Threw Voice And Scare Ocean City-Two veteran boat skippers, captains Richard and Curtis Carpenter, cut short a fishing trip with visiting anglers when the fish brought in started to talk. When a flounder said it was the first time he had seen daylight and a trout objected to lying with a captured sea bass the captains headed for shore to get their mental bearings. The joke was on them when they learned that one guest was a professional ventriloquist who put words in the mouths of men and fish.
