Leave Office. Arrive. | Leave Off. Arrive. | green trees, torn up by the roots, cars, at $8,000 or $10,000. Fifty persons | The iron bridge over the Little will be thrown out of employment. | Antietam between Chewsville and

R HISTORY.

with apprehensions of a freshet, before the weather would change to fair

weather would pear

weather would pear

weather would pear

weather the creek would pear

weather would pear

weather the creek would pear

in the flood in this place and vicinity

monotonous story of unprecedented and settled. On Friday of last week ago that the creek would near law week ago that the creek wo masses, lowering until they seemed to man in a boat could put his hand loss of several houses, a barn, &c., broad volumes. All day they continued to come, growing denser and swifter, and at three in the afternoon swifter, and at three in the afternoon at the fact. Both river and creek arose swifter, and at three in the afternoon the showers came down, one after another, with but slight intermission.

The day closed the fact. Both river and creek arose to an astonishing height, and one that the multitudes who witnessed it can never forget. The day closed to the expectation of $2,000.

The day closed the fact. Both river and creek arose to an astonishing height, and one that the multitudes who witnessed it can never forget. The day closed to the expectation of $2,000.

The day closed to the expectation of $2,000.

At Mercerville, Henry S. Eavey's a washout two miles in length has from Georgetown on Wednesday for The day. Each succeeding downpour seemed can never forget. The day closed two warehouses, valued at $5,000, a washout two miles in length has a tour of inspection along the canal. The Shepherdstown bridge, over all the low bottom land, up to the It would be impossible even at about $18,000.

ges, on horseback, on bicycles, on DAMAGES AT AND AROUND WIL- Loss $3,000. foot. The banks and hills were ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES OF witnessing the scene before them. their loss at from $2,000 to $2,500, destroyed. mails are as follows, until further notifrom the pulp mill, seven miles above; barrels, tubs, casks, pieces of furnturn at the scene before them. their loss at from $2,000 to $2,500, destroyed.

All sorts of articles float by: pulp in fertilizers, grain and salt. Forty barrels, tubs, casks, pieces of furnturn at the little Antictam, at Keedysville turn at this place attained a height of 7 feet 3 inches over any previous flood within the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant."

The river at this place attained a height of 7 feet 3 inches over any previous flood within the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant."

Phenomenon Goetz, of the Bellows. Roth and Ash, Star Route, leaves postomice on week at 1 P. M. coming 'round the bend, far up the aggregate $2,000.

OFFICE HOURS

ONE 1. M. 6.20 P. M. 7.15 P. M. one espies a huge, dark object, just coming 'round the bend, far up the river, and all eyes turn toward it. It

Mr. F. H. Darby is unable at this

The wooden bridge at Greensburg from the wooden bridge at Greensburg from the second successful to the second su B. F. Grose, Jr., Postmaster. A another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be Five hundred dollars will replace A HARRY E. RICKARD, Local Editor. ine them. Fortunately, they are un- Mr. Frank Goddard's brickyard the Raven Rock road. WHAT A FLOOD! The throngs watch these passing cabins that were so lately the homes of parents and children! Perhaps, beneath vonder roof, on vesterday there. LIFE AND PROI'ERTY years. Like Noah's ark, these houses river. Swept Along by the Resistless Tide

| Swept Along by the Resistless Tide | South, the eye can with difficulty | Considerable injury was sustained about two miles above this place, | Considerable injury was sustained | Stated that the suffering along the | Ind., who was in Baltimore yesterday, | visions and clothing which the doto the stone bridge over the Antietam | about two miles above this place, | at Fankstown. | Tide | Considerable injury was sustained | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | about two miles above this place, | at Fankstown. | Tide | Considerable injury was sustained | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | about two miles above this place, | at Fankstown. | Tide | Considerable injury was sustained | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | about two miles above this place, | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | about two miles above this place, | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | about two miles above this place, | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | the Chesapeake & Ohio canal | judic iously. | Tide | Considerable injury was sustained | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | the Chesapeake & Ohio canal | judic iously. | Tide | Considerable injury was sustained | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | the Chesapeake & Ohio canal | judic iously. | Tide | Considerable injury was sustained | to the stone bridge over the Antietam | the Chesapeake & Ohio canal | the Chesapeake & Ohio can centers upon the building along and the contents, were swept away in their contents, were swept away in the property and the contents, were swept away in the contents in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content in the content in the content in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be suffering. Homes have been away, and the people have nothing four form to destroy of the triples and the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content in the content in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content in the content in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content is proper site and one abutment is destroyed. These damages can be content in the content is content in the content in the content in the content is content in the content in the content in the

Two skiffs, each with two young men of Mr. Melchor Norris was moved of debris. He concedes the outlook The town council of this place from Catonsville, Md.; trunk and in it, put off to reach the floating from its foundation and its contents to be gloomy for the maintenance of held a meeting on Saturday night box of clothing from Pope & Janney. A SUMMARIZED REPORT OF part of the warehouse and carry away practically destroyed. the chairs packed in it. All eyes The houses of Messrs. Wm. Bonz- it will be out of the question to re- exigencies of the flood, and in con- of clothing, shoes, &c., from Balti-

that the Potomac river was rising rapidly; so, also, the Conococheague Then they returned by the thousand. Then they returned by the thousand. The streets of town and every availating the Sabbath. The streets of town and every availating the streets of the streets of town and every availating the streets of the streets of town and every availating the streets of the streets o rapidly; so, also, the Conococheague creek. Men were at the telephone of fice, with anxious looks, inquiring for newsfrom Cumberland. Still it rained. About ten at night the torrents fell as though poured from a vast fell as though poured from a vast of the suffer state of the property in saw mill, canal boats, and spent the day upon the basin or reservoir in great dashes of water, and this continued—now and the continued—now are fifteen feet or more, and the dam-which was lost; Sheriff Gatrell lost from this point $2,000 worth of completely filled with mud' sand and different feet of the completely filled with mud' sand and different feet of the confusion.

The streets of town and every availations from this point $2,000 worth of completely filled with mud' sand and different feet of the flow of the serious damage has been done the growing wheat by the rainstorm, and thorrible disaster which beful that can be confusion.

The pulp mill at Dam No. 5 is safe, but will lose several thousand dollars on pulp, cord wood, etc., more profound regret among our peodicity.

An immense box of supplies for the sufferers of the flood at this place. water, and this continued—now en fifteen feet or more, and the damwhich were swept down the river. ple than the drowning of Theodore the sufferers of the flood at this place. The public roads throughout the pouring—now letting up—shower age to the town and vicinity began to he apparent Fields of grass and A quantity of pulp which was con- Embrey Wolf, a son of Mr. Louis R. arrived here yesterday from Chambers of grass and hereby washed, and a number of small bridges have been carried upon shower—until long after midupon shower—until long after midgrain law buried in mud Houses

A quantity of purp which was contained in cars at this place ready for Wolf, this place, on Saturday afterof citizens of that place. The hor

Saturday morning came in with a dull, leaden sky, overshadowed by long lines of broken cloud; and men Wreck and ruin were all around.

Saturday morning came in with a near the canal, were moved from their foundations—some overturned. Burgan at Dam No. 4 was swept foundation and was floating down Chambersburg, Pa., to ministers of the city of Washington. Part of the river Wolf and Charles Corby all denominations for general distrib long lines of broken cloud; and men and women, who had hurried through several families were in the hills, where they had feel from the rising where the rising whe their breakfasts, were seen hurrying where they had fled from the rising Works at Hancock are badly dam- which was then about two hundred The relief committee desire us to erty along the river front destroyed. to the top of the little knoll that waters the night before. Thus endaged. The workhouse, cooper shop, yards from the shore, and in the vistate that the flood sufferers are parPennsylvania Avenue, the main thoroughfare was a pavigable stream

The canal was no longer visible. and vicinity, and the future is far The unouth of the from cheerful. Our present losses cheague creek, known as the Fairbut was unsuccessful, and Wolf sank perched upon the roof of a house to between $100,000 and $150,000. Conococheague could not be seen. could be repaired in time, as they view bridge, was thrown from the into the wild and turbulent depths, which passed by this place on Satur- In all portions of the valley the roads ble force, whirling and eddying, turble force, whirling and eddying force, whirling and eddying force force, whirling and eddying force fo bulent and restless, yet upon the sur- paired as a water-way. The oppos- Indian Spring district is gone, and recovered on Sunday evening, about terers on Sunday and a considerable ed. In many instances farmers will face, seemingly smooth and calm. It ing interests, which, it is believed, the bridge near David Hull's in the 8.30 o'clock, by Messrs. Bradley amount was raised.

bers from Hagerstown and the sur- this place, county and state. It will All except one span of the stone made in the cemetery here.

LIAMSPORT.

proves to be a small house. Directly time to give an estimate of mis loss, was swept away. Loss $300.

neath yonder roof, on yesterday, there slept a new-born babe. Perchauce, water was running rapidly around One wooden bridge in Beaver The Baltimore Sun of Thursday aid to about thirty families and prolast night some poor boatman and his the house, and they just managed to Creek district and three of the same morning contains the following:

| Mr. F. H. Derby of Williamsport | water was running rapidly around the house, and they just managed to Creek district and three of the same morning contains the following:

| Wr. F. H. Derby of Williamsport | water was running rapidly around the house, and they just managed to Creek district and three of the same williamsport | wided for their immediate necessity.

the main current, and part remaining against the bridge. Bundles of chairs float away. And now occurs will of Mr. Martin Poll o chairs float away. And now occurs mill of Mr. Martin Bell was, also, and Cumberland, and the water-way help. SUSTAIN ENORMOUS DAMAGE the most distressing sight of the day. damaged considerably. The dwelling hand clogged up with all kinds

Iron bridge over Licking creek, quickly lined with people, eagerly Victor Cushwa & Sons, estimate known as Martin's bridge, is totally

The long and frequent rains of seen to fall backward into the great long to the former was lost.

The long and frequent rains of long to the seen to fall backward into the great long to the former was lost.

Masses Staffer & Findles were supplied. May had filled the minds of many o'clock, and the tide is at its greatest comparatively fortunate. It is be-level below Keedy's warehouse; opnight, when it finally ceased raining. grain lay buried in mud. Houses, shipment, was damaged.

The box away. very foot of the hill, extending a half this date to accurately mention the The following bridges were de- boat, throw up his hands and imme- county by the flood will cause an in- The loss to Frederick county in was the calm of majestic power. No- will struggle for its valuable franwhere is one so impressed with a chises, will find in the legal complisense of the tremendous, as when cations growing out of the various pike between Indian Spring and funeral of the deceased took place was the calm of majestic power. No- will struggle for its valuable fransame district was entirely destroyed. Nave and Wm. Zirkle, but a short distance from where it sank. The port last Sunday can be approxible made, but the destruction of crops be made, but the destruction of crops or the same district was entirely destroyed. Nave and Wm. Zirkle, but a short distance from where it sank. The port last Sunday can be approxible made, but the destruction of crops or the same district was entirely destroyed. Nave and Wm. Zirkle, but a short distance from where it sank. The port last Sunday can be approxible made, but the destruction of crops or the same district was entirely destroyed. Nave and Wm. Zirkle, but a short distance from where it sank. The port last Sunday can be approxible made, but the destruction of crops or the same district was entirely destroyed. sense of the tremendous, as when cations growing out of the various pike between Indian Spring and funeral of the deceased took place mately estimated from the fact that and fencing alone is great. The looking down upon the mighty current of a great river at flood-tide. A storm at sea awakens a sense of the storm at sea awakens a sense of awful,—the terrible; an outlook from the canal?" While the future is Little Antietam on the Sharpsburg Rev. C. M. Aurand, conducting the ones coming until late in the evensome lefty mountain peak fills us uncertain, the present must engage and Boonsboro turnpike at Keedyswith the idea of grandeur and greatour immediate attention. Many ville was totally wrecked.

Services. A large concourse was in ing. Some came from as far as attendance at the funeral, thus maniChambersburg and Waynesboro, Pa. ment of vast volumes of water produces an impression of superhuman with the reconstruction of our dam
duces an impression of superhuman with the reconstruction of our dam
duces an impression of superhuman with the reconstruction of our dam
duces an impression of superhuman with the reconstruction of our dam
duces an impression of superhuman with the reconstruction of our dam
duces an impression of superhuman with the reconstruction of our dam
day at the toll gate on the Hagers

day at the toll gate on the Hagers

earnings for the real six months and six months and six day declarearnings for the real six months and six day declarearnings for the real six months and six months and six months and six months are six months and six months and six months are six months are six months are six months and six months are six months.

All six months are six months. duces an impression of superhuman with the reconstruction of our damloss $1,500.

The wooden bridge at Broaden bridge power which we can hardly feel in aged interests. We append, in a The wooden bridge at Broadford- robust manhood, had been with such amounted to over $200. any other way. Soon the news of necessarily abridged form, an ac- ing was carried down the stream, but amazing suddenness transported from Mr. Daniel Donnelly, of Baltimore, Trespass Notice!

creek on Saturday last.

repidly, and in a few weeks everything will again be all right. No mail was received at the postoffice in this place first mail arriving Tuesday morning.

All trains from Baltimore to Williamsport run via the lately formal arriving County National Baltimore National Baltimore of the Wash-ington County National Baltimore of the Baltimore Base Ball Club, witnessed the more Base Ball Club, witnessed the will again be all right. No mail was flood from the "Big Hill" Sunday evening last.

Cash subscriptions for the flood to Cash subscription for the flo

About a mile and a-half away, toward the South, the eye can with difficulty was carried away on Saturday after noun.

The stone bridge over the Antietam at Foundations.

The stone bridge over the Antietam at Rowland's Mill, near Hagers own is badly damaged.

The stone bridge over the Antietam at Rowland's Mill, near Hagers own is badly damaged.

The stone bridge over the Antietam at Rowland's Mill, near Hagers own is badly damaged.

The stone bridge over the Antietam at Rowland's Mill, near Hagers own is badly damaged.

The comberland Valley Railroad's several houses, about three miles below Williamsport, so will be $300,000.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad's of immediate help. At Old Town, blow field-glasses, turn them down the field-glasses, turn them down thing that he owned. Also, houses belonging to William Rockwell, Wm. Hinger and higher the waters arise. The high water mark of other floods of '52 and '77—has long since been passed. It is reported seven feet higher than in '77. Intense interest way.

AND ENGERDALIS THE CANAL All the seven and above this place, about two miles above this place, about two miles above this place. The stone bridge over the Antietam at Rowland's Mill, near Hagers own is badly damaged.

The stone bridge over the Antietam at Rowland's Mill, near Hagers own is badly damaged.

The cumberland Valley Railroad's loss will be $300,000.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad's loss will be $300,000.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad's loss will cover the Little Orleans, Four Locks, Williamsport, Sharpsburg, Mercer, Williamsport NOW LET LOCAL CAPITAL higher than in '77. Intense interest higher than in '77. Intense interest with their contents, were swept away.

The iron bridge at Bowman's mill over the Little Antietam is lying near its proper site and one abutment is tween these points, there is great town, is deserving of special mental destroyed. These damages can be suffering. Homes have been swept town, is deserving of special mental destroyed. centers upon the building along and by the flood between this place and destroyed. These damages can be suffering. Homes have been swept town, is deserving of special men-from the wreck, and start to return, swept away on Saturday. The latter Breaks are reported in the canal as town and other citizens, a committee from the Orphans' Home, Hagers-A PEN PICTURE OF THE FLOOD AT when suddenly a young man sitting managed to save some of the contents follows: About sixty feet at the Big of distribution was appointed, through town.

heavier than the one before it. As with a slight recession of the tide, were taken from their foundations; in occurred. The lift lock above is expected to arrive here to-day. night approached it could be seen and the excited multitudes returned that the Potames vivor was right to their homes to await the Sabbath these were $4,500 worth of wheat Georgetown is ruined. Locks have it is expected to arrive here to-day.

It is claimed that the water in separates the town from the Potomac. ed the flood of '89—a year forever enginehouse and a large quantity of cinity of Collector Spielman's office. ticularly in need of bedsteads, bed-oughfare, was a navigable stream, with heats plying from Second its The scene that met the eye was one memorable in the history of high cement are lost. One of their boats After having filled their skiff with ding and tableware, and donations of with boats plying from Second ito was caught at the Little Pool and chairs, and when about returning to this character will be most thankful- Fourteenth streets. The water reachfour mules drowned. Their loss is shore, Corby observed Wolf, ly received, and properly distributed. ed to the foot of the capital, and fish time to eternity. Interment was and a former resident of Williamsrounding country came pouring into be found as accurate as present par- bridge at Antietam Iron Works, to- Joseph Creager, aged about 80 tor Cushwa, Esq., his check for $50 cording to law. port, has contributed, through Victresspassing on our ands, taking wood, &c., from off the river bottom, will be dealt with according to law.

CHAS. ARDINGER,
VICTOR CUSHWA,
J. SPIELMAN. gether with one abutment,, is gone. years, was drowned in the Antietam for the sufferers at this place.

The buildings of Mr. F. H. Durby, town. The road is being repaired Phenomenon Goetz, of the Belti-another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I another appears, and another. Two but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I a but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I a but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I a but it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I a but it is understood that it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

I a but it is understood that it is understood that it will be boatmen put off in a skiff, and exam-considerable.

helpless family were forced from the escape to a boat before the house material in Boonsboro district are Mr. F. H. Darby, of Williamsport, ties. There is yet need of more pro-Md., who was in Baltimore yesterday, visions and clothing which the do-

Just as we go to press, the follow-.

volving a loss of $13,000.