Doctor Thomas Hamilton, No 12, HARRISON-STREET, A few doors from Market street, Begs leave to inform his friends and the citizens of Baltimore, and its vicinity, that he practices

MEDICINE, SURGERY, AND MIDWIFERY. DOCTOR HAMILTON flatters himself that he is entitled to the confidence of the public, from his having been in the practice of his profession for above twenty years, he is the greater part of which time his residence was in London, in the vicinity of St. Bartholomew's hospital, where an intimate connexion with the gentlemen of the faculty, to whose care it was entrusted, afforded him very ample opportunities of making himself acquainted with the progressive improvements which have taken place both in medicine and in the performance of SURGICAL OPERATIONS.

Were he not anxious to avoid what might perhaps by some be considered as the boast of an empiric, he could lay before the public sufficient proofs of his medical character, and of the surgical operations he has been in the habit of performing, during his residence in this and the neighboring state (Virginia) for the last seven years.

Thus much he has been induced to say of himself from a conviction, that a medical man, offering himself to the notice of the public, should accompany a claim upon their confidence with the grounds upon which he founds his pretensions. January 7. d4t-2aw4t

INSURANCES UPON LIVES. By the Pelican Life Insurance Company, OF LONDON. The Pelican Life Insurance Company, of London, was established in the year 1797, by a numerous and respectable proprietary, upon an extensive capital, vested in the public funds, with the additional responsibility of every individual proprietor. The board of directors, in consequence of repeated applications on their subject, having determined to extend their engagements to the continent of America, deem it proper briefly to suggest to the citizens of the public, the numerous and important benefits resulting from such an institution to every rank and class of society.

Persons in the receipt of income arising from estates dependent upon life—profits in business—offices, civil or military—by the yearly payment of a moderate premium, may secure at their death an adequate provision for their families, relations or friends. Fines payable on leases, renewable at the death of particular persons, may be provided for by insuring the lives of such persons. Insurance affords the means of reimbursement to those who have contracted upon life-annuities, and in many cases furnishes ample security for the loan of money. Persons entitled to property in expectancy or reversion, or upon attaining a given age, may secure an equivalent, in case their interests should be affected by premature death. In a variety of other instances, and most peculiarly as applicable to persons engaged in commercial pursuits, or in the enjoyment of casual income, this valuable precaution will establish a resource to which families may look with confidence and security, and by which the distresses too often attendant upon human life, may be alleviated or effectually prevented.

The Rates of Premium for such Insurances will be rendered as moderate as possible, and in every instance proportioned to the Age, Health, and other Circumstances of the Life assured.

Persons desirous of proposing Insurances, either upon their own Lives, or the Lives of others in which they are interested, or of obtaining further particulars and information, are requested to apply at the Phenix Fire Office Second-street, where a list of the proprietors may be seen. d4t-eo8t

The Directors of the Library COMPANY of Baltimore, are under the painful necessity of reminding many of the annual contributions, due on the 28th April last: In consequence of which the directors are obliged to obtain money from the banks, when their funds, if paid, would be equal to their expenditures. They have authorized Mr. Samuel French, to call upon those in arrears; and it is confidently hoped, that his application will be attended to. Those who may be found on the list of delinquents, at the meeting of the board on the first Wednesday in February, will be charged with the penalty of one cent per day, from the 8th of May, last constituted. 2aw3w

Mills for Sale.

THESE highly reputed and valuable Mills, situate on the Banks of Hudson river, state of New York, and about six miles from the city. This property comprehends two Grist Mills, with five runs of stones on the most modern and approved principle, together with a complete set of machinery, such as elevators for wheat and flour, conveyors, hopper-bags and screens, agreeably to the latest improvements of Evans's system. The besting Cloths are new, and the whole in excellent repair. Also, a Saw Mill and two Dredging-Houses, commanding a beautiful and romantic view of the Hudson and West-Point; a Coopers' Shop and Dwelling, together with other out-houses and conveniences necessary to render the establishment complete. Likewise, a fall of about thirty feet high, unoccupied, immediately above the present mills, extremely well calculated for a Paper-Mill, or any other factory, without in the least interfering with the other mills. The advantages attending this property are numerous, and of a nature which rarely characterize singular establishments. Situated in the vicinity of so important a market as New-York, and on so respectable a navigation as Hudson river, the only route for the produce of the Northern and Western World, a facility of purchasing the wheat at the mill, and of sending the produce to market, is here experienced to an extent which no other situation can boast of. From 40 to 50,000 bushels of wheat has been manufactured annually between March and January, and from 60 to 70,000 could be equal case be ground every winter season excluded, which of late years has been so mild that the interruption of the navigation has seldom been of long continuance.

The security and convenience of a sloop of any burthen lying so contiguous to the mill that the elevators discharge the cargo wherever the Miller wishes to deposit it, and the facility of loading the flour on board immediately from the Mill door, so materially diminishes labor and expedites business that one vessel will be found sufficient to serve the factory, and perform more than two ordinarily do in such employ.

Also, a Tract of 1000 acres of Land, situated about 60 chains from the above Mills, well covered with timber, on which is an excellent iron mine and through which the Buttermill-Fall stream passes, affording several situations for erecting of iron works.

The estate will be sold on reasonable terms, and taken at a fair valuation for one half of the amount if applied to.

For terms apply to Charles Gault, in the city of Baltimore; or to David Lydgate, merchant, New-York; by whom an indubitable title will be given. November 24. eo3m
