An Intalliable Cure for the Tooth Ache I know that various opinions exist concerning my adverting the price of curing the Tooth Ache—some say I am joking with the public, others say if I had really discovered a cure for that tormenting malady I ought for the sake of humanity, to make it public, and support the fact by all necessary and convinc-ing evidence: I have taken the advice, and

1st. Declare that I have given my newly discovered Essence of Susphur, I hink to near one hundred different persons who we e af flicted with the pain arising from hollow or decayed teeth, and I do not know of one instance where it has failed in producing a cure nor do I believe it ever will, if used according to my directions; for 1 am persuaded from a knowledge of its nature and effects, that this Essence has power to remove the pain of hollow or decayed teeth, to as great a certainty as water has power to extinguish

2d. I do know that it has no tendancy to destroy the Enamel of the Teeth, or injure the gums, but on the contrary believe it will prevent the scurvy in the gums, and preserve the teeth from decay.

3d It may be taken inwardly with safety;
I have swallowed it often, and will at any time drink it, to remove the scruples of the

4th. If ever the above mentioned Essence should fail in producing the desired effect, & the tooth or teeth for which it was taken to cure, should at any future period be extract-ed, all money received by me for such cures shall be returned and double the sum if re-

Personally appeared Francis Guy, before me the subscriber, one of the justices of the peace for the county aforesaid, and made oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, tthat the facts stated above relative to he tooth ache, is just and true to the best of his knowledge and belief. Sworn before JOHN AISQUITH.

Baltimore, 7th August, 1807. Certificate of Samuel Vincent, Esq. Justice of the Peace.

Some time in the Spring of the present year, I was very much trouble with the tooth I had thoughts of having it drawn : I by chance happened in conversation with Mr. Guy, to whom I related my intention He advised me to avoid extracting the tooth, as he presumed he had a specific, and requested me to make a trial; when he mentioned this to me, I recolled that I was told by some person that he had cured him of the tooth ache; I determined to give it a trial, and made use of his solutio, perhaps three or four times, and have not had any return of

About three months since a colored girl of mine was also afflicted with the same pain .-I sent her to Mr. Guy, who also furnished her with, I presume, the same solution, and after three or four washings, the pain was removed, and no complaint since

SAMUEL VINCENT Certificate of the Rev. Alexander M Caine.

I hereby certify that I was afflicted with the tooth ache from about the first of last March to the begining of June; at which period I was on my way to the Dentist, when I met with a friend, who undesrstanding where I was going, and vised me to go to Mr. Guy, and he would cure me With much persuasion I agreed to make the trial not be lieving, however, that I derive much advantage (if any) from it. But to my great sur-prize and satisfaction, I was perfectly cured, by applying his tooth water only twice, since which I have been as free of the tooth ache as I have been at any period of my life.
ALEXANDER M'CAINE.

Fell's-Point, August 7th, 1807.

Baltimore, August 7, 1807. Certificate of Eli He wit. This is to certify, that about four months past, I had a severe tooth ache, for three nights and days without intermission, and by washing my mouth with what Mr. Guy calls his Essence of Sulphur, I obtained immediate relief, and have experienced no return of pain from that time to the present. ELI HEWIT, Market street.

We the subscribers, having, in both our families, experienced the baucficial effects of Mr. Francis Guy's Essence of Sulphur, as a cure for the tooth ache, feel bound to declare, (judging from what we have witnessed) that we believe it possesses every virtue which the inventor ascribes to it, and that it is a sovereign remedy for this tormenting complaint.
