What, that he will not obey the orders of the 7 secretary of War, or the solemn guarantee under the treaty that "the citizens of the United States shall enjoy the free and unmolested use of that road?" And Mr. Dinsmore, neverthelass, will not suffer it-the die is cast. The citizens say they will remove the nuisance, Government does not [Enclosed in Gen. Jackson's letter to Hon. G.

W. Campbell.] Nashville, October 8, 1812. I certfy that I believe that the note I published in the Clarion as a Card from Cilas Diasmore, Esq. United States' Agent to the Choctaw nation, was wrote by him. I have seen his hand writing often, and I am very confident that the note is in the same hand

Having been long vexed with the arrogant assumptions of mr. Dinsmore, of powers that he did not, I believe, legally possess, I have often expressed in the public papers the indignation that his conduct excited in my mind. The continual detensions of the servants of gentlemen of this state travelling to and from Natchez, compelled the investigation of the authority Mr. Dinsmore, as Choctaw Agent had, to detain any person travelling the high- Composed of Montgomery and Prince Geor way between the Western States and Natchez; the result of which was an order from the War Department, (a copy transmitted to me by G. W. Campbell, Esq.) published by me last Spring. For awhile, the positive instructions! from, that I have ever heard, and travellers discontinued applying for passports. The Summer passed away, and as the Fail approaohed, the old practices were revived. A genhim because he had no passport, in the most aggravating, manner; of this wanton dereliction of duty, & lose not a moment in holding him up in the public papers to the just indignation of the people. To silence the clamers of the People, by shewing that he would do as he pleased, I conjecture, was the motive for his writing the note above alluded to. But, be the motive what it may, I feel confident that | Composed of Cecil and Harford Counties, he not only wrote the note, but that he has taken the servants of Mrs. Sibley from her, hether, as has heretofore been said, to gather La his crop or not, I pretend not to offer a conjecture.

I understand Mr. Dinsmore justifies his conduct, but of that I have nothing to say General James Robertson has just stept into my office, and says, he was informed by Mr. Dinsmore that he did write the letter to me, and that he would continue to act as he had done. T. G. Braford. Yours, with respect, Oct 3, 1312. General Jackson.
