of the audience, he stammered out with crimson face: "I must explain to you, my brethren, what must seem my intemperate conduct. A friend came out to me, as I was passing her house, with a small packround-"has been following me, and at turned very pale, and sat down, overwhelm-

Blue Blooded People. The term "blue blood," from the Spanish Md., had promised him two bound pups. terested in the project that he kept multi- phrase "sangre azu," is much used without He wanted me to go up there—only two or plying for the three years. The result all a very clear idea of its signification. The three hours' ride, he said—and examine the most staggered him. This is the column of real meaning is—not that the blood itself is pups. If they had certain marks and their figures he took to the old man. First month, blue (excepting that all venous blood has a ears are just so long and I didn't know how .01; second, .02; third, .04; tourth, .08; fifth, bluish tinge)—but that the person or class many other things, then he wanted them | .16; sixth, .32; seventh, .64: eighth, $1.28; to whom the term is applied have skins so now. I wish you would let me have a seat and I was to send them to him. If they ninth, $2.56; tenth, $5.12; eleventh, $10 - white and transparent that the veins show didn't have these marks they were not the 24; twelfth, $20.48; thirteenth, $40.96; blue through them, and this is taken as a kind he wanted. Now that's a pretty re- fourteenth, $81.92; fifteenth, $163.84; six- certain indication that the class or persons quest, ain't it? I see myself going up to teenth, $827.68; seventeenth, $655 86; eigh- thus designated are without an admixture of teenth, $1,311.72; nineteenth, $2,628.54; races. Any one who has traveled in Spantwentieth, $5,247.08; twenty-first, $10,494, ish-American countries, or in Spain, where 16; twenty-second, $20,988.32; twenty-third, the term originated, would see at once its $41,976,64; twenty-fourth, $82,958 28; twen- applicability. The descendents of the ty-fifth, $165,906.56; twenty-sixth, $331, Gothic conquerors of Spain retain to this seemed interested in the place, and spoke panion, and when she found leisure to look gruesome things to be "the loveliest spot on 813.22; twenty-seventh, $663,626.24; twenty-seventh, $663,62 ty-eighth, $1,327,352,48; twenty-ninth, $2,- the white, transparent skin, blue eyes and 654,504.96; thirtieth, $5,608.009.92; thirty- auburn or tawny hair, and their veins show first, $8,618,017.84; thirty-second, $17,236; blue through their cuticle; but in case of an 039.68; thirty-third, $34,472,078.38; thirty- admixture of African or Moorish blood the fourth, $68,944,156.72; thirty-fifth, $137,- blue blood (veins) gradually disappears, un-888,313.44; thirty-sixth, $275,776,626.88; til in the case of a great preponderance of total salary for three years, $552,554,253.- The latter races the veins show merely as ridges. Tourists in Mexico will notice this The governor nearly fainted when he un- peculiarity in all Mexican cities, as well as derstood how, even if he was twice as rich in the haciendas throughout the country, on as Vanderbilt, he would be ruined in pay- account of the great admixture of Indian (Aztec, Toltec, and Tlascalan) blood in the He concluded to discharge the modest population, and everywhere they will find

Attempting to Bribe a Judge,

bot doubtyl alloutatme in the lebu