Abner Tucker,

Now on a tour for his health, Respectfully informs the Ladies & Gentlemen of Baltimore, that he has brought with him A MODEL IN WOOD, OF THE ANCIENT CITY OF JERUSALEM.

This ingenious piece of mechanism, so universally admired by every person who has seen and heard it explained, is laid out on a scale of sixteen by nine feet. The Lecture upon it is long, and calculated to impress the mind with a solemn awe of the Deity, while we see before our eyes the trial and crucifixion of our Divine Saviour. Those who wish to examine it, will do well to improve the present opportunity, by calling at No. 8, Market-street, where they will be admitted for the moderate sum of 25 cents, children for half price. He can with confidence invite all, and particularly the religious of every denomination to attend his Lectures.

Among other objects worthy of notice, are the seven mountains in the vicinity of the city, and several species of fruit on trees six feet high. He informs the citizens, that his hours of exhibition are from 10 o'clock in the morning, until 10 at night.

BOOT-MAKER, RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and customers, that, having been so unfortunate as to be burnt out, at his former stand in South-street, he has removed his shop to No. 6, same street, and next door but one below Dr. Atkins, where he has on hand a good assortment of Back Strap and Cossack Boots, which owing to the exertion of his fellow-citizens, he has been enabled, with some of his other effects, to preserve. Particular attention will be paid to measure work; also, orders from the country, or for exportation, will be executed with dispatch. He returns his sincere thanks to his former customers for the liberal share of patronage they have afforded him, and hopes to continue to receive it, so long as his disposition to please may merit. To those in arrears, a bare hint he thinks sufficient to convince them of the propriety there would be in the immediate discharge of their accounts, as the loss he has sustained by the aforementioned calamity has been of considerable magnitude.
