The Tobacco Union.

Come old and young, and hear me tell, How strong tobacco smokers smell; They love to smoke their pipes so well, That for tobacco they would sell Their right to social Union.

They always scent the atmosphere, And you may know when they are near, Though not a word from them you hear : Their breath grows stronger every year, When in this smoking Union.

.They clean their pipe stems with a wire, And fill the bowl, and put in fire, And smoke till it doth quite expire, And never do they seem to tire In their tobacco Union.

Sometimes from three to six you see Collected in one company And every fellow in good glee When they must have a smoking spree, In this vile smoking Union.

And then the fume and smoke will rise, Like morning mist towards the skies; Then woe to him who has weak eyes, Unless he takes his leave and flies, Away from such a Union. These who in outer darkness lie, May in their error live and die,

Them with the Gospel to supply. When in this smoking Union They keep their money from the poor. And send them hungry from their door Then haste away to some one's store, And spend it for tobacco more. Away with such a Union!

Before such persons e'er will try,

Sometimes within the church you view A person who will sit and chew. And spit upon the floor or pew, Until it spreads a foot or two; And sing of heavenly Union.

Sometimes within their neighbor's door, They cast their quids, some three or four, And spit on carpet, hearth, or floor, A gill, sometimes, or even more.

Oh, that disgusting Union! Ofttimes when in God's church, you'll see, The floor in such a state will be That you can scarcely bow the knee, Though e'er so humble you may be. Pooh, shame on such a Union!

I wonder how such folks can say They have religion ev'ry day, And love the Lord, and love to pray, When they can throw his gifts away, In this tobacco Union.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT. -- A few weeks

CHAPPED HANDS, face, rough skin, pimples, ringworm, salt-rheum, and other cutaneous affections, cured, and the skin made soft and smooth, by using the JUNIPER TAR SOAP, made by CASWELL HAZARD & Co., New York. It is more convenient and easily applied than other remedies, avoiding the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use.

The Household Tonic.

The efficacy of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where this marvelous tonic has borne villiers to Fort d'Issy is complete, and a accident. He put it unloaded into his prescription that produces such beneficial effects in pocket with some cartridges, one of dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as Hostetters Bitters. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "The Bitters are the purer stimulant and safest tonic we have. But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehens than such praise would suply. As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promote of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparatio ever attained the reputation of Hostetter's Bitters. It is human probability will be so for centuries to come. The magnates of science recognize its merits; and that it is enough 'infallible cures' to float a jolly emphatically the medicine of the masses, is proved by its
